3. Environmental Covenants.

(a) Compliance with Environmental Laws. Indemnitor covenants and agrees with Lender that it shall comply with all Environmental Laws. If at any time during the continuance of the Lien of the Security Instrument, an Environmental Event occurs, Indemnitor shall deliver prompt notice of the occurrence of such Environmental Event to Lender. Within thirty (30) days after Indemnitor has knowledge of the occurrence of an Environmental Event, Indemnitor shall deliver to Lender an Environmental Certificate explaining the Environmental Event in reasonable detail and setting forth the proposed remedial action, if any. Indemnitor shall promptly provide Lender with copies of all material notices which allege or identify any actual or potential violation or noncompliance received by or prepared by or for Indemnitor in connection with any Environmental Law. For purposes of this paragraph, the term " notice" shall mean any summons, citation, directive, order, claim, pleading, letter, application, filing, report, findings, declarations or other materials pertinent to compliance of the Property and Indemnitor with such Environmental Laws.

(b) Lead Based Paint, Asbestos and O& M Plans.

(i) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains exposed Lead Based Paint in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare a Lead Based Paint Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, exposed Lead Based Paint is identified as being present on any Individual Property in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared a Lead Based Paint Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, reasonably acceptable to Lender.

(ii) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains Asbestos, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare an Asbestos Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, potentially Asbestos containing material is identified as being present on any Individual Property, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared an Asbestos Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, acceptable to Lender.

(iii) If it has been, or if at any time hereafter it is, determined that any Individual Property contains Lead Based Paint or Asbestos, on or before thirty (30) days following the date of such determination, Indemnitor shall (or shall cause Mortgage Borrower to), at its sole cost and expense, develop and implement, and thereafter diligently and continuously carry out (or cause to be developed and implemented and thereafter diligently and continually to be carried out), an O&M Plan, and if an O&M Plan has been prepared prior to the date hereof, Indemnitor agrees to diligently carry out (or cause to be carried out) the provisions thereof, it being understood and agreed that compliance with the O&M Plan shall require or be deemed to require, without limitation, the proper preparation and maintenance of all records, papers and forms required under the Environmental Law.

(c) Environmental Reports. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Environmental Event with respect to the Property or any Event of Default, Lender shall have the right to have its consultants perform an environmental audit of the Property. Such audit shall be conducted by an environmental consultant chosen by Lender and may include a visual survey, a record review, an area reconnaissance assessing the presence of hazardous or toxic waste or substances, PCBs or storage tanks at the Property, an asbestos survey of the Property, which may include random sampling of the Improvements and air quality testing, and such further site assessments as Lender may reasonably require due to the results obtained from the foregoing. The reasonable cost of such studies shall be due and payable by Indemnitor to Lender upon demand. Lender shall not unreasonably interfere with, and Lender shall direct the environmental consultant to use its commercially reasonable efforts not to hinder, Indemnitor's or any other occupant's operations upon the Property when conducting such audit, sampling or inspections. By undertaking any of the measures identified in and pursuant to this Section 3(c), Lender shall not be deemed to be exercising any control over the operations of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor or the handling of any environmental matter or hazardous wastes or substances of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor for purposes of incurring or being subject to liability.

4. Indemnity Agreement. Indemnitor covenants and agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to protect, indemnify, save, defend (at trial and appellate levels and with attorneys, consultants and experts selected by Indemnitor and reasonably acceptable to Lender) and hold each Indemnified Party harmless against and from any and all Losses which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted or awarded against such Indemnified Party or any Individual Property with respect to events occurring prior to the date of termination of the Master Lease or Master Lessee's loss of possession or use thereof, if earlier, as to the applicable Individual Property arising out of any of the following, except, in any such case, to the extent arising out of any acts of Mortgage Borrower or any Indemnified Party: (A) the Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property or any surrounding areas, regardless of whether or not caused by or within the control of Indemnitor (except as otherwise provided herein) first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu thereof or otherwise; (B) the Release or Threat of Release of Hazardous Materials at any other location if the Hazardous Materials were generated, treated, stored, transported or disposed at, of or from any Individual Property by or on behalf of the Indemnitor; (C) the material violation of any Environmental Laws relating to or affecting any Individual Property or Indemnitor with respect to activities at any Individual Property, whether or not caused by or within the control of Indemnitor, first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu thereof or otherwise; (D) the failure of Indemnitor to comply fully with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; (E) the violation of any Environmental Laws in connection with other real property of Indemnitor which gives or may give rise to any rights whatsoever in any party with respect to any Individual Property by virtue of any Environmental Laws; or (F) the enforcement of this Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable costs of assessment, containment and/or removal of any and all Hazardous Materials from all or any portion of any Individual Property or any adjacent areas, (ii) the costs of any actions taken in response to a Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials, first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu thereof or otherwise, on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas to prevent or minimize such Release or Threat of Release so that it does not migrate or otherwise cause or threaten danger to present or future public health, safety, welfare or the environment, and (iii) costs incurred to comply with the Environmental Laws in connection with all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas for violations first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property. Indemnitor's obligations hereunder are separate and distinct from its obligations under the Master Lease and Master Lease Guaranty, applicable, and Lender's and the other Indemnified Parties' rights under this Agreement shall be in addition to all rights of Lender under the other Loan Documents. Indemnitor shall be liable for any and all Losses incurred by the Lender relating to the presence, Release, or Threatened Release of any Hazardous Materials on or about any Individual Property as a result of the acts or negligent omissions of Indemnitor, or any principal, officer, member or partner Indemnitor from and after the date hereof, subject to the limitations herein contained. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Indemnitor shall have no obligation to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Indemnified Party for Losses that result from Borrower's or any Indemnified Party's activities on any Individual Property or any such Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct or first occurring after the termination of the Master Lease as to the affected Individual Property or first occurring after Lender or its nominee acquires title to the affected Individual Property by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu thereof or otherwise, whichever is earlier; provided that Indemnitor shall remain liable hereunder for any Losses arising from any circumstance, condition, action or event occurring prior to the date of such termination of the Master Lease or acquisition of title, even to the extent the applicable Losses do not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such termination of the Master Lease or acquisition of title. If any such action or other proceeding shall be brought against Lender, upon written notice from Indemnitor to Lender (given reasonably promptly following Lender's notice to Indemnitor of such action or proceeding), Indemnitor shall be entitled to assume the defense thereof, at Indemnitor's expense, with counsel reasonably acceptable to Lender; provided, however, Lender may, at its own expense, retain separate counsel to participate in such defense, but such participation shall not be deemed to give Lender a right to control such defense, which right Indemnitor expressly retains. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel at Indemnitor's expense if, in the reasonable opinion of legal counsel, a conflict or potential conflict exists between the Indemnified Party and Indemnitor that would make such separate representation advisable.

5. Survival.

(a) This Agreement and the indemnities provided herein shall survive the repayment of the Loan and, subject to the terms of such indemnity, shall survive the exercise of any remedies under the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any remedy in the nature of foreclosure, and shall not merge with any assignment or conveyance given by Borrower to Lender in lieu of foreclosure.

(b) It is agreed and intended by Indemnitor and Lender that this Agreement and the indemnities provided herein may be assigned or otherwise transferred by Lender to its successors and assigns and to any subsequent purchaser of all or any portion of the Loan by, through or under Lender, without notice to Indemnitor and without any further consent of Indemnitor. To the extent consent of any such assignment or transfer is required by law, advance consent to any such assignment or transfer is hereby given by Indemnitor in order to maximize the extent and effect of the indemnity given hereby.

6. Miscellaneous; No Waiver.

(a) The liabilities of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by, and Indemnitor hereby consents to and agrees to be bound by, any amendment or modification of the provisions of the Loan Documents to or with Lender by Borrower or any Person who succeeds Borrower or any other Person as owner of the Collateral or any portion of any Individual Property. In addition, notwithstanding any terms of any of the Loan Documents to the contrary, the liability of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by: (i) any extensions of time for performance required by any of the Loan Documents; (ii) any sale, assignment or foreclosure of the Note or the Loan Documents or any sale or transfer of all or part of the Collateral or any Individual Property; (iii) any exculpatory provision in any of the Loan Documents limiting Lender's recourse to property encumbered by the Loan Documents or to any other security, or limiting Lender's rights to a deficiency judgment against Borrower; (iv) the accuracy or inaccuracy of the representations and warranties made by Borrower under any of the Loan Documents; (v) the release of Borrower or any other Person from performance or observance of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in the Loan Documents by operation of law, Lender's voluntary act, or otherwise; (vi) the release or substitution, in whole or in part, of any security for the Loan; or (vii) Lender's failure to record the Security Instrument or file any UCC-1 financing statements (or Lender's improper recording or filing of any thereof) or to otherwise perfect, protect, secure or insure any security interest or lien given as security for the Loan; and, in any such case, whether with or without notice to Indemnitor and with or without consideration.

(b) MARSHALLING. INDEMNITOR WAIVES ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF RIGHT TO CAUSE A MARSHALLING OF ITS OR BORROWER'S ASSETS OR TO CAUSE LENDER TO PROCEED AGAINST ANY OF THE SECURITY FOR THE LOAN BEFORE PROCEEDING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR TO PROCEED AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR BORROWER IN ANY PARTICULAR ORDER. INDEMNITOR AGREES THAT ANY PAYMENTS REQUIRED TO BE MADE HEREUNDER SHALL BECOME DUE AND PAYABLE TEN (10) DAYS AFTER DEMAND. INDEMNITOR EXPRESSLY WAIVES AND RELINQUISHES ALL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES (INCLUDING ANY RIGHTS OF SUBROGATION) ACCORDED BY APPLICABLE LAW TO INDEMNITOR.

(c) Joint and Several Obligation. If Indemnitor consists of more than one Person or entity, each shall be jointly and severally liable to perform the obligations of Indemnitor hereunder. Any one of Borrower or one or more parties constituting Indemnitor or any other party liable upon or in respect of this Agreement or the Loan may be released without affecting the liability of any party not so released.

(d) Further Assurances. Indemnitor shall execute and acknowledge (or cause to be executed and acknowledged) and deliver to Lender all documents, and take all actions, reasonably required by Lender from time to time to confirm the rights created or now or hereafter intended to be created under this Agreement, to protect and further the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

All notices, consents, approvals and requests required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing and shall be effective for all purposes if hand delivered or sent by (a) certified or registered United States mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, (b) expedited prepaid delivery service, either commercial or United States Postal Service, with proof of attempted delivery or (c) telecopier (with answer back acknowledged), addressed as follows (or at such other address and Person as shall be designated from time to time by any party hereto, as the case may be, in a written notice to the other parties hereto in the manner provided for in this Section 6(e)):

3. Environmental Covenants.

(a) Compliance with Environmental Laws. Subject to Mortgage Borrower's right to contest under Section 7.3 of the Mortgage Loan Agreement, Indemnitor covenants and agrees with Lender that it shall comply with all Environmental Laws. If at any time during the continuance of the Lien of the Security Instrument, an Environmental Event occurs, Indemnitor shall deliver (or cause Borrower to deliver) prompt notice of the occurrence of such Environmental Event to Lender. Within thirty (30) days after Indemnitor has knowledge of the occurrence of an Environmental Event, Indemnitor shall deliver (or cause Mortgage Borrower to deliver) to Lender an Environmental Certificate explaining the Environmental Event in reasonable detail and setting forth the proposed remedial action, if any. Indemnitor shall promptly provide (or cause Mortgage Borrower or the applicable Mezzanine Borrower to provide) Lender with copies of all material notices which allege or identify any actual or potential violation or noncompliance received by or prepared by or for Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor in connection with any Environmental Law. For purposes of this paragraph, the term " notice" shall mean any summons, citation, directive, order, claim, pleading, letter, application, filing, report, findings, declarations or other materials pertinent to compliance of the Property and Borrower with such Environmental Laws.

(b) Lead Based Paint, Asbestos and O& M Plans .

(i) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains exposed Lead Based Paint in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare a Lead Based Paint Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, exposed Lead Based Paint is identified as being present on any Individual Property in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared a Lead Based Paint Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, reasonably acceptable to Lender.

(ii) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains Asbestos, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare an Asbestos Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, potentially Asbestos containing material is identified as being present on any Individual Property, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared an Asbestos Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, acceptable to Lender.

(iii) If it has been, or if at any time hereafter it is, determined that any Individual Property contains Lead Based Paint or Asbestos, on or before thirty (30) days following the date of such determination, Indemnitor shall (or shall cause Mortgage Borrower to), at its sole cost and expense, develop and implement, and thereafter diligently and continuously carry out (or cause to be developed and implemented and thereafter diligently and continually to be carried out), an O&M Plan, and if an O&M Plan has been prepared prior to the date hereof, Indemnitor agrees to diligently carry out (or cause to be carried out) the provisions thereof, it being understood and agreed that compliance with the O&M Plan shall require or be deemed to require, without limitation, the proper preparation and maintenance of all records, papers and forms required under the Environmental Law.

(c) Environmental Reports . Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Environmental Event with respect to the Property or any Event of Default, Lender shall have the right to have its consultants perform an environmental audit of the Property. Such audit shall be conducted by an environmental consultant chosen by Lender and may include a visual survey, a record review, an area reconnaissance assessing the presence of hazardous or toxic waste or substances, PCBs or storage tanks at the Property, an asbestos survey of the Property, which may include random sampling of the Improvements and air quality testing, and such further site assessments as Lender may reasonably require due to the results obtained from the foregoing. The reasonable cost of such studies shall be due and payable by Indemnitor to Lender upon demand. Lender shall not unreasonably interfere with, and Lender shall direct the environmental consultant to use its commercially reasonable efforts not to hinder, Mortgage Borrower's, Master Lessee's, or any Tenant's or other occupant's operations upon the Property when conducting such audit, sampling or inspections. By undertaking any of the measures identified in and pursuant to this Section 3(c), Lender shall not be deemed to be exercising any control over the operations of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor or the handling of any environmental matter or hazardous wastes or substances of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor for purposes of incurring or being subject to liability.

4. Indemnity Agreement. Indemnitor covenants and agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to protect, indemnify, save, defend (at trial and appellate levels and with attorneys, consultants and experts selected by Indemnitor and reasonably acceptable to Lender) and hold each Indemnified Party harmless against and from any and all Losses which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted or awarded against such Indemnified Party or any Individual Property (except to the extent arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any Indemnified Party) and arising from or out of: (A) the Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property or any surrounding areas, regardless of whether or not caused by or within the control of Borrower or Indemnitor; (B) the Release or Threat of Release of Hazardous Materials at any other location if the Hazardous Materials were generated, treated, stored, transported or disposed of by or on behalf of Mortgage Borrower; (C) the material violation of any Environmental Laws relating to or affecting any Individual Property or Mortgage Borrower, whether or not caused by or within the control of Borrower or Indemnitor; (D) the failure of Indemnitor to comply fully with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; (E) the violation of any Environmental Laws in connection with other real property of Mortgage Borrower or Indemnitor which gives or may give rise to any rights whatsoever in any party with respect to any Individual Property by virtue of any Environmental Laws; or (F) the enforcement of this Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable costs of assessment, containment and/or removal of any and all Hazardous Materials from all or any portion of any Individual Property or any adjacent areas, (ii) the costs of any actions taken in response to a Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials, on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas to prevent or minimize such Release or Threat of Release so that it does not migrate or otherwise cause or threaten danger to present or future public health, safety, welfare or the environment, and (iii) costs incurred to comply with the Environmental Laws in connection with all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas for violations first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property. Indemnitor's obligations hereunder are separate and distinct from its obligations under the other Loan Documents, and Lender's and the other Indemnified Parties' rights under this Agreement shall be in addition to all rights of Lender under the other Loan Documents. Subject to the limitations herein contained, Indemnitor shall be liable for any and all Losses incurred by the Lender relating to the presence, Release, or Threatened Release of any Hazardous Materials on or about any Individual Property as a result of the acts or negligent omissions of Mortgage Borrower or Indemnitor, or any principal, officer, member or partner of Mortgage Borrower or Indemnitor. Indemnitor shall have no obligation to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Indemnified Party for Losses that result from such Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct on or with respect to any Individual Property. If any such action or other proceeding shall be brought against Lender, upon written notice from Indemnitor to Lender (given reasonably promptly following Lender's notice to Indemnitor of such action or proceeding), Indemnitor shall be entitled to assume the defense thereof, at Indemnitor's expense, with counsel reasonably acceptable to Lender; provided, however, Lender may, at its own expense, retain separate counsel to participate in such defense, but such participation shall not be deemed to give Lender a right to control such defense, which right Indemnitor expressly retains. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel at Indemnitor's expense if, in the reasonable opinion of legal counsel, a conflict or potential conflict exists between the Indemnified Party and Indemnitor that would make such separate representation advisable.

5. Limitation on Liability of Indemnitor.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of:

(i) any foreclosure (or a transfer in lieu of foreclosure) by a Mezzanine Lender that is not Borrower or an Affiliate of Borrower, of the direct Equity Interests in Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any other Mezzanine Borrower pledged as collateral for a Mezzanine Loan pursuant to the Mezzanine Loan Documents (any such foreclosure or transfer-in-lieu thereof, a " Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Indemnitor nor any Affiliate of Indemnitor (excluding, however, any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Indemnitor or any Affiliate of Indemnitor) shall hold any direct or indirect Equity Interests in, or Control, Borrower (Borrower in such case may be referred to as "Divested Borrower"); or

(ii) any foreclosure (whether judicially or non-judicially by private sale or trustee's sale) or deed in lieu of foreclosure or similar transfer under any Security Instrument (any such foreclosure, foreclosure sale or deed in lieu thereof, a " Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall hold any direct or indirect interest in, or the power to direct the management of, any Individual Property thereby foreclosed or transferred, excluding Indemnitor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property, a "Divested Property"); or

(iii) the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to an Individual Property (any such appointment, a "Receivership Event", and the period during which such Individual Property remains under a receivership, the " Receivership Period"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall have any possession of, or hold the power to direct the management of, such Individual Property that is subject to such Receivership Event during the Receivership Period, excluding Indemnitor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property subject to a Receivership Event, a " Receivership Property"), then, in such cases, Indemnitor shall not have any liability hereunder for any Losses arising solely from any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to any such Divested Borrower, Divested Property or Receivership Property (A) to the extent arising from: (1) any action taken by any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Indemnitor or any Affiliate of Indemnitor, (2) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to the Property or any Loan Party first occurring after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (3) any action taken by any successor owner of such Divested Property, (4) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Divested Property first occurring after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, (5) any action taken by any receiver for such Receivership Property during the Receivership Period, or (6) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Receivership Property first occurring after the occurrence of such Receivership Event and during the continuance of such Receivership Period; and (B) not caused by Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (excluding any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Indemnitor or any Affiliate of Indemnitor); provided that Indemnitor shall remain liable hereunder for any Losses to the extent arising from any circumstance, condition, action or event occurring (x) with respect such Divested Borrower, prior to the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (y) with respect to such Divested Property, prior to the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, and (z) with respect to such Receivership Property, prior to such Receivership Event or after the expiration of such Receivership Period, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense occurs, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is first discovered, during the Receivership Period.

(b) In the event that an "Event of Default" under a Mezzanine Loan shall exist with respect to a Mezzanine Loan and the related Mezzanine Lender is not Borrower or an Affiliate of Borrower and exercises, pursuant to the exercise of remedies under the Mezzanine Loan Documents, direct voting Control, by power of attorney or other exercise of voting power with respect to the Equity Interests of the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower pledged to such Mezzanine Lender as collateral for its Mezzanine Loan under the related Mezzanine Loan Documents, of such Equity Interests in the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower so pledged as collateral for such Mezzanine Loan (the " Direct Control Remedies", and such Mezzanine Lender exercising such Direct Control Remedies, the " Controlling Mezzanine Lender"), Indemnitor shall not have liability hereunder for the actions that such Controlling Mezzanine Lender, in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies, causes Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any Mezzanine Borrower to take ("Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions") if such Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions are taken without inducement, solicitation and/or consent from, or in collusion with, Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (other than Loan Parties to the extent Controlled by the Controlling Mezzanine Lender in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies).

6. Survival.

(a) This Agreement and the indemnities provided herein shall survive the repayment of the Loan and, subject to the terms of such indemnity, shall survive the exercise of any remedies under the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any remedy in the nature of foreclosure, and shall not merge with any assignment or conveyance given by Borrower to Lender in lieu of foreclosure.

(b) It is agreed and intended by Indemnitor and Lender that this Agreement and the indemnities provided herein may be assigned or otherwise transferred by Lender to its successors and assigns and to any subsequent purchaser of all or any portion of the Loan by, through or under Lender, without notice to Indemnitor and without any further consent of Indemnitor. To the extent consent of any such assignment or transfer is required by law, advance consent to any such assignment or transfer is hereby given by Indemnitor in order to maximize the extent and effect of the indemnity given hereby.

7. Miscellaneous; No Waiver.

(a) The liabilities of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by, and Indemnitor hereby consents to and agrees to be bound by, any amendment or modification of the provisions of the Loan Documents to or with Lender by Borrower or any Person who succeeds Borrower or any other Person as owner of any portion of the Collateral or any Individual Property. In addition, notwithstanding any terms of any of the Loan Documents to the contrary, the liability of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by: (i) any extensions of time for performance required by any of the Loan Documents; (ii) any sale, assignment or foreclosure of the Note or the Loan Documents or any sale or transfer of all or part of the Collateral or any Individual Property (except as provided in Section 5 hereof; (iii) any exculpatory provision in any of the Loan Documents limiting Lender's recourse to property encumbered by the Loan Documents or to any other security, or limiting Lender's rights to a deficiency judgment against Borrower; (iv) the accuracy or inaccuracy of the representations and warranties made by Borrower under any of the Loan Documents; (v) the release of Borrower or any other Person from performance or observance of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in the Loan Documents by operation of law, Lender's voluntary act, or otherwise; (vi) the release or substitution, in whole or in part, of any security for the Loan; or (vii) Lender's failure to record the Security Instrument or file any UCC-1 financing statements (or Lender's improper recording or filing of any thereof) or to otherwise perfect, protect, secure or insure any security interest or lien given as security for the Loan; and, in any such case, whether with or without notice to Indemnitor and with or without consideration.

(b) MARSHALLING. INDEMNITOR WAIVES ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF RIGHT TO CAUSE A MARSHALLING OF BORROWER'S ASSETS OR TO CAUSE LENDER TO PROCEED AGAINST ANY OF THE SECURITY FOR THE LOAN BEFORE PROCEEDING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR TO PROCEED AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR BORROWER IN ANY PARTICULAR ORDER. INDEMNITOR AGREES THAT ANY PAYMENTS REQUIRED TO BE MADE HEREUNDER SHALL BECOME DUE AND PAYABLE TEN (10) DAYS AFTER DEMAND. INDEMNITOR EXPRESSLY WAIVES AND RELINQUISHES ALL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES (INCLUDING ANY RIGHTS OF SUBROGATION) ACCORDED BY APPLICABLE LAW TO INDEMNITOR.

(c) Joint and Several Obligation. If Indemnitor consists of more than one Person or entity, each shall be jointly and severally liable to perform the obligations of Indemnitor hereunder. Any one of Borrower or one or more parties constituting Indemnitor or any other party liable upon or in respect of this Agreement or the Loan may be released without affecting the liability of any party not so released.

(d) Further Assurances. Indemnitor shall execute and acknowledge (or cause to be executed and acknowledged) and deliver to Lender all documents, and take all actions, reasonably required by Lender from time to time to confirm the rights created or now or hereafter intended to be created under this Agreement, to protect and further the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

2. Environmental Representations. Indemnitor hereby represents and warrants that except as set forth in the Environmental Reports, (a) Indemnitor has not engaged in or knowingly permitted any operations or activities upon, or any use or occupancy of the Property, or any portion thereof, for the purpose of or in any way involving the handling, manufacture, treatment, storage, use, generation, release, discharge, refining, dumping or disposal of any Hazardous Materials on, under, in or about the Property, or transported any Hazardous Materials to, from or across the Property, except in all cases in material compliance with Environmental Laws and only in the course of maintenance, renovation, construction, repair and other legitimate business operations at the Property; (b) to Indemnitor's knowledge, no tenant, occupant or user of the Property, or any other Person, has engaged in or permitted any operations or activities upon, or any use or occupancy of the Property, or any portion thereof, for the purpose of or in any material way involving the handling, manufacture, treatment, storage, use, generation, release, discharge, refining, dumping or disposal of any Hazardous Materials on, in or about the Property, or transported any Hazardous Materials to, from or across the Property, except in all cases in material compliance with Environmental Laws and only in the course of maintenance, renovation, construction, repair and other legitimate business operations at the Property; (c) no Hazardous Materials are presently constructed, deposited, stored, or otherwise located on, under, in or about the Property except in material compliance with Environmental Laws; (d) to Indemnitor's knowledge, no Hazardous Materials have migrated from the Property upon or beneath other properties which would reasonably be expected to result in material liability for Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor; and (e) to Indemnitor's knowledge, no Hazardous Materials have migrated or threaten to migrate from other properties upon, about or beneath the Property which would reasonably be expected to result in material liability for Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor.

3. Environmental Covenants.

(a) Compliance with Environmental Laws. Subject to Mortgage Borrower's right to contest under Section 7.3 of the Mortgage Loan Agreement, Indemnitor covenants and agrees with Lender that it shall comply with all Environmental Laws. If at any time during the continuance of the Lien of the Security Instrument, an Environmental Event occurs, Indemnitor shall deliver (or cause Mortgage Borrower to deliver) prompt notice of the occurrence of such Environmental Event to Lender. Within thirty (30) days after Indemnitor has knowledge of the occurrence of an Environmental Event, Indemnitor shall deliver (or cause Mortgage Borrower to deliver) to Lender an Environmental Certificate explaining the Environmental Event in reasonable detail and setting forth the proposed remedial action, if any. Indemnitor shall promptly provide (or cause Mortgage Borrower or the applicable Mezzanine Borrower to provide) Lender with copies of all material notices which allege or identify any actual or potential violation or noncompliance received by or prepared by or for Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor in connection with any Environmental Law. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "notice" shall mean any summons, citation, directive, order, claim, pleading, letter, application, filing, report, findings, declarations or other materials pertinent to compliance of the Property and Mortgage Borrower with such Environmental Laws.

(b) Lead Based Paint, Asbestos and O& M Plans .

(i) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains exposed Lead Based Paint in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare a Lead Based Paint Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, exposed Lead Based Paint is identified as being present on any Individual Property in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared a Lead Based Paint Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, reasonably acceptable to Lender.

(ii) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains Asbestos, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare an Asbestos Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, potentially Asbestos containing material is identified as being present on any Individual Property, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared an Asbestos Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, acceptable to Lender.

(iii) If it has been, or if at any time hereafter it is, determined that any Individual Property contains Lead Based Paint or Asbestos, on or before thirty (30) days following the date of such determination, Indemnitor shall (or shall cause Mortgage Borrower to), at its sole cost and expense, develop and implement, and thereafter diligently and continuously carry out (or cause to be developed and implemented and thereafter diligently and continually to be carried out), an O&M Plan, and if an O&M Plan has been prepared prior to the date hereof, Indemnitor agrees to diligently carry out (or cause to be carried out) the provisions thereof, it being understood and agreed that compliance with the O&M Plan shall require or be deemed to require, without limitation, the proper preparation and maintenance of all records, papers and forms required under the Environmental Law.

(c) Environmental Reports . Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Environmental Event with respect to the Property or any Event of Default, Lender shall have the right to have its consultants perform an environmental audit of the Property. Such audit shall be conducted by an environmental consultant chosen by Lender and may include a visual survey, a record review, an area reconnaissance assessing the presence of hazardous or toxic waste or substances, PCBs or storage tanks at the Property, an asbestos survey of the Property, which may include random sampling of the Improvements and air quality testing, and such further site assessments as Lender may reasonably require due to the results obtained from the foregoing. The reasonable cost of such studies shall be due and payable by Indemnitor to Lender upon demand. Lender shall not unreasonably interfere with, and Lender shall direct the environmental consultant to use its commercially reasonable efforts not to hinder, Mortgage Borrower's, Master Lessee's, or any Tenant's or other occupant's operations upon the Property when conducting such audit, sampling or inspections. By undertaking any of the measures identified in and pursuant to this Section 3(c), Lender shall not be deemed to be exercising any control over the operations of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor or the handling of any environmental matter or hazardous wastes or substances of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor for purposes of incurring or being subject to liability.

4. Indemnity Agreement. Indemnitor covenants and agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to protect, indemnify, save, defend (at trial and appellate levels and with attorneys, consultants and experts selected by Indemnitor and reasonably acceptable to Lender) and hold each Indemnified Party harmless against and from any and all Losses which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted or awarded against such Indemnified Party or any Individual Property (except to the extent arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any Indemnified Party) and arising from or out of the following, but, in all cases, only to the extent caused by the activities of Mortgage Borrower or any other Person (other than Master Tenant or Master Lease Guarantor) on any Individual Property: (A) the Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property or any surrounding areas; (B) the Release or Threat of Release of Hazardous Materials at any other location if the Hazardous Materials were generated, treated, stored, transported or disposed of by or on behalf of Mortgage Borrower; (C) the material violation of any Environmental Laws relating to or affecting any Individual Property or Mortgage Borrower, whether or not caused by or within the control of Indemnitor; (D) the failure of Indemnitor to comply fully with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; (E) the violation of any Environmental Laws in connection with other real property of Mortgage Borrower or Indemnitor which gives or may give rise to any rights whatsoever in any party with respect to any Individual Property by virtue of any Environmental Laws; or (F) the enforcement of this Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable costs of assessment, containment and/or removal of any and all Hazardous Materials from all or any portion of any Individual Property or any adjacent areas, (ii) the costs of any actions taken in response to a Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas to prevent or minimize such Release or Threat of Release so that it does not migrate or otherwise cause or threaten danger to present or future public health, safety, welfare or the environment, and (iii) costs incurred to comply with the Environmental Laws in connection with all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas for violations first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property. Indemnitor's obligations hereunder are separate and distinct from its obligations under the other Loan Documents, and Lender's and the other Indemnified Parties' rights under this Agreement shall be in addition to all rights of Lender under the other Loan Documents. Subject to the limitations herein contained, Indemnitor shall be liable for any and all Losses incurred by the Lender relating to the presence, Release, or Threatened Release of any Hazardous Materials on or about any Individual Property as a result of the acts or negligent omissions of Mortgage Borrower or Indemnitor, or any principal, officer, member or partner of Mortgage Borrower or Indemnitor, in its capacity as an indirect owner of direct or indirect beneficial interests in Mortgage Borrower, or any other Person including Borrower (other than Master Tenant or Master Lease Guarantor). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Indemnitor shall have no obligation to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Indemnified Party for Losses that result from any such Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct or the acts or omissions of Master Lessee or Master Lease Guarantor (or anyone claiming by, through or under Master Lessee) on or with respect to any Individual Property. If any such action or other proceeding shall be brought against Lender, upon written notice from Indemnitor to Lender (given reasonably promptly following Lender's notice to Indemnitor of such action or proceeding), Indemnitor shall be entitled to assume the defense thereof, at Indemnitor's expense, with counsel reasonably acceptable to Lender; provided, however, Lender may, at its own expense, retain separate counsel to participate in such defense, but such participation shall not be deemed to give Lender a right to control such defense, which right Indemnitor expressly retains. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel at Indemnitor's expense if, in the reasonable opinion of legal counsel, a conflict or potential conflict exists between the Indemnified Party and Indemnitor that would make such separate representation advisable.

5. Limitation on Liability of Indemnitor.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of:

(i) any foreclosure (or a transfer in lieu of foreclosure) by a Mezzanine Lender that is not Borrower or an Affiliate of Borrower, of the direct Equity Interests in Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any other Mezzanine Borrower pledged as collateral for a Mezzanine Loan pursuant to the Mezzanine Loan Documents (any such foreclosure or transfer-in-lieu thereof, a " Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Indemnitor nor any Affiliate of Indemnitor (excluding, however, any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Indemnitor or any Affiliate of Indemnitor) shall hold any direct or indirect Equity Interests in, or Control, Borrower (Borrower in such case may be referred to as "Divested Borrower"); or

(ii) any foreclosure (whether judicially or non-judicially by private sale or trustee's sale) or deed in lieu of foreclosure or similar transfer under any Security Instrument (any such foreclosure, foreclosure sale or deed in lieu thereof, a " Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall hold any direct or indirect interest in, or the power to direct the management of, any Individual Property thereby foreclosed or transferred, excluding Indemnitor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property, a "Divested Property"); or

(iii) the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to an Individual Property (any such appointment, a "Receivership Event", and the period during which such Individual Property remains under a receivership, the " Receivership Period"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall have any possession of, or hold the power to direct the management of, such Individual Property that is subject to such Receivership Event during the Receivership Period, excluding Indemnitor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property subject to a Receivership Event, a " Receivership Property"), then, in such cases, Indemnitor shall not have any liability hereunder for any Losses arising solely from any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to any such Divested Borrower, Divested Property or Receivership Property (A) to the extent arising from: (1) any action taken by any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Indemnitor or any Affiliate of Indemnitor, (2) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to the Property or any Loan Party first occurring after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (3) any action taken by any successor owner of such Divested Property, (4) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Divested Property first occurring after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, (5) any action taken by any receiver for such Receivership Property during the Receivership Period, or (6) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Receivership Property first occurring after the occurrence of such Receivership Event and during the continuance of such Receivership Period; and (B) not caused by Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (excluding any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Indemnitor or any Affiliate of Indemnitor); provided that Indemnitor shall remain liable hereunder for any Losses to the extent arising from any circumstance, condition, action or event occurring (x) with respect such Divested Borrower, prior to the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (y) with respect to such Divested Property, prior to the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, and (z) with respect to such Receivership Property, prior to such Receivership Event or after the expiration of such Receivership Period, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense occurs, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is first discovered, during the Receivership Period.

(b) In the event that an "Event of Default" under a Mezzanine Loan shall exist with respect to a Mezzanine Loan and the related Mezzanine Lender is not Borrower or an Affiliate of Borrower and exercises, pursuant to the exercise of remedies under the Mezzanine Loan Documents, direct voting Control, by power of attorney or other exercise of voting power with respect to the Equity Interests of the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower pledged to such Mezzanine Lender as collateral for its Mezzanine Loan under the related Mezzanine Loan Documents, of such Equity Interests in the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower so pledged as collateral for such Mezzanine Loan (the " Direct Control Remedies", and such Mezzanine Lender exercising such Direct Control Remedies, the " Controlling Mezzanine Lender"), Indemnitor shall not have liability hereunder for the actions that such Controlling Mezzanine Lender, in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies, causes Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any Mezzanine Borrower to take ("Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions") if such Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions are taken without inducement, solicitation and/or consent from, or in collusion with, Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (other than Loan Parties to the extent Controlled by the Controlling Mezzanine Lender in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies).

6. Survival.

(a) This Agreement and the indemnities provided herein shall survive the repayment of the Loan and, subject to the terms of such indemnity, shall survive the exercise of any remedies under the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any remedy in the nature of foreclosure, and shall not merge with any assignment or conveyance given by Borrower to Lender in lieu of foreclosure.

(b) It is agreed and intended by Indemnitor and Lender that this Agreement and the indemnities provided herein may be assigned or otherwise transferred by Lender to its successors and assigns and to any subsequent purchaser of all or any portion of the Loan by, through or under Lender, without notice to Indemnitor and without any further consent of Indemnitor. To the extent consent of any such assignment or transfer is required by law, advance consent to any such assignment or transfer is hereby given by Indemnitor in order to maximize the extent and effect of the indemnity given hereby.

7. Miscellaneous; No Waiver.

(a) The liabilities of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by, and Indemnitor hereby consents to and agrees to be bound by, any amendment or modification of the provisions of the Loan Documents to or with Lender by Borrower or any Person who succeeds Borrower or any other Person as owner of any portion of the Collateral or any Individual Property. In addition, notwithstanding any terms of any of the Loan Documents to the contrary, the liability of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by: (i) any extensions of time for performance required by any of the Loan Documents; (ii) any sale, assignment or foreclosure of the Note or the Loan Documents or any sale or transfer of all or part of the Collateral or any Individual Property (except as provided in Section 5 hereof); (iii) any exculpatory provision in any of the Loan Documents limiting Lender's recourse to property encumbered by the Loan Documents or to any other security, or limiting Lender's rights to a deficiency judgment against Borrower; (iv) the accuracy or inaccuracy of the representations and warranties made by Borrower under any of the Loan Documents; (v) the release of Borrower or any other Person from performance or observance of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in the Loan Documents by operation of law, Lender's voluntary act, or otherwise; (vi) the release or substitution, in whole or in part, of any security for the Loan; or (vii) Lender's failure to record the Security Instrument or file any UCC-1 financing statements (or Lender's improper recording or filing of any thereof) or to otherwise perfect, protect, secure or insure any security interest or lien given as security for the Loan; and, in any such case, whether with or without notice to Indemnitor and with or without consideration.

(b) MARSHALLING. INDEMNITOR WAIVES ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF RIGHT TO CAUSE A MARSHALLING OF BORROWER'S ASSETS OR TO CAUSE LENDER TO PROCEED AGAINST ANY OF THE SECURITY FOR THE LOAN BEFORE PROCEEDING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR TO PROCEED AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR BORROWER IN ANY PARTICULAR ORDER. INDEMNITOR AGREES THAT ANY PAYMENTS REQUIRED TO BE MADE HEREUNDER SHALL BECOME DUE AND PAYABLE TEN (10) DAYS AFTER DEMAND. INDEMNITOR EXPRESSLY WAIVES AND RELINQUISHES ALL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES (INCLUDING ANY RIGHTS OF SUBROGATION) ACCORDED BY APPLICABLE LAW TO INDEMNITOR.

(c) Joint and Several Obligation. If Indemnitor consists of more than one Person or entity, each shall be jointly and severally liable to perform the obligations of Indemnitor hereunder. Any one of Borrower or one or more parties constituting Indemnitor or any other party liable upon or in respect of this Agreement or the Loan may be released without affecting the liability of any party not so released.

(d) Further Assurances. Indemnitor shall execute and acknowledge (or cause to be executed and acknowledged) and deliver to Lender all documents, and take all actions, reasonably required by Lender from time to time to confirm the rights created or now or hereafter intended to be created under this Agreement, to protect and further the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

(e) Notices. All notices, consents, approvals and requests required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing and shall be effective for all purposes if hand delivered or sent by (a) certified or registered United States mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, (b) expedited prepaid delivery service, either commercial or United States Postal Service, with proof of attempted delivery or (c) telecopier (with answer back acknowledged), addressed as follows (or at such other address and Person as shall be designated from time to time by any party hereto, as the case may be, in a written notice to the other parties hereto in the manner provided for in this Section 7(e)):

3. Environmental Covenants.

(a) Compliance with Environmental Laws

(b) . Indemnitor covenants and agrees with Lender that it shall comply with all Environmental Laws. If at any time during the continuance of the Lien of the Security Instrument, an Environmental Event occurs, Indemnitor shall deliver prompt notice of the occurrence of such Environmental Event to Lender. Within thirty (30) days after Indemnitor has knowledge of the occurrence of an Environmental Event, Indemnitor shall deliver to Lender an Environmental Certificate explaining the Environmental Event in reasonable detail and setting forth the proposed remedial action, if any. Indemnitor shall promptly provide Lender with copies of all material notices which allege or identify any actual or potential violation or noncompliance received by or prepared by or for Indemnitor in connection with any Environmental Law. For purposes of this paragraph, the term " notice" shall mean any summons, citation, directive, order, claim, pleading, letter, application, filing, report, findings, declarations or other materials pertinent to compliance of the Property and Indemnitor with such Environmental Laws.

(b) Lead Based Paint, Asbestos and O& M Plans .

(i) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains exposed Lead Based Paint in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare a Lead Based Paint Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, exposed Lead Based Paint is identified as being present on any Individual Property in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared a Lead Based Paint Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, reasonably acceptable to Lender.

(ii) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains Asbestos, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare an Asbestos Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, potentially Asbestos containing material is identified as being present on any Individual Property, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared an Asbestos Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, acceptable to Lender.

(iii) If it has been, or if at any time hereafter it is, determined that any Individual Property contains Lead Based Paint or Asbestos, on or before thirty (30) days following the date of such determination, Indemnitor shall (or shall cause Mortgage Borrower to), at its sole cost and expense, develop and implement, and thereafter diligently and continuously carry out (or cause to be developed and implemented and thereafter diligently and continually to be carried out), an O&M Plan, and if an O&M Plan has been prepared prior to the date hereof, Indemnitor agrees to diligently carry out (or cause to be carried out) the provisions thereof, it being understood and agreed that compliance with the O&M Plan shall require or be deemed to require, without limitation, the proper preparation and maintenance of all records, papers and forms required under the Environmental Law.

(c) Environmental Reports. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Environmental Event with respect to the Property or any Event of Default, Lender shall have the right to have its consultants perform an environmental audit of the Property. Such audit shall be conducted by an environmental consultant chosen by Lender and may include a visual survey, a record review, an area reconnaissance assessing the presence of hazardous or toxic waste or substances, PCBs or storage tanks at the Property, an asbestos survey of the Property, which may include random sampling of the Improvements and air quality testing, and such further site assessments as Lender may reasonably require due to the results obtained from the foregoing. The reasonable cost of such studies shall be due and payable by Indemnitor to Lender upon demand. Lender shall not unreasonably interfere with, and Lender shall direct the environmental consultant to use its commercially reasonable efforts not to hinder, Indemnitor's or any other occupant's operations upon the Property when conducting such audit, sampling or inspections. By undertaking any of the measures identified in and pursuant to this Section 3(c), Lender shall not be deemed to be exercising any control over the operations of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor or the handling of any environmental matter or hazardous wastes or substances of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor for purposes of incurring or being subject to liability.

4. Indemnity Agreement. Indemnitor covenants and agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to protect, indemnify, save, defend (at trial and appellate levels and with attorneys, consultants and experts selected by Indemnitor and reasonably acceptable to Lender) and hold each Indemnified Party harmless against and from any and all Losses which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted or awarded against such Indemnified Party or any Individual Property with respect to events occurring prior to the date of termination of the Master Lease or Master Lessee's loss of possession or use thereof, if earlier, as to the applicable Individual Property arising out of any of the following, except, in any such case, to the extent arising out of any acts of Mortgage Borrower or any Indemnified Party: (A) the Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property or any surrounding areas, regardless of whether or not caused by or within the control of Indemnitor (except as otherwise provided herein) first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu thereof or otherwise; (B) the Release or Threat of Release of Hazardous Materials at any other location if the Hazardous Materials were generated, treated, stored, transported or disposed at, of or from any Individual Property by or on behalf of the Indemnitor; (C) the material violation of any Environmental Laws relating to or affecting any Individual Property or Indemnitor with respect to activities at any Individual Property, whether or not caused by or within the control of Indemnitor, first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu thereof or otherwise; (D) the failure of Indemnitor to comply fully with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; (E) the violation of any Environmental Laws in connection with other real property of Indemnitor which gives or may give rise to any rights whatsoever in any party with respect to any Individual Property by virtue of any Environmental Laws; or (F) the enforcement of this Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable costs of assessment, containment and/or removal of any and all Hazardous Materials from all or any portion of any Individual Property or any adjacent areas, (ii) the costs of any actions taken in response to a Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials, first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu thereof or otherwise, on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas to prevent or minimize such Release or Threat of Release so that it does not migrate or otherwise cause or threaten danger to present or future public health, safety, welfare or the environment, and (iii) costs incurred to comply with the Environmental Laws in connection with all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas for violations first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property. Indemnitor's obligations hereunder are separate and distinct from its obligations under the Master Lease and Master Lease Guaranty, applicable, and Lender's and the other Indemnified Parties' rights under this Agreement shall be in addition to all rights of Lender under the other Loan Documents. Indemnitor shall be liable for any and all Losses incurred by the Lender relating to the presence, Release, or Threatened Release of any Hazardous Materials on or about any Individual Property as a result of the acts or negligent omissions of Indemnitor, or any principal, officer, member or partner Indemnitor from and after the date hereof, subject to the limitations herein contained. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Indemnitor shall have no obligation to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Indemnified Party for Losses that result from Borrower's or any Indemnified Party's activities on any Individual Property or any such Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct or first occurring after the termination of the Master Lease as to the affected Individual Property or first occurring after Lender or its nominee acquires title to the affected Individual Property by foreclosure, conveyance in lieu thereof or otherwise, whichever is earlier; provided that Indemnitor shall remain liable hereunder for any Losses arising from any circumstance, condition, action or event occurring prior to the date of such termination of the Master Lease or acquisition of title, even to the extent the applicable Losses do not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such termination of the Master Lease or acquisition of title. If any such action or other proceeding shall be brought against Lender, upon written notice from Indemnitor to Lender (given reasonably promptly following Lender's notice to Indemnitor of such action or proceeding), Indemnitor shall be entitled to assume the defense thereof, at Indemnitor's expense, with counsel reasonably acceptable to Lender; provided, however, Lender may, at its own expense, retain separate counsel to participate in such defense, but such participation shall not be deemed to give Lender a right to control such defense, which right Indemnitor expressly retains. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel at Indemnitor's expense if, in the reasonable opinion of legal counsel, a conflict or potential conflict exists between the Indemnified Party and Indemnitor that would make such separate representation advisable.

5. Survival.

(a) This Agreement and the indemnities provided herein shall survive the repayment of the Loan and, subject to the terms of such indemnity, shall survive the exercise of any remedies under the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any remedy in the nature of foreclosure, and shall not merge with any assignment or conveyance given by Borrower to Lender in lieu of foreclosure.

(b) It is agreed and intended by Indemnitor and Lender that this Agreement and the indemnities provided herein may be assigned or otherwise transferred by Lender to its successors and assigns and to any subsequent purchaser of all or any portion of the Loan by, through or under Lender, without notice to Indemnitor and without any further consent of Indemnitor. To the extent consent of any such assignment or transfer is required by law, advance consent to any such assignment or transfer is hereby given by Indemnitor in order to maximize the extent and effect of the indemnity given hereby.

6. Miscellaneous; No Waiver.

(a) The liabilities of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by, and Indemnitor hereby consents to and agrees to be bound by, any amendment or modification of the provisions of the Loan Documents to or with Lender by Borrower or any Person who succeeds Borrower or any other Person as owner of the Collateral or any portion of any Individual Property. In addition, notwithstanding any terms of any of the Loan Documents to the contrary, the liability of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by: (i) any extensions of time for performance required by any of the Loan Documents; (ii) any sale, assignment or foreclosure of the Note or the Loan Documents or any sale or transfer of all or part of the Collateral or any Individual Property; (iii) any exculpatory provision in any of the Loan Documents limiting Lender's recourse to property encumbered by the Loan Documents or to any other security, or limiting Lender's rights to a deficiency judgment against Borrower; (iv) the accuracy or inaccuracy of the representations and warranties made by Borrower under any of the Loan Documents; (v) the release of Borrower or any other Person from performance or observance of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in the Loan Documents by operation of law, Lender's voluntary act, or otherwise; (vi) the release or substitution, in whole or in part, of any security for the Loan; or (vii) Lender's failure to record the Security Instrument or file any UCC-1 financing statements (or Lender's improper recording or filing of any thereof) or to otherwise perfect, protect, secure or insure any security interest or lien given as security for the Loan; and, in any such case, whether with or without notice to Indemnitor and with or without consideration.

(b) MARSHALLING. INDEMNITOR WAIVES ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF RIGHT TO CAUSE A MARSHALLING OF ITS OR BORROWER'S ASSETS OR TO CAUSE LENDER TO PROCEED AGAINST ANY OF THE SECURITY FOR THE LOAN BEFORE PROCEEDING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR TO PROCEED AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR BORROWER IN ANY PARTICULAR ORDER. INDEMNITOR AGREES THAT ANY PAYMENTS REQUIRED TO BE MADE HEREUNDER SHALL BECOME DUE AND PAYABLE TEN (10) DAYS AFTER DEMAND. INDEMNITOR EXPRESSLY WAIVES AND RELINQUISHES ALL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES (INCLUDING ANY RIGHTS OF SUBROGATION) ACCORDED BY APPLICABLE LAW TO INDEMNITOR.

(c) Joint and Several Obligation. If Indemnitor consists of more than one Person or entity, each shall be jointly and severally liable to perform the obligations of Indemnitor hereunder. Any one of Borrower or one or more parties constituting Indemnitor or any other party liable upon or in respect of this Agreement or the Loan may be released without affecting the liability of any party not so released.

(d) Further Assurances. Indemnitor shall execute and acknowledge (or cause to be executed and acknowledged) and deliver to Lender all documents, and take all actions, reasonably required by Lender from time to time to confirm the rights created or now or hereafter intended to be created under this Agreement, to protect and further the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

(e) Notices. All notices, consents, approvals and requests required or permitted hereunder shall be given in writing and shall be effective for all purposes if hand delivered or sent by (a) certified or registered United States mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, (b) expedited prepaid delivery service, either commercial or United States Postal Service, with proof of attempted delivery or (c) telecopier (with answer back acknowledged), addressed as follows (or at such other address and Person as shall be designated from time to time by any party hereto, as the case may be, in a written notice to the other parties hereto in the manner provided for in this Section 6(e)):

2. Environmental Representations. Indemnitor hereby represents and warrants that except as set forth in the Environmental Reports, (a) Indemnitor has not engaged in or knowingly permitted any operations or activities upon, or any use or occupancy of the Property, or any portion thereof, for the purpose of or in any way involving the handling, manufacture, treatment, storage, use, generation, release, discharge, refining, dumping or disposal of any Hazardous Materials on, under, in or about the Property, or transported any Hazardous Materials to, from or across the Property, except in all cases in material compliance with Environmental Laws and only in the course of maintenance, renovation, construction, repair and other legitimate business operations at the Property; (b) to Indemnitor's knowledge, no tenant, occupant or user of the Property, or any other Person, has engaged in or permitted any operations or activities upon, or any use or occupancy of the Property, or any portion thereof, for the purpose of or in any material way involving the handling, manufacture, treatment, storage, use, generation, release, discharge, refining, dumping or disposal of any Hazardous Materials on, in or about the Property, or transported any Hazardous Materials to, from or across the Property, except in all cases in material compliance with Environmental Laws and only in the course of maintenance, renovation, construction, repair and other legitimate business operations at the Property; (c) no Hazardous Materials are presently constructed, deposited, stored, or otherwise located on, under, in or about the Property except in material compliance with Environmental Laws; (d) to Indemnitor's knowledge, no Hazardous Materials have migrated from the Property upon or beneath other properties which would reasonably be expected to result in material liability for Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor; and (e) to Indemnitor's knowledge, no Hazardous Materials have migrated or threaten to migrate from other properties upon, about or beneath the Property which would reasonably be expected to result in material liability for Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor.

3. Environmental Covenants.

(a) Compliance with Environmental Laws. Subject to Mortgage Borrower's right to contest under Section 7.3 of the Mortgage Loan Agreement, Indemnitor covenants and agrees with Lender that it shall comply with all Environmental Laws. If at any time during the continuance of the Lien of the Security Instrument, an Environmental Event occurs, Indemnitor shall deliver (or cause Borrower to deliver) prompt notice of the occurrence of such Environmental Event to Lender. Within thirty (30) days after Indemnitor has knowledge of the occurrence of an Environmental Event, Indemnitor shall deliver (or cause Mortgage Borrower to deliver) to Lender an Environmental Certificate explaining the Environmental Event in reasonable detail and setting forth the proposed remedial action, if any. Indemnitor shall promptly provide (or cause Mortgage Borrower or the applicable Mezzanine Borrower to provide) Lender with copies of all material notices which allege or identify any actual or potential violation or noncompliance received by or prepared by or for Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor in connection with any Environmental Law. For purposes of this paragraph, the term " notice" shall mean any summons, citation, directive, order, claim, pleading, letter, application, filing, report, findings, declarations or other materials pertinent to compliance of the Property and Borrower with such Environmental Laws.

(b) Lead Based Paint, Asbestos and O& M Plans .

(i) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains exposed Lead Based Paint in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare a Lead Based Paint Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, exposed Lead Based Paint is identified as being present on any Individual Property in excess of de minimis quantities, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared a Lead Based Paint Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, reasonably acceptable to Lender.

(ii) If prior to the date hereof, it was determined that any Individual Property contains Asbestos, Indemnitor or Mortgage Borrower shall prepare an Asbestos Report if one does not already exist, or if at any time hereafter, potentially Asbestos containing material is identified as being present on any Individual Property, Indemnitor agrees, at its sole cost and expense and within twenty (20) days thereafter, to cause to be prepared an Asbestos Report prepared by an expert, and in form, scope and substance, acceptable to Lender.

(iii) If it has been, or if at any time hereafter it is, determined that any Individual Property contains Lead Based Paint or Asbestos, on or before thirty (30) days following the date of such determination, Indemnitor shall (or shall cause Mortgage Borrower to), at its sole cost and expense, develop and implement, and thereafter diligently and continuously carry out (or cause to be developed and implemented and thereafter diligently and continually to be carried out), an O&M Plan, and if an O&M Plan has been prepared prior to the date hereof, Indemnitor agrees to diligently carry out (or cause to be carried out) the provisions thereof, it being understood and agreed that compliance with the O&M Plan shall require or be deemed to require, without limitation, the proper preparation and maintenance of all records, papers and forms required under the Environmental Law.

(c) Environmental Reports . Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Environmental Event with respect to the Property or any Event of Default, Lender shall have the right to have its consultants perform an environmental audit of the Property. Such audit shall be conducted by an environmental consultant chosen by Lender and may include a visual survey, a record review, an area reconnaissance assessing the presence of hazardous or toxic waste or substances, PCBs or storage tanks at the Property, an asbestos survey of the Property, which may include random sampling of the Improvements and air quality testing, and such further site assessments as Lender may reasonably require due to the results obtained from the foregoing. The reasonable cost of such studies shall be due and payable by Indemnitor to Lender upon demand. Lender shall not unreasonably interfere with, and Lender shall direct the environmental consultant to use its commercially reasonable efforts not to hinder, Mortgage Borrower's, Master Lessee's, or any Tenant's or other occupant's operations upon the Property when conducting such audit, sampling or inspections. By undertaking any of the measures identified in and pursuant to this Section 3(c), Lender shall not be deemed to be exercising any control over the operations of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor or the handling of any environmental matter or hazardous wastes or substances of Mortgage Borrower, any Mezzanine Borrower, or Indemnitor for purposes of incurring or being subject to liability.

4. Indemnity Agreement. Indemnitor covenants and agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to protect, indemnify, save, defend (at trial and appellate levels and with attorneys, consultants and experts selected by Indemnitor and reasonably acceptable to Lender) and hold each Indemnified Party harmless against and from any and all Losses which may at any time be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted or awarded against such Indemnified Party or any Individual Property (except to the extent arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any Indemnified Party) and arising from or out of: (A) the Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property or any surrounding areas, regardless of whether or not caused by or within the control of Borrower or Indemnitor; (B) the Release or Threat of Release of Hazardous Materials at any other location if the Hazardous Materials were generated, treated, stored, transported or disposed of by or on behalf of Mortgage Borrower; (C) the material violation of any Environmental Laws relating to or affecting any Individual Property or Mortgage Borrower, whether or not caused by or within the control of Borrower or Indemnitor; (D) the failure of Indemnitor to comply fully with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; (E) the violation of any Environmental Laws in connection with other real property of Mortgage Borrower or Indemnitor which gives or may give rise to any rights whatsoever in any party with respect to any Individual Property by virtue of any Environmental Laws; or (F) the enforcement of this Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable costs of assessment, containment and/or removal of any and all Hazardous Materials from all or any portion of any Individual Property or any adjacent areas, (ii) the costs of any actions taken in response to a Release or Threat of Release of any Hazardous Materials, on, in, under or affecting all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas to prevent or minimize such Release or Threat of Release so that it does not migrate or otherwise cause or threaten danger to present or future public health, safety, welfare or the environment, and (iii) costs incurred to comply with the Environmental Laws in connection with all or any portion of any Individual Property, any adjacent areas, or any other areas for violations first occurring prior to Lender or its nominee acquiring title to the affected Individual Property. Indemnitor's obligations hereunder are separate and distinct from its obligations under the other Loan Documents, and Lender's and the other Indemnified Parties' rights under this Agreement shall be in addition to all rights of Lender under the other Loan Documents. Subject to the limitations herein contained, Indemnitor shall be liable for any and all Losses incurred by the Lender relating to the presence, Release, or Threatened Release of any Hazardous Materials on or about any Individual Property as a result of the acts or negligent omissions of Mortgage Borrower or Indemnitor, or any principal, officer, member or partner of Mortgage Borrower or Indemnitor. Indemnitor shall have no obligation to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Indemnified Party for Losses that result from such Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct on or with respect to any Individual Property. If any such action or other proceeding shall be brought against Lender, upon written notice from Indemnitor to Lender (given reasonably promptly following Lender's notice to Indemnitor of such action or proceeding), Indemnitor shall be entitled to assume the defense thereof, at Indemnitor's expense, with counsel reasonably acceptable to Lender; provided, however, Lender may, at its own expense, retain separate counsel to participate in such defense, but such participation shall not be deemed to give Lender a right to control such defense, which right Indemnitor expressly retains. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel at Indemnitor's expense if, in the reasonable opinion of legal counsel, a conflict or potential conflict exists between the Indemnified Party and Indemnitor that would make such separate representation advisable.

5. Limitation on Liability of Indemnitor.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of:

(i) any foreclosure (or a transfer in lieu of foreclosure) by a Mezzanine Lender that is not Borrower or an Affiliate of Borrower, of the direct Equity Interests in Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any other Mezzanine Borrower pledged as collateral for a Mezzanine Loan pursuant to the Mezzanine Loan Documents (any such foreclosure or transfer-in-lieu thereof, a " Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Indemnitor nor any Affiliate of Indemnitor (excluding, however, any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Indemnitor or any Affiliate of Indemnitor) shall hold any direct or indirect Equity Interests in, or Control, Borrower (Borrower in such case may be referred to as "Divested Borrower"); or

(ii) any foreclosure (whether judicially or non-judicially by private sale or trustee's sale) or deed in lieu of foreclosure or similar transfer under any Security Instrument (any such foreclosure, foreclosure sale or deed in lieu thereof, a " Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall hold any direct or indirect interest in, or the power to direct the management of, any Individual Property thereby foreclosed or transferred, excluding Indemnitor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property, a "Divested Property"); or

(iii) the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to an Individual Property (any such appointment, a "Receivership Event", and the period during which such Individual Property remains under a receivership, the " Receivership Period"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall have any possession of, or hold the power to direct the management of, such Individual Property that is subject to such Receivership Event during the Receivership Period, excluding Indemnitor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property subject to a Receivership Event, a " Receivership Property"), then, in such cases, Indemnitor shall not have any liability hereunder for any Losses arising solely from any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to any such Divested Borrower, Divested Property or Receivership Property (A) to the extent arising from: (1) any action taken by any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Indemnitor or any Affiliate of Indemnitor, (2) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to the Property or any Loan Party first occurring after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (3) any action taken by any successor owner of such Divested Property, (4) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Divested Property first occurring after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, (5) any action taken by any receiver for such Receivership Property during the Receivership Period, or (6) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Receivership Property first occurring after the occurrence of such Receivership Event and during the continuance of such Receivership Period; and (B) not caused by Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (excluding any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Indemnitor or any Affiliate of Indemnitor); provided that Indemnitor shall remain liable hereunder for any Losses to the extent arising from any circumstance, condition, action or event occurring (x) with respect such Divested Borrower, prior to the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (y) with respect to such Divested Property, prior to the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, and (z) with respect to such Receivership Property, prior to such Receivership Event or after the expiration of such Receivership Period, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense occurs, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is first discovered, during the Receivership Period.

(b) In the event that an "Event of Default" under a Mezzanine Loan shall exist with respect to a Mezzanine Loan and the related Mezzanine Lender is not Borrower or an Affiliate of Borrower and exercises, pursuant to the exercise of remedies under the Mezzanine Loan Documents, direct voting Control, by power of attorney or other exercise of voting power with respect to the Equity Interests of the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower pledged to such Mezzanine Lender as collateral for its Mezzanine Loan under the related Mezzanine Loan Documents, of such Equity Interests in the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower so pledged as collateral for such Mezzanine Loan (the " Direct Control Remedies", and such Mezzanine Lender exercising such Direct Control Remedies, the " Controlling Mezzanine Lender"), Indemnitor shall not have liability hereunder for the actions that such Controlling Mezzanine Lender, in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies, causes Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any Mezzanine Borrower to take ("Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions") if such Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions are taken without inducement, solicitation and/or consent from, or in collusion with, Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (other than Loan Parties to the extent Controlled by the Controlling Mezzanine Lender in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies).

6. Survival.

(a) This Agreement and the indemnities provided herein shall survive the repayment of the Loan and, subject to the terms of such indemnity, shall survive the exercise of any remedies under the Loan Documents, including, without limitation, any remedy in the nature of foreclosure, and shall not merge with any assignment or conveyance given by Borrower to Lender in lieu of foreclosure.

(b) It is agreed and intended by Indemnitor and Lender that this Agreement and the indemnities provided herein may be assigned or otherwise transferred by Lender to its successors and assigns and to any subsequent purchaser of all or any portion of the Loan by, through or under Lender, without notice to Indemnitor and without any further consent of Indemnitor. To the extent consent of any such assignment or transfer is required by law, advance consent to any such assignment or transfer is hereby given by Indemnitor in order to maximize the extent and effect of the indemnity given hereby.

7. Miscellaneous; No Waiver.

(a) The liabilities of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by, and Indemnitor hereby consents to and agrees to be bound by, any amendment or modification of the provisions of the Loan Documents to or with Lender by Borrower or any Person who succeeds Borrower or any other Person as owner of any portion of the Collateral or any Individual Property. In addition, notwithstanding any terms of any of the Loan Documents to the contrary, the liability of Indemnitor under this Agreement shall in no way be limited or impaired by: (i) any extensions of time for performance required by any of the Loan Documents; (ii) any sale, assignment or foreclosure of the Note or the Loan Documents or any sale or transfer of all or part of the Collateral or any Individual Property (except as provided in Section 5 hereof; (iii) any exculpatory provision in any of the Loan Documents limiting Lender's recourse to property encumbered by the Loan Documents or to any other security, or limiting Lender's rights to a deficiency judgment against Borrower; (iv) the accuracy or inaccuracy of the representations and warranties made by Borrower under any of the Loan Documents; (v) the release of Borrower or any other Person from performance or observance of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in the Loan Documents by operation of law, Lender's voluntary act, or otherwise; (vi) the release or substitution, in whole or in part, of any security for the Loan; or (vii) Lender's failure to record the Security Instrument or file any UCC-1 financing statements (or Lender's improper recording or filing of any thereof) or to otherwise perfect, protect, secure or insure any security interest or lien given as security for the Loan; and, in any such case, whether with or without notice to Indemnitor and with or without consideration.

(b) MARSHALLING. INDEMNITOR WAIVES ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF RIGHT TO CAUSE A MARSHALLING OF BORROWER'S ASSETS OR TO CAUSE LENDER TO PROCEED AGAINST ANY OF THE SECURITY FOR THE LOAN BEFORE PROCEEDING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR TO PROCEED AGAINST INDEMNITOR OR BORROWER IN ANY PARTICULAR ORDER. INDEMNITOR AGREES THAT ANY PAYMENTS REQUIRED TO BE MADE HEREUNDER SHALL BECOME DUE AND PAYABLE TEN (10) DAYS AFTER DEMAND. INDEMNITOR EXPRESSLY WAIVES AND RELINQUISHES ALL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES (INCLUDING ANY RIGHTS OF SUBROGATION) ACCORDED BY APPLICABLE LAW TO INDEMNITOR.

(c) Joint and Several Obligation. If Indemnitor consists of more than one Person or entity, each shall be jointly and severally liable to perform the obligations of Indemnitor hereunder. Any one of Borrower or one or more parties constituting Indemnitor or any other party liable upon or in respect of this Agreement or the Loan may be released without affecting the liability of any party not so released.

(d) Further Assurances. Indemnitor shall execute and acknowledge (or cause to be executed and acknowledged) and deliver to Lender all documents, and take all actions, reasonably required by Lender from time to time to confirm the rights created or now or hereafter intended to be created under this Agreement, to protect and further the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or otherwise carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

Exhibit 10.22

GUARANTY OF RECOURSE OBLIGATIONS

This GUARANTY OF RECOURSE OBLIGATIONS (this "Guaranty"), is made as of March 27, 2012, by OSI HOLDCO I, INC., a Delaware corporation, ("Guarantor"), having an office at 2202 North WestShore Blvd., Suite 470C, Tampa, Florida 33607, to and for the benefit of GERMAN AMERICAN CAPITAL CORPORATION, a Maryland corporation, having an address at 60 Wall Street, New York, New York 10005, and BANK OF AMERICA, N.A., a national banking association, having an address at Hearst Tower, 214 North Tryon Street, Charlotte, North Carolina 28255 (each, together with their respective successors and assigns, a " Co-Lender", and collectively, "Lender").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, New Private Restaurant Properties, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (" Borrower"), is the owner of a portfolio of restaurant properties more particularly described in the Security Instrument (as defined in the Loan Agreement (hereinafter defined));

WHEREAS, on the date hereof, in accordance with the terms of a Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of the date hereof (as amended, restated, replaced, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the " Loan Agreement"), between Lender, as lender, and Borrower, as borrower, Lender is making a loan to Borrower in the principal amount of $324,800,000 (the " Loan"), which Loan is evidenced by that certain Note in the aggregate principal amount of the Loan, dated as of the date hereof (as amended, restated, replaced, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the " Note"), made by Borrower in favor of Lender and secured by the Security Instrument (as defined in the Loan Agreement) and the other Loan Documents (as defined in the Loan Agreement);

WHEREAS, Guarantor is the owner of a direct or indirect beneficial interest in Borrower and will derive substantial benefit from the Loan;

WHEREAS, as a condition to making the Loan, Lender has required Guarantor to deliver this Guaranty for the benefit of Lender; and

WHEREAS, the forgoing recitals are intended to form an integral part of this Guaranty.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises, Ten Dollars ($10.00) paid in hand, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein shall have the meaning provided in the Loan Agreement.

2. Guaranty.

(a) Subject to Section 3 below, Guarantor hereby absolutely and unconditionally guarantees to Lender the prompt and unconditional payment of all obligations and liabilities of Borrower for which Borrower shall be personally liable pursuant to Section 18.1 of the Loan Agreement, when the same shall be due and payable, whether by lapse of time, by acceleration of maturity or otherwise (collectively, the " Guaranteed Obligations").

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Guaranty or in any of the other Loan Documents, Lender shall not be deemed to have waived any right which Lender may have under Section 506(a), 506(b), 1111(b) or any other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to file a claim for the full amount of the Obligations or to require that all collateral shall continue to secure all of the Obligations owing to Lender in accordance with the Loan Documents.

3. Limitation on Liability of Guarantor .

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of:

(i) any foreclosure (or a transfer in lieu of foreclosure) by a Mezzanine Lender that is not Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower, of the direct Equity Interests in Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any Mezzanine Borrower pledged as collateral for a Mezzanine Loan pursuant to the Mezzanine Loan Documents (any such foreclosure or transfer-in-lieu thereof, a " Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Guarantor nor any Affiliate of Guarantor (excluding, however, any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor) shall hold any direct or indirect Equity Interests in, or Control, Borrower (Borrower in such case may be referred to as "Divested Borrower"); or

(ii) any foreclosure (whether judicially or non-judicially by private sale or trustee's sale) or deed in lieu of foreclosure or similar transfer under any Security Instrument (any such foreclosure, foreclosure sale or deed in lieu thereof, a " Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall hold any direct or indirect interest in, or the power to direct the management of, any Individual Property thereby foreclosed or transferred, excluding Guarantor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property, a "Divested Property"); or

(iii) the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to an Individual Property (any such appointment, a "Receivership Event", and the period during which such Individual Property remains under a receivership, the " Receivership Period"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall have any possession of, or hold the power to direct the management of, such Individual Property that is subject to such Receivership Event during the Receivership Period, excluding Guarantor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property subject to a Receivership Event, a " Receivership Property"), then, in such cases, Guarantor shall not have any liability hereunder for any Guaranteed Obligations (A) to the extent arising from: (1) any action taken by any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor, (2) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to the Property or any Loan Party first occurring after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (3) any action taken by any successor owner of such Divested Property, (4) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Divested Property first occurring after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, (5) any action taken by any receiver for such Receivership Property during the Receivership Period, or (6) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Receivership Property first occurring after the occurrence of such Receivership Event and during the continuance of such Receivership Period; and (B) not caused by Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (excluding any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor); provided that Guarantor shall remain liable hereunder for any Guaranteed Obligations to the extent arising from any circumstance, condition, action or event occurring (x) with respect such Divested Borrower, prior to the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (y) with respect to such Divested Property, prior to the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, and (z) with respect to such Receivership Property, prior to such Receivership Event or after the expiration of such Receivership Period, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense occurs, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is first discovered, during such Receivership Period.

(b) In the event that an "Event of Default" under a Mezzanine Loan shall exist with respect to a Mezzanine Loan and the related Mezzanine Lender is not Borrower or an Affiliate of Borrower and exercises, pursuant to the exercise of remedies under the Mezzanine Loan Documents, direct voting Control, by power of attorney or other exercise of voting power with respect to the Equity Interests of the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower pledged to such Mezzanine Lender as collateral for its Mezzanine Loan under the related Mezzanine Loan Documents, of such Equity Interests in the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower so pledged as collateral for such Mezzanine Loan (the " Direct Control Remedies", and such Mezzanine Lender exercising such Direct Control Remedies, the " Controlling Mezzanine Lender"), Guarantor shall not have liability hereunder for the actions that such Controlling Mezzanine Lender, in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies, causes Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any Mezzanine Borrower to take ("Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions") if such Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions are taken without inducement, solicitation and/or consent from, or in collusion with, Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (other than Loan Parties to the extent Controlled by the Controlling Mezzanine Lender in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies).

4. Nature of Guaranty.

(a) Guaranty of Payment. This Guaranty is of payment and not merely a guaranty of collection and upon any failure of Borrower to pay the Guaranteed Obligations, Lender may, at its option, proceed directly and at once, without notice, against Guarantor to collect and recover the full amount of the liability to pay the Guaranteed Obligations hereunder or any portion thereof, without proceeding against Borrower or any other Person, or foreclosing upon, selling, or otherwise disposing of or collecting or applying against any of the collateral for the Loan.

(b) Continuing Guaranty. This is a continuing guaranty and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder are and shall be absolute under any and all circumstances, without regard to the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Security Instrument or any other Loan Document, a true copy of each of said documents Guarantor hereby acknowledges having received and reviewed. This Guaranty may not be revoked by Guarantor and shall continue to be effective with respect to any Guaranteed Obligations arising or created after any attempted revocation by Guarantor.

(c) Guaranteed Obligations Not Reduced by Offset. The Guaranteed Obligations and the liabilities and obligations of Guarantor to Lender hereunder shall not be reduced, discharged or released because or by reason of any existing or future offset, claim or defense of Borrower or any other party against Lender or against payment of the Guaranteed Obligations (other than the defense of payment or that the obligations are not as claimed), whether such offset, claim or defense arises in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations (or the transactions creating the Guaranteed Obligations) or otherwise.

(d) Payment by Guarantor. If all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations shall not be punctually paid when due, whether at demand, maturity, acceleration or otherwise, Guarantor shall, immediately upon demand by Lender and without presentment, protest, notice of protest, notice of non-payment, notice of intention to accelerate the maturity, notice of acceleration of the maturity or any other notice whatsoever, pay in lawful money of the United States of America, the amount due on the Guaranteed Obligations to Lender at Lender's address as set forth herein. Such demand(s) may be made at any time coincident with or after the time for payment of all or part of the Guaranteed Obligations and may be made from time to time with respect to the same or different items of Guaranteed Obligations. Such demand shall be deemed made, given and received in accordance with the notice provisions hereof.

(e) No Duty to Pursue Others. It shall not be necessary for Lender (and Guarantor hereby waives any rights which Guarantor may have to require Lender), in order to enforce the obligations of Guarantor hereunder, first to (i) institute suit or exhaust its remedies against Borrower or others liable on the Loan or the Guaranteed Obligations or any other Person, (ii) enforce Lender's rights against any collateral which shall ever have been given to secure the Loan, (iii) enforce Lender's rights against any other guarantors of the Guaranteed Obligations, (iv) join Borrower or any others liable on the Guaranteed Obligations in any action seeking to enforce this Guaranty, (v) exhaust any remedies available to Lender against any collateral which shall ever have been given to secure the Loan, or (vi) resort to any other means of obtaining payment of the Guaranteed Obligations. Lender shall not be required to mitigate damages or take any other action to reduce, collect or enforce the Guaranteed Obligations.

5. Subordination.

(a) Guarantor Claims Subordinated and Deferred. Any indebtedness and liabilities of Borrower to Guarantor now or hereafter existing, including without limitation, any rights to subrogation, contribution, indemnification or any other form of reimbursement which Guarantor may have as a result of any payment by Guarantor under this Guaranty, together with any interest thereon (collectively, the " Guarantor Claims"), shall be, and such Guarantor Claims are hereby, deferred, postponed and subordinated to the prior payment in full of the Obligations. Until payment in full of the Obligations, including interest accruing on the Note after the commencement of a proceeding by or against Borrower under the Bankruptcy Code which interest the parties agree shall remain a claim that is prior and superior to any claim of Guarantor notwithstanding any contrary practice, custom or ruling in cases under the Bankruptcy Code generally, Guarantor agrees not to accept any payment or satisfaction of any kind of indebtedness of Borrower to Guarantor and hereby assigns such indebtedness to Lender, including the right to file proofs of claim and to vote thereon in connection with any such proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code and the right to vote on any plan of reorganization.

(b) Claims in Bankruptcy. In the event of any receivership, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, debtor's relief or other insolvency proceeding involving Guarantor as a debtor, Lender shall have the right to prove its claim in any such proceeding so as to establish its rights hereunder and receive directly from the receiver, trustee or other court custodian dividends and payments which would otherwise be payable upon Guarantor Claims. Guarantor hereby assigns such dividends and payments to Lender. Should Lender receive, for application against the Guaranteed Obligations, any dividend or payment which is otherwise payable to Guarantor and which, as between Borrower and Guarantor, shall constitute a credit against the Guarantor Claims, then, upon payment to Lender in full of the Obligations and the Guaranteed Obligations, Guarantor shall become subrogated to the rights of Lender to the extent that such payments to Lender on the Guarantor Claims have contributed toward the liquidation of the Guaranteed Obligations, and such subrogation shall be with respect to that proportion of the Guaranteed Obligations which would have been unpaid if Lender had not received dividends or payments upon the Guarantor Claims.

(c) Payments Held in Trust. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Guaranty, in the event that Guarantor should receive any funds, payments, claims and/or distributions which are prohibited by this Guaranty, Guarantor agrees to hold in trust for Lender until the Loan is repaid in full an amount equal to the amount of all funds, payments, claims and/or distributions so received, and agrees that it shall have absolutely no dominion over the amount of such funds, payments, claims and/or distributions so received except to pay such funds, payments, claims and/or distributions promptly to Lender, and Guarantor covenants promptly to pay the same to Lender.

(d) Liens Subordinate. Guarantor agrees that any liens, security interests, judgment liens, charges or other encumbrances upon Borrower's assets securing payment of the Guarantor Claims shall be and remain inferior and subordinate to any liens, security interests, judgment liens, charges or other encumbrances upon Borrower's assets securing payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, regardless of whether such encumbrances in favor of Guarantor or Lender presently exist or are hereafter created or attach. Without the prior written consent of Lender, until the Loan is repaid in full, Guarantor shall not (i) exercise or enforce any creditor's rights it may have against Borrower, or (ii) foreclose, repossess, sequester or otherwise take steps or institute any action or proceedings (judicial or otherwise, including, without limitation, the commencement of, or the joinder in, any liquidation, bankruptcy, rearrangement, debtor's relief or insolvency proceeding) to enforce any liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, security interests, collateral rights, judgments or other encumbrances on the assets of Borrower held by Guarantor. The foregoing shall in no manner vitiate or amend, nor be deemed to vitiate or amend, any prohibition in the Loan Documents against Borrower granting liens or security interests in any of its assets to any Person other than Lender.

6. Expenses. In the event that Guarantor should breach or fail to timely perform any provisions of this Guaranty, Guarantor agrees that, promptly after notice or demand, Guarantor will reimburse Lender, to the extent that such reimbursement is not made by Borrower, for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Lender, including, without limitation, reasonable counsel fees and disbursements, incurred by Lender in connection with the collection of the Guaranteed Obligations or any portion thereof.

7. Waivers.

(a) Guarantor hereby waives notice of the acceptance hereof, presentment, demand for payment, protest, notice of protest, or any and all notice of non-payment, non-performance or non-observance, or other proof, or notice or demand with respect to this Guaranty.

(b) Subject to Section 3 above, Guarantor agrees that the validity of this Guaranty and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder shall in no way be terminated, affected or impaired by reason of:

(i) (A) the assertion by Lender of any rights or remedies which it may have under or with respect to any of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Security Instrument or any other Loan Documents against any Person obligated thereunder; (B) any failure to file or record any of such instruments or to take or perfect any security intended to be provided thereby; (C) the release or exchange of any property or interest covered by the Loan Agreement or the Security Instrument or any other collateral for the Loan, or the taking or accepting of any other security, collateral or guaranty, or other assurance of payment, for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations; (D) the failure of Lender or any other party to exercise diligence or reasonable care in the preservation, protection, enforcement, sale or other handling or treatment of all or any part of any collateral, property or security, including Lender's failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any such right or remedy or any right or remedy which Lender may have hereunder or in respect to this Guaranty; (E) the commencement of a case under the Bankruptcy Code by or against any Person obligated under the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Security Instrument or any other Loan Document; or (F) any payment made on the Guaranteed Obligations or any other indebtedness arising under the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Security Instrument or any other Loan Document, whether made by Borrower or Guarantor or any other Person, which is required to be refunded pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency law; it being understood that no payment so refunded shall be considered as a payment of any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations, nor shall it have the effect of reducing the liability of Guarantor hereunder; it being further understood, that if Borrower shall have taken advantage of, or be subject to the protection of, any provision in the Bankruptcy Code, the effect of which is to prevent or delay Lender from taking any remedial action against Borrower, including the exercise of any option Lender has to declare the Guaranteed Obligations due and payable on the happening of any Default or Event of Default under the terms of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Security Instrument or any other Loan Document, then the Guaranteed Obligations shall become due and payable and Lender may, as against Guarantor, declare the Guaranteed Obligations to be due and payable and enforce any or all of its rights and remedies against Guarantor provided for herein; or

(ii) (A) the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof exceeding the amount permitted by law, (B) the act of creating the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof being ultra vires, (C) the officers or representatives executing the Note, the Security Instrument, the Loan Agreement or the other Loan Documents or otherwise creating the Guaranteed Obligations acting in excess of their authority, (D) the Guaranteed Obligations violating applicable usury laws, (E) Borrower having valid defenses, claims or offsets (whether at law, in equity or by agreement) which render the Guaranteed Obligations wholly or partially uncollectible from Borrower (other than the defense of payment or that the obligations are not as claimed), (F) the creation, performance or repayment of the Guaranteed Obligations (or the execution, delivery and performance of any document or instrument representing part of the Guaranteed Obligations or executed in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations or given to secure the repayment of the Guaranteed Obligations) being illegal, uncollectible or unenforceable, or (G) the Note, the Security Instrument, the Loan Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents having been forged or otherwise being irregular or not genuine or authentic, it being agreed that Guarantor shall remain liable hereon regardless of whether Borrower or any other Person is found not liable on the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof for any reason (other than the defense of payment or that the obligations are not as claimed); or

(iii) any full or partial release of the liability of Borrower for the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof, or of any co-guarantors, or of any other Person now or hereafter liable, whether directly or indirectly, jointly, severally, or jointly and severally, to pay, perform, guarantee or assure the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, or any part thereof, it being recognized, acknowledged and agreed by Guarantor that Guarantor may be required to pay the Guaranteed Obligations in full without assistance or support from any other Person, and Guarantor has not been induced to enter into this Guaranty on the basis of a contemplation, belief, understanding or agreement that other Persons (including Borrower) will be liable to pay or perform the Guaranteed Obligations or that Lender will look to other Persons (including Borrower) to pay or perform the Guaranteed Obligations; or

(iv) the reorganization, merger or consolidation of Borrower or Guarantor into or with any other Person; or

(v) any other action taken or omitted to be taken with respect to the Loan Documents, the Guaranteed Obligations or the security and collateral therefor, whether or not such action or omission prejudices Guarantor or increases the likelihood that Guarantor will be required to pay the Guaranteed Obligations pursuant to the terms hereof, it being the unambiguous and unequivocal intention of Guarantor that Guarantor shall be obligated to pay the Guaranteed Obligations when due, notwithstanding any occurrence, circumstance, event, action or omission whatsoever, whether contemplated or uncontemplated, and whether or not otherwise or particularly described herein, which obligation shall be deemed satisfied only upon the full and final payment and satisfaction of the Guaranteed Obligations.

(c) This Guaranty shall remain and continue in full force and effect as to any modification, extension or renewal of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Security Instrument or any other Loan Document except as may be expressly set forth in the Loan Documents. Lender shall not be under a duty to protect, secure or insure any security or lien provided by the Loan Agreement or the Security Instrument or any other collateral, and Guarantor acknowledges that other indulgences or forbearance may be granted under any or all of such documents, all of which may be made, done or suffered without notice to, or further consent of, Guarantor.

(d) Guarantor hereby waives the pleading of any statute of limitations as a defense to the obligation hereunder.

8. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Benefit. Guarantor is an Affiliate of Borrower, is the owner of a direct or indirect interest in Borrower and has received, or will receive, direct or indirect benefit from the making of this Guaranty with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations.

(b) Familiarity and Reliance. Guarantor is familiar with, and has independently reviewed books and records regarding, the financial condition of Borrower and is familiar with the value of any and all collateral intended to be created as security for the payment of the Note or Guaranteed Obligations; however, Guarantor is not relying on such financial condition or the collateral as an inducement to enter into this Guaranty.

(c) No Representation By Lender. Neither Lender nor any other party has made any representation, warranty or statement to Guarantor in order to induce Guarantor to execute this Guaranty.

(d) Guarantor's Financial Condition. As of the date hereof, and after giving effect to this Guaranty and the contingent obligation evidenced hereby, Guarantor (i) is and will be solvent, (ii) has and will have assets which, fairly valued, exceed its obligations, liabilities (including contingent liabilities) and debts, and (iii) has and will have property and assets sufficient to satisfy and repay its obligations and liabilities, including the Guaranteed Obligations.

(e) Legality. The execution, delivery and performance by Guarantor of this Guaranty and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereunder do not and will not contravene or conflict with any law, statute or regulation whatsoever to which Guarantor is subject, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) under, or result in the breach of, any indenture, mortgage, charge, lien, contract, agreement or other instrument to which Guarantor is a party or which may be applicable to Guarantor. This Guaranty is a legal and binding obligation of Guarantor and is enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application relating to the enforcement of creditors' rights.

(f) Survival. All representations and warranties made by Guarantor herein shall survive the execution hereof.

9. Financial Covenants; Transfers.

(a) Financial and Transfer Covenants. Guarantor hereby covenants and agrees that:

(i) for any period of time during which the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are imposed upon Guarantor pursuant to Sections 8.1 through 8.7, inclusive, of the Loan Agreement (such sections, the "Indebtedness and Transfer Provisions"), Guarantor shall maintain a Net Worth of not less than the Minimum Net Worth, and promptly upon the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements being so imposed, Guarantor shall confirm in writing to Lender that Guarantor's obligations under this clause (i) have been triggered and are in full force and effect as ongoing covenants of Guarantor for so long as the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are so imposed on Guarantor;

(ii) unless and until the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are imposed upon Guarantor or the Qualifying Replacement Guarantor, as applicable, pursuant to Section 8.5 of the Loan Agreement, it shall not cause, suffer or permit any distribution or transfer of any of its assets to any Person, including its direct or indirect parent entities or their Affiliates unless as of the date of such distribution the Master Lease Guarantor Total Leverage Ratio is less than 3.50:1.00 (as certified by an Officer's Certificate and certificate of Guarantor provided to Lender, together with the related background financial statements and calculations in reasonable detail, delivered to Lender within five Business Days after such distribution or transfer); provided, however, that the foregoing restrictions shall not apply to the following distributions and transfers, which shall be expressly permitted pursuant to this Section 9(a)(ii):

(1) following a Qualifying IPO of an Upper Tier Entity (other than Guarantor), distributions of assets to such Upper Tier Entity for payment by such Upper Tier Entity of reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by such Upper Tier Entity in connection with consummating such Qualifying IPO and ongoing compliance by such Upper Tier Entity with federal and state securities laws and regulations, SEC rules and regulations and the Sarbanes–Oxley Act of 2002 (as amended from time to time and any successor statute thereto);

(2) distributions of assets to Holdings for payment by Holdings of its franchise taxes and for payment by Holdings of Income Taxes that are attributable to the income of Holdings to the extent such income is attributable to the operations of Holdings, Guarantor and/or its direct or indirect Subsidiaries (but not any Subsidiary of Holdings that is not also a Subsidiary of Guarantor);

(3) distributions of assets to a direct or indirect parent of Guarantor for payment of the operating expenses (including administrative, legal, accounting and similar expenses provided by third parties) incurred by such parent in the ordinary course of business to the extent such operating expenses are directly related to the ownership of the direct or indirect Equity Interests in Guarantor and/or to the operations of Guarantor and/or its direct or indirect Subsidiaries;

(4) transfers of assets to Guarantor's direct or indirect Subsidiaries; and

(5) distribution of the proceeds of the Guarantor Subsequent Intercompany Loans to its parent entity.

(iii) Guarantor shall continue to own, directly or indirectly, 100% of the Equity Interests in Master Lease Guarantor, unless such covenant is expressly terminated pursuant to the Indebtedness and Transfer Provisions as a result of the imposition of the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements;

(iv) Guarantor shall not incur any Debt other than the Permitted Debt applicable to Guarantor; and

(v) Guarantor shall otherwise comply with the Indebtedness and Transfer Provisions applicable to Guarantor.

(b) Financial Statements. Guarantor shall deliver to Lender:

(i) within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of Guarantor, a complete copy of Guarantor's audited annual financial statements certified by an Independent Accountant, prepared in accordance with GAAP and the requirements of Regulation AB, including statements of income and expense and cash flow and a balance sheet for Guarantor, together with a certificate of the chief financial officer of Guarantor (A) during any period for which the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are applicable to Guarantor, setting forth in reasonable detail Guarantor's Net Worth as of the end of such prior calendar year and based on such annual financial statements, and (B) certifying to the best of such chief financial officer's knowledge, that such annual financial statements fairly present the financial condition and results of the operations of Guarantor;

WHEREAS, as a condition to making the Loan, Lender has required Guarantor to deliver this Guaranty for the benefit of Lender; and

WHEREAS, the forgoing recitals are intended to form an integral part of this Guaranty.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises, Ten Dollars ($10.00) paid in hand, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein shall have the meaning provided in the Loan Agreement, including by reference, for terms not defined in the Loan Agreement, in the Mortgage Loan Agreement.

2. Guaranty.

(a) Subject to Section 3 below, Guarantor hereby absolutely and unconditionally guarantees to Lender the prompt and unconditional payment of all obligations and liabilities of Borrower for which Borrower shall be personally liable pursuant to Section 18.1 of the Loan Agreement, when the same shall be due and payable, whether by lapse of time, by acceleration of maturity or otherwise (collectively, the " Guaranteed Obligations").

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Guaranty or in any of the other Loan Documents, Lender shall not be deemed to have waived any right which Lender may have under Section 506(a), 506(b), 1111(b) or any other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to file a claim for the full amount of the Obligations or to require that all collateral shall continue to secure all of the Obligations owing to Lender in accordance with the Loan Documents.

3. Limitation on Liability of Guarantor.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of:

(i) any foreclosure (or a transfer in lieu of foreclosure) by a Mezzanine Lender that is not Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower, of the direct Equity Interests in Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any other Mezzanine Borrower pledged as collateral for a Mezzanine Loan pursuant to the Mezzanine Loan Documents (any such foreclosure or transfer-in-lieu thereof, a " Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Guarantor nor any Affiliate of Guarantor (excluding, however, any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor) shall hold any direct or indirect Equity Interests in, or Control, Borrower (Borrower in such case may be referred to as "Divested Borrower"); or

(ii) any foreclosure (whether judicially or non-judicially by private sale or trustee's sale) or deed in lieu of foreclosure or similar transfer under any Security Instrument (any such foreclosure, foreclosure sale or deed in lieu thereof, a " Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall hold any direct or indirect interest in, or the power to direct the management of, any Individual Property thereby foreclosed or transferred, excluding Guarantor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property, a "Divested Property"); or

(iii) the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to an Individual Property (any such appointment, a "Receivership Event", and the period during which such Individual Property remains under a receivership, the " Receivership Period"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall have any possession of, or hold the power to direct the management of, such Individual Property that is subject to such Receivership Event during the Receivership Period, excluding Guarantor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property subject to a Receivership Event, a " Receivership Property"), then, in such cases, Guarantor shall not have any liability hereunder for any Guaranteed Obligations (A) to the extent arising from: (1) any action taken by any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor, (2) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to the Property or any Loan Party first occurring after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (3) any action taken by any successor owner of such Divested Property, (4) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Divested Property first occurring after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, (5) any action taken by any receiver for such Receivership Property during the Receivership Period, or (6) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Receivership Property first occurring after the occurrence of such Receivership Event and during the continuance of such Receivership Period; and (B) not caused by Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (excluding any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor); provided that Guarantor shall remain liable hereunder for any Guaranteed Obligations to the extent arising from any circumstance, condition, action or event occurring (x) with respect such Divested Borrower, prior to the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (y) with respect to such Divested Property, prior to the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, and (z) with respect to such Receivership Property, prior to such Receivership Event or after the expiration of such Receivership Period, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense occurs, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is first discovered, during such Receivership Period.

(b) In the event that an "Event of Default" under a Mezzanine Loan shall exist with respect to a Mezzanine Loan and the related Mezzanine Lender is not Borrower or an Affiliate of Borrower and exercises, pursuant to the exercise of remedies under the Mezzanine Loan Documents, direct voting Control, by power of attorney or other exercise of voting power with respect to the Equity Interests of the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower pledged to such Mezzanine Lender as collateral for its Mezzanine Loan under the related Mezzanine Loan Documents, of such Equity Interests in the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower so pledged as collateral for such Mezzanine Loan (the " Direct Control Remedies", and such Mezzanine Lender exercising such Direct Control Remedies, the " Controlling Mezzanine Lender"), Guarantor shall not have liability hereunder for the actions that such Controlling Mezzanine Lender, in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies, causes Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any Mezzanine Borrower to take ("Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions") if such Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions are taken without inducement, solicitation and/or consent from, or in collusion with, Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (other than Loan Parties to the extent Controlled by the Controlling Mezzanine Lender in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies).

4. Nature of Guaranty.

(a) Guaranty of Payment. This Guaranty is of payment and not merely a guaranty of collection and upon any failure of Borrower to pay the Guaranteed Obligations, Lender may, at its option, proceed directly and at once, without notice, against Guarantor to collect and recover the full amount of the liability to pay the Guaranteed Obligations hereunder or any portion thereof, without proceeding against Borrower or any other Person, or foreclosing upon, selling, or otherwise disposing of or collecting or applying against any of the collateral for the Loan.

(b) Continuing Guaranty. This is a continuing guaranty and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder are and shall be absolute under any and all circumstances, without regard to the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document, a true copy of each of said documents Guarantor hereby acknowledges having received and reviewed. This Guaranty may not be revoked by Guarantor and shall continue to be effective with respect to any Guaranteed Obligations arising or created after any attempted revocation by Guarantor.

(c) Guaranteed Obligations Not Reduced by Offset. The Guaranteed Obligations and the liabilities and obligations of Guarantor to Lender hereunder shall not be reduced, discharged or released because or by reason of any existing or future offset, claim or defense of Borrower or any other party against Lender or against payment of the Guaranteed Obligations (other than the defense of payment or that the obligations are not as claimed), whether such offset, claim or defense arises in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations (or the transactions creating the Guaranteed Obligations) or otherwise.

(d) Payment by Guarantor. If all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations shall not be punctually paid when due, whether at demand, maturity, acceleration or otherwise, Guarantor shall, immediately upon demand by Lender and without presentment, protest, notice of protest, notice of non-payment, notice of intention to accelerate the maturity, notice of acceleration of the maturity or any other notice whatsoever, pay in lawful money of the United States of America, the amount due on the Guaranteed Obligations to Lender at Lender's address as set forth herein. Such demand(s) may be made at any time coincident with or after the time for payment of all or part of the Guaranteed Obligations and may be made from time to time with respect to the same or different items of Guaranteed Obligations. Such demand shall be deemed made, given and received in accordance with the notice provisions hereof.

(e) No Duty to Pursue Others. It shall not be necessary for Lender (and Guarantor hereby waives any rights which Guarantor may have to require Lender), in order to enforce the obligations of Guarantor hereunder, first to (i) institute suit or exhaust its remedies against Borrower or others liable on the Loan or the Guaranteed Obligations or any other Person, (ii) enforce Lender's rights against any collateral which shall ever have been given to secure the Loan, (iii) enforce Lender's rights against any other guarantors of the Guaranteed Obligations, (iv) join Borrower or any others liable on the Guaranteed Obligations in any action seeking to enforce this Guaranty, (v) exhaust any remedies available to Lender against any collateral which shall ever have been given to secure the Loan, or (vi) resort to any other means of obtaining payment of the Guaranteed Obligations. Lender shall not be required to mitigate damages or take any other action to reduce, collect or enforce the Guaranteed Obligations.

5. Subordination.

(a) Guarantor Claims Subordinated and Deferred. Any indebtedness and liabilities of Borrower to Guarantor now or hereafter existing, including without limitation, any rights to subrogation, contribution, indemnification or any other form of reimbursement which Guarantor may have as a result of any payment by Guarantor under this Guaranty, together with any interest thereon (collectively, the "Guarantor Claims"), shall be, and such Guarantor Claims are hereby, deferred, postponed and subordinated to the prior payment in full of the Obligations. Until payment in full of the Obligations, including interest accruing on the Note after the commencement of a proceeding by or against Borrower under the Bankruptcy Code which interest the parties agree shall remain a claim that is prior and superior to any claim of Guarantor notwithstanding any contrary practice, custom or ruling in cases under the Bankruptcy Code generally, Guarantor agrees not to accept any payment or satisfaction of any kind of indebtedness of Borrower to Guarantor and hereby assigns such indebtedness to Lender, including the right to file proofs of claim and to vote thereon in connection with any such proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code and the right to vote on any plan of reorganization.

(b) Claims in Bankruptcy. In the event of any receivership, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, debtor's relief or other insolvency proceeding involving Guarantor as a debtor, Lender shall have the right to prove its claim in any such proceeding so as to establish its rights hereunder and receive directly from the receiver, trustee or other court custodian dividends and payments which would otherwise be payable upon Guarantor Claims. Guarantor hereby assigns such dividends and payments to Lender. Should Lender receive, for application against the Guaranteed Obligations, any dividend or payment which is otherwise payable to Guarantor and which, as between Borrower and Guarantor, shall constitute a credit against the Guarantor Claims, then, upon payment to Lender in full of the Obligations and the Guaranteed Obligations, Guarantor shall become subrogated to the rights of Lender to the extent that such payments to Lender on the Guarantor Claims have contributed toward the liquidation of the Guaranteed Obligations, and such subrogation shall be with respect to that proportion of the Guaranteed Obligations which would have been unpaid if Lender had not received dividends or payments upon the Guarantor Claims.

(c) Payments Held in Trust. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Guaranty, in the event that Guarantor should receive any funds, payments, claims and/or distributions which are prohibited by this Guaranty, Guarantor agrees to hold in trust for Lender until the Loan is repaid in full an amount equal to the amount of all funds, payments, claims and/or distributions so received, and agrees that it shall have absolutely no dominion over the amount of such funds, payments, claims and/or distributions so received except to pay such funds, payments, claims and/or distributions promptly to Lender, and Guarantor covenants promptly to pay the same to Lender.

(d) Liens Subordinate. Guarantor agrees that any liens, security interests, judgment liens, charges or other encumbrances upon Borrower's assets securing payment of the Guarantor Claims shall be and remain inferior and subordinate to any liens, security interests, judgment liens, charges or other encumbrances upon Borrower's assets securing payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, regardless of whether such encumbrances in favor of Guarantor or Lender presently exist or are hereafter created or attach. Without the prior written consent of Lender, until the Loan is repaid in full, Guarantor shall not (i) exercise or enforce any creditor's rights it may have against Borrower, or (ii) foreclose, repossess, sequester or otherwise take steps or institute any action or proceedings (judicial or otherwise, including, without limitation, the commencement of, or the joinder in, any liquidation, bankruptcy, rearrangement, debtor's relief or insolvency proceeding) to enforce any liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, security interests, collateral rights, judgments or other encumbrances on the assets of Borrower held by Guarantor. The foregoing shall in no manner vitiate or amend, nor be deemed to vitiate or amend, any prohibition in the Loan Documents against Borrower granting liens or security interests in any of its assets to any Person other than Lender.

6. Expenses. In the event that Guarantor should breach or fail to timely perform any provisions of this Guaranty, Guarantor agrees that, promptly after notice or demand, Guarantor will reimburse Lender, to the extent that such reimbursement is not made by Borrower, for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Lender, including, without limitation, reasonable counsel fees and disbursements, incurred by Lender in connection with the collection of the Guaranteed Obligations or any portion thereof.

7. Waivers.

(a) Guarantor hereby waives notice of the acceptance hereof, presentment, demand for payment, protest, notice of protest, or any and all notice of non-payment, non-performance or non-observance, or other proof, or notice or demand with respect to this Guaranty.

(b) Subject to Section 3 above, Guarantor agrees that the validity of this Guaranty and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder shall in no way be terminated, affected or impaired by reason of:

(i) (A) the assertion by Lender of any rights or remedies which it may have under or with respect to any of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Documents against any Person obligated thereunder; (B) any failure to file or record any of such instruments or to take or perfect any security intended to be provided thereby; (C) the release or exchange of any property or interest covered by the Loan Agreement or the Pledge or any other collateral for the Loan, or the taking or accepting of any other security, collateral or guaranty, or other assurance of payment, for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations; (D) the failure of Lender or any other party to exercise diligence or reasonable care in the preservation, protection, enforcement, sale or other handling or treatment of all or any part of any collateral, property or security, including Lender's failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any such right or remedy or any right or remedy which Lender may have hereunder or in respect to this Guaranty; (E) the commencement of a case under the Bankruptcy Code by or against any Person obligated under the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document; or (F) any payment made on the Guaranteed Obligations or any other indebtedness arising under the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document, whether made by Borrower or Guarantor or any other Person, which is required to be refunded pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency law;

it being understood that no payment so refunded shall be considered as a payment of any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations, nor shall it have the effect of reducing the liability of Guarantor hereunder; it being further understood, that if Borrower shall have taken advantage of, or be subject to the protection of, any provision in the Bankruptcy Code, the effect of which is to prevent or delay Lender from taking any remedial action against Borrower, including the exercise of any option Lender has to declare the Guaranteed Obligations due and payable on the happening of any Default or Event of Default under the terms of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document, then the Guaranteed Obligations shall become due and payable and Lender may, as against Guarantor, declare the Guaranteed Obligations to be due and payable and enforce any or all of its rights and remedies against Guarantor provided for herein; or

(ii) (A) the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof exceeding the amount permitted by law, (B) the act of creating the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof being ultra vires, (C) the officers or representatives executing the Note, the Pledge, the Loan Agreement or the other Loan Documents or otherwise creating the Guaranteed Obligations acting in excess of their authority, (D) the Guaranteed Obligations violating applicable usury laws, (E) Borrower having valid defenses, claims or offsets (whether at law, in equity or by agreement) which render the Guaranteed Obligations wholly or partially uncollectible from Borrower (other than the defense of payment or that the obligations are not as claimed), (F) the creation, performance or repayment of the Guaranteed Obligations (or the execution, delivery and performance of any document or instrument representing part of the Guaranteed Obligations or executed in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations or given to secure the repayment of the Guaranteed Obligations) being illegal, uncollectible or unenforceable, or (G) the Note, the Pledge, the Loan Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents having been forged or otherwise being irregular or not genuine or authentic, it being agreed that Guarantor shall remain liable hereon regardless of whether Borrower or any other Person is found not liable on the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof for any reason (other than the defense of payment or that the obligations are not as claimed); or

(iii) any full or partial release of the liability of Borrower for the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof, or of any co-guarantors, or of any other Person now or hereafter liable, whether directly or indirectly, jointly, severally, or jointly and severally, to pay, perform, guarantee or assure the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, or any part thereof, it being recognized, acknowledged and agreed by Guarantor that Guarantor may be required to pay the Guaranteed Obligations in full without assistance or support from any other Person, and Guarantor has not been induced to enter into this Guaranty on the basis of a contemplation, belief, understanding or agreement that other Persons (including Borrower) will be liable to pay or perform the Guaranteed Obligations or that Lender will look to other Persons (including Borrower) to pay or perform the Guaranteed Obligations; or

(iv) the reorganization, merger or consolidation of Borrower or Guarantor into or with any other Person; or

(v) any other action taken or omitted to be taken with respect to the Loan Documents, the Guaranteed Obligations or the security and collateral therefor, whether or not such action or omission prejudices Guarantor or increases the likelihood that Guarantor will be required to pay the Guaranteed Obligations pursuant to the terms hereof, it being the unambiguous and unequivocal intention of Guarantor that Guarantor shall be obligated to pay the Guaranteed Obligations when due, notwithstanding any occurrence, circumstance, event, action or omission whatsoever, whether contemplated or uncontemplated, and whether or not otherwise or particularly described herein, which obligation shall be deemed satisfied only upon the full and final payment and satisfaction of the Guaranteed Obligations.

(c) This Guaranty shall remain and continue in full force and effect as to any modification, extension or renewal of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document except as may be expressly set forth in the Loan Documents. Lender shall not be under a duty to protect, secure or insure any security or lien provided by the Loan Agreement or the Pledge or any other collateral, and Guarantor acknowledges that other indulgences or forbearance may be granted under any or all of such documents, all of which may be made, done or suffered without notice to, or further consent of, Guarantor.

(d) Guarantor hereby waives the pleading of any statute of limitations as a defense to the obligation hereunder.

8. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Benefit. Guarantor is an Affiliate of Borrower, is the owner of a direct or indirect interest in Borrower and has received, or will receive, direct or indirect benefit from the making of this Guaranty with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations.

(b) Familiarity and Reliance. Guarantor is familiar with, and has independently reviewed books and records regarding, the financial condition of Borrower and is familiar with the value of any and all collateral intended to be created as security for the payment of the Note or Guaranteed Obligations; however, Guarantor is not relying on such financial condition or the collateral as an inducement to enter into this Guaranty.

(c) No Representation By Lender. Neither Lender nor any other party has made any representation, warranty or statement to Guarantor in order to induce Guarantor to execute this Guaranty.

(d) Guarantor's Financial Condition. As of the date hereof, and after giving effect to this Guaranty and the contingent obligation evidenced hereby, Guarantor (i) is and will be solvent, (ii) has and will have assets which, fairly valued, exceed its obligations, liabilities (including contingent liabilities) and debts, and (iii) has and will have property and assets sufficient to satisfy and repay its obligations and liabilities, including the Guaranteed Obligations.

(e) Legality. The execution, delivery and performance by Guarantor of this Guaranty and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereunder do not and will not contravene or conflict with any law, statute or regulation whatsoever to which Guarantor is subject, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) under, or result in the breach of, any indenture, mortgage, charge, lien, contract, agreement or other instrument to which Guarantor is a party or which may be applicable to Guarantor. This Guaranty is a legal and binding obligation of Guarantor and is enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application relating to the enforcement of creditors' rights.

(f) Survival. All representations and warranties made by Guarantor herein shall survive the execution hereof.

9. Financial Covenants; Transfers.

(i) for any period of time during which the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are imposed upon Guarantor pursuant to Sections 8.1 through 8.7, inclusive, of the Loan Agreement (such sections, the "Indebtedness and Transfer Provisions"), Guarantor shall maintain a Net Worth of not less than the Minimum Net Worth, and promptly upon the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements being so imposed, Guarantor shall confirm in writing to Lender that Guarantor's obligations under this clause (i) have been triggered and are in full force and effect as ongoing covenants of Guarantor for so long as the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are so imposed on Guarantor;

(ii) unless and until the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are imposed upon Guarantor or the Qualifying Replacement Guarantor, as applicable, pursuant to Section 8.5 of the Loan Agreement, it shall not cause, suffer or permit any distribution or transfer of any of its assets to any Person, including its direct or indirect parent entities or their Affiliates unless as of the date of such distribution the Master Lease Guarantor Total Leverage Ratio is less than 3.50:1.00 (as certified by an Officer's Certificate and certificate of Guarantor provided to Lender, together with the related background financial statements and calculations in reasonable detail, delivered to Lender within five Business Days after such distribution or transfer); provided, however, that the foregoing restrictions shall not apply to the following distributions and transfers, which shall be expressly permitted pursuant to this Section 9(a)(ii):

(2) distributions of assets to Holdings for payment by Holdings of its franchise taxes and for payment by Holdings of Income Taxes that are attributable to the income of Holdings to the extent such income is attributable to the operations of Holdings, Guarantor and/or its direct or indirect Subsidiaries (but not any Subsidiary of Holdings that is not also a Subsidiary of Guarantor);

(3) distributions of assets to a direct or indirect parent of Guarantor for payment of the operating expenses (including administrative, legal, accounting and similar expenses provided by third parties) incurred by such parent in the ordinary course of business to the extent such operating expenses are directly related to the ownership of the direct or indirect Equity Interests in Guarantor and/or to the operations of Guarantor and/or its direct or indirect Subsidiaries;

(4) transfers of assets to Guarantor's direct or indirect Subsidiaries; and

(5) distribution of the proceeds of the Guarantor Subsequent Intercompany Loans to its parent entity.

(iii) Guarantor shall continue to own, directly or indirectly, 100% of the Equity Interests in Master Lease Guarantor, unless such covenant is expressly terminated pursuant to the Indebtedness and Transfer Provisions as a result of the imposition of the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements;

(iv) Guarantor shall not incur any Debt other than the Permitted Debt applicable to Guarantor; and

(v) Guarantor shall otherwise comply with the Indebtedness and Transfer Provisions applicable to Guarantor.

(b) Financial Statements. Guarantor shall deliver to Lender:

EACH OF THE LENDER AND GUARANTOR AGREES THAT ANY SUIT FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THIS GUARANTY MAY BE BROUGHT IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR ANY FEDERAL COURT SITTING THEREIN AND CONSENTS TO THE NONEXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF SUCH COURT AND THE SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY SUCH SUIT BEING MADE UPON GUARANTOR IN THE MANNER AND AT THE ADDRESS SPECIFIED FOR NOTICES IN THIS GUARANTY. WHEREAS, as a condition to making the Loan, Lender has required Guarantor to deliver this Guaranty for the benefit of Lender; and

WHEREAS, the forgoing recitals are intended to form an integral part of this Guaranty.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises, Ten Dollars ($10.00) paid in hand, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Definitions. Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein shall have the meaning provided in the Loan Agreement, including by reference, for terms not defined in the Loan Agreement, in the Mortgage Loan Agreement.

2. Guaranty.

(a) Subject to Section 3 below, Guarantor hereby absolutely and unconditionally guarantees to Lender the prompt and unconditional payment of all obligations and liabilities of Borrower for which Borrower shall be personally liable pursuant to Section 18.1 of the Loan Agreement, when the same shall be due and payable, whether by lapse of time, by acceleration of maturity or otherwise (collectively, the " Guaranteed Obligations").

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Guaranty or in any of the other Loan Documents, Lender shall not be deemed to have waived any right which Lender may have under Section 506(a), 506(b), 1111(b) or any other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to file a claim for the full amount of the Obligations or to require that all collateral shall continue to secure all of the Obligations owing to Lender in accordance with the Loan Documents.

3. Limitation on Liability of Guarantor.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of:

(i) any foreclosure (or a transfer in lieu of foreclosure) by a Mezzanine Lender that is not Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower, of the direct Equity Interests in Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any other Mezzanine Borrower pledged as collateral for a Mezzanine Loan pursuant to the Mezzanine Loan Documents (any such foreclosure or transfer-in-lieu thereof, a " Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Guarantor nor any Affiliate of Guarantor (excluding, however, any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor) shall hold any direct or indirect Equity Interests in, or Control, Borrower (Borrower in such case may be referred to as "Divested Borrower"); or

(ii) any foreclosure (whether judicially or non-judicially by private sale or trustee's sale) or deed in lieu of foreclosure or similar transfer under any Security Instrument (any such foreclosure, foreclosure sale or deed in lieu thereof, a " Foreclosure Divestment"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall hold any direct or indirect interest in, or the power to direct the management of, any Individual Property thereby foreclosed or transferred, excluding Guarantor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property, a "Divested Property"); or

(iii) the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction with respect to an Individual Property (any such appointment, a "Receivership Event", and the period during which such Individual Property remains under a receivership, the " Receivership Period"), with the result that neither Borrower nor any Affiliate of Borrower shall have any possession of, or hold the power to direct the management of, such Individual Property that is subject to such Receivership Event during the Receivership Period, excluding Guarantor's, HoldCo's or any Intermediate HoldCo Entity's direct or indirect Equity Interests in Master Lessee (each such Individual Property subject to a Receivership Event, a " Receivership Property"), then, in such cases, Guarantor shall not have any liability hereunder for any Guaranteed Obligations (A) to the extent arising from: (1) any action taken by any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor, (2) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to the Property or any Loan Party first occurring after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (3) any action taken by any successor owner of such Divested Property, (4) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Divested Property first occurring after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, (5) any action taken by any receiver for such Receivership Property during the Receivership Period, or (6) any circumstance, condition, action or event with respect to such Receivership Property first occurring after the occurrence of such Receivership Event and during the continuance of such Receivership Period; and (B) not caused by Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (excluding any Loan Party who as a result of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment is no longer Controlled by Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor); provided that Guarantor shall remain liable hereunder for any Guaranteed Obligations to the extent arising from any circumstance, condition, action or event occurring (x) with respect such Divested Borrower, prior to the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Mezzanine Foreclosure Divestment, (y) with respect to such Divested Property, prior to the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense does not occur, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is not discovered, until after the date of such Foreclosure Divestment, and (z) with respect to such Receivership Property, prior to such Receivership Event or after the expiration of such Receivership Period, even to the extent the applicable liability, loss, cost, or expense occurs, or the occurrence of the applicable circumstance, condition, action or event is first discovered, during such Receivership Period.

(b) In the event that an "Event of Default" under a Mezzanine Loan shall exist with respect to a Mezzanine Loan and the related Mezzanine Lender is not Borrower or an Affiliate of Borrower and exercises, pursuant to the exercise of remedies under the Mezzanine Loan Documents, direct voting Control, by power of attorney or other exercise of voting power with respect to the Equity Interests of the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower pledged to such Mezzanine Lender as collateral for its Mezzanine Loan under the related Mezzanine Loan Documents, of such Equity Interests in the applicable Borrower, SPE Component Entity or Mezzanine Borrower so pledged as collateral for such Mezzanine Loan (the " Direct Control Remedies", and such Mezzanine Lender exercising such Direct Control Remedies, the " Controlling Mezzanine Lender"), Guarantor shall not have liability hereunder for the actions that such Controlling Mezzanine Lender, in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies, causes Borrower, any SPE Component Entity or any Mezzanine Borrower to take ("Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions") if such Mezzanine Lender Controlled Actions are taken without inducement, solicitation and/or consent from, or in collusion with, Borrower or any Affiliate of Borrower (other than Loan Parties to the extent Controlled by the Controlling Mezzanine Lender in the exercise of its Direct Control Remedies).

4. Nature of Guaranty.

(a) Guaranty of Payment. This Guaranty is of payment and not merely a guaranty of collection and upon any failure of Borrower to pay the Guaranteed Obligations, Lender may, at its option, proceed directly and at once, without notice, against Guarantor to collect and recover the full amount of the liability to pay the Guaranteed Obligations hereunder or any portion thereof, without proceeding against Borrower or any other Person, or foreclosing upon, selling, or otherwise disposing of or collecting or applying against any of the collateral for the Loan.

(b) Continuing Guaranty. This is a continuing guaranty and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder are and shall be absolute under any and all circumstances, without regard to the validity, regularity or enforceability of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document, a true copy of each of said documents Guarantor hereby acknowledges having received and reviewed. This Guaranty may not be revoked by Guarantor and shall continue to be effective with respect to any Guaranteed Obligations arising or created after any attempted revocation by Guarantor.

(c) Guaranteed Obligations Not Reduced by Offset. The Guaranteed Obligations and the liabilities and obligations of Guarantor to Lender hereunder shall not be reduced, discharged or released because or by reason of any existing or future offset, claim or defense of Borrower or any other party against Lender or against payment of the Guaranteed Obligations (other than the defense of payment or that the obligations are not as claimed), whether such offset, claim or defense arises in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations (or the transactions creating the Guaranteed Obligations) or otherwise.

(d) Payment by Guarantor. If all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations shall not be punctually paid when due, whether at demand, maturity, acceleration or otherwise, Guarantor shall, immediately upon demand by Lender and without presentment, protest, notice of protest, notice of non-payment, notice of intention to accelerate the maturity, notice of acceleration of the maturity or any other notice whatsoever, pay in lawful money of the United States of America, the amount due on the Guaranteed Obligations to Lender at Lender's address as set forth herein. Such demand(s) may be made at any time coincident with or after the time for payment of all or part of the Guaranteed Obligations and may be made from time to time with respect to the same or different items of Guaranteed Obligations. Such demand shall be deemed made, given and received in accordance with the notice provisions hereof.

(e) No Duty to Pursue Others. It shall not be necessary for Lender (and Guarantor hereby waives any rights which Guarantor may have to require Lender), in order to enforce the obligations of Guarantor hereunder, first to (i) institute suit or exhaust its remedies against Borrower or others liable on the Loan or the Guaranteed Obligations or any other Person, (ii) enforce Lender's rights against any collateral which shall ever have been given to secure the Loan, (iii) enforce Lender's rights against any other guarantors of the Guaranteed Obligations, (iv) join Borrower or any others liable on the Guaranteed Obligations in any action seeking to enforce this Guaranty, (v) exhaust any remedies available to Lender against any collateral which shall ever have been given to secure the Loan, or (vi) resort to any other means of obtaining payment of the Guaranteed Obligations. Lender shall not be required to mitigate damages or take any other action to reduce, collect or enforce the Guaranteed Obligations.

5. Subordination.

(a) Guarantor Claims Subordinated and Deferred. Any indebtedness and liabilities of Borrower to Guarantor now or hereafter existing, including without limitation, any rights to subrogation, contribution, indemnification or any other form of reimbursement which Guarantor may have as a result of any payment by Guarantor under this Guaranty, together with any interest thereon (collectively, the "Guarantor Claims"), shall be, and such Guarantor Claims are hereby, deferred, postponed and subordinated to the prior payment in full of the Obligations. Until payment in full of the Obligations, including interest accruing on the Note after the commencement of a proceeding by or against Borrower under the Bankruptcy Code which interest the parties agree shall remain a claim that is prior and superior to any claim of Guarantor notwithstanding any contrary practice, custom or ruling in cases under the Bankruptcy Code generally, Guarantor agrees not to accept any payment or satisfaction of any kind of indebtedness of Borrower to Guarantor and hereby assigns such indebtedness to Lender, including the right to file proofs of claim and to vote thereon in connection with any such proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code and the right to vote on any plan of reorganization.

(b) Claims in Bankruptcy. In the event of any receivership, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, debtor's relief or other insolvency proceeding involving Guarantor as a debtor, Lender shall have the right to prove its claim in any such proceeding so as to establish its rights hereunder and receive directly from the receiver, trustee or other court custodian dividends and payments which would otherwise be payable upon Guarantor Claims. Guarantor hereby assigns such dividends and payments to Lender. Should Lender receive, for application against the Guaranteed Obligations, any dividend or payment which is otherwise payable to Guarantor and which, as between Borrower and Guarantor, shall constitute a credit against the Guarantor Claims, then, upon payment to Lender in full of the Obligations and the Guaranteed Obligations, Guarantor shall become subrogated to the rights of Lender to the extent that such payments to Lender on the Guarantor Claims have contributed toward the liquidation of the Guaranteed Obligations, and such subrogation shall be with respect to that proportion of the Guaranteed Obligations which would have been unpaid if Lender had not received dividends or payments upon the Guarantor Claims.

(c) Payments Held in Trust. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Guaranty, in the event that Guarantor should receive any funds, payments, claims and/or distributions which are prohibited by this Guaranty, Guarantor agrees to hold in trust for Lender until the Loan is repaid in full an amount equal to the amount of all funds, payments, claims and/or distributions so received, and agrees that it shall have absolutely no dominion over the amount of such funds, payments, claims and/or distributions so received except to pay such funds, payments, claims and/or distributions promptly to Lender, and Guarantor covenants promptly to pay the same to Lender.

(d) Liens Subordinate. Guarantor agrees that any liens, security interests, judgment liens, charges or other encumbrances upon Borrower's assets securing payment of the Guarantor Claims shall be and remain inferior and subordinate to any liens, security interests, judgment liens, charges or other encumbrances upon Borrower's assets securing payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, regardless of whether such encumbrances in favor of Guarantor or Lender presently exist or are hereafter created or attach. Without the prior written consent of Lender, until the Loan is repaid in full, Guarantor shall not (i) exercise or enforce any creditor's rights it may have against Borrower, or (ii) foreclose, repossess, sequester or otherwise take steps or institute any action or proceedings (judicial or otherwise, including, without limitation, the commencement of, or the joinder in, any liquidation, bankruptcy, rearrangement, debtor's relief or insolvency proceeding) to enforce any liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, security interests, collateral rights, judgments or other encumbrances on the assets of Borrower held by Guarantor. The foregoing shall in no manner vitiate or amend, nor be deemed to vitiate or amend, any prohibition in the Loan Documents against Borrower granting liens or security interests in any of its assets to any Person other than Lender.

6. Expenses. In the event that Guarantor should breach or fail to timely perform any provisions of this Guaranty, Guarantor agrees that, promptly after notice or demand, Guarantor will reimburse Lender, to the extent that such reimbursement is not made by Borrower, for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Lender, including, without limitation, reasonable counsel fees and disbursements, incurred by Lender in connection with the collection of the Guaranteed Obligations or any portion thereof.

7. Waivers.

(a) Guarantor hereby waives notice of the acceptance hereof, presentment, demand for payment, protest, notice of protest, or any and all notice of non-payment, non-performance or non-observance, or other proof, or notice or demand with respect to this Guaranty.

(b) Subject to Section 3 above, Guarantor agrees that the validity of this Guaranty and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder shall in no way be terminated, affected or impaired by reason of:

(i) (A) the assertion by Lender of any rights or remedies which it may have under or with respect to any of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Documents against any Person obligated thereunder; (B) any failure to file or record any of such instruments or to take or perfect any security intended to be provided thereby; (C) the release or exchange of any property or interest covered by the Loan Agreement or the Pledge or any other collateral for the Loan, or the taking or accepting of any other security, collateral or guaranty, or other assurance of payment, for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations; (D) the failure of Lender or any other party to exercise diligence or reasonable care in the preservation, protection, enforcement, sale or other handling or treatment of all or any part of any collateral, property or security, including Lender's failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any such right or remedy or any right or remedy which Lender may have hereunder or in respect to this Guaranty; (E) the commencement of a case under the Bankruptcy Code by or against any Person obligated under the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document; or (F) any payment made on the Guaranteed Obligations or any other indebtedness arising under the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document, whether made by Borrower or Guarantor or any other Person, which is required to be refunded pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency law;

it being understood that no payment so refunded shall be considered as a payment of any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations, nor shall it have the effect of reducing the liability of Guarantor hereunder; it being further understood, that if Borrower shall have taken advantage of, or be subject to the protection of, any provision in the Bankruptcy Code, the effect of which is to prevent or delay Lender from taking any remedial action against Borrower, including the exercise of any option Lender has to declare the Guaranteed Obligations due and payable on the happening of any Default or Event of Default under the terms of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document, then the Guaranteed Obligations shall become due and payable and Lender may, as against Guarantor, declare the Guaranteed Obligations to be due and payable and enforce any or all of its rights and remedies against Guarantor provided for herein; or

(ii) (A) the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof exceeding the amount permitted by law, (B) the act of creating the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof being ultra vires, (C) the officers or representatives executing the Note, the Pledge, the Loan Agreement or the other Loan Documents or otherwise creating the Guaranteed Obligations acting in excess of their authority, (D) the Guaranteed Obligations violating applicable usury laws, (E) Borrower having valid defenses, claims or offsets (whether at law, in equity or by agreement) which render the Guaranteed Obligations wholly or partially uncollectible from Borrower (other than the defense of payment or that the obligations are not as claimed), (F) the creation, performance or repayment of the Guaranteed Obligations (or the execution, delivery and performance of any document or instrument representing part of the Guaranteed Obligations or executed in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations or given to secure the repayment of the Guaranteed Obligations) being illegal, uncollectible or unenforceable, or (G) the Note, the Pledge, the Loan Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents having been forged or otherwise being irregular or not genuine or authentic, it being agreed that Guarantor shall remain liable hereon regardless of whether Borrower or any other Person is found not liable on the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof for any reason (other than the defense of payment or that the obligations are not as claimed); or

(iii) any full or partial release of the liability of Borrower for the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof, or of any co-guarantors, or of any other Person now or hereafter liable, whether directly or indirectly, jointly, severally, or jointly and severally, to pay, perform, guarantee or assure the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, or any part thereof, it being recognized, acknowledged and agreed by Guarantor that Guarantor may be required to pay the Guaranteed Obligations in full without assistance or support from any other Person, and Guarantor has not been induced to enter into this Guaranty on the basis of a contemplation, belief, understanding or agreement that other Persons (including Borrower) will be liable to pay or perform the Guaranteed Obligations or that Lender will look to other Persons (including Borrower) to pay or perform the Guaranteed Obligations; or

(iv) the reorganization, merger or consolidation of Borrower or Guarantor into or with any other Person; or

(v) any other action taken or omitted to be taken with respect to the Loan Documents, the Guaranteed Obligations or the security and collateral therefor, whether or not such action or omission prejudices Guarantor or increases the likelihood that Guarantor will be required to pay the Guaranteed Obligations pursuant to the terms hereof, it being the unambiguous and unequivocal intention of Guarantor that Guarantor shall be obligated to pay the Guaranteed Obligations when due, notwithstanding any occurrence, circumstance, event, action or omission whatsoever, whether contemplated or uncontemplated, and whether or not otherwise or particularly described herein, which obligation shall be deemed satisfied only upon the full and final payment and satisfaction of the Guaranteed Obligations.

(c) This Guaranty shall remain and continue in full force and effect as to any modification, extension or renewal of the Note, the Loan Agreement, the Pledge or any other Loan Document except as may be expressly set forth in the Loan Documents. Lender shall not be under a duty to protect, secure or insure any security or lien provided by the Loan Agreement or the Pledge or any other collateral, and Guarantor acknowledges that other indulgences or forbearance may be granted under any or all of such documents, all of which may be made, done or suffered without notice to, or further consent of, Guarantor.

(d) Guarantor hereby waives the pleading of any statute of limitations as a defense to the obligation hereunder.

8. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Benefit. Guarantor is an Affiliate of Borrower, is the owner of a direct or indirect interest in Borrower and has received, or will receive, direct or indirect benefit from the making of this Guaranty with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations.

(b) Familiarity and Reliance. Guarantor is familiar with, and has independently reviewed books and records regarding, the financial condition of Borrower and is familiar with the value of any and all collateral intended to be created as security for the payment of the Note or Guaranteed Obligations; however, Guarantor is not relying on such financial condition or the collateral as an inducement to enter into this Guaranty.

(c) No Representation By Lender. Neither Lender nor any other party has made any representation, warranty or statement to Guarantor in order to induce Guarantor to execute this Guaranty.

(d) Guarantor's Financial Condition. As of the date hereof, and after giving effect to this Guaranty and the contingent obligation evidenced hereby, Guarantor (i) is and will be solvent, (ii) has and will have assets which, fairly valued, exceed its obligations, liabilities (including contingent liabilities) and debts, and (iii) has and will have property and assets sufficient to satisfy and repay its obligations and liabilities, including the Guaranteed Obligations.

(e) Legality. The execution, delivery and performance by Guarantor of this Guaranty and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereunder do not and will not contravene or conflict with any law, statute or regulation whatsoever to which Guarantor is subject, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) under, or result in the breach of, any indenture, mortgage, charge, lien, contract, agreement or other instrument to which Guarantor is a party or which may be applicable to Guarantor. This Guaranty is a legal and binding obligation of Guarantor and is enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application relating to the enforcement of creditors' rights.

(f) Survival. All representations and warranties made by Guarantor herein shall survive the execution hereof.

9. Financial Covenants; Transfers.

(a) Financial and Transfer Covenants. Guarantor hereby covenants and agrees that:

(i) for any period of time during which the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are imposed upon Guarantor pursuant to Sections 8.1 through 8.7, inclusive, of the Loan Agreement (such sections, the "Indebtedness and Transfer Provisions"), Guarantor shall maintain a Net Worth of not less than the Minimum Net Worth, and promptly upon the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements being so imposed, Guarantor shall confirm in writing to Lender that Guarantor's obligations under this clause (i) have been triggered and are in full force and effect as ongoing covenants of Guarantor for so long as the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are so imposed on Guarantor;

(ii) unless and until the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are imposed upon Guarantor or the Qualifying Replacement Guarantor, as applicable, pursuant to Section 8.5 of the Loan Agreement, it shall not cause, suffer or permit any distribution or transfer of any of its assets to any Person, including its direct or indirect parent entities or their Affiliates unless as of the date of such distribution the Master Lease Guarantor Total Leverage Ratio is less than 3.50:1.00 (as certified by an Officer's Certificate and certificate of Guarantor provided to Lender, together with the related background financial statements and calculations in reasonable detail, delivered to Lender within five Business Days after such distribution or transfer); provided, however, that the foregoing restrictions shall not apply to the following distributions and transfers, which shall be expressly permitted pursuant to this Section 9(a)(ii):

(1) following a Qualifying IPO of an Upper Tier Entity (other than Guarantor), distributions of assets to such Upper Tier Entity for payment by such Upper Tier Entity of reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by such Upper Tier Entity in connection with consummating such Qualifying IPO and ongoing compliance by such Upper Tier Entity with federal and state securities laws and regulations, SEC rules and regulations and the Sarbanes–Oxley Act of 2002 (as amended from time to time and any successor statute thereto);

(2) distributions of assets to Holdings for payment by Holdings of its franchise taxes and for payment by Holdings of Income Taxes that are attributable to the income of Holdings to the extent such income is attributable to the operations of Holdings, Guarantor and/or its direct or indirect Subsidiaries (but not any Subsidiary of Holdings that is not also a Subsidiary of Guarantor);

(3) distributions of assets to a direct or indirect parent of Guarantor for payment of the operating expenses (including administrative, legal, accounting and similar expenses provided by third parties) incurred by such parent in the ordinary course of business to the extent such operating expenses are directly related to the ownership of the direct or indirect Equity Interests in Guarantor and/or to the operations of Guarantor and/or its direct or indirect Subsidiaries;

(4) transfers of assets to Guarantor's direct or indirect Subsidiaries; and

(5) distribution of the proceeds of the Guarantor Subsequent Intercompany Loans to its parent entity.

(iii) Guarantor shall continue to own, directly or indirectly, 100% of the Equity Interests in Master Lease Guarantor, unless such covenant is expressly terminated pursuant to the Indebtedness and Transfer Provisions as a result of the imposition of the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements;

(iv) Guarantor shall not incur any Debt other than the Permitted Debt applicable to Guarantor; and

(v) Guarantor shall otherwise comply with the Indebtedness and Transfer Provisions applicable to Guarantor.

(b) Financial Statements. Guarantor shall deliver to Lender:

(i) within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of Guarantor, a complete copy of Guarantor's audited annual financial statements certified by an Independent Accountant, prepared in accordance with GAAP and the requirements of Regulation AB, including statements of income and expense and cash flow and a balance sheet for Guarantor, together with a certificate of the chief financial officer of Guarantor (A) during any period for which the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are applicable to Guarantor, setting forth in reasonable detail Guarantor's Net Worth as of the end of such prior calendar year and based on such annual financial statements, and (B) certifying to the best of such chief financial officer's knowledge, that such annual financial statements fairly present the financial condition and results of the operations of Guarantor;

(ii) within 60 days after the end of each fiscal quarter of Guarantor other than the last quarter of each fiscal year, financial statements (including a balance sheet as of the end of such fiscal quarter and a statement of income and expense for such fiscal quarter) certified by the chief financial officer of Guarantor and in form, content, level of detail and scope reasonably satisfactory to Lender, together with a certificate of the chief financial officer of Guarantor (A) during any period for which the Guarantor Net Worth Requirements are applicable to Guarantor, setting forth in reasonable detail Guarantor's Net Worth as of the end of such prior calendar quarter and based on the foregoing quarterly financial statements, and (B) certifying to the best of such chief financial officer's knowledge, that such quarterly financial statements fairly present the financial condition and results of the operations of Guarantor in a manner consistent with GAAP and the requirements of Regulation AB; and

(iii) promptly after written request by Lender, in such manner and in such detail as may be reasonably requested by Lender, such reasonable additional information as may be reasonably requested with respect to Guarantor.

10. Miscellaneous.

(a) MARSHALLING. GUARANTOR WAIVES ANY RIGHT OR CLAIM OF RIGHT TO CAUSE A MARSHALLING OF BORROWER'S ASSETS OR TO CAUSE LENDER TO PROCEED AGAINST ANY OF THE SECURITY FOR THE LOAN BEFORE PROCEEDING UNDER THIS GUARANTY AGAINST BORROWER OR TO PROCEED AGAINST GUARANTOR IN ANY PARTICULAR ORDER. GUARANTOR AGREES THAT ANY PAYMENTS REQUIRED TO BE MADE HEREUNDER SHALL BECOME DUE AND PAYABLE FIFTEEN (15) DAYS AFTER WRITTEN DEMAND. (f) No Waiver. No delay on Lender's part in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Guaranty or any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver of any privilege, power or right hereunder.

(g) Successors and Assigns. This Guaranty shall be binding upon Guarantor and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of Lender and its successors and permitted assigns. (i) Counterparts. This Guaranty may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one binding Guaranty.

(j) Severability. The provisions of this Guaranty are severable, and if any one clause or provision hereof shall be held invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, then such invalidity or unenforceability shall affect only such clause or provision, or part thereof, and not any other clause or provision of this Guaranty.

(k) GOVERNING LAW; JURISDICTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS. THIS GUARANTY SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF, THE STATE OF NEW YORK. EACH OF THE LENDER AND GUARANTOR AGREES THAT ANY SUIT FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THIS GUARANTY MAY BE BROUGHT IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR ANY FEDERAL COURT SITTING THEREIN AND CONSENTS TO THE NONEXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF SUCH COURT AND THE SERVICE OF PROCESS IN ANY SUCH SUIT BEING MADE UPON GUARANTOR IN THE MANNER AND AT THE ADDRESS SPECIFIED FOR NOTICES IN THIS GUARANTY. EACH OF LENDER AND GUARANTOR HEREBY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION THAT IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE VENUE OF ANY SUCH SUIT OR ANY SUCH COURT OR THAT SUCH SUIT IS BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT COURT.

(l) JURY TRIAL WAIVER. EACH OF LENDER AND GUARANTOR AND ALL PERSONS CLAIMING BY, THROUGH OR UNDER IT, HEREBY EXPRESSLY, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY CLAIM, DEMAND, ACTION OR CAUSE OF ACTION (I) ARISING UNDER THIS GUARANTY, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE MODIFICATION THEREOF OR (II) IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH OR RELATED OR INCIDENTAL TO THE DEALINGS OF GUARANTOR OR LENDER WITH RESPECT TO THIS GUARANTY (AS NOW OR HEREAFTER MODIFIED) OR ANY OTHER INSTRUMENT, DOCUMENT OR AGREEMENT EXECUTED OR DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH, OR THE TRANSACTIONS RELATED HERETO OR THERETO, IN EACH CASE WHETHER SUCH CLAIM, DEMAND, ACTION OR CAUSE OF ACTION IS NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, AND WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR OTHERWISE; AND EACH OF LENDER AND GUARANTOR HEREBY AGREES AND CONSENTS THAT AN ORIGINAL COUNTERPART OR A COPY OF THIS SECTION MAY BE FILED WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE CONSENT HERETO TO THE WAIVER OF ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY. EACH OF LENDER AND GUARANTOR ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT HAS CONSULTED WITH LEGAL COUNSEL REGARDING THE MEANING OF THIS WAIVER AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THIS WAIVER IS AN ESSENTIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE MAKING OF THE LOAN. Guarantor hereby expressly and unconditionally waives, in connection with any suit, action or proceeding brought by Lender in connection with this Guaranty, any and every right it may have to (i) interpose any counterclaim therein (other than a counterclaim which can only be asserted in the suit, action or proceeding brought by Lender on this Guaranty and cannot be maintained in a separate action) and (ii) have any such suit, action or proceeding consolidated with any other or separate suit, action or proceeding.

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, by that certain Amended and Restated Master Lease Agreement (as the same may be further amended or modified from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof, the "Lease"), of even date herewith, between Master Lessor, as master lessor, and Master Lessee, as master lessee, Master Lessor has agreed to lease to Master Lessee the parcels of land listed and generally described on Schedule 2 as attached hereto (Schedule 1 being intentionally omitted) and more particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto (each of said Schedule 2 and said Exhibit A being hereby made a part hereof, provided that a counterpart original of this instrument may be recorded in the official records of any or all of the counties, parishes, or independent cities in which said parcels of land are located with incomplete versions of Exhibit A pursuant to Paragraph 30 hereof), in each case with all improvements located thereon (each an "Leased Property" and, collectively, the "Leased Properties");

WHEREAS, simultaneously with the execution and delivery hereof, Lender and Master Lessor are entering into that certain Loan and Security Agreement, of even date herewith (as the same may be amended, restated, replaced, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the " Loan Agreement"), pursuant to which Lender is making a loan to Master Lessor (the " Loan"), which Loan will be secured by, among other things, one or more instruments, each titled either "Mortgage", "Mortgage, Deed to Secure Debt, and/or Deed of Trust with Security Agreement, Financing Statement, Fixture Filing and Assignment of Leases, Subleases, Rents, and Security Deposits (Multistate Form)" or "Mortgage, Deed to Secure Debt, and/or Deed of Trust with Security Agreement, Financing Statement, Fixture Filing and Assignment of Master Lease, Subleases, Rents, and Security Deposits (Multistate Form)" and each of even date herewith, from Master Lessor to or for the benefit of Lender, collectively encumbering the Leased Properties (such instruments collectively, along with all amendments, renewals, increases, modifications, replacements, substitutions, extensions, spreaders and consolidations thereof and all re-advances thereunder and additions thereto, the "Security Instruments", each a "Security Instrument"); and

WHEREAS, Lender, Master Lessee and Master Lessor desire to confirm their understandings and agreements with respect to the Lease and the Security Instruments, as expressed herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, Lender, Master Lessee and Master Lessor hereby agree and covenant as follows:

1. Defined terms and rules of construction set forth in Paragraph 21 hereof shall apply to the interpretation of this Agreement. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Lease.

2. The Lease, and all of the terms, covenants, provisions and conditions thereof, along with any right of first refusal, right of first offer, option or any similar right with respect to the sale or purchase of the Leased Properties, or any portion thereof, is, shall be, and shall at all times remain and continue to be subject and subordinate in all respects to the liens, terms, covenants, provisions and conditions of the Security Instruments and to all advances and re-advances made thereunder and all sums secured thereby. This provision shall be self-operative but Master Lessee shall execute and deliver any additional instruments which Lender may reasonably require to effect such subordination.

3. A. So long as no default by Master Lessee in the payment of rent or other amounts due under the Lease, or in the performance or observance of any of the other terms, covenants, provisions or conditions of the Lease on Master Lessee's part to be performed or observed has occurred and has continued to exist for such period of time (after the giving of any notice required to be given under the Lease) as would entitle Master Lessor to terminate the Lease (hereinafter, an "Event of Default") and the Lease is in full force and effect: (i) Master Lessee's possession of the Leased Properties and Master Lessee's leasehold interest, rights and privileges under the Lease, including any extensions or renewals thereof which may be effected in accordance with any option therefor which is contained in the Lease, shall not be diminished, disturbed or interfered with by Lender, and Master Lessee's occupancy of the Leased Properties shall not be disturbed by Lender for any reason whatsoever during the term of the Lease or any such extensions or renewals thereof; and (ii) the Lease, and Master Lessee's rights thereunder, will remain in full force and effect following (and Master Lessee's use and possession of the Leased Properties will not be disturbed as a result of) foreclosure under any Security Instrument by any non-judicial foreclosure or trustee's sale of the Leased Properties or any portion thereof, and Lender will not join Master Lessee as a party defendant in any action or proceeding to foreclose under any Security Instrument or to enforce any rights or remedies of Lender under any Security Instrument which would cut-off, destroy, terminate or extinguish the Lease or Master Lessee's interest and estate under the Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Subparagraph 3A, if it would be procedurally disadvantageous for Lender not to name or join Master Lessee as a party in a foreclosure proceeding with respect to any Security Instrument, or if required by law, Lender may so name or join Master Lessee without in any way diminishing or otherwise affecting the rights and privileges granted to, or inuring to the benefit of, Master Lessee under this Agreement.

(A) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default on the part of Master Lessee under the Lease, Lender shall have the absolute and unconditional right to separately or simultaneously exercise either or both of the following options with respect to all or any portion of the Leased Properties in whatever order or combination of such options, lots, or separate parcels as Lender, in its sole discretion, may elect: (i) terminate the Lease, or cause Master Lessor to terminate the Lease at Lender's direction, with respect to all or any portion of the Leased Properties as Lender may specify, by providing written notice thereof to Master Lessee, at which time Master Lessee shall immediately pay directly to Lender all sums payable under the Lease (with respect to the specified portion of the Leased Properties) to and including the Termination Date and immediately vacate the specified portion of the Leased Properties on the Termination Date, and (ii) exercise and enforce or cause Master Lessor to exercise and enforce any rights of Master Lessor under the Lease. As used herein, "Termination Date" means the date specified in a written notice from Lender to Master Lessee that Lender has elected to terminate the Lease with respect to all or any portion of the Leased Properties.

4. Master Lessee agrees to make (a) all payments of Base Rent, and (b) all payments of Additional Charges if and to the extent required to be paid by Master Lessee to Master Lessor under the terms of the Master Lease directly to the Holding Account at all times during the term of the Loan.

5. In addition, if Lender (or its nominee or designee) shall succeed to the rights of Master Lessor under the Lease, whether through possession or foreclosure action, delivery of a deed, or otherwise, or if another Person purchases the Leased Properties or any portion thereof upon or following foreclosure under any Security Instrument or in connection with any bankruptcy case commenced by or against Master Lessor (Lender, its nominees and designees, and such purchaser, and their respective successors and assigns, each hereinafter referred to as a " Successor Master Lessor"), then, Master Lessee shall attorn to and recognize such Successor Master Lessor as Master Lessee's master lessor under the Lease. Upon such attornment, the Lease shall continue in full force and effect as, or as if it were, a direct lease between such Successor Master Lessor and Master Lessee upon all terms, conditions and covenants as are set forth in the Lease (subject, however, to the provisions of Clauses (i) through (viii) of this Paragraph 5). If the Lease shall have terminated by operation of law or otherwise (whether as a result of or in connection with a bankruptcy case commenced by or against Master Lessor, a judicial or non-judicial foreclosure action or proceeding, delivery of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or otherwise), then, upon request of such Successor Master Lessor, Master Lessee shall promptly execute and deliver a direct lease with such Successor Master Lessor which direct lease shall be on the same terms and conditions as the Lease (subject, however, to the provisions of Clauses (i) through (viii) of this Paragraph 5) and shall be effective as of the day the Lease shall have terminated as aforesaid. Notwithstanding the continuation of the Lease, the attornment of Master Lessee thereunder, or the execution of a direct lease between a Successor Master Lessor and Master Lessee as aforesaid, no Successor Master Lessor shall:

(i) be liable for any act or omission of the Predecessor Master Lessor under the Lease;

(ii) be subject to any off-set, defense or counterclaim which shall have theretofore accrued to Master Lessee against the Predecessor Master Lessor;

(iii) be bound by any modification of the Lease or by any previous prepayment of Base Rent or Additional Charges made more than one (1) month prior to the date same was due which Master Lessee might have paid to the Predecessor Master Lessor, unless such modification or prepayment shall have been expressly approved in writing by Lender or expressly required under the Lease, provided that this Clause (iii) shall not be construed to affect the rights and obligations of the parties or their successors with respect to any such modification or prepayment approved in writing by Lender;

(iv) be liable for any security deposited under the Lease unless such security has been physically delivered to Lender or said Successor Master Lessor;

(v) be liable or obligated to comply with or fulfill any of the obligations of the Predecessor Master Lessor under the Lease or any agreement relating thereto with respect to the construction of, or payment for, improvements on or above the Leased Properties (or any portion thereof), leasehold improvements, Master Lessee work letters and/or similar items (other than pursuant to the casualty/condemnation restoration provisions of the Lease to the extent of casualty proceeds or condemnation awards paid to Lender or said Successor Master Lessor);

(vi) be bound by any obligation to provide or pay for any services, repairs, maintenance or restoration provided for under the Lease arising prior to the date that said Successor Master Lessor becomes the master lessor of Master Lessee (except to the extent of casualty proceeds or condemnation awards paid to Lender or said Successor Master Lessor);

(vii) be bound by any obligation to repair, replace, rebuild, or restore the Leased Properties or any part thereof, in the event of damage by fire or other casualty, or in the event of partial condemnation (other than pursuant to the casualty/condemnation restoration provisions of the Lease to the extent of casualty proceeds or condemnation awards paid to Lender or said Successor Master Lessor); or

(viii) be obligated or liable with respect to any representations or warranties made by the Predecessor Master Lessor in or in relation to the Lease prior to the date that said Successor Master Lessor succeeded to the rights of the Predecessor Master Lessor under the Lease.

For purposes of this Paragraph 5, the term "Predecessor Master Lessor" means the Master Lessor under the Lease to whose interest therein a Successor Master Lessor has succeeded.

6. Master Lessee agrees that without the prior written consent of Lender, it shall not (a) terminate or cancel the Lease or any extensions or renewals thereof, (b) tender a surrender of the Lease, (c) make a prepayment of any Base Rent or Additional Charges more than one (1) month in advance of the due date thereof, or (d) except to the extent required or expressly permitted by the terms of the Lease, subordinate or permit the subordination of the Lease to any lien subordinate to the Security Instruments or allow to exist any lien against the Leased Properties or any portion thereof. Any such purported action without such consent shall be void as against the holder of the Security Instrument.

7. (A) Master Lessee shall promptly notify Lender in writing of (i) any default by Master Lessor under the Lease and (ii) of any act or omission of Master Lessor, which, in either case (i) or (ii), would give Master Lessee the right to cancel or terminate the Lease or to claim a partial or total eviction.

(B) In the event of (i) any default by Master Lessor under the Lease, (ii) any other breach by Master Lessor of any of its obligations under the Lease (regardless of whether or not said breach constitutes a default under the Lease giving rise to an obligation to give notice under Subparagraph 7(A)), or (iii) any other act or omission of Master Lessor or any other Person, including any act of God, which in each case would give Master Lessee the right to (i) cancel or terminate the Lease (whether immediately or after the lapse of a period of time), (ii) claim a partial or total eviction, (iii) off-set against rent under the Lease, or (iv) any other remedy, Master Lessee agrees not to exercise such right (i) until Master Lessee has given written notice of such default, breach, act or omission to Lender and (ii) unless Lender has failed, within thirty (30) days after Lender receives such notice, to cure or remedy the default, breach, act or omission or, if such default, breach, act or omission shall be one which is not reasonably capable of being remedied by Lender within such thirty (30) day period, until a reasonable period for remedying such default, breach, act or omission shall have elapsed following the giving of such notice and following the time when Lender shall have become entitled under the Security Instruments to remedy the same (which reasonable period shall in no event be less than the period to which Master Lessor would be entitled, under the Lease or otherwise, after similar notice, to effect such remedy), provided that Lender shall with due diligence give Master Lessee written notice of its intention to and shall commence and continue to, remedy such default, breach, act or omission. If Lender cannot reasonably remedy a default, breach, act or omission of Master Lessor until after Lender obtains possession of the Leased Properties, Master Lessee may not (i) cancel or terminate the Lease, (ii) claim a partial or total eviction, (iii) off-set against rent under the Lease, or (iv) exercise any other remedy available to it, whether under the Lease, in law, or in equity, by reason of such default, breach, act or omission until the expiration of a reasonable period necessary for such remedy after Lender secures possession of the Leased Properties.

(C) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Lender shall have no obligation hereunder to remedy such default, breach, act or omission.

Without limiting its rights under the Lease, under applicable law, or in equity, Master Lessee agrees that nothing in this Paragraph 7 shall be construed to grant to Master Lessee any right (including any right to cancel or terminate the Lease, claim a partial or total eviction, off-set against rent under the Lease, or exercise any other remedy).

8. To the extent that the Lease shall entitle Master Lessee to notice of the existence of any mortgage and the identity of any mortgagee or any ground lessor, this Agreement shall constitute such notice to Master Lessee with respect to the Security Instruments and Lender.

9. Master Lessee hereby acknowledges that, simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, all of Master Lessor's rights, title, and interests in, to and under the Lease (including the right to declare a breach, default and/or event of default thereunder) are being assigned to Lender as additional security for the Indebtedness, and Master Lessee hereby expressly consents to such assignment. Master Lessee agrees that if there is a default by Master Lessor in the performance and observance of any of the terms of the Loan Agreement, which default is not cured after any applicable notice and/or cure periods, Lender shall be entitled, but not obligated, to exercise the claims, rights, powers, privileges and remedies of Master Lessor under the Lease and shall be further entitled to the benefits of, and to receive and enforce performance of, all of the covenants to be performed by Master Lessee under the Lease as though Lender were named therein as Master Lessor. Master Lessee expressly acknowledges that Lender may, at its option at any time following such default and failure to cure, demand that all rents and other amounts due to Master Lessor under the Lease be paid by Master Lessee directly to Lender at the address specified below, or as otherwise specified by Lender. Master Lessee agrees that upon Lender's written request for such payment of rent and other amounts due under the Lease directly to Lender, Master Lessee will timely remit any and all payments due under the Lease directly to, and payable solely to the order of, Lender. Master Lessee further acknowledges and agrees that it shall have neither the right nor the obligation to require proofs of default by Master Lessor prior to complying with such a request by Lender, and that such payments to Lender shall constitute performance of Master Lessee's obligation to pay the applicable rents or other amounts due to Master Lessor under the Lease.

10. In addition to the rights of Lender under the immediately preceding Paragraph 9, each of Master Lessee and Master Lessor acknowledge and agree that Lender is a "Superior Party" within the meaning of Section 13.4 of the Lease and shall be entitled to act on behalf of Master Lessor, without the need to exercise any rights of foreclosure or similar rights and without appointing a Successor Master Lessor, in enforcing any right or giving of any notices or directions under Article XIII of the Lease and Section 2.04 of the Guaranty.

11. Anything herein or in the Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that a Successor Master Lessor shall acquire title to the Leased Properties or any portion thereof, said Successor Master Lessor shall have no obligation, nor incur any liability, beyond Successor Master Lessor's then interest, if any, in the Leased Properties, and Master Lessee shall look exclusively to such interest, if any, of Successor Master Lessor in the Leased Properties for the payment and discharge of any obligations imposed upon Successor Master Lessor hereunder or under the Lease. Master Lessee agrees that, with respect to any money judgment which may be obtained or secured by Master Lessee against Successor Master Lessor, Master Lessee shall look solely to the estate or interest owned by Successor Master Lessor in the Leased Properties (including, the rents, issues and profits therefrom), and Master Lessee will not collect or attempt to collect any such judgment out of any other assets of Successor Master Lessor.

12. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, Lender shall not, by virtue of this Agreement, the Security Instruments or any other instrument to which Lender may be a party, be or become subject to any liability or obligation to Master Lessee under the Lease or otherwise.

13. B. Master Lessee acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement satisfies and complies in all respects with the provisions of Section 15.1 of the Lease and that this Agreement supersedes (but only to the extent inconsistent with) the provisions of such Section and any other provision of the Lease relating to the priority or subordination of the Lease and the interests or estates created thereby to the Security Instruments.

(A) Master Lessee agrees to enter into a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement with any lender which shall succeed Lender as lender with respect to the Leased Properties, or any portion thereof, provided the material terms of such agreement are substantially the same as this Agreement. Master Lessee does herewith irrevocably appoint and constitute Lender as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact in its name, place and stead to execute such subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement, without any obligation on the part of Lender to do so. This power, being coupled with an interest, shall be irrevocable as long as any portion of the Indebtedness remains unpaid. Lender agrees not to exercise its rights under the preceding two sentences if Master Lessee promptly enters into the subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement as required pursuant to the first sentence of this Subparagraph 13(B).

14. C. Any notice or other communication required to be given, or expressly provided for and actually given, by Master Lessee to Master Lessor under or in relation to the Lease, and a copy of any list, report, instrument or other document, in each case that is either required to be given, or expressly provided for and actually given, by Master Lessee to Master Lessor under or in relation to the Lease, shall be simultaneously given also to Lender. Performance by Lender shall satisfy any conditions of the Lease requiring performance by Master Lessor, and Lender shall have a reasonable time to complete such performance as provided in Paragraph 7 hereof.

(A) All notices, consents, approvals, requests or other communications required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be given in writing and shall be effective for all purposes if hand delivered or sent by (a) certified or registered United States mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, (b) expedited prepaid delivery service, either commercial or United States Postal Service, with proof of attempted delivery or (c) for notices other than notices of the occurrence of a default only, telecopier (with answer back acknowledged), addressed as follows (or at such other address and person or entity as shall be designated from time to time by any party hereto, as the case may be, in a written notice to the other parties hereto in the manner provided for in this Subparagraph 14(B)):

15. Master Lessee hereby represents to Lender as follows:

(A) The Lease is in full force and effect and has not been further amended.

(B) There has been no prior assignment of its interest under the Lease, and it is not aware of any contemplated assignment of any such interest.

(C) There are no oral or written agreements or understandings between Master Lessor and Master Lessee relating to the Leased Properties demised under the Lease or the Lease transaction except as set forth in the Lease.

(D) Its execution of the Lease was duly authorized and the Lease is in full force and effect and to the best of its knowledge there exists no default, whether or not beyond any applicable grace or cure period (such determination being made without reference to Section 15.8 of the Lease), or breach which might, with passage of time or otherwise mature into a default, on the part of either Master Lessee or Master Lessor under the Lease.

(E) There has not been filed by or against nor to the best of its knowledge and belief is there threatened, any petition under the bankruptcy laws of the United States naming either Master Lessee or Master Lessor as a debtor.

(F) To the best of its knowledge and other than the collateral assignment of Master Lessor's interest to Lender to be executed and delivered simultaneously with this Agreement, there has not been any assignment, hypothecation or pledge of the Lease or rents accruing under the Lease by Master Lessor (other than assignments that have been terminated prior to or will be terminated simultaneously with the execution and delivery of this Agreement).

16. Whenever, from time to time, reasonably requested by Lender (but not more than twice during any calendar year), Master Lessee shall execute and deliver to or at the direction of Lender, and without charge to Lender, one or more written certifications, in a form reasonably acceptable to Master Lessee, of all of the matters set forth in Paragraph 15 above, and any other information Lender may reasonably require to confirm the current status of the Lease.

17. Without limiting Master Lessee's covenants under Paragraph 6 above or Master Lessor's covenant under the Landlord's Loan Documents (but without limiting Master Lessor's rights and Landlord Lender's duties Section 2.3.6 of the Loan Agreement), Master Lessee agrees that it shall not, and acknowledges that Master Lessor may not (and Master Lessor covenants and agrees with Lender that it shall not), without the prior written consent of Lender (except in connection with a Casualty under Section 10.2 of the Lease or a Condemnation under Section 10.3 of the Lease) (a) renew, extend, effectuate the release of any Leased Property from, agree to the termination of, agree to a reduction of rents or other sums payable under, accept a surrender of, or agree to shorten the term of, the Lease, (b) grant any waiver of any provisions of the Lease, provided that Master Lessee and Master Lessor shall have the right to waive any provisions of the Lease (provided that any such waiver shall be limited to the particular matter under the particular circumstances subject to such waiver and shall not constitute an amendment or modification of the Lease), so long as such waiver would not have the effect of (i) waiving any of the provisions of the Lease identified in clauses (c), (d) or (e) below, or (ii) waiving or reducing the monetary obligations of Master Lessee under the Lease, or (iii) either permitting Master Lessor and/or Master Lessee to take an action that Master Lessor or Master Lessee is prohibited from taking under this Paragraph 17, or preventing Master Lessor and/or Master Lessee from complying with an obligation on the part of Master Lessor or Master Lessee under this Agreement, (c) amend, modify or waive in any respect any provision of the Lease contained in the Statement of Intent, Article I ("Leased Properties; Term"), Article III ("Rent"), Article IV ("Termination; Abatement"), Article V ("Ownership of the Leased Properties"), Section 6.1(a)(ii) (including provisions in respect of permitted uses), Section 6.1(a)(iii) (including provisions in respect of continuous operation), Section 6.1(b) ("Taxes and Other Charges; Contest for Taxes and Other Charges, Legal Requirements and Liens"), Section 6.1(f) ("Cooperate in Legal Proceedings"), Section 6.1(g) ("Insurance Benefits"), Section 6.1(h) ("Financial Reporting and Other Information"), Article VIII ("Alterations; Leasing"), Article X ("Casualty and Condemnation"), Article XI ("Accounts and Reserves"), Article XII ("Events of Default and Remedies"), Section 13.2 ("Transition Services"), Section 13.3 ("Cooperation"), Section 13.4 ("Rights of Superior Parties"), Article XV ("Subordination"), Section 23.1 ("Appraisers"), Article XXIV ("Confidentiality"), Section 26.8 ("Governing Law", including the waivers of right to trial by jury in Section 26.8(c)), Article XXVIII ("True Lease"), any Schedule to the Lease, or any of the definitions in Article II ("Definitions") related to any of the foregoing provisions, Articles or Sections, or to any Schedule, (d) amend, modify or waive any provision of the Lease not listed in clause (c) in a manner adverse to Lender in any material respect (including without limitation any amendment of any provision (i) requiring Landlord's Lender's consent or approval prior to Master Lessee taking any action, or creating, incurring assuming, permitting or suffering to exist a circumstance or condition, or (ii) requiring Master Lessee to cooperate with Landlord's Lender or reimburse Landlord's Lender for amounts expended by Landlord's Lender) or that would decrease Master Lessee's obligations or increase Master Lessor's obligations thereunder; or (e) amend, modify or waive any provision of the Lease in such a way as to cause its terms to become inconsistent with the material terms of any Affiliated Sublease, Unaffiliated Sublease or Specified Prior Sublease (unless the terms of such Affiliated Sublease, Unaffiliated Sublease or Specified Prior Sublease is similarly modified or waived). In addition, Master Lessor and Master Lessee acknowledge and agree that (x) any approval by Master Lessor of any Alteration requiring Master Lessor's approval under Section 8.1 of the Lease shall require, as a condition thereto, Lender's written approval, and no such approval by the Master Lessor shall be effective absent such written approval by Lender, (y) any approval by Master Lessor of the amount of Eligible Collateral under Section 6.1 of the Lease shall require, as a condition thereto, Lender's written approval, and no such approval by Master Lessor shall be effective absent such written approval by Lender, and (z) any approval by Master Lessor (as Indemnitee) of a compromise or settlement of any claim requiring Master Lessor's approval under Section 15.9(A) of the Lease shall require, as a condition thereto, Lender's written approval, and no such approval by Master Lessor shall be effective absent such written approval by Lender. Neither Master Lessee nor Master Lessor shall permit any amendment, modification or waiver of the Guaranty without the prior written consent of Lender. Master Lessee agrees that any agreement by Master Lessee in the Lease not to take an action, or not to create, permit or suffer to exist a circumstance or condition, without the consent or approval of Landlord's Lender, is hereby deemed a direct agreement by Master Lessee in this Agreement not to create, permit or suffer to exist such circumstance or condition (as applicable) without the prior written consent of Lender (so long as this Agreement remains in effect). Master Lessee and Master Lessor intend and agree that, in the absence of Lender's prior written consent, any purported agreement between them and any action taken by either or both of them which requires Lender consent pursuant to this Paragraph 17, including any amendment of or waiver under the Lease described in this Paragraph 17, shall be void and of no effect. The obligations of Master Lessor and Master Lessee under this Agreement, including, without limitation, this Paragraph 17 are several (and not joint and several) obligations of such parties.

18. Any inconsistency between the Lease and the provisions of this Agreement shall be resolved, to the extent of such inconsistency, in favor of this Agreement.

19. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon each of Lender, Master Lessee and Master Lessor and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, nominees, successors and assigns.

20. This Agreement supersedes any prior agreement, oral or written, and contains the entire agreement among Lender, Master Lessee and Master Lessor with respect to the subject matter hereof. No subsequent agreement, representation or promise made by any party hereto, or by or to any employee, officer, agent or representative of any such party, shall be of any effect unless it is in writing and executed by the party to be bound thereby. This Agreement shall not create any rights in any third party and may be amended or modified without liability to any third party, but only by an agreement in writing signed by each of Lender, Master Lessee and Master Lessor or their respective successors-in-interest.

21. Wherever they occur in this Agreement: (a) the term "Holding Account" means that certain account, named "New Private Restaurant Properties, LLC Holding Account in favor of Bank of America, N.A. as Agent", established by Master Lessor with the Cash Management Bank (as defined in the Loan Agreement) and in which Master Lessor has granted Lender a security interest pursuant to the Loan Agreement, along with any substitute or successor account thereto; (b) the term "Indebtedness" means, at any given time, the principal amount outstanding under the Loan Agreement, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon and all other amounts, obligations and liabilities due or to become due to Lender pursuant to the Loan Agreement or under the promissory note or any other documents executed and delivered by Master Lessor in association therewith, and all other amounts, sums and expenses paid by or payable to lender pursuant to said Loan Agreement, note, or other documents; (c) the term "Lender" means the then holder of the Security Instruments; (d) the term "Master Lessor" means the then holder of the Master Lessor's interest in the Lease; (e) the term "Person" means any individual, joint venture, corporation, partnership, trust, limited liability company, unincorporated association or entity of any kind whatsoever; (f) the words "hereof", "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import shall be held and construed to be references to this Agreement; (g) the words "include" and "including" and words of similar import shall be held and construed to include the words "without limitation" (unless already expressly followed by such words); (h) words of any gender shall be held and construed to include any other gender; and (i) words in the singular shall be held and construed to include the plural, and vice versa.

22. If any one clause or provision hereof shall be held invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, then such invalidity or unenforceability shall, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, affect only such clause or provision, or part thereof, and not any other clause or provision of this Agreement.

23. EACH OF MASTER LESSEE, MASTER LESSOR AND LENDER HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT.

25. Time and each of the terms, covenants, conditions and contingencies of this Agreement are hereby expressly made of the essence.

26. Each of Lender, Master Lessee and Master Lessor acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement has been jointly drafted to fairly represent and neutrally state their agreement and that the conventional presumption against the drafter should have no application in its interpretation.

27. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, and any one counterpart executed by all of the parties hereto, or any set of counterparts so executed in aggregate, shall constitute a complete original. In proving this Agreement, it shall not be necessary to produce or account for more than one such complete original.

Recording of such modified versions of this Agreement, including with abbreviated versions of Exhibit A describing less than all of the Leased Properties, is for notice purposes only, and shall not be construed to suggest severability of either the leasehold interest under the Lease or the subordination hereunder of such interest, which interest Lender, Master Lessee and Master Lessor each acknowledge and agree is intended to and shall remain at all times, including in any bankruptcy or other insolvency proceeding, a unitary encumbrance on all of the Leased Properties. This Paragraph 30 is intended to create the option but not the obligation to cause notice copies of this Agreement to be recorded, and the absence of such a notice copy in the records of any particular jurisdiction or in reference to any parcel shall not affect the enforceability or priority of this Agreement as between the parties hereto, their successors and assigns, or any other Person with actual notice of the existence of this Agreement.

(j) the default or failure of Guarantor fully to perform any of its obligations set forth in this Guaranty;

(k) any actual, purported or attempted sale, assignment or other transfer by Landlord of the Lease or the Leased Properties or any part thereof or of any of its rights, interests or obligations thereunder;

(l) any merger or consolidation of Tenant into or with any other entity, or any sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of any or all of Tenant's assets or any sale, transfer or other disposition of any or all of the shares of capital stock or other securities of or ownership interests in Tenant or any affiliate of Tenant to any other person or entity; or

(m) Tenant's failure to obtain, protect, preserve or enforce any rights in or to the Lease or the Leased Properties or any interest therein against any party or the invalidity or unenforceability of any such rights;

all of which may be given or done without notice to, or consent of, Guarantor, except as to demands upon Guarantor hereunder, as expressly provided in the portion of Section 1.01 hereof following Section 1.01(b) hereof.

No setoff, claim, reduction or diminution of any obligation, or any defense of any kind or nature (except the Tenant's performance of such obligations) which Tenant or Guarantor now has or hereafter may have against Landlord shall be available hereunder to Guarantor against Landlord.

Section 1.03. Disaffirmance of Lease. Guarantor agrees that, in the event of rejection or disaffirmance of the Lease by Tenant or Tenant's trustee in bankruptcy pursuant to the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other law affecting creditors' rights, Guarantor will, if Landlord so requests, assume all obligations and liabilities of Tenant under the Lease, to the same extent as if Guarantor had been originally named instead of Tenant as a party to the Lease and there had been no rejection or disaffirmance; and Guarantor will confirm such assumption in writing at the request of Landlord on or after such rejection or disaffirmance. Guarantor, upon such assumption, shall have all rights of Tenant under the Lease (to the extent permitted by law).

Section 1.04. Preferential Payment. Guarantor further agrees that to the extent Tenant or Guarantor makes any payment to Landlord in connection with the Guaranteed Obligations and all or any part of such payment is subsequent invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required to be repaid by Landlord or paid over to a trustee, receiver or any other entity, whether under any bankruptcy act or otherwise (any such payment is hereinafter referred to as a "Preferential Payment"), then this Guaranty shall continue to be effective or shall be reinstated, as the case may be, and, to the extent of such payment or repayment by Landlord, Tenant's Obligations or part thereof intended to be satisfied by such Preferential Payment shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such Preferential Payment had not been made.

Section 1.05. No Notice or Duty to Exhaust Remedies. Guarantor hereby waives notice of any default in the payment or non-performance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations (except as expressly required hereunder), diligence, presentment, demand, protest and all notices of any kind. Subject only to the notice and cure periods afforded to Guarantor as provided in the portion of Section 1.01 hereof following Section 1.01(b) hereof, Guarantor agrees that liability under this Guaranty shall be primary and hereby waives any requirement that Landlord exhaust any right or remedy, or proceed first or at any time, against Tenant or any other guarantor of, or any security for, any of the Guaranteed Obligations. Landlord may pursue its rights and remedies under this Guaranty and under the Lease in whatever order it chooses, or collectively. This Guaranty is a guaranty of payment and performance and not merely of collection.

Landlord may pursue its rights and remedies under this Guaranty notwithstanding any other guarantor of or security for the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof. Guarantor authorizes Landlord, at its sole option, without notice or demand and without affecting the liability of Guarantor under this Guaranty, to terminate the Lease, either in whole or in part, in accordance with its terms.

Each default with regard to any of the Guaranteed Obligations shall give rise to a separate cause of action and separate suits may be brought hereunder as each cause of action arises or, at the option of Landlord, any and all causes or action which arise prior to or after any suit is commenced hereunder may be included in such suit.

Section 1.06. Waiver of Defenses. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Guarantor waives (a) any right to require Landlord to (i) proceed against Tenant or any other person or entity; (ii) proceed against or exhaust any security held from Tenant; (iii) pursue any other remedy in Landlord's power against Tenant which Guarantor cannot itself pursue, and which would lighten its burden; (b) all statutes of limitation as a defense to any action brought against Guarantor by Landlord to the fullest extent permitted by law; (c) any defense based upon the bankruptcy, reorganization, receivership, insolvency, or debtor-relief proceeding of Tenant; and (d) presentment, demand, protest and notice of any kind (except, as to demands upon Guarantor hereunder, as expressly provided in the portion of Section 1.01 hereof following Section 1.01(b) hereof). Except as required hereunder, Guarantor waives all demand and notices, including demands for performance, notices of non-performance, notices of non-payment and notice of acceptance of this Guaranty.

Section 1.07. Subrogation. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Guaranty to the contrary, until the Guaranteed Obligations are fully performed and paid, Guarantor hereby waives any claims or other rights which Guarantor may now have or hereafter acquire against Tenant or any other guarantor of all or any of the Guaranteed Obligations, which claims or other rights arise from the existence or performance of Guarantor's obligations under this Guaranty (all such claims and rights are referred to as "Guarantor's Conditional Rights"), including, without limitation, any right of subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration, contribution, or indemnification, any right to participate in any claim or remedy of Landlord against Tenant or any collateral which Landlord now has or hereafter acquires, whether or not such claim, remedy or right arises in equity or under contract, statute or common law, by any payment made hereunder or otherwise, including without limitation, the right to take or receive from Tenant, directly or indirectly, in cash or other property or by setoff or in any other manner, payment or security on account of such claim or other right. If, notwithstanding the foregoing provision, any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of any Guarantor's Conditional Rights and either (i) such amount is paid to Guarantor at any time when the Guaranteed Obligations shall not have been paid or performed in full, or (ii) regardless of when such amount is paid to Guarantor, any payment made by Tenant to Landlord is at any time determined to be a Preferential Payment, then such amount paid to Guarantor shall be held in trust for the benefit of Landlord and shall forthwith be paid to Landlord to be credited and applied upon the Guaranteed Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in such order as Landlord, in its sole and absolute discretion, shall determine.

To the extent that any of the provisions of this Section 1.07 shall not be enforceable, Guarantor agrees that until such time as the Guaranteed Obligations have been paid and performed in full and the period of time has expired during which any payment made by Tenant or Guarantor to Landlord may be determined to be a Preferential Payment, Guarantor's Conditional Rights to the extent not validly waived shall be subordinate to Landlord's right to full payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, and Guarantor shall not enforce Guarantor's Conditional Rights during such period.

ARTICLE II
REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

Section 2.01. Representations and Warranties. Guarantor hereby represents and warrants to Landlord as follows:

(a) Organization and Qualification. Guarantor is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware

(b) Authority and Authorization. Guarantor has full power, authority and legal right to execute and deliver the Guaranty and to perform its obligations hereunder, and all such action has been duly and validly authorized by all necessary limited liability company proceedings on its part.

(c) Execution and Binding Effect. The Guaranty has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Guarantor and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Guarantor, enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as the enforceability thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws of general application affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.

(d) Absence of Conflicts. Except as would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Guarantor to perform its obligations under this Guaranty, neither the execution and delivery of this Guaranty nor performance of or compliance with the terms and conditions hereof will (i) violate any law, rule or regulation, (ii) conflict with or result in a breach of or a default under the certificate of formation or limited liability company agreement of Guarantor or any agreement or instrument to which Guarantor is a party or by which it or any of its assets (now owned or hereafter acquired) may be subject or bound, or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any lien, charge, security interest or encumbrance upon any asset (now owned or hereafter acquired) of Guarantor.

(e) Authorizations and Filings. Except as would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Guarantor to perform its obligations under this Guaranty, no authorization, consent, approval, license, exemption or other action by, and no registration, qualification, designation, declaration or filing with, any Governmental Authority is required in connection with the execution and delivery of the Guaranty or performance of or compliance with the terms hereof.

(f) Litigation. There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the best of Guarantor's knowledge, threatened against or affecting Guarantor at law or in equity by or before any court or administrative office or agency which if adversely decided would have a material adverse effect on the ability of Guarantor to perform its obligations under this Guaranty.

Section 2.02. Notice of Certain Events. Promptly upon becoming aware thereof, Guarantor shall give Landlord notice of any downgrade in the corporate family and credit ratings from Moody's Investor Service Inc. and Standard & Poor's, respectively, of Guarantor; provided, that no such notice shall be required to the extent that a press release of any such downgrade is issued by Moody's Investor Service Inc. and Standard & Poor's, as applicable.

Section 2.03. Estoppel Certificates.

(a) Guarantor shall, at any time upon not less than ten (10) days' prior written request by Landlord or Landlord's Lender (but not more than four (4) times in any calendar year), deliver to the party requesting the same a statement in writing, executed by a duly authorized officer of Guarantor, certifying, as of the date thereof, (i) that, except as otherwise specified, this Guaranty is unmodified and in full force in effect, (ii) that, except as otherwise specified, Guarantor is not in default hereunder and that no event has occurred or condition exists which, with the giving of notice or the passage of time or both, would constitute a default hereunder, (iii) that, except as otherwise specified, Guarantor has no knowledge of any defense, setoff or counterclaim against Landlord arising out of or in any way related to this Guaranty, and (iv) as to such other matters as Landlord or Landlord's Lender may reasonably request.

(b) Landlord shall, at any time upon not less that ten (10) days' prior written request by Tenant or Guarantor (but not more than four (4) times in any calendar year), deliver to Guarantor a statement in writing, executed by a duly authorized officer of Landlord, certifying, as of the date thereof, (i) that, except as otherwise specified, this Guaranty is unmodified and in full force and effect, (ii) that, except as otherwise specified, Guarantor is not in default hereunder and that no event has occurred or condition exists which, with the giving of notice or the passage of time or both, would constitute a default hereunder, (iii) that, except as otherwise specified, Landlord has no knowledge of any claim against Guarantor arising out of or in any way related to this Guaranty, for the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise, and (iv) as to such other matters as Guarantor may reasonably request.

Section 2.04. Acknowledgement of Transition Covenant. Guarantor covenants and agrees that it shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and Affiliates to, comply with the provisions of Section 5.3 of the Lease and perform any Transition Services that may be required from time to time under the terms of Section 13.2 of the Lease and any obligations of Tenant under Section 13.3 of the Lease, in each case as a primary and not secondary obligation and to the same extent as if Guarantor were the "Tenant" under the Lease. Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that, in accordance with the terms of Section 13.4 of the Lease, the rights of Landlord provided in Sections 5.3, 13.2 and 13.3 of the Lease may be exercised directly by Landlord's Lender as a Superior Party, and Guarantor agrees accordingly that Landlord's Lender shall be entitled to act on behalf of Landlord in enforcing any right, exercising any option or giving any notices or directions under Sections 5.3, 13.2 and 13.3 of the Lease and any corresponding obligation of Guarantor under this Guaranty (including this Section 2.04). Each of Landlord and Tenant agree that Guarantor shall be entitled to rely on any and all communications or acts of Landlord's Lender, or of any party claiming to be Landlord's Lender's agent or representative (but shall not be required to rely if Tenant, Guarantor or any of their respective Affiliates questions in good faith the authority of the Person claiming to be the agent or representative of Landlord's Lender), with respect to the exercise of any such rights or the giving of any such notice or direction, without the necessity of making any inquiry as to the authority of such Person with respect to such matter and notwithstanding any conflicting instructions from Landlord, and Landlord shall hold Guarantor and its Affiliates harmless for any damages suffered by Guarantor or any such Affiliate incurred because of such reliance by Guarantor or its Affiliates.

Section 2.05. Amendments/Assignments Not Effective. By execution of this Guaranty, Landlord and Tenant hereby affirm and agree that no amendment to or assignment of the Lease shall be effective unless Guarantor shall have affirmed in writing that this Guaranty continues in full force and effect notwithstanding such amendment or assignment.

ARTICLE III
EVENTS OF DEFAULT

Section 3.01. Events of Default. The occurrence of any one or more of the following shall constitute an " Event of Default" under this Guaranty:

(a) a failure by Guarantor to pay when due any Monetary Obligation required to be paid by Guarantor pursuant to the terms of this Guaranty;

(b) a failure by Guarantor duly to perform and observe, or a violation or breach of, any other provision hereof not otherwise specifically mentioned in this Section 3.01;

(c) any representation or warranty made by Guarantor herein proves to be untrue or incorrect when made, in any material respect;

(d) Guarantor shall (i) voluntarily be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, (ii) seek or consent to the appointment of a receiver for itself or its assets, (iii) file a petition seeking relief under the bankruptcy or other similar laws of the United States, any state or any jurisdiction, (iv) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or (v) be unable to pay its debts as they mature;

(e) a court shall enter an order, judgment or decree appointing, without the consent of Guarantor, a receiver or trustee for it or approving a petition filed against Guarantor which seeks relief under the bankruptcy or other similar laws of the United States, any state or any jurisdiction, and such order, judgment or decree shall remain undischarged or unstayed sixty (60) days after it is entered; or

(f) Guarantor shall be liquidated or dissolved or shall begin proceedings towards its liquidation or dissolution.

ARTICLE IV
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 4.01. Further Assurances. From time to time upon the request of Landlord, Guarantor shall promptly and duly execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all such further instruments and documents necessary for the continuing effectiveness of this Guaranty. In no event shall Guarantor be required to execute any such instrument or document which would modify, amend or change any term or provision hereof.

Section 4.02. Amendments, Waivers, Etc. This Guaranty cannot be amended, modified, waived, changed, discharged or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of such amendment, modification, waiver, change, discharge or termination is sought.

Section 4.03. No Implied Waiver; Cumulative Remedies. No course of dealing and no delay or failure of Landlord in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Guaranty or the Lease shall affect any other or future exercise thereof or exercise of any other right, power or privilege; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right, power or privilege preclude any further exercise thereof or of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies of Landlord under this Guaranty are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies which Landlord would otherwise have under the Lease, at law or in equity.

Section 4.04. Notices. All notices, requests, demands, directions and other communications (collectively " notices") under the provisions of this Guaranty shall be in writing unless otherwise expressly permitted hereunder and shall be sent by (a) first-class or first-class express mail, (b) national overnight courier (e.g., Federal Express, UPS), or (c) for notices other than notices of Section 4.05. Expenses. Guarantor agrees to pay or cause to be paid and to save Landlord harmless against liability for the payment of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including fees and expenses of counsel for Landlord, incurred by Landlord from time to time arising in connection with Landlord's enforcement or preservation of rights under this Guaranty, including but not limited to, such expenses as may be incurred by Landlord in connection with any default by Guarantor of any of its obligations hereunder. Such obligation of Guarantor to indemnify Landlord shall survive the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations.

Section 4.06. Severability. If any term or provision of this Guaranty or the application thereof to any Person or circumstance shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Guaranty, or the application of such term or provision to Persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Guaranty shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

(b) The parties hereto each hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of any state or federal court located within the County of New York, State of New York, and each irrevocably agrees that all actions or proceedings arising out of or relating to this Guaranty shall be litigated in such courts. (c) EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, TO THE FULL EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, HEREBY KNOWINGLY, INTENTIONALLY AND VOLUNTARILY, WITH AND UPON THE ADVICE OF COMPETENT COUNSEL, WAIVES, RELINQUISHES AND FOREVER FORGOES THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING BASED UPON, ARISING OUT OF, OR IN ANY WAY RELATING TO THIS GUARANTY.

Section 4.09. Successors and Assigns. This Guaranty shall bind Guarantor and its successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of Landlord and its successors and assigns.

Section 4.10. Incorporation of Recitals. The recitals set forth in the WHEREAS clauses of this Guaranty are hereby specifically incorporated into the operative terms of this Guaranty as if fully set forth in the body of this Guaranty.

Guarantor acknowledges that if the rights of Landlord under this Guaranty are assigned to Landlord's Lender, Landlord's Lender shall have all of the rights and benefits of Landlord hereunder; provided, however, in no event shall Guarantor be liable to Landlord's Lender or Landlord for any payment or performance of any Guaranteed Obligation by Guarantor to the other (i.e., if Guarantor pays or performs a Guaranteed Obligation in accordance with the terms of this Guaranty to either Landlord or Landlord's Lender, Guarantor shall not retain the obligation to pay or perform the same Guaranteed Obligation thereafter to the other such party).

Section 4.12. Termination of Original Guaranty. OSI RESTAURANT PARTNERS, LLC
Officer Employment Agreement

THIS AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into effective June 14, 2007, by and between DIRK A. MONTGOMERY (the "Executive") and OSI RESTAURANT PARTNERS, LLC (the "Company").

W I T N E S S E T H:

This Agreement is made and entered into under the following circumstances:

(a.) WHEREAS, the Company is engaged in the business of owning and operating, through its Affiliates, various restaurant concepts utilizing operating systems and trademarks owned by or licensed to the Company; and

(b.) WHEREAS, Kangaroo Holdings, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary Kangaroo Acquisition, Inc. (" Acquisition") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of November 5, 2006 with OSI Restaurant Partners, Inc. (" OSI") (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Acquisition merged with and into OSI on the "Closing Date" (as defined in the Merger Agreement); and

(c.) WHEREAS, immediately following the merger of Acquisition into OSI, OSI converted into the Company; and

(d.) WHEREAS, the Company desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to continue to employ the Executive as Chief Financial Officer of the Company; and

(e.) WHEREAS, the Executive desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to continue to be employed by the Company as its Chief Financial Officer.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and of the premises, covenants, terms and conditions contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment and Term. Subject to earlier termination as provided for in Section 8 hereof, the Company hereby desires to continue to employ the Executive, and the Executive hereby accepts such continued employment with the Company, as Chief Financial Officer of the Company for a term commencing on the date hereof and expiring on the fifth anniversary hereof (the " Term of Employment"). Such Term of Employment shall be automatically renewed for successive renewal terms of one (1) year each unless either party elects not to renew by giving written notice to the other party not less than sixty (60) days prior to the start of any renewal term.

2. Representations and Warranties. The Executive hereby represents and warrants to the Company that the Executive (i) is not subject to any written nonsolicitation or noncompetition agreement affecting the Executive's employment with the Company or its Affiliates (other than any prior agreement with the Company), (ii) is not subject to any written confidentiality or nonuse/nondisclosure agreement affecting the Executive's employment with the Company or its Affiliates (other than any prior agreement with the Company) and (iii) has brought to the Company and its Affiliates no trade secrets, confidential business information, documents or other personal property of a prior employer.

3. Duties. As Chief Financial Officer of the Company, the Executive shall diligently and faithfully perform such duties and functions as may be assigned to the Executive commensurate with his position as Chief Financial Officer of the Company by the Board of Directors of the Company.

The Executive shall be required hereunder to devote substantially all of the Executive's business time and effort to the business affairs of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall be responsible for directly reporting to the Board of Directors, and for diligently and faithfully performing such duties and functions as may be assigned to the Executive commensurate with his position as Chief Financial Officer of the Company by the Board of Directors of the Company on all matters for which the Executive is responsible.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall be permitted to invest the Executive's personal assets and manage the Executive's personal investment portfolio in such a form and manner as will not require any business services on the Executive's part to any third party, and provided it does conflict with the Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company or the provisions of Section 10 or Section 11 hereof, or conflict with any material published policy of the Company or its Affiliates, including, but not limited to, the insider trading policy of the Company or its Affiliates.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall also be permitted to participate in customary civic, nonprofit, religious, welfare, social and professional activities that will not materially affect the Executive's performance of his duties hereunder. The Executive may continue to serve on any board of directors and advisory committees of companies on which the Executive currently serves, as long as the business of such companies is not competitive with that of the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive shall not serve on the board of directors or advisory committee of any other company without the prior consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Executive shall, during the term of this Agreement and at the request of the Company, also serve as an officer of any Affiliate of the Company as the Board of Directors shall reasonably request. In such capacity, the Executive shall be responsible generally for all aspects of such office. All terms, conditions, rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be applicable to the Executive while serving in such office as though the Executive and such Affiliate of the Company or the Company had separately entered into this Agreement, except that the Executive shall not be entitled to any compensation, vacation, fringe benefits, automobile allowance or other remuneration of any kind whatsoever from such Affiliate of the Company.

4. Compensation.

a. Base Salary. During the Term of Employment, subject to the Executive's performance in accordance with this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to an annual base salary of at least $420,000.00, payable in equal biweekly installments by the Company, subject to annual increase by the Board of Directors of the Company. The base salary as shall be in effect from time to time hereunder shall be referred to herein as the " Base Salary."

b. Bonus. During the Term of Employment, the Executive shall participate in the Company's annual incentive bonus plan, as in effect as of the date hereof, and as may be amended by the Board of Directors of the Company from time to time in accordance with its terms, as the same may be in effect from time to time. The Executive's maximum bonus opportunity for each fiscal year shall equal 150% of Base Salary.

5. Vacation. The Executive shall be entitled to four (4) weeks paid vacation (selected by the Executive, but subject to the reasonable business requirements of the Company) during each full year during the Term of Employment, and otherwise in accordance with Company policy as may be in effect from time to time.

6. Fringe Benefits. In addition to any other rights the Executive may have hereunder, the Executive shall also be entitled to participate in employee benefits plans, and be eligible to receive those fringe benefits, including, but not limited to, complimentary food, life insurance, medical benefits, etc., if any, as may be provided by the Company to similar employees of the Company, in each case, as such plans, programs and arrangements may be in effect from time to time, all subject to the terms of such plans, programs or arrangements and applicable policies of the Company; provided, however, that benefits and perquisites available to the Executive shall be no less favorable than those provided to the Executive prior to the " Closing" (as defined in the Merger Agreement), including with respect to airplane usage and split dollar life insurance; it being understood that the split dollar life insurance policies were "vested" by the board of directors of OSI (as reflected on Exhibit A).

In addition to the foregoing, commencing at age sixty-five (65), and contingent upon the Executive having been employed by the Company or its predecessors for seven years, the Executive will be reimbursed on a "grossed up" basis to the extent he incurs federal or state income tax liability as a result of phantom income allocated to the Executive due to the maintenance of the split dollar life insurance policies.

7. Expenses. Subject to compliance with the Company's policies as in effect from time to time, the Executive may incur and be reimbursed by the Company for reasonable expenses on behalf of and in furtherance of the business of the Company.

8. Termination. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 hereof, the Term of Employment shall terminate prior to the end of the period of time specified in Section 1 hereof, immediately upon:

(a) The death of the Executive; or

(b) At the election of the Company in the event of the Executive's Disability during the Term of Employment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Disability" shall mean the inability of the Executive, arising out of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment, to perform the services required of the Executive hereunder for a period of (i) one-hundred eighty (180) consecutive days or (ii) two-hundred forty (240) total days during any period of three-hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days; or

(c) The existence of Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means any of the following: the Executive's (i) gross neglect of duty or prolonged absence from duty (other than any such failure resulting from incapacity due to physical or mental illness) without the consent of the Company, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and following notice to the Executive and a reasonable opportunity to cure, (ii) conviction or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere with respect to commission of a felony under federal law or in the law of the state in which such action occurred, (iii) the willful engaging in illegal misconduct or gross misconduct that is materially and demonstrably injurious to the Company or (iv) any material violation of any material covenant or restriction contained in this Agreement; or

(d) At the election of the Company, at any time and including in the event of a determination by the Company to cease business operations; or

(e) At the election of the Executive from time to time no later than thirty (30) days following the occurrence of Good Reason; or

(f) At the election of the Executive at any time upon fifteen (15) days notice.

For all purposes of this Agreement, termination for Cause shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of the Executive's resignation when, because of existing facts and circumstances, subsequent termination for Cause can be reasonably foreseen.

9. Severance.

(a) General. In the event of termination of the Term of Employment pursuant to Section 8 hereof, the Executive or the Executive's estate, as appropriate, shall be entitled to receive (in addition to any fringe benefits payable upon death in the case of the Executive's death or any disability benefits payable under any disability plan maintained by the Company) the Base Salary provided for herein up to and including the effective date of termination (the "Termination Effective Date"), prorated on a daily basis. Except as provided in Section 9(b) or Section 9(c) below, the Executive shall not be entitled to receive any severance compensation.

(b) Severance. In the event of termination of the Term of Employment pursuant to Section 8(d) or Section 8(e) hereof (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the failure of the Company to renew the Term of Employment), the Executive shall be entitled to receive as full and complete severance compensation, an amount equal to the sum of (i) the Base Salary then in effect plus (ii) the average of the three most recent annual bonuses paid to the Executive (together, the "Severance"), such severance payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments from the effective date of such termination. The Company shall continue to provide medical, dental and vision benefits to the Executive and his eligible dependents that are substantially similar to those provided generally to executive officers of the Company pursuant to such welfare plans as may be in effect from time to time as if the Executive's employment had not been terminated for the one (1) year period commencing on the day after the effective day of such termination (which may include reimbursing the Executive for the Executive's payment of COBRA premiums). The Company's payments of Severance are expressly conditioned upon (x) the Executive executing and delivering to the Company a timely and effective separation agreement, which shall include, but not be limited to, a general release of claims by the Executive, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, and (y) the Executive's continued compliance, including after the Term of Employment, with the covenants contained in Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 27 hereof.

(c) Accrued Bonus. In the event the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, or as the result of the Executive's death or Disability, the Executive shall receive, in addition to any other payments to which he is entitled pursuant to Sections 9(a) and (b) above, any accrued but unpaid bonus in respect of the fiscal year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurred.

(d) Acknowledgement. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of the Term of Employment pursuant to Section 8(d) hereof, and except for any vested benefits in tax-qualified pension plans maintained by the Company, the Severance provided in this Section 9 shall be the only obligation that the Company or any of its Affiliates shall have to the Executive.

10. Noncompetition.

(a) During Term. Except with the prior written consent of the Company, during the Executive's employment with the Company, the Executive shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Executive's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a full service restaurant business, and the Executive shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person or entity.

(b) Post Term. For a continuous period of one (1) year commencing on termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, regardless of any termination pursuant to Section 8 hereof or any voluntary termination or resignation by the Executive, the Executive shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Executive's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a full service restaurant business that is located or intended to be located anywhere within a radius of thirty (30) miles of any restaurant owned or operated by the Company or any of its Affiliates, or any proposed full service restaurant to be owned or operated by any of the foregoing, and the Executive shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person or entity. For purposes of this Section 10(b), full service restaurants owned or operated by the Company or any of its Affiliates shall include any entity in which the Company or any of its Affiliates has an interest, including, but not limited to, an interest as a franchisor, but shall not include any entities to whose exclusion the Company consents. The term "proposed full service restaurant" shall include all locations for which the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates is conducting active, bona fide negotiations to secure a fee or leasehold interest with the intention of establishing a full service restaurant thereon.

(c) Limitation. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b) immediately above, it shall not be a violation of this Section 10 for the Executive to own a three percent (3%) or smaller interest in any corporation required to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or successor statute.

11. Nondisclosure; Nonsolicitation; Nonpiracy. Except in the performance of the Executive's duties hereunder, at no time during the Term of Employment, or at any time thereafter, shall the Executive, individually or jointly with others, for the benefit of the Executive or any third party, publish, disclose, use or authorize anyone else to publish, disclose or use any secret or confidential material or information relating to any aspect of the business or operations of the Company or any of its Affiliates, including, without limitation, any secret or confidential information relating to the business, customers, trade or industrial practices, trade secrets, technology, recipes, product specifications, restaurant operating techniques and procedures, marketing techniques and procedures, financial data, processes, vendors and other information or know-how of the Company or any of its Affiliates, except (i) to the extent required by law, regulation or valid subpoena, or (ii) to the extent that such information or material becomes publicly known or available through no fault of the Executive or his affiliates. Moreover, during the Executive's employment with the Company and for one (1) year thereafter, except as is the result of a broad solicitation that is not targeting employees of the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates, the Executive shall not offer employment to, or hire, any employee of the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates, or otherwise directly or indirectly solicit or induce any employee of the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates to terminate his or her employment with the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates; nor shall the Executive act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, owner or part owner, or in any other capacity, of or for any person or entity that solicits or otherwise induces any employee of the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates to terminate his or her employment with the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates.

12. Company Property: Executive Duty to Return. All Company property and assets, including products, recipes, product specifications, training materials, employee selection and testing materials, marketing and advertising materials, special event, charitable and community activity materials, customer correspondence, internal memoranda, products and designs, sales information, project files, price lists, customer and vendor lists, prospectus reports, customer or vendor information, sales literature, territory printouts, call books, notebooks, textbooks and all other like information or products, including all copies, duplications, replications and derivatives of such information or products, now in the possession of the Executive or acquired by the Executive while in the employ of the Company, shall be the exclusive property of the Company, and shall be returned to the Company no later than the date of the Executive's last day of work with the Company.

13. Inventions, Ideas, Processes and Designs. All inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, programs, software and designs (including all improvements) related to the business of the Company shall be disclosed in writing promptly to the Company, and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company, if either (i) conceived, made or used by the Executive during the course of the Executive's employment with the Company (whether or not actually conceived during regular business hours) or (ii) made or used by the Executive for a period of six (6) months subsequent to the termination or expiration of such employment. Any invention, idea, recipe, process, program, software or design (including an improvement) shall be deemed "related to the business of the Company" if (i) it was made with equipment, facilities or confidential information of the Company, (ii) results from work performed by the Executive for the Company or (iii) pertains to the current business or demonstrably anticipated research or development work of the Company. The Executive shall cooperate with the Company and its attorneys in the preparation of patent and copyright applications for such developments and, upon request, shall promptly assign all such inventions, ideas, recipes, processes and designs to the Company. The decision to file for patent or copyright protection or to maintain such development as a trade secret shall be in the sole discretion of the Company, and the Executive shall be bound by such decision. The Executive shall provide, on the back of this Agreement, a complete list of all inventions, ideas, recipes, processes and designs if any, patented or unpatented, copyrighted or non-copyrighted, including a brief description, that the Executive made or conceived prior to the Executive's employment with the Company, and that, therefore, are excluded from the scope of this Agreement.

14. Restrictive Covenants: Consideration; Non–Estoppel; Independent Agreements; and Non-Executory Agreements . The restrictive covenants of Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 of this Agreement are given and made by the Executive to induce the Company to continue to employ the Executive and to enter into this Agreement with the Executive, and the Executive hereby acknowledges that employment with the Company is sufficient consideration for these restrictive covenants.

The restrictive covenants of Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 of this Agreement shall be construed as agreements independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action of the Executive against the Company, whether predicated upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of any restrictive covenant.

The refusal or failure of the Company to enforce any restrictive covenant of Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 of this Agreement (or any similar agreement) against any other employee, agent or independent contractor, for any reason, shall neither constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of any such restrictive covenant, nor give rise to any claim or cause of action by the Executive against the Company.

15. Reasonableness of Restrictions; Reformation; Enforcement . The parties hereto recognize and acknowledge that the geographical and time limitations contained in Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 hereof are reasonable and properly required for the adequate protection of the Company's interests. The Executive acknowledges that the Company is the owner or the licensee of various trademarks, and the owner or the licensee of various restaurant operating systems, and has provided and will continue to provide to the Executive training in and confidential information concerning such restaurant operating systems in reliance on the covenants contained in Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 hereof. It is agreed by the parties hereto that if any portion of the restrictions contained in Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 hereof are held to be unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy, then the restrictions shall be considered divisible, both as to the time and to the geographical area, with each month of the specified period being deemed a separate period of time and each radius mile of the restricted territory being deemed a separate geographical area, so that the lesser period of time or geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy. The parties hereto agree that in the event any court of competent jurisdiction determines the specified period or the specified geographical area of the restricted territory to be unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy, a lesser time period or geographical area that is determined to be reasonable, nonarbitrary and not against public policy may be enforced against the Executive. If the Executive shall violate any of the covenants contained herein and if any court action is instituted by the Company to prevent or enjoin such violation, then the period of time during which the Executive's business activities shall be restricted, as provided in this Agreement, shall be lengthened by a period of time equal to the period between the date of the Executive's breach of the terms or covenants contained in this Agreement and the date on which the decree of the court disposing of the issues upon the merits shall become final and not subject to further appeal.

In the event it is necessary for the Company to initiate legal proceedings to enforce, interpret or construe any of the covenants contained in Section 10, Section 11 or Section 13 hereof, each party shall pay its own legal fees, and the prevailing party in such proceedings shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party, in addition to all other remedies, all costs of such proceedings, including appellate proceedings.

16. Specific Performance. The Executive agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Section 10, Section 11 or Section 13 hereof will cause irreparable injury to the Company for which the remedy at law will be inadequate and would be difficult to ascertain, and, therefore, in the event of the breach or threatened breach of any such covenants, the Company shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights and remedies that it may have at law or in equity, to obtain an injunction to restrain the Executive from any threatened or actual activities in violation of any such covenants. The Executive hereby consents and agrees that temporary and permanent injunctive relief may be granted in any proceedings that might be brought to enforce any such covenants without the necessity of proof of actual damages, and in the event the Company does apply for such an injunction, the Executive shall not raise as a defense thereto that the Company has an adequate remedy at law.

17. Certain Covenants. For the avoidance of doubt, the termination of this Agreement or expiration of the Term of Employment, for any reason, shall not extinguish those obligations of the Executive specified in Section 10, Section 11, Section 13 and Section 27 hereof, those obligations of the Company specified in Section 9 hereof, or the obligation of the Company to provide the Executive with gross-up payments referenced in the second paragraph of Section 6 and, with respect to the merger of Acquisition and OSI, as specified in Section 30 hereof.

18. Captions; Terms. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience only, and shall not be construed to limit, define or modify the substantive terms hereof.

19. Acknowledgments. The Executive hereby acknowledges that the Executive has been provided with a copy of this Agreement for review prior to signing it, that the Executive has been given the opportunity to have this Agreement reviewed by Executive's attorney prior to signing it, that the Executive understands the purposes and effects of this Agreement and that the Executive has been given a signed copy of this Agreement for the Executive's own records.

20. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for herein to be given or sent to a party by another party shall be deemed validly given or sent if in writing and mailed, postage prepaid, by certified United States mail, return receipt requested (with effect two (2) business days after sent), delivered by hand (with effect upon delivery) or by nationally recognized overnight courier (with effect one (1) business day after sent) addressed to the parties at their addresses set forth on the records of the company. Any party may give notice to the other party at any time, by the method specified above, of a change in the address at which, or the person to whom, notice is to be addressed (which shall be effective upon receipt).

21. Severability. Each section and subsection of this Agreement constitutes a separate and distinct undertaking, covenant or provision hereof. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed limited by construction in scope and effect to the minimum extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable, and, in the event such a limiting construction is impossible, such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

22. Waiver. The failure of a party to enforce any term, provision or condition of this Agreement at any time or times shall not be deemed a waiver of that term, provision or condition for the future, nor shall any specific waiver of a term, provision, or condition at one time be deemed a waiver of such term, provision, or condition for any future time or times.

23. Assignment; Parties. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their legal representatives, executors, administrators, heirs and proper successors or permitted assigns, as the case may be. This Agreement and the rights and duties created hereunder shall not be assignable or delegable by the Executive. The Company shall have the right, without the Executive's knowledge or the Executive's consent, to assign this Agreement, in whole or in part, and any or all of the rights and duties hereunder, to any Affiliate of the Company, or any successor to the Company, and the Executive shall be bound by such assignment.

24. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to the principles of comity or conflicts of laws thereof.

25. Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. The Executive hereby consents to personal jurisdiction and venue, for any action brought by the Company arising out of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement or out of the relationship established by this Agreement, exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida and, if applicable, the federal and state courts in any jurisdiction where the Executive is employed or resides; the Executive hereby agrees that any action brought by the Executive, alone or in combination with others, against the Company, whether arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida.

26. Affiliate. Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any entity, all persons or entities directly or indirectly controlled by Kangaroo Holdings, Inc., where control may be by management authority, contract or equity interest.

27. Cooperation. The Executive shall cooperate fully with all reasonable requests for information and participation by the Company, its agents or its attorneys in prosecuting or defending claims, suits and disputes brought on behalf of or against the Company and in which Executive is involved or about which Executive has knowledge.

28. Fees and Expenses. The Company will pay, or cause to be paid, all reasonable legal fees incurred by the Executive arising out of the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement, the Executive's rollover stock agreement, the option agreement and any other agreements or arrangements ancillary thereto.

29. Amendments. No change, modification or termination of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed or initialed by all signatories to this Agreement.

30. 280G. With respect to the merger of Acquisition and OSI as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the Company shall provide the Executive with the gross-up payments provided for under Section 34 of the Executive's employment agreement dated as of March 8, 2006, as amended November 5, 2006. If, after the date hereof, there occurs a transaction that constitutes a "change of control" under Regulation 1.280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Company and the Executive shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the imposition of any the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code on the Executive, including seeking to obtain stockholder approval in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5).

31. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT KNOW AND UNDERSTAND THAT THEY HAVE A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT ANY DISPUTE OR CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT WILL INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT FACTUAL AND LEGAL ISSUES.

AMENDMENT TO EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Amendment to Employment Agreement (this "Amendment") is made effective as of January 1, 2009, by and between OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC (the "Company"), and Dirk A. Montgomery (the "Executive").

Background Information

The parties to this Amendment (the "Parties") entered into an Officer Employment Agreement as of June 14, 2007 (the "Employment Agreement"), regarding the Executive's employment relationship with the Company. The Parties desire to amend the Employment Agreement in order to comply with the final Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The Employment Agreement, as amended by this Amendment, is hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Agreement."

Amendment of the Employment Agreement

The Parties hereby acknowledge the accuracy of the foregoing Background Information and hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. All capitalized terms used in this Agreement but which are not otherwise defined herein, shall have the respective meanings given those terms in the Employment Agreement, as applicable.

2. Bonus. Section 4(b) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Unless otherwise specified in the Company policies or other governing documents regarding executive compensation and bonus plans, any bonus awarded to Executive by Company shall be paid in a single lump sum payment within 90 days after the end of the performance period."

3. Fringe Benefits. Section 6 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 6 that are not 'disability pay' or 'death benefits' within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-1(a)(5) (collectively, the 'Applicable Benefits') shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit."

4. Expenses. Section 7 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"If any reimbursements under this provision are taxable to the Executive, such reimbursements shall be paid on or before the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the reimbursable expense was incurred, and the Company shall not be obligated to pay any such reimbursement amount for which Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred. Such expenses shall be reimbursable only to the extent they were incurred during the term of the Agreement. In addition, the amount of such reimbursements that the Company is obligated to pay in any given calendar year shall not affect the amount the Company is obligated to pay in any other calendar year. Further, Executive may not liquidate or exchange the right to reimbursement of such expenses for any other benefits."

5. Termination. Section 8 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following sub-section (g) to the end thereof:

"(g) Termination of Employment for all purposes under this Agreement will be determined to have occurred in accordance with the 'separation from service' requirements of Code Section 409A and the Treasury Regulations and other guidance issued thereunder, and based on whether the facts and circumstances indicate that Company and Executive reasonably anticipated that no further services would be performed after a certain date or that the level of bona fide services Executive would perform after such date (as an employee or as an independent contractor) would permanently decrease to no more than 20 percent of the average level of bona fide services performed over the immediately preceding 36-month period (or actual period of service, if less)."

6. Severance. Section 9(b) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 9 that are not Applicable Benefits shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Code Section 409A. The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit."

7. Accrued Bonus. Section 9(c) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Such bonus payments shall be paid in a single lump sum payment within 90 days after the end of the fiscal year in which such termination of employment occurred."

8. Fees and Expenses. Section 28 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"If any reimbursements under this provision are taxable to the Executive, such reimbursements shall be paid on or before the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the reimbursable expense was incurred, and the Company shall not be obligated to pay any such reimbursement amount for which Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred. Such expenses shall be reimbursable only to the extent they were incurred during the term of the Agreement. In addition, the amount of such reimbursements that the Company is obligated to pay in any given calendar year shall not affect the amount the Company is obligated to pay in any other calendar year. In addition, Executive may not liquidate or exchange the right to reimbursement of such expenses for any other benefits."

9. 280G. Section 30 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Any such gross-up payment provided for under this Section shall be made as soon as feasible and in all cases no later than the end of the calendar year following the year in which the applicable taxes were remitted to the applicable taxing authority."

10. Section 409A. Section 34 is hereby added to the end of the Agreement to read as follows:

"34. Code Section 409A. The Company makes no representation as to whether any such payment or any part thereof constitutes or may constitute non-qualified deferred compensation. Neither the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors shall have any liability to the Executive or any other person or any amounts incurred by Executive or any other such person by reason of the determination made by the Board of Managers pursuant to this paragraph or any action taken or omitted by the Board, the Company, or any of the Company's managers, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors in the course of, or as a result of, making such determination. For purposes of this Agreement, all rights to payments and benefits hereunder shall be treated as rights to receive a series of separate payments and benefits to the fullest extent allowed by Code Section 409A."

11. The terms and conditions of the Agreement between Company and Executive that are unaffected by this Amendment remain in full force and effect.

Officer Employment Agreement

THIS AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into effective June 14, 2007, by and between JOSEPH J. KADOW (the "Executive") and OSI RESTAURANT PARTNERS, LLC (the "Company").

W I T N E S S E T H:

This Agreement is made and entered into under the following circumstances:

(a.) WHEREAS, the Company is engaged in the business of owning and operating, through its Affiliates, various restaurant concepts utilizing operating systems and trademarks owned by or licensed to the Company; and

(b.) WHEREAS, Kangaroo Holdings, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary Kangaroo Acquisition, Inc. (" Acquisition") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of November 5, 2006 with OSI Restaurant Partners, Inc. (" OSI") (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Acquisition merged with and into OSI on the "Closing Date" (as defined in the Merger Agreement); and

(c.) WHEREAS, immediately following the merger of Acquisition into OSI, OSI converted into the Company; and

(d.) WHEREAS, the Company desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to continue to employ the Executive as Chief Officer – Legal and Corporate Affairs of the Company; and

(e.) WHEREAS, the Executive desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to continue to be employed by the Company as its Chief Officer – Legal and Corporate Affairs.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and of the premises, covenants, terms and conditions contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment and Term. Subject to earlier termination as provided for in Section 8 hereof, the Company hereby desires to continue to employ the Executive, and the Executive hereby accepts such continued employment with the Company, as Chief Officer – Legal and Corporate Affairs of the Company for a term commencing on the date hereof and expiring on the fifth anniversary hereof (the " Term of Employment"). Such Term of Employment shall be automatically renewed for successive renewal terms of one (1) year each unless either party elects not to renew by giving written notice to the other party not less than sixty (60) days prior to the start of any renewal term.

2. Representations and Warranties. The Executive hereby represents and warrants to the Company that the Executive (i) is not subject to any written nonsolicitation or noncompetition agreement affecting the Executive's employment with the Company or its Affiliates (other than any prior agreement with the Company), (ii) is not subject to any written confidentiality or nonuse/nondisclosure agreement affecting the Executive's employment with the Company or its Affiliates (other than any prior agreement with the Company) and (iii) has brought to the Company and its Affiliates no trade secrets, confidential business information, documents or other personal property of a prior employer.

3. Duties. As Chief Officer – Legal and Corporate Affairs of the Company, the Executive shall diligently and faithfully perform such duties and functions as may be assigned to the Executive commensurate with his position as Chief Officer – Legal and Corporate Affairs of the Company by the Board of Directors of the Company.

The Executive shall be required hereunder to devote substantially all of the Executive's business time and effort to the business affairs of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive shall be responsible for directly reporting to the Board of Directors, and for diligently and faithfully performing such duties and functions as may be assigned to the Executive commensurate with his position as Chief Officer – Legal and Corporate Affairs of the Company by the Board of Directors of the Company on all matters for which the Executive is responsible.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall be permitted to invest the Executive's personal assets and manage the Executive's personal investment portfolio in such a form and manner as will not require any business services on the Executive's part to any third party, and provided it does conflict with the Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company or the provisions of Section 10 or Section 11 hereof, or conflict with any material published policy of the Company or its Affiliates, including, but not limited to, the insider trading policy of the Company or its Affiliates.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall also be permitted to participate in customary civic, nonprofit, religious, welfare, social and professional activities that will not materially affect the Executive's performance of his duties hereunder. The Executive may continue to serve on any board of directors and advisory committees of companies on which the Executive currently serves, as long as the business of such companies is not competitive with that of the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive shall not serve on the board of directors or advisory committee of any other company without the prior consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Executive shall, during the term of this Agreement and at the request of the Company, also serve as an officer of any Affiliate of the Company as the Board of Directors shall reasonably request. In such capacity, the Executive shall be responsible generally for all aspects of such office. All terms, conditions, rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be applicable to the Executive while serving in such office as though the Executive and such Affiliate of the Company or the Company had separately entered into this Agreement, except that the Executive shall not be entitled to any compensation, vacation, fringe benefits, automobile allowance or other remuneration of any kind whatsoever from such Affiliate of the Company.

4. Compensation.

a. Base Salary. During the Term of Employment, subject to the Executive's performance in accordance with this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to an annual base salary of at least $458,640.00, payable in equal biweekly installments by the Company, subject to annual increase by the Board of Directors of the Company. The base salary as shall be in effect from time to time hereunder shall be referred to herein as the " Base Salary."

b. Bonus. During the Term of Employment, the Executive shall participate in the Company's annual incentive bonus plan, as in effect as of the date hereof, and as may be amended by the Board of Directors of the Company from time to time in accordance with its terms, as the same may be in effect from time to time. The Executive's maximum bonus opportunity for each fiscal year shall equal 100% of Base Salary.

5. Vacation. The Executive shall be entitled to four (4) weeks paid vacation (selected by the Executive, but subject to the reasonable business requirements of the Company) during each full year during the Term of Employment, and otherwise in accordance with Company policy as may be in effect from time to time.

6. Fringe Benefits. In addition to any other rights the Executive may have hereunder, the Executive shall also be entitled to participate in employee benefits plans, and be eligible to receive those fringe benefits, including, but not limited to, complimentary food, life insurance, medical benefits, etc., if any, as may be provided by the Company to similar employees of the Company, in each case, as such plans, programs and arrangements may be in effect from time to time, all subject to the terms of such plans, programs or arrangements and applicable policies of the Company; provided, however, that benefits and perquisites available to the Executive shall be no less favorable than those provided to the Executive prior to the " Closing" (as defined in the Merger Agreement), including with respect to airplane usage and split dollar life insurance; it being understood that the split dollar life insurance policies were "vested" by the board of directors of OSI (as reflected on Exhibit A).

In addition to the foregoing, commencing at age sixty-five (65), and contingent upon the Executive having been employed by the Company or its predecessors for seven years, the Executive will be reimbursed on a "grossed up" basis to the extent he incurs federal or state income tax liability as a result of phantom income allocated to the Executive due to the maintenance of the split dollar life insurance policies.

7. Expenses. Subject to compliance with the Company's policies as in effect from time to time, the Executive may incur and be reimbursed by the Company for reasonable expenses on behalf of and in furtherance of the business of the Company.

8. Termination. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 hereof, the Term of Employment shall terminate prior to the end of the period of time specified in Section 1 hereof, immediately upon:

(a) The death of the Executive; or

(b) At the election of the Company in the event of the Executive's Disability during the Term of Employment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Disability" shall mean the inability of the Executive, arising out of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment, to perform the services required of the Executive hereunder for a period of (i) one- hundred eighty (180) consecutive days or (ii) two-hundred forty (240) total days during any period of three-hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days; or

(c) The existence of Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means any of the following: the Executive's (i) gross neglect of duty or prolonged absence from duty (other than any such failure resulting from incapacity due to physical or mental illness) without the consent of the Company, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and following notice to the Executive and a reasonable opportunity to cure, (ii) conviction or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere with respect to commission of a felony under federal law or in the law of the state in which such action occurred, (iii) the willful engaging in illegal misconduct or gross misconduct that is materially and demonstrably injurious to the Company or (iv) any material violation of any material covenant or restriction contained in this Agreement; or

(d) At the election of the Company, at any time and including in the event of a determination by the Company to cease business operations; or

(e) At the election of the Executive from time to time no later than thirty (30) days following the occurrence of Good Reason; or

(f) At the election of the Executive at any time upon fifteen (15) days notice.

For all purposes of this Agreement, termination for Cause shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of the Executive's resignation when, because of existing facts and circumstances, subsequent termination for Cause can be reasonably foreseen.

9. Severance.

(a) General. In the event of termination of the Term of Employment pursuant to Section 8 hereof, the Executive or the Executive's estate, as appropriate, shall be entitled to receive (in addition to any fringe benefits payable upon death in the case of the Executive's death or any disability benefits payable under any disability plan maintained by the Company) the Base Salary provided for herein up to and including the effective date of termination (the "Termination Effective Date"), prorated on a daily basis. Except as provided in Section 9(b) or Section 9(c) below, the Executive shall not be entitled to receive any severance compensation.

(b) Severance. In the event of termination of the Term of Employment pursuant to Section 8(d) or Section 8(e) hereof (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the failure of the Company to renew the Term of Employment), the Executive shall be entitled to receive as full and complete severance compensation, an amount equal to the sum of (i) the Base Salary then in effect plus (ii) the average of the three most recent annual bonuses paid to the Executive (together, the "Severance"), such severance payable in twelve (12) equal monthly installments from the effective date of such termination. The Company shall continue to provide medical, dental and vision benefits to the Executive and his eligible dependents that are substantially similar to those provided generally to executive officers of the Company pursuant to such welfare plans as may be in effect from time to time as if the Executive's employment had not been terminated for the one (1) year period commencing on the day after the effective day of such termination (which may include reimbursing the Executive for the Executive's payment of COBRA premiums). The Company's payments of Severance are expressly conditioned upon (x) the Executive executing and delivering to the Company a timely and effective separation agreement, which shall include, but not be limited to, a general release of claims by the Executive, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, and (y) the Executive's continued compliance, including after the Term of Employment, with the covenants contained in Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 27 hereof.

(c) Accrued Bonus. In the event the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, or as the result of the Executive's death or Disability, the Executive shall receive, in addition to any other payments to which he is entitled pursuant to Sections 9(a) and (b) above, any accrued but unpaid bonus in respect of the fiscal year preceding the year in which such termination of employment occurred.

(d) Acknowledgement. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of the Term of Employment pursuant to Section 8(d) hereof, and except for any vested benefits in tax-qualified pension plans maintained by the Company, the Severance provided in this Section 9 shall be the only obligation that the Company or any of its Affiliates shall have to the Executive.

10. Noncompetition.

(a) During Term. Except with the prior written consent of the Company, during the Executive's employment with the Company, the Executive shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Executive's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a full service restaurant business, and the Executive shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person or entity.

(b) Post Term. For a continuous period of one (1) year commencing on termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, regardless of any termination pursuant to Section 8 hereof or any voluntary termination or resignation by the Executive, the Executive shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Executive's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a full service restaurant business that is located or intended to be located anywhere within a radius of thirty (30) miles of any restaurant owned or operated by the Company or any of its Affiliates, or any proposed full service restaurant to be owned or operated by any of the foregoing, and the Executive shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person or entity. For purposes of this Section 10(b), full service restaurants owned or operated by the Company or any of its Affiliates shall include any entity in which the Company or any of its Affiliates has an interest, including, but not limited to, an interest as a franchisor, but shall not include any entities to whose exclusion the Company consents. The term "proposed full service restaurant" shall include all locations for which the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates is conducting active, bona fide negotiations to secure a fee or leasehold interest with the intention of establishing a full service restaurant thereon.

(c) Limitation. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b) immediately above, it shall not be a violation of this Section 10 for the Executive to own a three percent (3%) or smaller interest in any corporation required to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or successor statute.

11. Nondisclosure; Nonsolicitation; Nonpiracy. Except in the performance of the Executive's duties hereunder, at no time during the Term of Employment, or at any time thereafter, shall the Executive, individually or jointly with others, for the benefit of the Executive or any third party, publish, disclose, use or authorize anyone else to publish, disclose or use any secret or confidential material or information relating to any aspect of the business or operations of the Company or any of its Affiliates, including, without limitation, any secret or confidential information relating to the business, customers, trade or industrial practices, trade secrets, technology, recipes, product specifications, restaurant operating techniques and procedures, marketing techniques and procedures, financial data, processes, vendors and other information or know-how of the Company or any of its Affiliates, except (i) to the extent required by law, regulation or valid subpoena, or (ii) to the extent that such information or material becomes publicly known or available through no fault of the Executive or his affiliates. Moreover, during the Executive's employment with the Company and for one (1) year thereafter, except as is the result of a broad solicitation that is not targeting employees of the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates, the Executive shall not offer employment to, or hire, any employee of the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates, or otherwise directly or indirectly solicit or induce any employee of the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates to terminate his or her employment with the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates; nor shall the Executive act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, owner or part owner, or in any other capacity, of or for any person or entity that solicits or otherwise induces any employee of the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates to terminate his or her employment with the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates.

12. Company Property: Executive Duty to Return. All Company property and assets, including products, recipes, product specifications, training materials, employee selection and testing materials, marketing and advertising materials, special event, charitable and community activity materials, customer correspondence, internal memoranda, products and designs, sales information, project files, price lists, customer and vendor lists, prospectus reports, customer or vendor information, sales literature, territory printouts, call books, notebooks, textbooks and all other like information or products, including all copies, duplications, replications and derivatives of such information or products, now in the possession of the Executive or acquired by the Executive while in the employ of the Company, shall be the exclusive property of the Company, and shall be returned to the Company no later than the date of the Executive's last day of work with the Company.

13. Inventions, Ideas, Processes and Designs. All inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, programs, software and designs (including all improvements) related to the business of the Company shall be disclosed in writing promptly to the Company, and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company, if either (i) conceived, made or used by the Executive during the course of the Executive's employment with the Company (whether or not actually conceived during regular business hours) or (ii) made or used by the Executive for a period of six (6) months subsequent to the termination or expiration of such employment. Any invention, idea, recipe, process, program, software or design (including an improvement) shall be deemed "related to the business of the Company" if (i) it was made with equipment, facilities or confidential information of the Company, (ii) results from work performed by the Executive for the Company or (iii) pertains to the current business or demonstrably anticipated research or development work of the Company. The Executive shall cooperate with the Company and its attorneys in the preparation of patent and copyright applications for such developments and, upon request, shall promptly assign all such inventions, ideas, recipes, processes and designs to the Company. The decision to file for patent or copyright protection or to maintain such development as a trade secret shall be in the sole discretion of the Company, and the Executive shall be bound by such decision. The Executive shall provide, on the back of this Agreement, a complete list of all inventions, ideas, recipes, processes and designs if any, patented or unpatented, copyrighted or non-copyrighted, including a brief description, that the Executive made or conceived prior to the Executive's employment with the Company, and that, therefore, are excluded from the scope of this Agreement.

14. Restrictive Covenants: Consideration; Non–Estoppel; Independent Agreements; and Non-Executory Agreements . The restrictive covenants of Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 of this Agreement are given and made by the Executive to induce the Company to continue to employ the Executive and to enter into this Agreement with the Executive, and the Executive hereby acknowledges that employment with the Company is sufficient consideration for these restrictive covenants.

The restrictive covenants of Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 of this Agreement shall be construed as agreements independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action of the Executive against the Company, whether predicated upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of any restrictive covenant.

The refusal or failure of the Company to enforce any restrictive covenant of Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 of this Agreement (or any similar agreement) against any other employee, agent or independent contractor, for any reason, shall neither constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of any such restrictive covenant, nor give rise to any claim or cause of action by the Executive against the Company.

15. Reasonableness of Restrictions; Reformation; Enforcement . The parties hereto recognize and acknowledge that the geographical and time limitations contained in Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 hereof are reasonable and properly required for the adequate protection of the Company's interests. The Executive acknowledges that the Company is the owner or the licensee of various trademarks, and the owner or the licensee of various restaurant operating systems, and has provided and will continue to provide to the Executive training in and confidential information concerning such restaurant operating systems in reliance on the covenants contained in Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13 hereof. It is agreed by the parties hereto that if any portion of the restrictions contained in Section 10, Section 11 and Section 13

hereof are held to be unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy, then the restrictions shall be considered divisible, both as to the time and to the geographical area, with each month of the specified period being deemed a separate period of time and each radius mile of the restricted territory being deemed a separate geographical area, so that the lesser period of time or geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy. The parties hereto agree that in the event any court of competent jurisdiction determines the specified period or the specified geographical area of the restricted territory to be unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy, a lesser time period or geographical area that is determined to be reasonable, nonarbitrary and not against public policy may be enforced against the Executive. If the Executive shall violate any of the covenants contained herein and if any court action is instituted by the Company to prevent or enjoin such violation, then the period of time during which the Executive's business activities shall be restricted, as provided in this Agreement, shall be lengthened by a period of time equal to the period between the date of the Executive's breach of the terms or covenants contained in this Agreement and the date on which the decree of the court disposing of the issues upon the merits shall become final and not subject to further appeal.

In the event it is necessary for the Company to initiate legal proceedings to enforce, interpret or construe any of the covenants contained in Section 10, Section 11 or Section 13 hereof, each party shall pay its own legal fees, and the prevailing party in such proceedings shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party, in addition to all other remedies, all costs of such proceedings, including appellate proceedings.

16. Specific Performance. The Executive agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Section 10, Section 11 or Section 13 hereof will cause irreparable injury to the Company for which the remedy at law will be inadequate and would be difficult to ascertain, and, therefore, in the event of the breach or threatened breach of any such covenants, the Company shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights and remedies that it may have at law or in equity, to obtain an injunction to restrain the Executive from any threatened or actual activities in violation of any such covenants. The Executive hereby consents and agrees that temporary and permanent injunctive relief may be granted in any proceedings that might be brought to enforce any such covenants without the necessity of proof of actual damages, and in the event the Company does apply for such an injunction, the Executive shall not raise as a defense thereto that the Company has an adequate remedy at law.

17. Certain Covenants. For the avoidance of doubt, the termination of this Agreement or expiration of the Term of Employment, for any reason, shall not extinguish those obligations of the Executive specified in Section 10, Section 11, Section 13 and Section 27 hereof, those obligations of the Company specified in Section 9 hereof, or the obligation of the Company to provide the Executive with gross-up payments referenced in the second paragraph of Section 6 and, with respect to the merger of Acquisition and OSI, as specified in Section 30 hereof.

18. Captions; Terms. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience only, and shall not be construed to limit, define or modify the substantive terms hereof.

19. Acknowledgments. The Executive hereby acknowledges that the Executive has been provided with a copy of this Agreement for review prior to signing it, that the Executive has been given the opportunity to have this Agreement reviewed by Executive's attorney prior to signing it, that the Executive understands the purposes and effects of this Agreement and that the Executive has been given a signed copy of this Agreement for the Executive's own records.

20. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for herein to be given or sent to a party by another party shall be deemed validly given or sent if in writing and mailed, postage prepaid, by certified United States mail, return receipt requested (with effect two (2) business days after sent), delivered by hand (with effect upon delivery) or by nationally recognized overnight courier (with effect one (1) business day after sent) addressed to the parties at their addresses set forth on the records of the company. Any party may give notice to the other party at any time, by the method specified above, of a change in the address at which, or the person to whom, notice is to be addressed (which shall be effective upon receipt).

21. Severability. Each section and subsection of this Agreement constitutes a separate and distinct undertaking, covenant or provision hereof. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed limited by construction in scope and effect to the minimum extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable, and, in the event such a limiting construction is impossible, such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

22. Waiver. The failure of a party to enforce any term, provision or condition of this Agreement at any time or times shall not be deemed a waiver of that term, provision or condition for the future, nor shall any specific waiver of a term, provision, or condition at one time be deemed a waiver of such term, provision, or condition for any future time or times.

23. Assignment; Parties. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their legal representatives, executors, administrators, heirs and proper successors or permitted assigns, as the case may be. This Agreement and the rights and duties created hereunder shall not be assignable or delegable by the Executive. The Company shall have the right, without the Executive's knowledge or the Executive's consent, to assign this Agreement, in whole or in part, and any or all of the rights and duties hereunder, to any Affiliate of the Company, or any successor to the Company, and the Executive shall be bound by such assignment.

24. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to the principles of comity or conflicts of laws thereof.

25. Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. The Executive hereby consents to personal jurisdiction and venue, for any action brought by the Company arising out of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement or out of the relationship established by this Agreement, exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida and, if applicable, the federal and state courts in any jurisdiction where the Executive is employed or resides; the Executive hereby agrees that any action brought by the Executive, alone or in combination with others, against the Company, whether arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida.

26. Affiliate. Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any entity, all persons or entities directly or indirectly controlled by Kangaroo Holdings, Inc., where control may be by management authority, contract or equity interest.

27. Cooperation. The Executive shall cooperate fully with all reasonable requests for information and participation by the Company, its agents or its attorneys in prosecuting or defending claims, suits and disputes brought on behalf of or against the Company and in which Executive is involved or about which Executive has knowledge.

28. Fees and Expenses. The Company will pay, or cause to be paid, all reasonable legal fees incurred by the Executive arising out of the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement, the Executive's rollover stock agreement, the option agreement and any other agreements or arrangements ancillary thereto.

29. Amendments. No change, modification or termination of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed or initialed by all signatories to this Agreement.

30. 280G. With respect to the merger of Acquisition and OSI as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the Company shall provide the Executive with the gross-up payments provided for under Section 33 of the Executive's employment agreement dated as of March 8, 2006, as amended November 5, 2006. If, after the date hereof, there occurs a transaction that constitutes a "change of control" under Regulation 1.280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Company and the Executive shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the imposition of any the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code on the Executive, including seeking to obtain stockholder approval in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5).

Background Information

The parties to this Amendment (the "Parties") entered into an Officer Employment Agreement as of June 14, 2007 (the "Employment Agreement"), regarding the Executive's employment relationship with the Company. The Parties desire to amend the Employment Agreement in order to comply with the final Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The Employment Agreement, as amended by this Amendment, is hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Agreement."

Amendment of the Employment Agreement

The Parties hereby acknowledge the accuracy of the foregoing Background Information and hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. All capitalized terms used in this Agreement but which are not otherwise defined herein, shall have the respective meanings given those terms in the Employment Agreement, as applicable.

2. Bonus. Section 4(b) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Unless otherwise specified in the Company policies or other governing documents regarding executive compensation and bonus plans, any bonus awarded to Executive by Company shall be paid in a single lump sum payment within 90 days after the end of the performance period."

3. Fringe Benefits. Section 6 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 6 that are not 'disability pay' or 'death benefits' within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-1(a)(5) (collectively, the 'Applicable Benefits') shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit."

4. Expenses. Section 7 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"If any reimbursements under this provision are taxable to the Executive, such reimbursements shall be paid on or before the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the reimbursable expense was incurred, and the Company shall not be obligated to pay any such reimbursement amount for which Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred. Such expenses shall be reimbursable only to the extent they were incurred during the term of the Agreement. In addition, the amount of such reimbursements that the Company is obligated to pay in any given calendar year shall not affect the amount the Company is obligated to pay in any other calendar year. Further, Executive may not liquidate or exchange the right to reimbursement of such expenses for any other benefits."

5. Termination. Section 8 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following sub-section (g) to the end thereof:

"(g) Termination of Employment for all purposes under this Agreement will be determined to have occurred in accordance with the 'separation from service' requirements of Code Section 409A and the Treasury Regulations and other guidance issued thereunder, and based on whether the facts and circumstances indicate that Company and Executive reasonably anticipated that no further services would be performed after a certain date or that the level of bona fide services Executive would perform after such date (as an employee or as an independent contractor) would permanently decrease to no more than 20 percent of the average level of bona fide services performed over the immediately preceding 36-month period (or actual period of service, if less)."

6. Severance. Section 9(b) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 9 that are not Applicable Benefits shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Code Section 409A. The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit."

7. Accrued Bonus. Section 9(c) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Such bonus payments shall be paid in a single lump sum payment within 90 days after the end of the fiscal year in which such termination of employment occurred."

8. Fees and Expenses. Section 28 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"If any reimbursements under this provision are taxable to the Executive, such reimbursements shall be paid on or before the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the reimbursable expense was incurred, and the Company shall not be obligated to pay any such reimbursement amount for which Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred. Such expenses shall be reimbursable only to the extent they were incurred during the term of the Agreement. In addition, the amount of such reimbursements that the Company is obligated to pay in any given calendar year shall not affect the amount the Company is obligated to pay in any other calendar year. In addition, Executive may not liquidate or exchange the right to reimbursement of such expenses for any other benefits."

9. 280G. Section 30 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Any such gross-up payment provided for under this Section shall be made as soon as feasible and in all cases no later than the end of the calendar year following the year in which the applicable taxes were remitted to the applicable taxing authority."

10. Section 409A. Section 34 is hereby added to the end of the Agreement to read as follows:

"34. Code Section 409A. The Company makes no representation as to whether any such payment or any part thereof constitutes or may constitute non-qualified deferred compensation. Neither the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors shall have any liability to the Executive or any other person or any amounts incurred by Executive or any other such person by reason of the determination made by the Board of Managers pursuant to this paragraph or any action taken or omitted by the Board, the Company, or any of the Company's managers, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors in the course of, or as a result of, making such determination. For purposes of this Agreement, all rights to payments and benefits hereunder shall be treated as rights to receive a series of separate payments and benefits to the fullest extent allowed by Code Section 409A."

11. The terms and conditions of the Agreement between Company and Executive that are unaffected by this Amendment remain in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, intending to be legally bound, have executed this Amendment on the 31 st day of December, 2008.

Exhibit 10.30

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of June 14, 2007 between OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC (the " Company") and Robert D. Basham (the "Employee").

WHEREAS, the Employee is possessed of certain experience and expertise that qualify him to provide certain services required by the Company and its Affiliates; and

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, the Company hereby agrees to employ the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts such employment.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree:

1. Employment. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company desires to continue to employ the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts such continued employment.

2. Term. Subject to earlier termination as hereinafter provided, the Employee's employment hereunder shall be for a term of five years, commencing on the date hereof, and shall renew automatically thereafter for successive terms of one year each. The term of this Agreement, as from time to time extended or renewed, is hereafter referred to as "the term of this Agreement" or "the term hereof."

3. Capacity and Performance.

(a) During the term hereof, the Employee shall be employed by the Company, and shall perform only those duties and responsibilities as may be mutually agreed by the Employee and the Board of Directors of the Company (the " Board") or its designee.

(b) During the term hereof, the Employee shall devote such of his time and his efforts to the Company as shall be necessary to perform the duties and responsibilities to which reference is made in Section 3(a) above. It is understood that the Employee will not be devoting his full business time and efforts exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. Subject to the provisions of Section 8 hereof, nothing herein shall prevent the Employee from having other employment.

4. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Employee under this Agreement during the term hereof, and subject to performance of the Employee's duties and of the obligations of the Employee to the Company and its Affiliates, pursuant to this Agreement, the Company shall pay to the Employee:

(a) Salary. During the term hereof, the Company shall pay the Employee a base salary (" Base Salary") at the rate of $300,000 per annum, payable in accordance with the payroll practices of the Company for its employees.

(b) Incentive and Bonus Compensation. The Employee shall not be eligible to be considered for a bonus annually during the term hereof.

(c) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Employee for all reasonable, customary and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Employee in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to any maximum annual limit and other restrictions on such expenses set by the Board, and to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Company from time to time, in each case by advance written notice to the Employee of such restrictions or requirements.

(d) Benefits. The Employee shall be entitled to participate in such health, disability, life insurance and other benefit plans and retirement plans of the Company and its subsidiaries for which management employees of the Company or its subsidiaries are generally eligible.

5. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2 hereof, the Employee's employment hereunder shall terminate prior to the expiration of the term hereof under the following circumstances:

(a) Death. In the event of the Employee's death during the term hereof, the Employee's employment hereunder shall immediately and automatically terminate. In such event, the Company shall pay to the Employee's designated beneficiary, or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Employee in writing, to his estate, (i) any Base Salary earned but not paid through the date of termination, and (ii) any business expenses incurred by the Employee but un-reimbursed as of the date of termination, provided that such expenses and required substantiation and documentation are submitted within 90 days following termination and that such expenses are reimbursable under Section 4(c) above (all of the foregoing, " Final Compensation"). In addition to Final Compensation, until the later of (x) the conclusion of the initial term of this Agreement and (y) a period of 24 months following the date of termination, the Company shall continue to pay the Employee (or his designated beneficiary or his estate) the Base Salary (" Severance"). Severance to which the Employee is entitled hereunder shall be payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company and will begin at the Company's next regular payroll period which is at least five business days following the later of the effective date of the "Release of Claims" or the date upon which the "Release of Claims," signed by the Employee, is received by the Company, but the first payment shall be retroactive to next business day following the date of termination. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee hereunder.

(b) Disability. The Company may terminate the Employee's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Employee, in the event that the Employee becomes disabled during his employment hereunder through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, notwithstanding the provision of any reasonable accommodation, for 270 days during any period of 365 consecutive calendar days. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee hereunder, other than for payment of Final Compensation and Severance, which payment is conditioned upon the Employee signing and returning to the Company a timely and mutually acceptable effective release of claims relating to the Employee's employment hereunder (a "Release of Claims").

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Employee's employment hereunder for Cause at any time upon notice to the Employee setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause. The following shall constitute Cause for termination:

(i) willful and continued failure to perform (other than due to any mental or physical impairment) the Employee's material duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates as agreed under Section 3(a) hereof after written notice specifying such failure and the manner in which the Employee may rectify such failure in the future, if rectifiable;

(ii) willful and material breach by the Employee of Section 8 of this Agreement that is not cured within 30 days of written notice from the Company; or

(iii) Employee having engaged during the term in fraud, embezzlement or another intentional act of dishonesty in connection with his duties hereunder, which act has a detrimental effect on the Company's reputation or business, with respect to the Company or any of its Affiliates; or

(iv) a conviction of or plea of nolo contendere to a felony;

provided, that no such conduct described in Sections 5(c)(i) or 5(c)(ii) above will be deemed "willful" unless it is engaged in by the Employee not in good faith and without reasonable belief that the Employee's conduct was in the best interests of the Company.

Upon the giving of notice of termination of the Employee's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee hereunder, other than for payment of Final Compensation.

(d) By the Company Other than for Cause. The Company may terminate the Employee's employment hereunder other than for Cause at any time upon notice to the Employee. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee, other than for payment of Final Compensation and Severance provided the Employee executes an effective Release of Claims.

(e) By the Employee for Good Reason. The Employee may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason, upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason. The following shall constitute Good Reason for termination by the Employee: failure of the Company to provide the Employee the Base Salary and benefits in accordance with the terms of Section 4 hereof, excluding an inadvertent failure which is cured within ten business days following notice by the Employee specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee, other than for payment of Final Compensation and Severance provided that the Employee executes an effective Release of Claims.

(f) By the Employee Other than for Good Reason. The Employee may terminate his employment hereunder at any time upon three days' notice to the Company. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee hereunder, other than for any Final Compensation.

(g) Timing of Payments. If at the time of the Employee's separation from service, the Employee is a "specified employee," as hereinafter defined, any and all amounts payable under this Section 5 in connection with such separation from service that constitute deferred compensation subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (" Section 409A"), as determined by the Company in its reasonable discretion, and that would (but for this sentence) be payable within six months following such separation from service, shall instead be paid on the date that follows the date of such separation from service by six months. For purposes of the preceding sentence, " separation from service" shall be determined in a manner consistent with subsection (a)(2)(A)(i) of Section 409A, and the term " specified employee" shall mean an individual determined by the Company to be a specified employee as defined in subsection (a)(2)(B)(i) of Section 409A.

(h) Post-Agreement Employment. In the event the Employee remains in the employ of the Company or any of its Affiliates following termination of this Agreement, then such employment shall be at will.

6. Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 6 shall apply to any termination of the Employee's employment.

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein, all of the Employee's right to salary and any other form of compensation in respect of his employment shall cease on the date of termination, and the obligations of the Company under the applicable termination provision of Section 5 hereof shall constitute the entire obligation of the Company to the Employee in respect of such rights.

(b) Except for any right of the Employee to continue medical and dental plan participation in accordance with applicable law, benefits shall terminate pursuant to the terms of the applicable benefit plans based on the date of termination of the Employee's employment without regard to any continuation of Base Salary or other payment to the Employee following such date of termination.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein, or if necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of other surviving provisions, including, without limitation, the obligations of the Employee under Sections 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay Severance to or on behalf of the Employee under Section 5(b), 5(d) or 5(e) hereof is expressly conditioned upon the Employee's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 7 and 8 hereof. The Employee recognizes that, except as expressly provided in Section 5(a), 5(b), 5(d) or 5(e) hereof, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

7. Confidential Information.

(a) The Employee acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Employee may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Employee may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Employee will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information, and shall not disclose to any Person or use, other than (i) as required by applicable law, or by any court, arbitrator, mediator or administrative or legislative body (including any committee thereof) with actual jurisdiction to order the Employee to disclose or make accessible, (ii) for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates, (iii) at the request of the Company or (iv) to the extent required in connection with any litigation, arbitration or mediation involving this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the enforcement of this Agreement, any Confidential Information obtained by the Employee incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Employee understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after his employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination. The confidentiality obligation under this Section 7 shall not apply to information which is generally known or readily available to the public at the time of disclosure, or which becomes generally known through no wrongful act on the part of the Employee.

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates, and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Employee, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Employee shall safeguard all Documents, and shall surrender to the Company at the time his employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Employee's possession or control.

8. Restricted Activities. The Employee agrees that some restrictions on his activities during and after his employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates:

(a) While the Employee is employed by the Company and for 24 months immediately following termination of his employment, the Employee shall not own, manage, control, participate in or render services for (directly or indirectly, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise) any enterprise that is engaged, as its primary business or as a material portion of its business, in owning, operating or franchising full-service restaurant concepts (the "Business"), anywhere in the world (except by way of portfolio investment in shares quoted on a recognized stock exchange whereby the Employee owns less than 5% of the outstanding stock of such entity).

(b) The Employee agrees that, during his employment and for 24 months immediately following termination of his employment, the Employee will not, and will not assist any other Person to, (i) hire or solicit for hiring any management level employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates or seek to persuade any such employee to discontinue employment, or (ii) solicit or encourage any independent contractor providing services to the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate or diminish its relationship with them. For the purposes of this Agreement, an "employee" of the Company or any of its Affiliates is any person who was such at any time within the preceding 12 months.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Employee acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 7 and 8 hereof. The Employee agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent him from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Employee is bound by these restraints. The Employee further agrees that he will never assert, or permit to be asserted on his behalf, in any forum, any position contrary to the foregoing. The Employee further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Employee, therefore, agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Employee of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all persons and entities directly or indirectly controlled by Kangaroo Holdings, Inc., where control may be by management authority, contract or equity interest.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known by those with whom the Company or any of its Affiliates competes or does business, or with whom the Company or any of its Affiliates plans to compete or do business, and any and all information, publicly known in whole or in part or not, which, if disclosed by the Company or any of its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iii) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (iv) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships, and the nature and substance of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes any information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received, or may receive hereafter, belonging to customers or others with any understanding, express or implied, that the information would not be disclosed.

(c) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a limited liability company, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

11. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

12. Assignment. Neither the Company nor the Employee may make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Employee in the event that the Company shall hereafter effect a reorganization, consolidate with, or merge into, any Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties or assets to any Person, provided, that the Company is still liable to the Employee for the obligations described herein. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Employee, and their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

13. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

14. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

15. Notice. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person, consigned to a reputable national courier service or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Employee at his last known address on the books of the Company, or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the CEO, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Employee's employment.

17. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Employee and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

18. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only, and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

20. Governing Law. This is a Florida contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Florida.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been executed as a sealed instrument by the Company, by its duly authorized representative, and by the Employee, as of the date first above written.

AMENDMENT TO EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Amendment to Employment Agreement (this "Amendment") is made effective as of January 1, 2009, by and between OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC (the "Company"), and Robert D. Basham (the "Executive").

Background Information

The parties to this Amendment (the "Parties") entered into an Officer Employment Agreement as of June 14, 2007 (the "Employment Agreement"), regarding the Executive's employment relationship with the Company. The Parties desire to amend the Employment Agreement in order to comply with the final Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The Employment Agreement, as amended by this Amendment, is hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Agreement."

Amendment of the Employment Agreement

The Parties hereby acknowledge the accuracy of the foregoing Background Information and hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. All capitalized terms used in this Agreement but which are not otherwise defined herein, shall have the respective meanings given those terms in the Employment Agreement, as applicable.

2. Business Expenses. Section 4 (c) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"If any reimbursements under this provision are taxable to the Executive, such reimbursements shall be paid on or before the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the reimbursable expense was incurred, and the Company shall not be obligated to pay any such reimbursement amount for which Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred. Such expenses shall be reimbursable only to the extent they were incurred during the term of the Agreement. In addition, the amount of such reimbursements that the Company is obligated to pay in any given calendar year shall not affect the amount the Company is obligated to pay in any other calendar year. Further, Executive may not liquidate or exchange the right to reimbursement of such expenses for any other benefits."

3. Benefits. Section 4(d) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 4 that are not 'disability pay' or 'death benefits' within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-1(a)(5) (collectively, the 'Applicable Benefits') shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit."

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. Section 5 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following new sub-sections (i) and (j) to the end thereof:

"(i) Termination of Employment for all purposes under this Agreement will be determined to have occurred in accordance with the 'separation from service' requirements of Code Section 409A and the Treasury Regulations and other guidance issued thereunder, and based on whether the facts and circumstances indicate that Company and Executive reasonably anticipated that no further services would be performed after a certain date or that the level of bona fide services Executive would perform after such date (as an employee or as an independent contractor) would permanently decrease to no more than 20 percent of the average level of bona fide services performed over the immediately preceding 36-month period (or actual period of service, if less).

(j) Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 5 that are not Applicable Benefits shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Code Section 409A. The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit."

5. Section 409A. Section 21 is hereby added to the end of the Agreement to read as follows:

"21. Code Section 409A. The Company makes no representation as to whether any such payment or any part thereof constitutes or may constitute non-qualified deferred compensation. Neither the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors shall have any liability to the Executive or any other person or any amounts incurred by Executive or any other such person by reason of the determination made by the Board of Managers pursuant to this paragraph or any action taken or omitted by the Board, the Company, or any of the Company's managers, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors in the course of, or as a result of, making such determination. For purposes of this Agreement, all rights to payments and benefits hereunder shall be treated as rights to receive a series of separate payments and benefits to the fullest extent allowed by Code Section 409A."

6. The terms and conditions of the Agreement between Company and Executive that are unaffected by this Amendment remain in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, intending to be legally bound, have executed this Amendment on the 31st day of December, 2008.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of June 14, 2007 between OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC (the " Company") and Chris T. Sullivan (the "Employee").

WHEREAS, the Employee is possessed of certain experience and expertise that qualify him to provide certain services required by the Company and its Affiliates; and

WHEREAS, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, the Company hereby agrees to employ the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts such employment.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree:

1. Employment. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company desires to continue to employ the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts such continued employment.

2. Term. Subject to earlier termination as hereinafter provided, the Employee's employment hereunder shall be for a term of five years, commencing on the date hereof, and shall renew automatically thereafter for successive terms of one year each. The term of this Agreement, as from time to time extended or renewed, is hereafter referred to as "the term of this Agreement" or "the term hereof."

3. Capacity and Performance.

(a) During the term hereof, the Employee shall be employed by the Company, and shall perform only those duties and responsibilities as may be mutually agreed by the Employee and the Board of Directors of the Company (the " Board") or its designee.

(b) During the term hereof, the Employee shall devote such of his time and his efforts to the Company as shall be necessary to perform the duties and responsibilities to which reference is made in Section 3(a) above. It is understood that the Employee will not be devoting his full business time and efforts exclusively to the advancement of the business and interests of the Company and its Affiliates and to the discharge of his duties and responsibilities hereunder. Subject to the provisions of Section 8 hereof, nothing herein shall prevent the Employee from having other employment.

4. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Employee under this Agreement during the term hereof, and subject to performance of the Employee's duties and of the obligations of the Employee to the Company and its Affiliates, pursuant to this Agreement, the Company shall pay to the Employee:

(a) Salary. During the term hereof, the Company shall pay the Employee a base salary (" Base Salary") at the rate of $300,000 per annum, payable in accordance with the payroll practices of the Company for its employees.

(b) Incentive and Bonus Compensation. The Employee shall not be eligible to be considered for a bonus annually during the term hereof.

(c) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Employee for all reasonable, customary and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Employee in the performance of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to any maximum annual limit and other restrictions on such expenses set by the Board, and to such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Company from time to time, in each case by advance written notice to the Employee of such restrictions or requirements.

(d) Benefits. The Employee shall be entitled to participate in such health, disability, life insurance and other benefit plans and retirement plans of the Company and its subsidiaries for which management employees of the Company or its subsidiaries are generally eligible.

5. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2 hereof, the Employee's employment hereunder shall terminate prior to the expiration of the term hereof under the following circumstances:

(a) Death. In the event of the Employee's death during the term hereof, the Employee's employment hereunder shall immediately and automatically terminate. In such event, the Company shall pay to the Employee's designated beneficiary, or, if no beneficiary has been designated by the Employee in writing, to his estate, (i) any Base Salary earned but not paid through the date of termination, and (ii) any business expenses incurred by the Employee but un-reimbursed as of the date of termination, provided that such expenses and required substantiation and documentation are submitted within 90 days following termination and that such expenses are reimbursable under Section 4(c) above (all of the foregoing, " Final Compensation"). In addition to Final Compensation, until the later of (x) the conclusion of the initial term of this Agreement and (y) a period of 24 months following the date of termination, the Company shall continue to pay the Employee (or his designated beneficiary or his estate) the Base Salary (" Severance"). Severance to which the Employee is entitled hereunder shall be payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company and will begin at the Company's next regular payroll period which is at least five business days following the later of the effective date of the "Release of Claims" or the date upon which the "Release of Claims," signed by the Employee, is received by the Company, but the first payment shall be retroactive to next business day following the date of termination. The Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee hereunder.

(b) Disability. The Company may terminate the Employee's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Employee, in the event that the Employee becomes disabled during his employment hereunder through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of his duties and responsibilities hereunder, notwithstanding the provision of any reasonable accommodation, for 270 days during any period of 365 consecutive calendar days. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee hereunder, other than for payment of Final Compensation and Severance, which payment is conditioned upon the Employee signing and returning to the Company a timely and mutually acceptable effective release of claims relating to the Employee's employment hereunder (a "Release of Claims").

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Employee's employment hereunder for Cause at any time upon notice to the Employee setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause. The following shall constitute Cause for termination:

(i) willful and continued failure to perform (other than due to any mental or physical impairment) the Employee's material duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates as agreed under Section 3(a) hereof after written notice specifying such failure and the manner in which the Employee may rectify such failure in the future, if rectifiable;

(ii) willful and material breach by the Employee of Section 8 of this Agreement that is not cured within 30 days of written notice from the Company; or

(iii) Employee having engaged during the term in fraud, embezzlement or another intentional act of dishonesty in connection with his duties hereunder, which act has a detrimental effect on the Company's reputation or business, with respect to the Company or any of its Affiliates; or

(iv) a conviction of or plea of nolo contendere to a felony;

provided, that no such conduct described in Sections 5(c)(i) or 5(c)(ii) above will be deemed "willful" unless it is engaged in by the Employee not in good faith and without reasonable belief that the Employee's conduct was in the best interests of the Company.

Upon the giving of notice of termination of the Employee's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee hereunder, other than for payment of Final Compensation.

(d) By the Company Other than for Cause. The Company may terminate the Employee's employment hereunder other than for Cause at any time upon notice to the Employee. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee, other than for payment of Final Compensation and Severance provided the Employee executes an effective Release of Claims.

(e) By the Employee for Good Reason. The Employee may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason, upon notice to the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Good Reason. The following shall constitute Good Reason for termination by the Employee: failure of the Company to provide the Employee the Base Salary and benefits in accordance with the terms of Section 4 hereof, excluding an inadvertent failure which is cured within ten business days following notice by the Employee specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee, other than for payment of Final Compensation and Severance provided that the Employee executes an effective Release of Claims.

(f) By the Employee Other than for Good Reason. The Employee may terminate his employment hereunder at any time upon three days' notice to the Company. In the event of such termination, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Employee hereunder, other than for any Final Compensation.

(g) Timing of Payments. If at the time of the Employee's separation from service, the Employee is a "specified employee," as hereinafter defined, any and all amounts payable under this Section 5 in connection with such separation from service that constitute deferred compensation subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (" Section 409A"), as determined by the Company in its reasonable discretion, and that would (but for this sentence) be payable within six months following such separation from service, shall instead be paid on the date that follows the date of such separation from service by six months. For purposes of the preceding sentence, " separation from service" shall be determined in a manner consistent with subsection (a)(2)(A)(i) of Section 409A, and the term " specified employee" shall mean an individual determined by the Company to be a specified employee as defined in subsection (a)(2)(B)(i) of Section 409A.

(h) Post-Agreement Employment. In the event the Employee remains in the employ of the Company or any of its Affiliates following termination of this Agreement, then such employment shall be at will.

6. Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 6 shall apply to any termination of the Employee's employment.

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein, all of the Employee's right to salary and any other form of compensation in respect of his employment shall cease on the date of termination, and the obligations of the Company under the applicable termination provision of Section 5 hereof shall constitute the entire obligation of the Company to the Employee in respect of such rights.

(b) Except for any right of the Employee to continue medical and dental plan participation in accordance with applicable law, benefits shall terminate pursuant to the terms of the applicable benefit plans based on the date of termination of the Employee's employment without regard to any continuation of Base Salary or other payment to the Employee following such date of termination.

(c) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination if so provided herein, or if necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of other surviving provisions, including, without limitation, the obligations of the Employee under Sections 7 and 8 hereof. The obligation of the Company to pay Severance to or on behalf of the Employee under Section 5(b), 5(d) or 5(e) hereof is expressly conditioned upon the Employee's continued full performance of obligations under Sections 7 and 8 hereof. The Employee recognizes that, except as expressly provided in Section 5(a), 5(b), 5(d) or 5(e) hereof, no compensation is earned after termination of employment.

7. Confidential Information.

(a) The Employee acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Employee may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Employee may learn of Confidential Information during the course of employment. The Employee will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information, and shall not disclose to any Person or use, other than (i) as required by applicable law, or by any court, arbitrator, mediator or administrative or legislative body (including any committee thereof) with actual jurisdiction to order the Employee to disclose or make accessible, (ii) for the proper performance of his duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates, (iii) at the request of the Company or (iv) to the extent required in connection with any litigation, arbitration or mediation involving this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the enforcement of this Agreement, any Confidential Information obtained by the Employee incident to his employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Employee understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after his employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination. The confidentiality obligation under this Section 7 shall not apply to information which is generally known or readily available to the public at the time of disclosure, or which becomes generally known through no wrongful act on the part of the Employee.

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates, and any copies, in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Employee, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. The Employee shall safeguard all Documents, and shall surrender to the Company at the time his employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents then in the Employee's possession or control.

8. Restricted Activities. The Employee agrees that some restrictions on his activities during and after his employment are necessary to protect the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates:

(a) While the Employee is employed by the Company and for 24 months immediately following termination of his employment, the Employee shall not own, manage, control, participate in or render services for (directly or indirectly, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, employee, co-venturer or otherwise) any enterprise that is engaged, as its primary business or as a material portion of its business, in owning, operating or franchising full-service restaurant concepts (the "Business"), anywhere in the world (except by way of portfolio investment in shares quoted on a recognized stock exchange whereby the Employee owns less than 5% of the outstanding stock of such entity).

(b) The Employee agrees that, during his employment and for 24 months immediately following termination of his employment, the Employee will not, and will not assist any other Person to, (i) hire or solicit for hiring any management level employee of the Company or any of its Affiliates or seek to persuade any such employee to discontinue employment, or (ii) solicit or encourage any independent contractor providing services to the Company or any of its Affiliates to terminate or diminish its relationship with them. For the purposes of this Agreement, an "employee" of the Company or any of its Affiliates is any person who was such at any time within the preceding 12 months.

9. Enforcement of Covenants. The Employee acknowledges that he has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon him pursuant to Sections 7 and 8 hereof. The Employee agrees without reservation that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent him from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Employee is bound by these restraints. The Employee further agrees that he will never assert, or permit to be asserted on his behalf, in any forum, any position contrary to the foregoing. The Employee further acknowledges that, were he to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 7 or 8 hereof, the damage to the Company would be irreparable. The Employee, therefore, agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Employee of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 7 or 8 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law.

10. Definitions. Words or phrases which are initially capitalized or are within quotation marks shall have the meanings provided in this Section and as provided elsewhere herein. For purposes of this Agreement, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Affiliates" means all persons and entities directly or indirectly controlled by Kangaroo Holdings, Inc., where control may be by management authority, contract or equity interest.

(b) "Confidential Information" means any and all information of the Company and its Affiliates that is not generally known by those with whom the Company or any of its Affiliates competes or does business, or with whom the Company or any of its Affiliates plans to compete or do business, and any and all information, publicly known in whole or in part or not, which, if disclosed by the Company or any of its Affiliates would assist in competition against them. Confidential Information includes without limitation such information relating to (i) the development, research, testing, manufacturing, marketing and financial activities of the Company and its Affiliates, (ii) the costs, sources of supply, financial performance and strategic plans of the Company and its Affiliates, (iii) the identity and special needs of the customers of the Company and its Affiliates and (iv) the people and organizations with whom the Company and its Affiliates have business relationships, and the nature and substance of those relationships. Confidential Information also includes any information that the Company or any of its Affiliates has received, or may receive hereafter, belonging to customers or others with any understanding, express or implied, that the information would not be disclosed.

(c) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a limited liability company, an association, a partnership, an estate, a trust and any other entity or organization, other than the Company or any of its Affiliates.

11. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

12. Assignment. Neither the Company nor the Employee may make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that the Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the consent of the Employee in the event that the Company shall hereafter effect a reorganization, consolidate with, or merge into, any Person or transfer all or substantially all of its properties or assets to any Person, provided, that the Company is still liable to the Employee for the obligations described herein. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and the Employee, and their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

13. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

14. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

15. Notice. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person, consigned to a reputable national courier service or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Employee at his last known address on the books of the Company, or, in the case of the Company, at its principal place of business, attention of the CEO, or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the terms and conditions of the Employee's employment.

17. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Employee and by an expressly authorized representative of the Company.

18. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only, and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

19. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

20. Governing Law. This is a Florida contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Florida.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been executed as a sealed instrument by the Company, by its duly authorized representative, and by the Employee, as of the date first above written.

This Amendment to Employment Agreement (this "Amendment") is made effective as of January 1, 2009, by and between OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC (the "Company"), and Chris T. Sullivan (the "Executive").

Background Information

The parties to this Amendment (the "Parties") entered into an Officer Employment Agreement as of June 14, 2007 (the "Employment Agreement"), regarding the Executive's employment relationship with the Company. The Parties desire to amend the Employment Agreement in order to comply with the final Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The Employment Agreement, as amended by this Amendment, is hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Agreement."

Amendment of the Employment Agreement

The Parties hereby acknowledge the accuracy of the foregoing Background Information and hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. All capitalized terms used in this Agreement but which are not otherwise defined herein, shall have the respective meanings given those terms in the Employment Agreement, as applicable.

2. Business Expenses. Section 4 (c) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"If any reimbursements under this provision are taxable to the Executive, such reimbursements shall be paid on or before the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the reimbursable expense was incurred, and the Company shall not be obligated to pay any such reimbursement amount for which Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred. Such expenses shall be reimbursable only to the extent they were incurred during the term of the Agreement. In addition, the amount of such reimbursements that the Company is obligated to pay in any given calendar year shall not affect the amount the Company is obligated to pay in any other calendar year. Further, Executive may not liquidate or exchange the right to reimbursement of such expenses for any other benefits."

3. Benefits. Section 4(d) of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 4 that are not 'disability pay' or 'death benefits' within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-1(a)(5) (collectively, the 'Applicable Benefits') shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit."

4. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. Section 5 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following new sub-sections (h) and (i) to the end thereof:

"(h) Termination of Employment for all purposes under this Agreement will be determined to have occurred in accordance with the 'separation from service' requirements of Code Section 409A and the Treasury Regulations and other guidance issued thereunder, and based on whether the facts and circumstances indicate that Company and Executive reasonably anticipated that no further services would be performed after a certain date or that the level of bona fide services Executive would perform after such date (as an employee or as an independent contractor) would permanently decrease to no more than 20 percent of the average level of bona fide services performed over the immediately preceding 36-month period (or actual period of service, if less).

(i) Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 5 that are not Applicable Benefits shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Code Section 409A. The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit."

5. Section 409A. Section 21 is hereby added to the end of the Agreement to read as follows:

"21. Code Section 409A. The Company makes no representation as to whether any such payment or any part thereof constitutes or may constitute non-qualified deferred compensation. Neither the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors shall have any liability to the Executive or any other person or any amounts incurred by Executive or any other such person by reason of the determination made by the Board of Managers pursuant to this paragraph or any action taken or omitted by the Board, the Company, or any of the Company's managers, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors in the course of, or as a result of, making such determination. For purposes of this Agreement, all rights to payments and benefits hereunder shall be treated as rights to receive a series of separate payments and benefits to the fullest extent allowed by Code Section 409A."

6. The terms and conditions of the Agreement between Company and Executive that are unaffected by this Amendment remain in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, intending to be legally bound, have executed this Amendment on the 31st day of December, 2008.

This Agreement is made and entered into under the following circumstances:

A. WHEREAS, the Employer is an affiliate of OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC ("OSI"); and

B. WHEREAS, the Employer is engaged in the business of owning and operating restaurants known as "Outback Steakhouse®" utilizing a restaurant operating system and trademarks owned by or licensed to the Employer; and

C. WHEREAS, the Employer desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to employ Employee as President of the Employer; and

D. WHEREAS, the Employee desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to be employed by the Employer as President.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and of the premises, covenants, terms and conditions contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment and Term. Subject to earlier termination as provided for in Section 8 hereof, the Employer hereby employs the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts employment with the Employer as President of the Employer for a term commencing on April 12, 2007 and expiring April 12, 2012 ("Term of Employment"). Such Term of Employment shall be automatically renewed for successive renewal terms of one (1) year each unless either party elects not to renew by giving written notice to the other party not less than sixty (60) days prior to the start of any renewal term.

2. Representations and Warranties. The Employee hereby represents and warrants to the Employer that the Employee (i) is not subject to any written nonsolicitation or noncompetition agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Employer (other than any prior agreement with the Employer, OSI or either of their affiliates), (ii) is not subject to any written confidentiality or nonuse/nondisclosure agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Employer (other than any prior agreement with the Employer, OSI or either of their affiliates), and (iii) has brought to the Employer no trade secrets, confidential business information, documents, or other personal property of a prior employer.

3. Duties. As President of the Employer, the Employee shall:

(a) have such management, supervisory and operational functions as are customary to such position, and such other powers, functions and duties as may be assigned to the Employee by the Board of Directors of the Employer or the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer of the Employer; and

(b) diligently, competently, and faithfully perform all of the duties and functions hereunder; and

(c) not create a situation that results in termination for Cause (as that term is defined in Section 8 hereof); and

(d) devote one hundred percent (100%) of the Employee's full business time, attention, energies and effort to the business affairs of the Employer; and

(e) conduct all of his activities in a manner so as to maintain and promote the business and reputation of the Employer.

The Employee shall not, during the term of this Agreement, engage in any other business activity; provided, however, that the Employee shall be permitted to invest the Employee's personal assets and manage the Employee's personal investment portfolio in such a form and manner as will not require any business services on Employee's part to any third party or conflict with the provisions of Section 9, Section 10 or Section 14 hereof, or conflict with any published policy of the Employer or its affiliates, including but not limited to the insider trading policy of the Employer or its affiliates.

The Employee shall be responsible for directly reporting to the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer of the Employer on all matters for which the Employee is responsible.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Employee shall, during the term of this Agreement and at the request of the Employer, also serve as an officer of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Employer or OSI, as the Employer shall request. In such capacity, Employee shall be responsible generally for all aspects of such office. All terms, conditions, rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be applicable to Employee while serving in such office as though Employee and such subsidiary or affiliate of the Employer or OSI had separately entered into this Agreement, except that the Employee shall not be entitled to any compensation, vacation, fringe benefits, automobile allowance or other remuneration of any kind whatsoever from such subsidiary or affiliate of the Employer or OSI.

4. Compensation. During the Term of Employment, the Employee shall be entitled to an annual base salary equal to at least the annual salary of Employee on the effective date hereof, payable in equal biweekly installments by the Employer, to be reviewed annually by the Employer.

5. Vacation. Employee shall be entitled to four (4) weeks paid vacation (selected by Employee, but subject to the reasonable business requirements of the Employer as determined by the Chief Executive Officer of the Employer) during each full year during the Term of Employment. Vacation granted but not used in any year shall be forfeited at the end of such one-year period and may not be carried over to any subsequent year.

6. Fringe Benefits. In addition to any other rights the Employee may have hereunder, the Employee shall also be entitled to receive those fringe benefits, including, but not limited to, complimentary food, life insurance, medical benefits, etc., if any, as may be provided by the Employer to similar employees of the Employer.

7. Automobile Allowance; Expenses.

(a) During the Term of Employment, the Employer shall pay to Employee a monthly automobile allowance in the amount of FOUR HUNDRED AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($400.00). Such automobile allowance shall be in lieu of reimbursement by the Employer of the costs to Employee of purchasing and maintaining an automobile, and all operational expenses, including, without limitation, mileage, repairs, insurance, etc., in connection therewith; provided, however, that the Employer shall reimburse Employee for the cost of gasoline used in conducting the Employer's business. Employee shall, at all times during the Term of Employment, maintain an automobile for use in connection with the performance of Employee's duties and shall maintain in full force and effect, at all times, with the Employer as additional loss payees, at least TWO HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($250,000.00) in property damage and FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($500,000.00) in personal liability automobile insurance, with an additional ONE MILLION DOLLARS ($1,000,000.00) personal liability umbrella. Such insurance shall be written with an insurance carrier reasonably acceptable to the Employer and shall provide that such insurance cannot be changed, cancelled or permitted to expire without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the Employer.

(b) Subject to approval by the Chief Financial Officer of the Employer and compliance with the Employer's policies, the Employee may incur reasonable expenses on behalf of and in furtherance of the business of the Employer. Upon approval of such expenses by the Chief Financial Officer, the Employer shall promptly reimburse the Employee for all such expenses upon presentation by the Employee, from time to time, of appropriate receipts or vouchers for such expenses that are sufficient in form and substance to satisfy all federal tax requirements for the deductibility of such expenses by the Employer.

8. Termination. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 hereof, the Term of Employment shall terminate prior to the end of the period of time specified in Section 1, immediately upon:

(a) The death of the Employee; or

(b) The Employee's Disability during the Term of Employment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Disability" shall mean the inability of the Employee, arising out of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment, to perform the services required of the Employee hereunder for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days; or

(c) The existence of Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Cause" shall be defined as:

(i) Any dishonesty by the Employee in the Employee's dealings with the Employer, the commission of fraud by the Employee, negligence in the performance of the duties of the Employee, insubordination, willful misconduct, or the conviction (or plea of guilty or nolo contendere) of the Employee of any felony, or any other crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude; or

(ii) Any violation of any covenant or restriction contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof; or

(iii) Any violation of any material published policy of the Employer or its affiliates (material published policies include, but are not limited to, the Employer's discrimination and harassment policy, management duty policy, responsible alcohol policy and insider trading policy);

or

(d) At the election of the Employer, upon the sale of a majority ownership interest in the Employer or substantially all of the assets of the Employer; or

(e) At the election of the Employer, upon the determination by the Employer to cease the Employer's business operations; or

(f) At the election of the Employer in its sole discretion, for any reason or no reason. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f), the Employee shall be entitled to receive as full and complete severance compensation, the base salary provided for herein for a period of one (1) year from the effective date of such termination (the "Severance"). Severance shall be payable in bi-weekly installments. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f) the Severance provided in this Section 8(f) shall be the only obligation that the Employer, OSI or any of their affiliates shall have to the Employee. Employee acknowledges that in the event of termination of Employee's employment as President of the Employer, whether pursuant to this Section 8(f) or otherwise, any Long Term Incentive Agreement ("LTIA") with the Employer or any of its affiliates shall terminate immediately and the Employee shall not be entitled to any further payments under such LTIA.

For all purposes of this Agreement, termination for Cause shall be deemed to have occurred in the event of the Employee's resignation when, because of existing facts and circumstances, subsequent termination for Cause can be reasonably foreseen.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(f), in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8, the Employee or the Employee's estate, as appropriate, shall be entitled to receive (in addition to any fringe benefits payable upon death in the case of the Employee's death) the base salary provided for herein up to and including the effective date of termination, prorated on a daily basis.

The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of Employee's employment as President of the Employer, with or without Cause, any LTIA between the Employee and the Employer or any of its affiliates shall terminate immediately and the Employee shall not be entitled to any further payments under such LTIA.

9. Noncompetition.

(a) During Term. During the Employee's employment with the Employer, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a restaurant business, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to any such person or entity.

(b) Post Term. For a continuous period of two (2) years commencing on termination of the Employee's employment with the Employer, regardless of any termination pursuant to Section 8 or any voluntary termination or resignation by the Employee, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in, have any interest in or lend any assistance to, any casual steakhouse restaurant or any person or entity engaged in a business owning, operating, franchising or controlling an casual steakhouse business, and that is located or intended to be located anywhere within a radius of thirty (30) miles of any Outback Steakhouse® restaurant owned or operated by the Employer, OSI or their affiliates or any proposed Outback Steakhouse® restaurant to be owned or operated by any of the foregoing, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, chef, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person, or entity. For purposes of this Section 9(b), Outback Steakhouse® restaurants owned or operated by OSI shall include Outback Steakhouse® restaurants operated or owned by an affiliate of OSI, any successor entity to OSI, and any entity in which OSI has an interest, including but not limited to, an interest as a franchisor. The term "proposed Outback Steakhouse® restaurant" shall include all locations for which OSI, its franchisees or affiliates is conducting active, bona fide negotiations to secure a fee or leasehold interest with the intention of establishing one or more Outback Steakhouse® restaurants thereon. For purposes of this Section 9(b), the term "casual steakhouse" shall mean any restaurant for which the check average is equal to or less than of $30.00 per person, and: (i) the words "steak" or "beef" or any item of steak or beef or any word that connotes steak or beef is used in its name; or (ii) the sale of steak or beef is regularly featured in its advertising or marketing efforts, or (iii) the sale of steak and beef in the aggregate constitute thirty percent (30%) or more of its entrée sales, computed on a dollar basis.

(c) Limitation. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), it shall not be a violation of this Section 9 for Employee to own a one percent (1%) or smaller interest in any corporation required to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or successor statute.

10. Nondisclosure; Nonsolicitation; Nonpiracy. Except in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder, at no time during the Term of Employment, or at any time thereafter, shall Employee, individually or jointly with others, for the benefit of Employee or any third party, publish, disclose, use, or authorize anyone else to publish, disclose, or use, any secret or confidential material or information relating to any aspect of the business or operations of the Employer, OSI or their affiliates, including, without limitation, any secret or confidential information relating to the business, customers, trade or industrial practices, trade secrets, technology, recipes or know-how of any of the Employer, OSI or their affiliates. Moreover, during the Employee's employment with the Employer and for two (2) years thereafter, Employee shall not offer employment to any employee of the Employer, OSI, their franchisees or affiliates, or otherwise solicit or induce any employee of the Employer, OSI, their franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment, nor shall Employee act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, owner or part owner, or in any other capacity, for any person or entity that solicits or otherwise induces any employee of the Employer, OSI, their franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment.

11. Employer Property: Employee Duty to Return. All Employer products, recipes, product specifications, training materials, employee selection and testing materials, marketing and advertising materials, special event, charitable and community activity materials, customer correspondence, internal memoranda, products and designs, sales information, project files, price lists, customer and vendor lists, prospectus reports, customer or vendor information, sales literature, territory printouts, call books, notebooks, textbooks, and all other like information or products, including all copies, duplications, replications, and derivatives of such information or products, now in the possession of Employee or acquired by Employee while in the employ of the Employer, shall be the exclusive property of the Employer and shall be returned to the Employer no later than the date of Employee's last day of work with the Employer.

12. Inventions, Ideas, Processes, and Designs. All inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, programs, software, and designs (including all improvements) (i) conceived or made by Employee during the course of Employee's employment with the Employer (whether or not actually conceived during regular business hours) and for a period of six (6) months subsequent to the termination or expiration of such employment and (ii) related to the business of the Employer, shall be disclosed in writing promptly to the Employer and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Employer. An invention, idea, recipe, process, program, software or design (including an improvement) shall be deemed "related to the business of the Employer" if (a) it was made with equipment, supplies, facilities, or confidential information of the Employer, (b) results from work performed by Employee for the Employer, or (c) pertains to the current business or demonstrably anticipated research or development work of the Employer. Employee shall cooperate with the Employer and their attorneys in the preparation of patent and copyright applications for such developments and, upon request, shall promptly assign all such inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, and designs to the Employer. The decision to file for patent or copyright protection or to maintain such development as a trade secret shall be in the sole discretion of the Employer, and Employee shall be bound by such decision. Employee shall provide, on the back of this Employment Agreement, a complete list of all inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, and designs if any, patented or unpatented, copyrighted or non-copyrighted, including a brief description, that the Employee made or conceived prior to Employee's employment with the Employer and that therefore are excluded from the scope of this Agreement.

13. Employer's Promise to Give Employee Trade Secrets and Training. In return for Employee's agreement not to use or disclose Employer's trade secrets, training, systems and confidential proprietary business methods, Employer unconditionally promises to give Employee within ninety (90) days of the signing of this contract trade secrets, specialized training and other confidential proprietary business methods.

Specifically, Employer unconditionally promises to give Employee one-on-one training from executives, trainers and senior employees of Employer or its affiliates. Further, the training will include training and information concerning procedures and confidential proprietary methods Employer uses to obtain and retain business from their customer base, operations in Employer's home office, marketing and sales techniques, and information regarding the confidential information listed in Section 12(b) of this Agreement. Further, after the ninety (90) days, as Employer develops (during Employee's employment with Employer) additional trade secrets, employee surveys and analyses, financial data and other confidential proprietary business methods and overall marketing plans and strategies, Employer promises to continue to provide, on a periodic basis, said confidential information and additional training and analysis from their executives, trainers and/or senior employees to Employee for so long as Employee is employed by Employer as President.

14. Employee's Promise Not to Disclose Trade Secrets and Confidential Information. Employee understands and agrees that Employer will provide unique and specialized training and confidential information concerning Employer's business operations, including, but not limited to, recipes, product specifications, restaurant operating techniques and procedures, marketing techniques and procedures, financial data, processes, vendors and other information that was developed and maintained at considerable effort and expense to Employer, for the Employer's sole and exclusive use, and which if used by the Employer's competitors would give them an unfair business advantage. Employee believes the unconditional promise to provide said information is sufficient consideration for Employee's promise to adhere to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement.

15. Restrictive Covenants: Consideration; Non-Estoppel; Independent Agreements; and Non-Executory Agreements . The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement are given and made by Employee to induce the Employer to employ the Employee and to enter into this Agreement with the Employee, and Employee hereby acknowledges that employment with the Employer is sufficient consideration for these restrictive covenants.

The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement shall be construed as agreements independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action of Employee against the Employer, whether predicated upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of any restrictive covenant. The Employer has fully performed all obligations entitling them to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement, and those restrictive covenants therefore are not executory or otherwise subject to rejection under the Bankruptcy Code.

The refusal or failure of the Employer to enforce any restrictive covenant of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement (or any similar agreement) against any other employee, agent, or independent contractor, for any reason, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Employer of any such restrictive covenant, nor shall it give rise to any claim or cause of action by Employee against the Employer.

16. Reasonableness of Restrictions; Reformation; Enforcement . The parties hereto recognize and acknowledge that the geographical and time limitations contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof are reasonable and properly required for the adequate protection of the Employer's interests. Employee acknowledges that the Employer is the owner or the licensee of the Outback Steakhouse® trademarks, and the owner or the licensee of the Outback Steakhouse® restaurant operating system and will provide to Employee training in and confidential information concerning the Outback Steakhouse® restaurant operating system in reliance on the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof. It is agreed by the parties hereto that if any portion of the restrictions contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 are held to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, then the restrictions shall be considered divisible, both as to the time and to the geographical area, with each month of the specified period being deemed a separate period of time and each radius mile of the restricted territory being deemed a separate geographical area, so that the lesser period of time or geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy. The parties hereto agree that in the event any court of competent jurisdiction determines the specified period or the specified geographical area of the restricted territory to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, a lesser time period or geographical area that is determined to be reasonable, nonarbitrary, and not against public policy may be enforced against Employee. If Employee shall violate any of the covenants contained herein and if any court action is instituted by the Employer to prevent or enjoin such violation, then the period of time during which the Employee's business activities shall be restricted, as provided in this Agreement, shall be lengthened by a period of time equal to the period between the date of the Employee's breach of the terms or covenants contained in this Agreement and the date on which the decree of the court disposing of the issues upon the merits shall become final and not subject to further appeal.

In the event it is necessary for the Employer to initiate legal proceedings to enforce, interpret or construe any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof, the prevailing party in such proceedings shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party, in addition to all other remedies, all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, of such proceedings including appellate proceedings.

17. Specific Performance. Employee agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof will cause irreparable injury to the Employer for which the remedy at law will be inadequate and would be difficult to ascertain and therefore, in the event of the breach or threatened breach of any such covenants, the Employer shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights and remedies they may have at law or in equity, to obtain an injunction to restrain Employee from any threatened or actual activities in violation of any such covenants. Employee hereby consents and agrees that temporary and permanent injunctive relief may be granted in any proceedings that might be brought to enforce any such covenants without the necessity of proof of actual damages, and in the event the Employer does apply for such an injunction, Employee shall not raise as a defense thereto that the Employer has an adequate remedy at law.

18. Assignability. This Agreement and the rights and duties created hereunder, shall not be assignable or delegable by Employee. The Employer shall have the right, without Employee's knowledge or consent, to assign this Agreement, in whole or in part and any or all of the rights and duties hereunder, including but not limited to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof to any person, including but not limited to any affiliate of the Employer, or any successor to the Employer's interest in the Outback Steakhouse® restaurants, and Employee shall be bound by such assignment. Any assignee or successor may enforce any restrictive covenant of this Agreement.

19. Effect of Termination. The termination of this Agreement, for whatever reason or no reason, or the expiration of this Agreement shall not extinguish those obligations of Employee specified in Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof. The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement. The termination or expiration of this Agreement shall extinguish the right of any party to bring an action, either in law or in equity, for breach of this Agreement by any other party.

20. Captions; Terms. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience only, and shall not be construed to limit, define, or modify the substantive terms hereof.

21. Acknowledgments. Employee hereby acknowledges that the Employee has been provided with a copy of this Agreement for review prior to signing it, that the Employee has been given the opportunity to have this Agreement reviewed by Employee's attorney prior to signing it, that the Employee understands the purposes and effects of this Agreement, and that the Employee has been given a signed copy of this Agreement for Employee's own records.

22. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for herein to be given or sent to a party by the other party shall be deemed validly given or sent if in writing and mailed, postage prepaid, by certified United States mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the parties at their addresses hereinabove set forth or at their last known address. Any party may give notice to the other party at any time, by the method specified above, of a change in the address at which, or the person to whom, notice is to be addressed.

23. Severability. Each section, subsection, and lesser Section of this Agreement constitutes a separate and distinct undertaking, covenant, or provision hereof. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed limited by construction in scope and effect to the minimum extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable, and, in the event such a limiting construction is impossible, such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

24. Waiver. The failure of a party to enforce any term, provision, or condition of this Agreement at any time or times shall not be deemed a waiver of that term, provision, or condition for the future, nor shall any specific waiver of a term, provision, or condition at one time be deemed a waiver of such term, provision, or condition for any future time or times.

25. Parties. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their legal representatives, and proper successors or assigns, as the case may be.

26. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to the principles of comity or conflicts of laws thereof.

27. Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. Employee hereby consents to personal jurisdiction and venue, for any action brought by the Employer arising out of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement or out of the relationship established by this Agreement, exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida; Employee hereby agrees that any action brought by Employee, alone or in combination with others, against the Employer, whether arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida.

28. Affiliate. Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any entity, all persons or entities (i) controlled by the entity, (ii) that control the entity, or (iii) that are under common control with the entity.

29. Cooperation. Employee shall cooperate fully with all reasonable requests for information and participation by the Employer, its agents, or its attorneys, in prosecuting or defending claims, suits, and disputes brought on behalf of or against one or both of them and in which Employee is involved or about which Employee has knowledge.

30. Amendments. No change, modification, or termination of any of the terms, provisions, or conditions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed or initialed by all signatories to this Agreement.

31. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. ALL PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT KNOW AND UNDERSTAND THAT THEY HAVE A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT ANY DISPUTE OR CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT WILL INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT FACTUAL AND LEGAL ISSUES.

THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS, WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, AND WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT ANY OF THEM MAY FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE KNOWING, VOLUNTARY AND BARGAINED-FOR AGREEMENT AMONG THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY TO WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY AND THAT ANY PROCEEDING WHATSOEVER BETWEEN THEM RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS SHALL INSTEAD BE TRIED IN A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION BY A JUDGE SITTING WITHOUT A JURY.

THE PARTIES INTEND THIS WAIVER OF THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL BE AS BROAD AS POSSIBLE. BY THEIR SIGNATURES BELOW, THE PARTIES PROMISE, WARRANT AND REPRESENT THAT THEY WILL NOT PLEAD FOR, REQUEST OR OTHERWISE SEEK TO HAVE A JURY TO RESOLVE ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY ARISE BY, BETWEEN OR AMONG THEM.

32. Entire Agreement; Counterparts. This Agreement and the agreements referred to herein constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersede any prior employment agreement with the Employer, OSI or any of their affiliates and supersedes all prior memoranda, correspondence, conversations, negotiations and other agreements. This Agreement may be executed in several identical counterparts that together shall constitute but one and the same Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

AMENDMENT TO EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Amendment to Employment Agreement (this "Amendment") is made effective as of January 1, 2009, by and between OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC (the "Company"), and Jeffrey S. Smith (the "Executive").

Background Information

The parties to this Amendment (the "Parties") entered into an Officer Employment Agreement as of June 14, 2007 (the "Employment Agreement"), regarding the Executive's employment relationship with the Company. The Parties desire to amend the Employment Agreement in order to comply with the final Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The Employment Agreement, as amended by this Amendment, is hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Agreement."

Amendment of the Employment Agreement

The Parties hereby acknowledge the accuracy of the foregoing Background Information and hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. All capitalized terms used in this Agreement but which are not otherwise defined herein, shall have the respective meanings given those terms in the Employment Agreement, as applicable.

2. Fringe Benefits. Section 6 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 6 that are not 'disability pay' or 'death benefits' within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-1(a)(5) (collectively, the 'Applicable Benefits') shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit."

3. Automobile Allowance; Expenses. Section 7 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following to the end thereof:

"If any reimbursements under this provision are taxable to the Executive, such reimbursements shall be paid on or before the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the reimbursable expense was incurred, and the Company shall not be obligated to pay any such reimbursement amount for which Executive fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred. Such expenses shall be reimbursable only to the extent they were incurred during the term of the Agreement. In addition, the amount of such reimbursements that the Company is obligated to pay in any given calendar year shall not affect the amount the Company is obligated to pay in any other calendar year. Further, Executive may not liquidate or exchange the right to reimbursement of such expenses for any other benefits."

4. Termination. Section 8 of the Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following sub-section (g) to the end thereof:

"(g) Termination of Employment for all purposes under this Agreement will be determined to have occurred in accordance with the 'separation from service' requirements of Code Section 409A and the Treasury Regulations and other guidance issued thereunder, and based on whether the facts and circumstances indicate that Company and Executive reasonably anticipated that no further services would be performed after a certain date or that the level of bona fide services Executive would perform after such date (as an employee or as an independent contractor) would permanently decrease to no more than 20 percent of the average level of bona fide services performed over the immediately preceding 36-month period (or actual period of service, if less)."

5. Section 409A. Section 33 is hereby added to the end of the Agreement to read as follows:

"33. Code Section 409A. The Company makes no representation as to whether any such payment or any part thereof constitutes or may constitute non-qualified deferred compensation. Neither the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors shall have any liability to the Executive or any other person or any amounts incurred by Executive or any other such person by reason of the determination made by the Board of Managers pursuant to this paragraph or any action taken or omitted by the Board, the Company, or any of the Company's managers, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors in the course of, or as a result of, making such determination. For purposes of this Agreement, all rights to payments and benefits hereunder shall be treated as rights to receive a series of separate payments and benefits to the fullest extent allowed by Code Section 409A."

6. The terms and conditions of the Agreement between Company and Executive that are unaffected by this Amendment remain in full force and effect.

CARRABBA'S ITALIAN GRILL, INC.
Officer Employment Agreement

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into effective April 27, 2000, by and among STEVEN T. SHLEMON (hereinafter referred to as "Employee"), and CARRABBA'S ITALIAN GRILL, INC., a Florida corporation having its principal office at 2202 N. West Shore Boulevard, 5th Floor, Tampa, Florida 33607 (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer").

W I T N E S S E T H:

This Agreement is made and entered into under the following circumstances:

A. WHEREAS, the Employer is an affiliate of OSI Restaurant Partners, Inc. ("OSI"); and

B. WHEREAS, the Employer is engaged in the business of owning and operating restaurants known as "Carrabba's Italian Grill®" utilizing a restaurant operating system and trademarks owned by or licensed to the Employer; and

C. WHEREAS, the Employer desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to employ Employee as President of the Employer; and

D. WHEREAS, the Employee desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to be employed by the Employer as President.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and of the premises, covenants, terms and conditions contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment and Term. Subject to earlier termination as provided for in Section 8 hereof, the Employer hereby employs the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts employment with the Employer as President of the Employer for a term commencing on April 27, 2000 and expiring April 27, 2007 ("Term of Employment"). Such Term of Employment shall be automatically renewed for successive renewal terms of one (1) year each unless either party elects not to renew by giving written notice to the other party not less than sixty (60) days prior to the start of any renewal term.

2. Representations and Warranties. The Employee hereby represents and warrants to the Employer that the Employee (i) is not subject to any written nonsolicitation or noncompetition agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Employer (other than any prior agreement with the Employer, OSI or either of their affiliates), (ii) is not subject to any written confidentiality or nonuse/nondisclosure agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Employer (other than any prior agreement with the Employer, OSI or either of their affiliates), and (iii) has brought to the Employer no trade secrets, confidential business information, documents, or other personal property of a prior employer.

3. Duties. As President of the Employer, the Employee shall:

(a) have such management, supervisory and operational functions as are customary to such position, and such other powers, functions and duties may be assigned to the Employee by the Board of Directors of the Employer or the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer of the Employer; and

(b) diligently, competently, and faithfully perform all of the duties and functions hereunder; and

(c) not create a situation that results in termination for Cause (as that term is defined in Section 8 hereof); and

(d) devote one hundred percent (100%) of the Employee's full business time, attention, energies and effort to the business affairs of the Employer; and

(e) conduct all of his activities in a manner so as to maintain and promote the business and reputation of the Employer.

The Employee shall not, during the term of this Agreement, engage in any other business activity; provided, however, that the Employee shall be permitted to invest the Employee's personal assets and manage the Employee's personal investment portfolio in such a form and manner as will not require any business services on Employee's part to any third party or conflict with the provisions of Section 9, Section 10 or Section 14 hereof, or conflict with any published policy of the Employer or its affiliates, including but not limited to the insider trading policy of the Employer or its affiliates.

The Employee shall be responsible for directly reporting to the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer of the Employer on all matters for which the Employee is responsible.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Employee shall, during the term of this Agreement and at the request of the Employer, also serve as an officer of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Employer or OSI, as the Employer shall request. In such capacity, Employee shall be responsible generally for all aspects of such office. All terms, conditions, rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be applicable to Employee while serving in such office as though Employee and such subsidiary or affiliate of the Employer or OSI had separately entered into this Agreement, except that the Employee shall not be entitled to any compensation, vacation, fringe benefits, automobile allowance or other remuneration of any kind whatsoever from such subsidiary or affiliate of the Employer or OSI.

4. Compensation. During the Term of Employment, the Employee shall be entitled to an annual base salary equal to at least the annual salary of Employee on the effective date hereof, payable in equal biweekly installments by the Employer, to be reviewed annually by the Employer.

5. Vacation. Employee shall be entitled to three (3) weeks paid vacation (selected by Employee, but subject to the reasonable business requirements of the Employer as determined by the Chief Executive Officer of the Employer) during each full year during the Term of Employment. Vacation granted but not used in any year shall be forfeited at the end of such one-year period and may not be carried over to any subsequent year.

6. Fringe Benefits. In addition to any other rights the Employee may have hereunder, the Employee shall also be entitled to receive those fringe benefits, including, but not limited to, complimentary food, life insurance, medical benefits, etc., if any, as may be provided by the Employer to similar employees of the Employer.

7. Automobile Allowance; Expenses.

(a) During the Term of Employment, the Employer shall pay to Employee a monthly automobile allowance in the amount of FOUR HUNDRED AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($400.00). Such automobile allowance shall be in lieu of reimbursement by the Employer of the costs to Employee of purchasing and maintaining an automobile, and all operational expenses, including, without limitation, mileage, repairs, insurance, etc., in connection therewith; provided, however, that the Employer shall reimburse Employee for the cost of gasoline used in conducting the Employer's business. Employee shall, at all times during the Term of Employment, maintain an automobile for use in connection with the performance of Employee's duties and shall maintain in full force and effect, at all times, with the Employer as additional loss payees, at least TWO HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($250,000.00) in property damage and FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($500,000.00) in personal liability automobile insurance, with an additional ONE

MILLION DOLLARS ($1,000,000.00) personal liability umbrella. Such insurance shall be written with an insurance carrier reasonably acceptable to the Employer and shall provide that such insurance cannot be changed, cancelled or permitted to expire without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the Employer.

(b) Subject to approval by the Chief Financial Officer of the Employer and compliance with the Employer's policies, the Employee may incur reasonable expenses on behalf of and in furtherance of the business of the Employer. Upon approval of such expenses by the Chief Financial Officer, the Employer shall promptly reimburse the Employee for all such expenses upon presentation by the Employee, from time to time, of appropriate receipts or vouchers for such expenses that are sufficient in form and substance to satisfy all federal tax requirements for the deductibility of such expenses by the Employer.

8. Termination. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 hereof, the Term of Employment shall terminate prior to the end of the period of time specified in Section 1, immediately upon:

(a) The death of the Employee; or

(b) The Employee's Disability during the Term of Employment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Disability" shall mean the inability of the Employee, arising out of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment, to perform the services required of the Employee hereunder for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days; or

(c) The existence of Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Cause" shall be defined as:

(i) Any dishonesty by the Employee in the Employee's dealings with the Employer, the commission of fraud by the Employee, negligence in the performance of the duties of the Employee, insubordination, willful misconduct, or the conviction (or plea of guilty or nolo contendere) of the Employee of any felony, or any other crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude; or

(ii) Any violation of any covenant or restriction contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof; or

(iii) Any violation of any material published policy of the Employer or its affiliates (material published policies include, but are not limited to, the Employer's discrimination and harassment policy, management duty policy, responsible alcohol policy and insider trading policy);

or

(d) At the election of the Employer, upon the sale of a majority ownership interest in the Employer or substantially all of the assets of the Employer; or

(e) At the election of the Employer, upon the determination by the Employer to cease the Employer's business operations; or

(f) At the election of the Employer in its sole discretion, for any reason or no reason. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f), the Employee shall be entitled to receive as full and complete severance compensation, the base salary provided for herein for a period of one (1) year from the effective date of such termination (the "Severance"). Severance shall be payable in bi-weekly installments. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f) the Severance provided in this Section 8(f) shall be the only obligation that the Employer, OSI or any of their affiliates shall have to the Employee. Employee acknowledges that in the event of termination of Employee's employment as President of the Employer, whether pursuant to this Section 8(f) or otherwise, any Long Term Incentive Agreement ("LTIA") with the Employer or any of its affiliates shall terminate immediately and the Employee shall not be entitled to any further payments under such LTIA.

For all purposes of this Agreement, termination for Cause shall be deemed to have occurred in the event of the Employee's resignation when, because of existing facts and circumstances, subsequent termination for Cause can be reasonably foreseen.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(f), in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8, the Employee or the Employee's estate, as appropriate, shall be entitled to receive (in addition to any fringe benefits payable upon death in the case of the Employee's death) the base salary provided for herein up to and including the effective date of termination, prorated on a daily basis.

The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of Employee's employment as President of the Employer, with or without Cause, any LTIA between the Employee and the Employer or any of its affiliates shall terminate immediately and the Employee shall not be entitled to any further payments under such LTIA.

9. Noncompetition.

(a) During Term. During the Employee's employment with the Employer, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a restaurant business, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to any such person or entity.

(b) Post Term. For a continuous period of two (2) years commencing on termination of the Employee's employment with the Employer, regardless of any termination pursuant to Section 8 or any voluntary termination or resignation by the Employee, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in, have any interest in or lend any assistance to, any Italian restaurant or any person or entity engaged in a business owning, operating, franchising or controlling an Italian restaurant business, and that is located or intended to be located anywhere within a radius of thirty (30) miles of any Carrabba's® restaurant owned or operated by the Employer, the Company or their affiliates or any proposed Carrabba's® restaurant to be owned or operated by any of the foregoing, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, chef, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person, or entity. For purposes of this Section 9(b), Carrabba's® restaurants owned or operated by the Company shall include Carrabba's® restaurants operated or owned by an affiliate of the Company, any successor entity to the Company, and any entity in which the Company has an interest, including but not limited to, an interest as a franchisor. The term "proposed Carrabba's® restaurant" shall include all locations for which the Company, its franchisees or affiliates is conducting active, bona fide negotiations to secure a fee or leasehold interest with the intention of establishing one or more Carrabba's® restaurants thereon. For purposes of this Section 9(b), the term "Italian" shall mean any restaurant for which: (i) the word "Italian" or any item of Italian cuisine or any word that connotes Italian cuisine is used in its name; or (ii) the sale of Italian cuisine is regularly featured in its advertising or marketing efforts, or (iii) the sale of Italian cuisine constitutes thirty percent (30%) or more of its entrée sales, computed on a dollar basis.

(c) Limitation. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), it shall not be a violation of this Section 9 for Employee to own a one percent (1%) or smaller interest in any corporation required to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or successor statute.

10. Nondisclosure; Nonsolicitation; Nonpiracy. Except in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder, at no time during the Term of Employment, or at any time thereafter, shall Employee, individually or jointly with others, for the benefit of Employee or any third party, publish, disclose, use, or authorize anyone else to publish, disclose, or use, any secret or confidential material or information relating to any aspect of the business or operations of the Employer, OSI or their affiliates, including, without limitation, any secret or confidential information relating to the business, customers, trade or industrial practices, trade secrets, technology, recipes or know-how of any of the Employer, OSI or their affiliates. Moreover, during the Employee's employment with the Employer and for two (2) years thereafter, Employee shall not offer employment to any employee of the Employer, OSI, their franchisees or affiliates, or otherwise solicit or induce any employee of the Employer, OSI, their franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment, nor shall Employee act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, owner or part owner, or in any other capacity, for any person or entity that solicits or otherwise induces any employee of the Employer, OSI, their franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment.

11. Employer Property: Employee Duty to Return. All Employer products, recipes, product specifications, training materials, employee selection and testing materials, marketing and advertising materials, special event, charitable and community activity materials, customer correspondence, internal memoranda, products and designs, sales information, project files, price lists, customer and vendor lists, prospectus reports, customer or vendor information, sales literature, territory printouts, call books, notebooks, textbooks, and all other like information or products, including all copies, duplications, replications, and derivatives of such information or products, now in the possession of Employee or acquired by Employee while in the employ of the Employer, shall be the exclusive property of the Employer and shall be returned to the Employer no later than the date of Employee's last day of work with the Employer.

12. Inventions, Ideas, Processes, and Designs. All inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, programs, software, and designs (including all improvements) (i) conceived or made by Employee during the course of Employee's employment with the Employer (whether or not actually conceived during regular business hours) and for a period of six (6) months subsequent to the termination or expiration of such employment and (ii) related to the business of the Employer, shall be disclosed in writing promptly to the Employer and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Employer. An invention, idea, recipe, process, program, software or design (including an improvement) shall be deemed "related to the business of the Employer" if (a) it was made with equipment, supplies, facilities, or confidential information of the Employer, (b) results from work performed by Employee for the Employer, or (c) pertains to the current business or demonstrably anticipated research or development work of the Employer. Employee shall cooperate with the Employer and their attorneys in the preparation of patent and copyright applications for such developments and, upon request, shall promptly assign all such inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, and designs to the Employer. The decision to file for patent or copyright protection or to maintain such development as a trade secret shall be in the sole discretion of the Employer, and Employee shall be bound by such decision. Employee shall provide, on the back of this Employment Agreement, a complete list of all inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, and designs if any, patented or unpatented, copyrighted or non-copyrighted, including a brief description, that the Employee made or conceived prior to Employee's employment with the Employer and that therefore are excluded from the scope of this Agreement.

13. Employer's Promise to Give Employee Trade Secrets and Training. In return for Employee's agreement not to use or disclose Employer's trade secrets, training, systems and confidential proprietary business methods, Employer unconditionally promises to give Employee within ninety (90) days of the signing of this contract trade secrets, specialized training and other confidential proprietary business methods.

Specifically, Employer unconditionally promises to give Employee one-on-one training from executives, trainers and senior employees of Employer or its affiliates. Further, the training will include training and information concerning procedures and confidential proprietary methods Employer uses to obtain and retain business from their customer base, operations in Employer's home office, marketing and sales techniques, and information regarding the confidential information listed in Section 12(b) of this Agreement. Further, after the ninety (90) days, as Employer develops (during Employee's employment with Employer) additional trade secrets, employee surveys and analyses, financial data and other confidential proprietary business methods and overall marketing plans and strategies, Employer promises to continue to provide, on a periodic basis, said confidential information and additional training and analysis from their executives, trainers and/or senior employees to Employee for so long as Employee is employed by Employer as President.

14. Employee's Promise Not to Disclose Trade Secrets and Confidential Information. Employee understands and agrees that Employer will provide unique and specialized training and confidential information concerning Employer's business operations, including, but not limited to, recipes, product specifications, restaurant operating techniques and procedures, marketing techniques and procedures, financial data, processes, vendors and other information that was developed and maintained at considerable effort and expense to Employer, for the Employer's sole and exclusive use, and which if used by the Employer's competitors would give them an unfair business advantage. Employee believes the unconditional promise to provide said information is sufficient consideration for Employee's promise to adhere to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement.

15. Restrictive Covenants: Consideration; Non-Estoppel; Independent Agreements; and Non-Executory Agreements. The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement are given and made by Employee to induce the Employer to employ the Employee and to enter into this Agreement with the Employee, and Employee hereby acknowledges that employment with the Employer is sufficient consideration for these restrictive covenants.

The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement shall be construed as agreements independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action of Employee against the Employer, whether predicated upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of any restrictive covenant. The Employer have fully performed all obligations entitling them to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement, and those restrictive covenants therefore are not executory or otherwise subject to rejection under the Bankruptcy Code.

The refusal or failure of the Employer to enforce any restrictive covenant of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement (or any similar agreement) against any other employee, agent, or independent contractor, for any reason, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Employer of any such restrictive covenant, nor shall it give rise to any claim or cause of action by Employee against the Employer.

16. Reasonableness of Restrictions; Reformation; Enforcement. The parties hereto recognize and acknowledge that the geographical and time limitations contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof are reasonable and properly required for the adequate protection of the Employer's interests. Employee acknowledges that the Employer is the owner or the licensee of the Carrabba's Italian Grill® trademarks, and the owner or the licensee of the Carrabba's Italian Grill® restaurant operating system and will provide to Employee training in and confidential information concerning the Carrabba's Italian Grill® restaurant operating system in reliance on the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof. It is agreed by the parties hereto that if any portion of the restrictions contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 are held to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, then the restrictions shall be considered divisible, both as to the time and to the geographical area, with each month of the specified period being deemed a separate period of time and each radius mile of the restricted territory being deemed a separate geographical area, so that the lesser period of time or geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy. The parties hereto agree that in the event any court of competent jurisdiction determines the specified period or the specified geographical area of the restricted territory to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, a lesser time period or geographical area that is determined to be reasonable, nonarbitrary, and not against public policy may be enforced against Employee. If Employee shall violate any of the covenants contained herein and if any court action is instituted by the Employer to prevent or enjoin such violation, then the period of time during which the Employee's business activities shall be restricted, as provided in this Agreement, shall be lengthened by a period of time equal to the period between the date of the Employee's breach of the terms or covenants contained in this Agreement and the date on which the decree of the court disposing of the issues upon the merits shall become final and not subject to further appeal.

In the event it is necessary for the Employer to initiate legal proceedings to enforce, interpret or construe any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof, the prevailing party in such proceedings shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party, in addition to all other remedies, all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, of such proceedings including appellate proceedings.

17. Specific Performance. Employee agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof will cause irreparable injury to the Employer for which the remedy at law will be inadequate and would be difficult to ascertain and therefore, in the event of the breach or threatened breach of any such covenants, the Employer shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights and remedies they may have at law or in equity, to obtain an injunction to restrain Employee from any threatened or actual activities in violation of any such covenants. Employee hereby consents and agrees that temporary and permanent injunctive relief may be granted in any proceedings that might be brought to enforce any such covenants without the necessity of proof of actual damages, and in the event the Employer does apply for such an injunction, Employee shall not raise as a defense thereto that the Employer has an adequate remedy at law.

18. Assignability. This Agreement and the rights and duties created hereunder, shall not be assignable or delegable by Employee. The Employer shall have the right, without Employee's knowledge or consent, to assign this Agreement, in whole or in part and any or all of the rights and duties hereunder, including but not limited to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof to any person, including but not limited to any affiliate of the Employer, or any successor to the Employer's interest in the Carrabba's Italian Grill® restaurants, and Employee shall be bound by such assignment. Any assignee or successor may enforce any restrictive covenant of this Agreement.

19. Effect of Termination. The termination of this Agreement, for whatever reason or no reason, or the expiration of this Agreement shall not extinguish those obligations of Employee specified in Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof. The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement. The termination or expiration of this Agreement shall extinguish the right of any party to bring an action, either in law or in equity, for breach of this Agreement by any other party.

20. Captions; Terms. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience only, and shall not be construed to limit, define, or modify the substantive terms hereof.

21. Acknowledgments. Employee hereby acknowledges that the Employee has been provided with a copy of this Agreement for review prior to signing it, that the Employee has been given the opportunity to have this Agreement reviewed by Employee's attorney prior to signing it, that the Employee understands the purposes and effects of this Agreement, and that the Employee has been given a signed copy of this Agreement for Employee's own records.

22. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for herein to be given or sent to a party by the other party shall be deemed validly given or sent if in writing and mailed, postage prepaid, by certified United States mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the parties at their addresses hereinabove set forth or at their last known address. Any party may give notice to the other party at any time, by the method specified above, of a change in the address at which, or the person to whom, notice is to be addressed.

23. Severability. Each section, subsection, and lesser Section of this Agreement constitutes a separate and distinct undertaking, covenant, or provision hereof. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed limited by construction in scope and effect to the minimum extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable, and, in the event such a limiting construction is impossible, such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

24. Waiver. The failure of a party to enforce any term, provision, or condition of this Agreement at any time or times shall not be deemed a waiver of that term, provision, or condition for the future, nor shall any specific waiver of a term, provision, or condition at one time be deemed a waiver of such term, provision, or condition for any future time or times.

25. Parties. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their legal representatives, and proper successors or assigns, as the case may be.

26. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to the principles of comity or conflicts of laws thereof.

27. Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. Employee hereby consents to personal jurisdiction and venue, for any action brought by the Employer arising out of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement or out of the relationship established by this Agreement, exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida; Employee hereby agrees that any action brought by Employee, alone or in combination with others, against the Employer, whether arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida.

28. Affiliate. Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any entity, all persons or entities (i) controlled by the entity, (ii) that control the entity, or (iii) that are under common control with the entity.

29. Cooperation. Employee shall cooperate fully with all reasonable requests for information and participation by the Employer, its agents, or its attorneys, in prosecuting or defending claims, suits, and disputes brought on behalf of or against one or both of them and in which Employee is involved or about which Employee has knowledge.

30. Amendments. No change, modification, or termination of any of the terms, provisions, or conditions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed or initialed by all signatories to this Agreement.

BONEFISH GRILL, INC.
Officer Employment Agreement

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into effective August 1, 2001, by and among JOHN W. COOPER (hereinafter referred to as "Employee"), and BONEFISH GRILL, INC., a Florida corporation having its principal office at 2202 N. West Shore Boulevard, 5th Floor, Tampa, Florida 33607 (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer").

W I T N E S S E T H:

This Agreement is made and entered into under the following circumstances:

A. WHEREAS, the Employer is an affiliate of OSI Restaurant Partners, Inc. ("OSI"); and

B. WHEREAS, the Employer is engaged in the business of owning and operating restaurants known as "Bonefish Grill®" utilizing a restaurant operating system and trademarks owned by or licensed to the Employer; and

C. WHEREAS, the Employer desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to employ Employee as President of the Employer; and

D. WHEREAS, the Employee desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to be employed by the Employer as President.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and of the premises, covenants, terms and conditions contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment and Term. Subject to earlier termination as provided for in Section 8 hereof, the Employer hereby employs the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts employment with the Employer as President of the Employer for a term commencing on August 20, 2001 and expiring August 20, 2007 ("Term of Employment"). Such Term of Employment shall be automatically renewed for successive renewal terms of one (1) year each unless either party elects not to renew by giving written notice to the other party not less than sixty (60) days prior to the start of any renewal term.

2. Representations and Warranties. The Employee hereby represents and warrants to the Employer that the Employee (i) is not subject to any written nonsolicitation or noncompetition agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Employer (other than any prior agreement with the Employer, OSI or either of their affiliates), (ii) is not subject to any written confidentiality or nonuse/nondisclosure agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Employer (other than any prior agreement with the Employer, OSI or either of their affiliates), and (iii) has brought to the Employer no trade secrets, confidential business information, documents, or other personal property of a prior employer.

3. Duties. As President of the Employer, the Employee shall:

(a) have such management, supervisory and operational functions as are customary to such position, and such other powers, functions and duties may be assigned to the Employee by the Board of Directors of the Employer or the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer of the Employer; and

(b) diligently, competently, and faithfully perform all of the duties and functions hereunder; and

(c) not create a situation that results in termination for Cause (as that term is defined in Section 8 hereof); and

(d) devote one hundred percent (100%) of the Employee's full business time, attention, energies and effort to the business affairs of the Employer; and

(e) conduct all of his activities in a manner so as to maintain and promote the business and reputation of the Employer.

The Employee shall not, during the term of this Agreement, engage in any other business activity; provided, however, that the Employee shall be permitted to invest the Employee's personal assets and manage the Employee's personal investment portfolio in such a form and manner as will not require any business services on Employee's part to any third party or conflict with the provisions of Section 9, Section 10 or Section 14 hereof, or conflict with any published policy of the Employer or its affiliates, including but not limited to the insider trading policy of the Employer or its affiliates.

The Employee shall be responsible for directly reporting to the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer of the Employer on all matters for which the Employee is responsible.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Employee shall, during the term of this Agreement and at the request of the Employer, also serve as an officer of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Employer or OSI, as the Employer shall request. In such capacity, Employee shall be responsible generally for all aspects of such office. All terms, conditions, rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be applicable to Employee while serving in such office as though Employee and such subsidiary or affiliate of the Employer or OSI had separately entered into this Agreement, except that the Employee shall not be entitled to any compensation, vacation, fringe benefits, automobile allowance or other remuneration of any kind whatsoever from such subsidiary or affiliate of the Employer or OSI.

4. Compensation. During the Term of Employment, the Employee shall be entitled to an annual base salary equal to at least the annual salary of Employee on the effective date hereof, payable in equal biweekly installments by the Employer, to be reviewed annually by the Employer.

5. Vacation. Employee shall be entitled to three (3) weeks paid vacation (selected by Employee, but subject to the reasonable business requirements of the Employer as determined by the Chief Executive Officer of the Employer) during each full year during the Term of Employment. Vacation granted but not used in any year shall be forfeited at the end of such one-year period and may not be carried over to any subsequent year.

6. Fringe Benefits. In addition to any other rights the Employee may have hereunder, the Employee shall also be entitled to receive those fringe benefits, including, but not limited to, complimentary food, life insurance, medical benefits, etc., if any, as may be provided by the Employer to similar employees of the Employer.

7. Automobile Allowance; Expenses.

(a) During the Term of Employment, the Employer shall pay to Employee a monthly automobile allowance in the amount of FOUR HUNDRED AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($400.00). Such automobile allowance shall be in lieu of reimbursement by the Employer of the costs to Employee of purchasing and maintaining an automobile, and all operational expenses, including, without limitation, mileage, repairs, insurance, etc., in connection therewith; provided, however, that the Employer shall reimburse Employee for the cost of gasoline used in conducting the Employer's business. Employee shall, at all times during the Term of Employment, maintain an automobile for use in connection with the performance of Employee's duties and shall maintain in full force and effect, at all times, with the Employer as additional loss payees, at least TWO HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($250,000.00) in property damage and FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($500,000.00) in personal liability automobile insurance, with an additional ONE MILLION DOLLARS ($1,000,000.00) personal liability umbrella. Such insurance shall be written with an insurance carrier reasonably acceptable to the Employer and shall provide that such insurance cannot be changed, cancelled or permitted to expire without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the Employer.

(b) Subject to approval by the Chief Financial Officer of the Employer and compliance with the Employer's policies, the Employee may incur reasonable expenses on behalf of and in furtherance of the business of the Employer. Upon approval of such expenses by the Chief Financial Officer, the Employer shall promptly reimburse the Employee for all such expenses upon presentation by the Employee, from time to time, of appropriate receipts or vouchers for such expenses that are sufficient in form and substance to satisfy all federal tax requirements for the deductibility of such expenses by the Employer.

8. Termination. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 hereof, the Term of Employment shall terminate prior to the end of the period of time specified in Section 1, immediately upon:

(a) The death of the Employee; or

(b) The Employee's Disability during the Term of Employment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Disability" shall mean the inability of the Employee, arising out of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment, to perform the services required of the Employee hereunder for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days; or

(c) The existence of Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Cause" shall be defined as:

(i) Any dishonesty by the Employee in the Employee's dealings with the Employer, the commission of fraud by the Employee, negligence in the performance of the duties of the Employee, insubordination, willful misconduct, or the conviction (or plea of guilty or nolo contendere) of the Employee of any felony, or any other crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude; or

(ii) Any violation of any covenant or restriction contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof; or

(iii) Any violation of any material published policy of the Employer or its affiliates (material published policies include, but are not limited to, the Employer's discrimination and harassment policy, management duty policy, responsible alcohol policy and insider trading policy);

or

(d) At the election of the Employer, upon the sale of a majority ownership interest in the Employer or substantially all of the assets of the Employer; or

(e) At the election of the Employer, upon the determination by the Employer to cease the Employer's business operations; or

(f) At the election of the Employer in its sole discretion, for any reason or no reason. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f), the Employee shall be entitled to receive as full and complete severance compensation, the base salary provided for herein for a period of one (1) year from the effective date of such termination (the "Severance"). Severance shall be payable in bi-weekly installments. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f) the Severance provided in this Section 8(f) shall be the only obligation that the Employer, OSI or any of their affiliates shall have to the Employee. Employee acknowledges that in the event of termination of Employee's employment as President of the Employer, whether pursuant to this Section 8(f) or otherwise, any Long Term Incentive Agreement ("LTIA") with the Employer or any of its affiliates shall terminate immediately and the Employee shall not be entitled to any further payments under such LTIA.

For all purposes of this Agreement, termination for Cause shall be deemed to have occurred in the event of the Employee's resignation when, because of existing facts and circumstances, subsequent termination for Cause can be reasonably foreseen.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(f), in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8, the Employee or the Employee's estate, as appropriate, shall be entitled to receive (in addition to any fringe benefits payable upon death in the case of the Employee's death) the base salary provided for herein up to and including the effective date of termination, prorated on a daily basis.

The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of Employee's employment as President of the Employer, with or without Cause, any LTIA between the Employee and the Employer or any of its affiliates shall terminate immediately and the Employee shall not be entitled to any further payments under such LTIA.

9. Noncompetition.

(a) During Term. During the Employee's employment with the Employer, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a restaurant business, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to any such person or entity.

(b) Post Term. For a continuous period of two (2) years commencing on termination of the Employee's employment with the Employer, regardless of any termination pursuant to Section 8 or any voluntary termination or resignation by the Employee, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in, have any interest in or lend any assistance to, any seafood restaurant or any person or entity engaged in a business owning, operating, franchising or controlling a seafood restaurant business, and that is located or intended to be located anywhere within a radius of thirty (30) miles of any Bonefish Grill® restaurant owned or operated by the Employer, the Company or their affiliates or any proposed Bonefish Grill® restaurant to be owned or operated by any of the foregoing, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, chef, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person, or entity. For purposes of this Section 9(b), Bonefish Grill® restaurants owned or operated by the Company shall include Bonefish Grill® restaurants operated or owned by an affiliate of the Company, any successor entity to the Company, and any entity in which the Company has an interest, including but not limited to, an interest as a franchisor. The term "proposed Bonefish Grill® restaurant" shall include all locations for which the Company, its franchisees or affiliates is conducting active, bona fide negotiations to secure a fee or leasehold interest with the intention of establishing one or more Bonefish Grill® restaurants thereon. For purposes of this Section 9(b), the term "seafood restaurant" shall mean any restaurant for which: (i) the word "seafood" or any item of seafood or any word that connotes seafood is used in its name; or (ii) the sale of seafood is regularly featured in its advertising or marketing efforts, or (iii) the sale of seafood constitutes thirty percent (30%) or more of its entrée sales, computed on a dollar basis.

(c) Limitation. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), it shall not be a violation of this Section 9 for Employee to own a one percent (1%) or smaller interest in any corporation required to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or successor statute.

10. Nondisclosure; Nonsolicitation; Nonpiracy. Except in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder, at no time during the Term of Employment, or at any time thereafter, shall Employee, individually or jointly with others, for the benefit of Employee or any third party, publish, disclose, use, or authorize anyone else to publish, disclose, or use, any secret or confidential material or information relating to any aspect of the business or operations of the Employer, OSI or their affiliates, including, without limitation, any secret or confidential information relating to the business, customers, trade or industrial practices, trade secrets, technology, recipes or know-how of any of the Employer, OSI or their affiliates. Moreover, during the Employee's employment with the Employer and for two (2) years thereafter, Employee shall not offer employment to any employee of the Employer, OSI, their franchisees or affiliates, or otherwise solicit or induce any employee of the Employer, OSI, their franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment, nor shall Employee act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, owner or part owner, or in any other capacity, for any person or entity that solicits or otherwise induces any employee of the Employer, OSI, their franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment.

11. Employer Property: Employee Duty to Return. All Employer products, recipes, product specifications, training materials, employee selection and testing materials, marketing and advertising materials, special event, charitable and community activity materials, customer correspondence, internal memoranda, products and designs, sales information, project files, price lists, customer and vendor lists, prospectus reports, customer or vendor information, sales literature, territory printouts, call books, notebooks, textbooks, and all other like information or products, including all copies, duplications, replications, and derivatives of such information or products, now in the possession of Employee or acquired by Employee while in the employ of the Employer, shall be the exclusive property of the Employer and shall be returned to the Employer no later than the date of Employee's last day of work with the Employer.

12. Inventions, Ideas, Processes, and Designs. All inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, programs, software, and designs (including all improvements) (i) conceived or made by Employee during the course of Employee's employment with the Employer (whether or not actually conceived during regular business hours) and for a period of six (6) months subsequent to the termination or expiration of such employment and (ii) related to the business of the Employer, shall be disclosed in writing promptly to the Employer and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Employer. An invention, idea, recipe, process, program, software or design (including an improvement) shall be deemed "related to the business of the Employer" if (a) it was made with equipment, supplies, facilities, or confidential information of the Employer, (b) results from work performed by Employee for the Employer, or (c) pertains to the current business or demonstrably anticipated research or development work of the Employer. Employee shall cooperate with the Employer and their attorneys in the preparation of patent and copyright applications for such developments and, upon request, shall promptly assign all such inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, and designs to the Employer. The decision to file for patent or copyright protection or to maintain such development as a trade secret shall be in the sole discretion of the Employer, and Employee shall be bound by such decision. Employee shall provide, on the back of this Employment Agreement, a complete list of all inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, and designs if any, patented or unpatented, copyrighted or non-copyrighted, including a brief description, that the Employee made or conceived prior to Employee's employment with the Employer and that therefore are excluded from the scope of this Agreement.

13. Employer's Promise to Give Employee Trade Secrets and Training. In return for Employee's agreement not to use or disclose Employer's trade secrets, training, systems and confidential proprietary business methods, Employer unconditionally promises to give Employee within ninety (90) days of the signing of this contract trade secrets, specialized training and other confidential proprietary business methods.

Specifically, Employer unconditionally promises to give Employee one-on-one training from executives, trainers and senior employees of Employer or its affiliates. Further, the training will include training and information concerning procedures and confidential proprietary methods Employer uses to obtain and retain business from their customer base, operations in Employer's home office, marketing and sales techniques, and information regarding the confidential information listed in Section 12(b) of this Agreement. Further, after the ninety (90) days, as Employer develops (during Employee's employment with Employer) additional trade secrets, employee surveys and analyses, financial data and other confidential proprietary business methods and overall marketing plans and strategies, Employer promises to continue to provide, on a periodic basis, said confidential information and additional training and analysis from their executives, trainers and/or senior employees to Employee for so long as Employee is employed by Employer as President.

14. Employee's Promise Not to Disclose Trade Secrets and Confidential Information. Employee understands and agrees that Employer will provide unique and specialized training and confidential information concerning Employer's business operations, including, but not limited to, recipes, product specifications, restaurant operating techniques and procedures, marketing techniques and procedures, financial data, processes, vendors and other information that was developed and maintained at considerable effort and expense to Employer, for the Employer's sole and exclusive use, and which if used by the Employer's competitors would give them an unfair business advantage. Employee believes the unconditional promise to provide said information is sufficient consideration for Employee's promise to adhere to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement.

15. Restrictive Covenants: Consideration; Non-Estoppel; Independent Agreements; and Non-Executory Agreements . The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement are given and made by Employee to induce the Employer to employ the Employee and to enter into this Agreement with the Employee, and Employee hereby acknowledges that employment with the Employer is sufficient consideration for these restrictive covenants.

The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement shall be construed as agreements independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action of Employee against the Employer, whether predicated upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of any restrictive covenant. The Employer have fully performed all obligations entitling them to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement, and those restrictive covenants therefore are not executory or otherwise subject to rejection under the Bankruptcy Code.

The refusal or failure of the Employer to enforce any restrictive covenant of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement (or any similar agreement) against any other employee, agent, or independent contractor, for any reason, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Employer of any such restrictive covenant, nor shall it give rise to any claim or cause of action by Employee against the Employer.

16. Reasonableness of Restrictions; Reformation; Enforcement . The parties hereto recognize and acknowledge that the geographical and time limitations contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof are reasonable and properly required for the adequate protection of the Employer's interests. Employee acknowledges that the Employer is the owner or the licensee of the Bonefish Grill® trademarks, and the owner or the licensee of the Bonefish Grill® restaurant operating system and will provide to Employee training in and confidential information concerning the Bonefish Grill® restaurant operating system in reliance on the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof. It is agreed by the parties hereto that if any portion of the restrictions contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 are held to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, then the restrictions shall be considered divisible, both as to the time and to the geographical area, with each month of the specified period being deemed a separate period of time and each radius mile of the restricted territory being deemed a separate geographical area, so that the lesser period of time or geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy. The parties hereto agree that in the event any court of competent jurisdiction determines the specified period or the specified geographical area of the restricted territory to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, a lesser time period or geographical area that is determined to be reasonable, nonarbitrary, and not against public policy may be enforced against Employee. If Employee shall violate any of the covenants contained herein and if any court action is instituted by the Employer to prevent or enjoin such violation, then the period of time during which the Employee's business activities shall be restricted, as provided in this Agreement, shall be lengthened by a period of time equal to the period between the date of the Employee's breach of the terms or covenants contained in this Agreement and the date on which the decree of the court disposing of the issues upon the merits shall become final and not subject to further appeal.

In the event it is necessary for the Employer to initiate legal proceedings to enforce, interpret or construe any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof, the prevailing party in such proceedings shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party, in addition to all other remedies, all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, of such proceedings including appellate proceedings.

17. Specific Performance. Employee agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof will cause irreparable injury to the Employer for which the remedy at law will be inadequate and would be difficult to ascertain and therefore, in the event of the breach or threatened breach of any such covenants, the Employer shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights and remedies they may have at law or in equity, to obtain an injunction to restrain Employee from any threatened or actual activities in violation of any such covenants. Employee hereby consents and agrees that temporary and permanent injunctive relief may be granted in any proceedings that might be brought to enforce any such covenants without the necessity of proof of actual damages, and in the event the Employer does apply for such an injunction, Employee shall not raise as a defense thereto that the Employer has an adequate remedy at law.

18. Assignability. This Agreement and the rights and duties created hereunder, shall not be assignable or delegable by Employee. The Employer shall have the right, without Employee's knowledge or consent, to assign this Agreement, in whole or in part and any or all of the rights and duties hereunder, including but not limited to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof to any person, including but not limited to any affiliate of the Employer, or any successor to the Employer's interest in the Bonefish Grill® restaurants, and Employee shall be bound by such assignment. Any assignee or successor may enforce any restrictive covenant of this Agreement.

19. Effect of Termination. The termination of this Agreement, for whatever reason or no reason, or the expiration of this Agreement shall not extinguish those obligations of Employee specified in Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof. The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement. The termination or expiration of this Agreement shall extinguish the right of any party to bring an action, either in law or in equity, for breach of this Agreement by any other party.

20. Captions; Terms. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience only, and shall not be construed to limit, define, or modify the substantive terms hereof.

21. Acknowledgments. Employee hereby acknowledges that the Employee has been provided with a copy of this Agreement for review prior to signing it, that the Employee has been given the opportunity to have this Agreement reviewed by Employee's attorney prior to signing it, that the Employee understands the purposes and effects of this Agreement, and that the Employee has been given a signed copy of this Agreement for Employee's own records.

22. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for herein to be given or sent to a party by the other party shall be deemed validly given or sent if in writing and mailed, postage prepaid, by certified United States mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the parties at their addresses hereinabove set forth or at their last known address. Any party may give notice to the other party at any time, by the method specified above, of a change in the address at which, or the person to whom, notice is to be addressed.

23. Severability. Each section, subsection, and lesser Section of this Agreement constitutes a separate and distinct undertaking, covenant, or provision hereof. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed limited by construction in scope and effect to the minimum extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable, and, in the event such a limiting construction is impossible, such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

24. Waiver. The failure of a party to enforce any term, provision, or condition of this Agreement at any time or times shall not be deemed a waiver of that term, provision, or condition for the future, nor shall any specific waiver of a term, provision, or condition at one time be deemed a waiver of such term, provision, or condition for any future time or times.

25. Parties. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their legal representatives, and proper successors or assigns, as the case may be.

26. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to the principles of comity or conflicts of laws thereof.

27. Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. Employee hereby consents to personal jurisdiction and venue, for any action brought by the Employer arising out of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement or out of the relationship established by this Agreement, exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida; Employee hereby agrees that any action brought by Employee, alone or in combination with others, against the Employer, whether arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida.

28. Affiliate. Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any entity, all persons or entities (i) controlled by the entity, (ii) that control the entity, or (iii) that are under common control with the entity.

29. Cooperation. Employee shall cooperate fully with all reasonable requests for information and participation by the Employer, its agents, or its attorneys, in prosecuting or defending claims, suits, and disputes brought on behalf of or against one or both of them and in which Employee is involved or about which Employee has knowledge.

30. Amendments. No change, modification, or termination of any of the terms, provisions, or conditions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed or initialed by all signatories to this Agreement.

Officer Employment Agreement

THIS ASSIGNMENT and AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT OF EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into this 26th day of March 2009, to be effective for all purposes as of February 5, 2008, by and among JODY BILNEY (hereinafter referred to as "Employee") and OUTBACK STEAKHOUSE OF FLORIDA, LLC, a Florida limited liability company formerly known as OUTBACK STEAKHOUSE OF FLORIDA, INC., having its principal office at 2202 N. West Shore Boulevard, 5th Floor, Tampa, Florida 33607 (the "Former Employer") and OSI RESTAURANT PARTNERS, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, having its principal office at 2202 N. West Shore Boulevard, 5th Floor, Tampa, Florida 33607 (the "Company").

W I T N E S S E T H:

This Agreement is made and entered into under the following circumstances:

A. WHEREAS, the Company is engaged in the business of owning and operating, through its subsidiaries and their affiliates, various restaurant concepts utilizing restaurant operating systems and trademarks owned by or licensed to the Company; and

B. WHEREAS, the Company is the sole manager and member of the Former Employer; and

C. WHEREAS, the Former Employer and the Employee are parties to that certain Officer Employment Agreement dated effective October 1, 2006 (the "Original Agreement"), pursuant to which, the Company employed Employee as Chief Brand Officer of the Former Employer; and

D. WHEREAS, the Former Employer desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to assign the Employee's Employment to the Company; and

E. WHEREAS, the Company desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to accept the assignment of the Employee's Original Agreement from the Former Employer and to amend and restate the Original Agreement as a result of Employee's promotion to Chief Brand Officer of the Company; and

F. WHEREAS, the Employee desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to be employed by the Company as Chief Brand Officer of the Company.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and of the premises, covenants, terms and conditions contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment and Term. Subject to earlier termination as provided for in Section 8 hereof, the Company hereby employs the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts employment with the Company as Chief Brand Officer of the Company for a term commencing on February 5, 2008 and expiring on October 1, 2011 ("Term of Employment"). Such Term of Employment shall be automatically renewed for successive renewal terms of one (1) year each unless either party elects not to renew by giving written notice to the other party not less than sixty (60) days prior to the start of any renewal term.

2. Representations and Warranties. The Employee hereby represents and warrants to the Company that the Employee (i) is not subject to any written nonsolicitation or noncompetition agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Company (other than any prior agreement with the Company), (ii) is not subject to any written confidentiality or nonuse/nondisclosure agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Company (other than any prior agreement with the Company), and (iii) has brought to the Company no trade secrets, confidential business information, documents, or other personal property of a prior employer.

3. Duties. As Chief Brand Officer of the Company, the Employee shall:

(a) diligently, competently and faithfully perform all of the duties and functions as are customary to such position and as may be assigned to the Employee in such capacity by the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer or President of the Company;

(b) not create a situation that results in termination for Cause (as that term is defined in Section 8 hereof);

(c) be responsible for directly reporting to the President or Chief Executive Officer of the Company on all matters for which the Employee is responsible;

(d) conduct all of her activities in a manner so as to maintain and promote the business and reputation of the Company; and

(e) devote one hundred percent (100%) of the Employee's full business time, attention, energies and effort to the business affairs of the Company. The Employee shall not, during the term of this Agreement, engage in any other business activity; provided, however, that the Employee shall be permitted to invest the Employee's personal assets and manage the Employee's personal investment portfolio in such a form and manner as will not require any business services on Employee's part to any third party or conflict with the provisions of Section 9, Section 10 or Section 14 hereof, or conflict with any published policy of the Company or its affiliates, including but not limited to the insider trading policy of the Company or its affiliates.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Employee shall, during the term of this Agreement and at the request of the Company, also serve as an officer of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Company as the Company shall request. In such capacity, Employee shall be responsible generally for all aspects of such office. All terms, conditions, rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be applicable to Employee while serving in such office as though Employee and such subsidiary or affiliate of the Company had separately entered into this Agreement, except that the Employee shall not be entitled to any compensation, vacation, fringe benefits, automobile allowance or other remuneration of any kind whatsoever from such subsidiary or affiliate of the Company.

4. Compensation.

a. Salary. During the Term of Employment, the Employee shall be entitled to an annual base salary equal to the annual salary of Employee on the effective date hereof, payable in equal biweekly installments by the Company, to be reviewed for increase or decrease annually by the Company.

b. Bonus. During the Term of Employment, the Employee shall be entitled to discretionary bonuses pursuant to a bonus plan as may be provided by the Company to similar employees of the Company.

5. Vacation. Employee shall be entitled to three (3) weeks paid vacation (selected by Employee, but subject to the reasonable business requirements of the Company as determined by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company) during each full year during the Term of Employment. Vacation granted but not used in any year shall be forfeited at the end of such one-year period and may not be carried over to any subsequent year.

6. Fringe Benefits. In addition to any other rights the Employee may have hereunder, the Employee shall also be entitled to receive those fringe benefits, including, but not limited to, complimentary food, life insurance, medical benefits, etc., if any, as may be provided by the Company to similar employees of the Company. Such benefits shall be provided in accordance with any applicable policy, program or plan provisions. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Employee pursuant to this Section 6 that are not 'disability pay' or 'death benefits' within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-1(a)(5) (collectively, the 'Applicable Benefits') shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and Company shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Employee fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit.

7. Expenses. Subject to approval by the Chief Financial Officer of the Company and compliance with the Company's policies, the Employee may incur reasonable expenses on behalf of and in furtherance of the business of the Company. Upon approval of such expenses by the Chief Financial Officer, the Company shall promptly reimburse the Employee for all such expenses upon presentation by the Employee, from time to time, of appropriate receipts or vouchers for such expenses that are sufficient in form and substance to satisfy all federal tax requirements for the deductibility of such expenses by the Company. If any reimbursements under this provision or under Section 6 are taxable to the Employee, such reimbursements shall be paid on or before the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the reimbursable expense was incurred, and the Company shall not be obligated to pay any such reimbursement amount for which Employee fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred. Such expenses, under this provision or under Section 6, shall be reimbursable only to the extent they were incurred during the term of the Agreement. In addition, the amount of such reimbursements under this provision or under Section 6 that the Company is obligated to pay in any given calendar year shall not affect the amount the Company is obligated to pay in any other calendar year. Further, Employee may not liquidate or exchange the right to reimbursement of such expenses, under this provision or under Section 6, for any other benefits.

8. Termination. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 hereof, the Term of Employment shall terminate prior to the end of the period of time specified in Section 1, immediately upon:

(a) The death of the Employee; or

(b) The Employee's Disability during the Term of Employment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Disability" shall mean the inability of the Employee, arising out of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment, to perform the services required of the Employee hereunder for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days; or

(c) The existence of Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Cause" shall be defined as:

(i) Failure of the Employee to perform the duties assigned to the Employee in a manner satisfactory to the Company, in its sole discretion; provided, however, that the Term of Employment shall not be terminated pursuant to this subparagraph (i) unless the Company first gives the Employee a written notice ("Notice of Deficiency"). The Notice of Deficiency shall specify the deficiencies in the Employee's performance of the Employee's duties. The Employee shall have a period of thirty (30) days, commencing on receipt of the Notice of Deficiency, in which to cure the deficiencies contained in the Notice of Deficiency. In the event the Employee does not cure the deficiencies to the satisfaction of the Company, in its sole discretion, within such thirty (30) day period (or if during such thirty (30) day period the Company determines that the Employee is not making reasonable, good faith efforts to cure the deficiencies to the satisfaction of the Company), the Company shall have the right to immediately terminate the Term of Employment. The provisions of this subparagraph (i) may be invoked by the Company any number of times and cure of deficiencies contained in any Notice of Deficiency shall not be construed as a waiver of this subparagraph (i) nor prevent the Company from issuing any subsequent Notices of Deficiency; or

(ii) Any dishonesty by the Employee in the Employee's dealings with the Company or the Company, the commission of fraud by the Employee, negligence in the performance of the duties of the Employee, insubordination, willful misconduct, or the conviction (or plea of guilty or nolo contendere) of the Employee of any felony, or any other crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude; or

(iii) Any violation of any covenant or restriction contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof; or

(iv) Any violation of any material published policy of the Company or its affiliates (material published policies include, but are not limited to, the Company's discrimination and harassment policy, responsible alcohol policy and insider trading policy).

(d) At the election of the Company, upon the sale of a majority ownership interest in the Company or substantially all of the assets of the Company; or

(e) At the election of the Company, upon the determination by the Company to cease the Company's business operations.

(f) At the election of the Company in its sole discretion, for any reason or no reason. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f), the Employee shall be entitled to receive as full and complete severance compensation, the base salary provided for herein for a period of one (1) year from the effective date of such termination (the "Severance"). Severance shall be payable in bi-weekly installments. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f) the Severance provided in this Section 8(f) shall be the only obligation that the Company, or any of its affiliates shall have to the Employee.

(g) Termination of Employment for all purposes under this Agreement will be determined to have occurred in accordance with the 'separation from service' requirements of Code Section 409A and the Treasury Regulations and other guidance issued thereunder, and based on whether the facts and circumstances indicate that Company and Employee reasonably anticipated that no further services would be performed after a certain date or that the level of bona fide services Employee would perform after such date (as an employee or as an independent contractor) would permanently decrease to no more than 20 percent of the average level of bona fide services performed over the immediately preceding 36-month period (or actual period of service, if less).

For all purposes of this Agreement, termination for Cause shall be deemed to have occurred in the event of the Employee's resignation when, because of existing facts and circumstances, subsequent termination for Cause can be reasonably foreseen.

OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC

Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(f), in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8, the Employee or the Employee's estate, as appropriate, shall be entitled to receive (in addition to any fringe benefits payable upon death in the case of the Employee's death) the base salary provided for herein up to and including the effective date of termination, prorated on a daily basis.

9. Noncompetition.

(a) During Term. During the Employee's employment with the Company, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a restaurant business, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to any such person or entity.

(b) Post Term. For a continuous period of two (2) years commencing on termination of the Employee's employment with the Company, regardless of any termination pursuant to Section 8 or any voluntary termination or resignation by the Employee, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a restaurant business with a theme, décor, menu or style of or featured cuisine the same as or substantially similar to that of any restaurant owned or operated by the Company, or any of its affiliates, and that is located or intended to be located anywhere within a radius of thirty (30) miles of any restaurant owned or operated by the Company, or any of its affiliates, or any proposed restaurant to be owned or operated by any of the foregoing, and Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person, or entity. For purposes of this Section 9(b), Restaurants owned or operated by the Company shall include restaurants operated or owned by an affiliate of the Company, any successor entity to the Company, and any entity in which the Company, or any of its affiliates has an interest, including, but not limited to, an interest as a franchisor. The term "proposed restaurant" shall include all locations for which the Company, or its franchisees or affiliates is conducting active, bona fide negotiations to secure a fee or leasehold interest with the intention of establishing a restaurant thereon.

(c) Limitation. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), it shall not be a violation of this Section 9 for Employee to own a one percent (1%) or smaller interest in any corporation required to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or successor statute.

10. Nondisclosure; Nonsolicitation; Nonpiracy. Except in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder, at no time during the Term of Employment, or at any time thereafter, shall Employee, individually or jointly with others, for the benefit of Employee or any third party, publish, disclose, use, or authorize anyone else to publish, disclose, or use, any secret or confidential material or information relating to any aspect of the business or operations of the Company, or its affiliates, including, without limitation, any secret or confidential information relating to the business, customers, trade or industrial practices, trade secrets, technology, recipes or know-how of any of the Company, or its affiliates. Moreover, during the Employee's employment with the Company and for two (2) years thereafter, Employee shall not offer employment to any employee of the Company, its franchisees or affiliates, or otherwise solicit or induce any employee of the Company, its franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment, nor shall Employee act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, owner or part owner, or in any other capacity, for any person or entity that solicits or otherwise induces any employee of the Company, its franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment.

11. Company Property: Employee Duty to Return. All Company products, recipes, product specifications, training materials, employee selection and testing materials, marketing and advertising materials, special event, charitable and community activity materials, customer correspondence, internal memoranda, products and designs, sales information, project files, price lists, customer and vendor lists, prospectus reports, customer or vendor information, sales literature, territory printouts, call books, notebooks, textbooks, and all other like information or products, including all copies, duplications, replications, and derivatives of such information or products, now in the possession of Employee or acquired by Employee while in the employ of the Company, shall be the exclusive property of the Company and shall be returned to the Company no later than the date of Employee's last day of work with the Company.

12. Inventions, Ideas, Processes, and Designs. All inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, programs, software, and designs (including all improvements) (i) conceived or made by Employee during the course of Employee's employment with the Company (whether or not actually conceived during regular business hours) and for a period of six (6) months subsequent to the termination or expiration of such employment and (ii) related to the business of the Company, shall be disclosed in writing promptly to the Company and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company. An invention, idea, recipe, process, program, software or design (including an improvement) shall be deemed "related to the business of the Company" if (a) it was made with equipment, supplies, facilities, or confidential information of the Company, (b) results from work performed by Employee for the Company, or (c) pertains to the current business or demonstrably anticipated research or development work of the Company. Employee shall cooperate with the Company and its attorneys in the preparation of patent and copyright applications for such developments and, upon request, shall promptly assign all such inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, and designs to the Company. The decision to file for patent or copyright protection or to maintain such development as a trade secret shall be in the sole discretion of the Company, and Employee shall be bound by such decision. Employee shall provide, on the back of this Employment Agreement, a complete list of all inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, and designs if any, patented or unpatented, copyrighted or non-copyrighted, including a brief description, that the Employee made or conceived prior to Employee's employment with the Company and that therefore are excluded from the scope of this Agreement.

13. Company's Promise to Give Employee Trade Secrets and Training. In return for Employee's agreement not to use or disclose the Company's trade secrets, training, systems and confidential proprietary business methods, the Company unconditionally promises to give Employee within ninety (90) days of the signing of this contract trade secrets, specialized training and other confidential proprietary business methods.

Specifically, the Company unconditionally promises to give Employee one-on-one training from executives, trainers and senior employees of the Company or its affiliates. Further, the training will include training and information concerning procedures and confidential proprietary methods the Company uses to obtain and retain business from their customer base, operations in the Company's home office, marketing and sales techniques, and information regarding the confidential information listed in Section 12(b) of this Agreement. Further, after the ninety (90) days, as the Company develops (during Employee's employment with the Company) additional trade secrets, employee surveys and analyses, financial data and other confidential proprietary business methods and overall marketing plans and strategies, the Company promises to continue to provide, on a periodic basis, said confidential information and additional training and analysis from its executives, trainers and/or senior employees to Employee for so long as Employee is employed by Company as Chief Brand Officer.

14. Employee's Promise Not to Disclose Trade Secrets and Confidential Information. Employee understands and agrees that the Company will provide unique and specialized training and confidential information concerning the Company's business operations, including, but not limited to, recipes, product specifications, restaurant operating techniques and procedures, marketing techniques and procedures, financial data, processes, vendors and other information that was developed and maintained at considerable effort and expense to the Company, for the Company's sole and exclusive use, and which if used by the Company's competitors would give them an unfair business advantage. Employee believes the unconditional promise to provide said information is sufficient consideration for Employee's promise to adhere to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement.

15. Restrictive Covenants: Consideration; Non-Estoppel; Independent Agreements; and Non-Executory Agreements . The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement are given and made by Employee to induce the Company to employ the Employee and to enter into this Agreement with the Employee, and Employee hereby acknowledges that employment with the Company is sufficient consideration for these restrictive covenants.

The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement shall be construed as agreements independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action of Employee against the Company, whether predicated upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of any restrictive covenant. The Company has fully performed all obligations entitling them to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 of this Agreement, and those restrictive covenants therefore are not executory or otherwise subject to rejection under the Bankruptcy Code.

The refusal or failure of the Company to enforce any restrictive covenant of Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 of this Agreement (or any similar agreement) against any other employee, agent, or independent contractor, for any reason, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of any such restrictive covenant, nor shall it give rise to any claim or cause of action by Employee against the Company.

16. Reasonableness of Restrictions; Reformation; Enforcement . The parties hereto recognize and acknowledge that the geographical and time limitations contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12, and Section 14 hereof are reasonable and properly required for the adequate protection of the Company's interests. Employee acknowledges that the Company or its affiliate is the owner or the licensee of the Trademarks, and the owner or the licensee of the related restaurant operating systems and will provide to Employee training in and confidential information concerning the restaurant operating systems in reliance on the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof. It is agreed by the parties hereto that if any portion of the restrictions contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 are held to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, then the restrictions shall be considered divisible, both as to the time and to the geographical area, with each month of the specified period being deemed a separate period of time and each radius mile of the restricted territory being deemed a separate geographical area, so that the lesser period of time or geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy. The parties hereto agree that in the event any court of competent jurisdiction determines the specified period or the specified geographical area of the restricted territory to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, a lesser time or geographical area that is determined to be reasonable, nonarbitrary, and not against public policy may be enforced against Employee. If Employee shall violate any of the covenants contained herein and if any court action is instituted by the Company to prevent or enjoin such violation, then the period of time during which the Employee's business activities shall be restricted, as provided in this Agreement, shall be lengthened by a period of time equal to the period between the date of the Employee's breach of the terms or covenants contained in this Agreement and the date on which the decree of the court disposing of the issues upon the merits shall become final and not subject to further appeal.

In the event it is necessary for the Company to initiate legal proceedings to enforce, interpret or construe any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof, the prevailing party in such proceedings shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party, in addition to all other remedies, all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, of such proceedings including appellate proceedings.

17. Specific Performance. Employee agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 or Section 14 hereof will cause irreparable injury to the Company for which the remedy at law will be inadequate and would be difficult to ascertain and therefore, in the event of the breach or threatened breach of any such covenants, the Company shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights and remedies it may have at law or in equity, to obtain an injunction to restrain Employee from any threatened or actual activities in violation of any such covenants. Employee hereby consents and agrees that temporary and permanent injunctive relief may be granted in any proceedings that might be brought to enforce any such covenants without the necessity of proof of actual damages, and in the event the Company does apply for such an injunction, Employee shall not raise as a defense thereto that the Company has an adequate remedy at law.

18. Assignability. This Agreement and the rights and duties created hereunder, shall not be assignable or delegable by Employee. The Company shall have the right, without Employee's knowledge or consent, to assign this Agreement, in whole or in part and any or all of the rights and duties hereunder, including but not limited to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof to any person, including but not limited to any affiliate of the Company, any affiliate of the Company, or any successor to the Company's interest, and Employee shall be bound by such assignment. Any assignee or successor may enforce any restrictive covenant of this Agreement.

19. Effect of Termination. The termination of this Agreement, for whatever reason, or the expiration of this Agreement shall not extinguish those obligations of Employee specified in Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 hereof. The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11, Section 12 and Section 14 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement. The termination or expiration of this Agreement shall extinguish the right of any party to bring an action, either in law or in equity, for breach of this Agreement by any other party.

20. Captions; Terms. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience only, and shall not be construed to limit, define, or modify the substantive terms hereof.

21. Acknowledgments. Employee hereby acknowledges that the Employee has been provided with a copy of this Agreement for review prior to signing it, that the Employee has been given the opportunity to have this Agreement reviewed by Employee's attorney prior to signing it, that the Employee understands the purposes and effects of this Agreement, and that the Employee has been given a signed copy of this Agreement for Employee's own records.

22. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for herein to be given or sent to a party by the other party shall be deemed validly given or sent if in writing and mailed, postage prepaid, by certified United States mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the parties at their addresses hereinabove set forth. Any party may give notice to the other party at any time, by the method specified above, of a change in the address at which, or the person to whom, notice is to be addressed.

23. Severability. Each section, subsection, and lesser Section of this Agreement constitutes a separate and distinct undertaking, covenant, or provision hereof. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed limited by construction in scope and effect to the minimum extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable, and, in the event such a limiting construction is impossible, such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

24. Waiver. The failure of a party to enforce any term, provision, or condition of this Agreement at any time or times shall not be deemed a waiver of that term, provision, or condition for the future, nor shall any specific waiver of a term, provision, or condition at one time be deemed a waiver of such term, provision, or condition for any future time or times.

25. Parties. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their legal representatives, and proper successors or assigns, as the case may be.

OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC

26. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to the principles of comity or conflicts of laws thereof.

27. Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. Employee hereby consents to personal jurisdiction and venue, for any action brought by the Company arising out of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement or out of the relationship established by this Agreement, exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida; Employee hereby agrees that any action brought by Employee, alone or in combination with others, against the Company, whether arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida.

28. Affiliate. Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any entity, all persons or entities (i) controlled by the entity, (ii) that control the entity, or (iii) that are under common control with the entity.

29. Cooperation. Employee shall cooperate fully with all reasonable requests for information and participation by the Company, its agents, or its attorneys, in prosecuting or defending claims, suits, and disputes brought on behalf of or against one or both of them and in which Employee is involved or about which Employee has knowledge.

30. Amendments. No change, modification, or termination of any of the terms, provisions, or conditions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed or initialed by all signatories to this Agreement.

31. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. ALL PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT KNOW AND UNDERSTAND THAT THEY HAVE A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT ANY DISPUTE OR CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT WILL INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT FACTUAL AND LEGAL ISSUES.

THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS, WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, AND WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT ANY OF THEM MAY FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE KNOWING, VOLUNTARY AND BARGAINED-FOR AGREEMENT AMONG THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY TO WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY AND THAT ANY PROCEEDING WHATSOEVER BETWEEN THEM RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS SHALL INSTEAD BE TRIED IN A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION BY A JUDGE SITTING WITHOUT A JURY.

THE PARTIES INTEND THIS WAIVER OF THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL BE AS BROAD AS POSSIBLE. BY THEIR SIGNATURES BELOW, THE PARTIES PROMISE, WARRANT AND REPRESENT THAT THEY WILL NOT PLEAD FOR, REQUEST OR OTHERWISE SEEK TO HAVE A JURY TO RESOLVE ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY ARISE BY, BETWEEN OR AMONG THEM.

32. Code Section 409A. The Company makes no representation as to whether any payment made pursuant to this Agreement, or any part thereof constitutes or may constitute non-qualified deferred compensation. Neither the Company nor any of its managers, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors shall have any liability to the Employee or any other person or any amounts incurred by Employee or any other such person by reason of the determination made by the Board of Managers of the Company pursuant to this paragraph or any action taken or omitted by the Board, the Company, or any of the Company's managers, officers, employees, agents or professional advisors in the course of, or as a result of, making such determination. For purposes of this Agreement, all rights to payments and benefits hereunder shall be treated as rights to receive a series of separate payments and benefits to the fullest extent allowed by Code Section 409A.

33. Entire Agreement; Counterparts. This Agreement supersedes the Original Agreement in its entirety. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior memoranda, correspondence, conversations, negotiations and agreements. This Agreement may be executed in several identical counterparts that together shall constitute but one and the same Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") made and entered into this 2nd day of November, 2009 by and between Elizabeth A. Smith (the "Executive"), OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC, a Delaware corporation (the " Company"), and Kangaroo Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (" KHI") (with respect to Sections 3(a) and 4(d) only) and amended and restated as of the 31st day of December, 2009. This Agreement shall be effective as of the 16th day of November, 2009 (the "Effective Date").

WHEREAS, the Company desires to employ the Executive and the Executive desires to be employed on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual promises, terms, provisions and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree:

1. Employment. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company hereby offers and the Executive hereby accepts employment.

2. Term. Subject to earlier termination as hereinafter provided, the Executive's employment shall be for an initial term of five (5) years commencing on the Effective Date. Commencing on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date and on each succeeding anniversary of the Effective Date thereafter (each such anniversary date shall hereinafter be referred to as the " Renewal Date"), unless previously terminated, the term of this Agreement shall be automatically extended for one additional year, unless at least sixty (60) days prior to any Renewal Date, the Company or the Executive shall give notice to the other party that this Agreement and the Executive's employment hereunder shall not be so extended. The term of this Agreement as from time to time extended or renewed is hereafter referred to as "the term of this Agreement" or "the term hereof".

3. Capacity and Performance.

(a) During the term hereof, the Executive shall serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Executive shall also serve as a member of the Board of Directors of KHI (the " KHI Board") and as a member of the Board of Managers of the Company (the " Board"); provided, however, that if the Executive's employment with the Company terminates for any reason, Executive's membership on the KHI Board and the Board shall also terminate, unless otherwise agreed in writing by KHI or the Company, as applicable, and the Executive. In addition, and without further compensation, the Executive shall serve as a director and/or officer of one or more of the Company's Affiliates if so elected or appointed from time to time. The Executive's reappointment as a member of each of the KHI Board and the Board shall be subject to the requirements of applicable law (including, without limitation, any rules or regulations of any exchange on which the common stock of KHI or the Company is listed, if applicable). If, after the Effective Date the Executive is appointed Chair of the Board and/or the KHI Board and, at any time after the common stock of KHI or its Affiliates becomes publicly traded, the Board of Directors of the then public company, in its reasonable judgment, determines that the Chair position should not be held by the Chief Executive Officer of such company, the Executive shall cease to be Chair. In no event shall failure to reappoint the Executive as Chair of the KHI Board or the Board constitute "Good Reason" for purposes of this Agreement.

(b) During the term hereof, the Executive shall be employed by the Company on a full-time basis and shall perform the duties and responsibilities of her position and such other duties and responsibilities on behalf of the Company and its Affiliates, consistent with her position as President and Chief Executive Officer, as reasonably may be designated from time to time by the Board or by its designees. During the term hereof, the Executive's services shall be performed primarily at the Company's office located in Tampa, Florida, subject to travel requirements in connection with the Executive's duties under this Agreement.

(c) During the term hereof, the Executive shall devote her full business time and efforts to the discharge of her duties and responsibilities hereunder. The Executive shall not engage in any other business activity or serve in any industry, trade, professional, governmental or academic position during the term of this Agreement, except as may be expressly approved in advance by the Board in writing; provided, however, that the Executive may without advance consent participate in charitable activities and personal investment activities, provided that such activities do not, individually or in the aggregate, interfere with the performance of Executive's duties under this Agreement and are not in conflict with the business interests of the Company or its Affiliates or otherwise violative of Sections 7, 8 or 9 of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions set forth in this paragraph shall not apply to any position held by the Executive and listed on Exhibit A attached hereto.

4. Compensation and Benefits. As compensation for all services performed by the Executive hereunder during the term hereof, and subject to performance of the Executive's duties and of the obligations of the Executive to the Company and its Affiliates, pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise:

(a) Base Salary. During the term of this Agreement, the Company shall pay the Executive an annualized base salary of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000), subject to annual review for increase, but not decrease, in the discretion of the Board, payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company for its executives ("Base Salary").

(b) Annual Bonus Compensation. For each fiscal year completed during the term hereof, the Executive shall be entitled to receive an annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus") on the following terms and conditions. The Annual Bonus shall be determined under, and subject to, the terms of the Company's annual bonus plan or program for its executives generally, as in effect from time to time (the " Bonus Plan"). The Executive's target Annual Bonus ("Target Bonus") shall be equal to eighty-five percent (85%) of the Base Salary, with the actual amount of the Annual Bonus, if any, to be based on the attainment of performance goals and determined by the Board. For the year ending December 31, 2009, the Executive's Annual Bonus shall be an amount equal to the Target Bonus, pro-rated based on the number of calendar days the Executive is employed during such year. Any bonus due to the Executive hereunder shall be paid in the time and manner set forth in the Bonus Plan.

(c) [Intentionally Omitted].

(d) Stock Options.

(i) Promptly following the Effective Date, KHI shall grant to the Executive an option to purchase Four Million Three Hundred Fifty Thousand (4,350,000) shares of common stock of KHI (" KHI Common Stock") (the "Option"). The Option shall be granted under the KHI 2007 Equity Incentive Plan (the "EIP"). The terms and conditions of the Option shall be set forth in the stock option award agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Option Award"), which is incorporated herein by reference. The Option shall be subject to (A) the terms of the EIP, the Option Award, and any applicable shareholder, registration rights and/or option holder agreements (collectively, the " Equity Agreements"), provided that whenever the EIP or a related Equity Agreement permits the use of conflicting or special terms or conditions under an employment agreement, as, for example but not by way of limitation, with respect to the definitions of Cause and Good Reason, the terms of this Agreement shall be applied, and (B) other restrictions and limitations generally applicable to equity held by KHI or Company executives (which shall not be inconsistent with the terms of the Equity Agreements) or otherwise required by law.

(ii) Promptly after the first time the fair market value of a share of KHI Common Stock is $10 or more (less the per share amount of any previous dividends or other distributions on shares of KHI Common Stock and as equitably adjusted by the Board for any stock splits or other changes in the Company's capital structure and as determined as provided for below) during the term of this Agreement, subject to the receipt of any required shareholder or KHI Board or compensation committee approvals, KHI shall make a one-time grant to the Executive of an option to purchase an additional Five Hundred Fifty Thousand (550,000) shares of KHI Common Stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of a share of KHI Common Stock on the date of the grant (the " Additional Option"), subject to the Executive remaining continuously employed by the Company through such grant date; it being understood that for so long as the KHI Common Stock is not listed or admitted to trade on a national securities exchange (including Nasdaq), fair market value shall be determined based on the annual valuation of KHI Common Stock performed in the ordinary course by independent appraisers engaged by KHI to value such common stock for purposes of compensatory equity award grants. The Additional Option shall be granted under the EIP or such other equity incentive plan that may be adopted by KHI. The Additional Option shall vest in equal installments on each of the first five anniversaries of its date of grant, subject to the Executive remaining continuously employed by the Company on each such date. The Additional Option shall be subject to (A) the terms of the EIP (or such other equity incentive plan that may be adopted by KHI), the award agreement evidencing such option, and any applicable shareholder, registration rights and/or option holder agreements (collectively, the " Additional Equity Agreements "), provided that whenever the EIP (or such other equity incentive plan that may be adopted by KHI) or a related Additional Equity Agreement permits the use of conflicting or special terms or conditions under an employment agreement, as, for example, with respect to the definitions of Cause and Good Reason, the terms of this Agreement shall govern, and (B) other restrictions and limitations generally applicable to equity held by KHI or Company executives (which shall not be inconsistent with the terms of the Additional Equity Agreements) or otherwise required by law.

(e) Vacations. During the term hereof, the Executive shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of vacation per annum, to be taken at such times and intervals as shall be determined by the Executive, subject to the reasonable business needs of the Company. Vacation shall otherwise be governed by the policies of the Company, as in effect from time to time.

(f) Other Benefits. During the term hereof and subject to any contribution therefor generally required of employees of the Company, the Executive shall be entitled to participate in any and all employee benefit plans from time to time in effect for senior executive officers of the Company, except to the extent such plans are in a category of benefit otherwise provided to the Executive (e.g., a severance pay plan). Such participation shall be subject to (i) the terms of the applicable plan documents, (ii) generally applicable Company policies and (iii) the discretion of the Board or any administrative or other committee provided for in or contemplated by such plan (the " Employee Benefit Plans "). The Company may prospectively alter, modify, add to or terminate its Employee Benefit Plans at any time as it, in its sole judgment, determines to be appropriate, without recourse by the Executive.

(g) Relocation Expenses. During the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the first anniversary of the Effective Date, the Executive, or the Executive's immediate family, shall be entitled to use of the Company's aircraft for purposes of travelling between New York, New York or an airport in the Stockbridge, Massachusetts vicinity (either a "Current Residence") and Tampa, Florida. The Executive, or the Executive's immediate family and mother, shall be entitled to one-round trip flight each week to or from the Current Residence to Tampa, Florida, as applicable. In lieu of providing the Executive with use of the Company's aircraft, the Company may satisfy its obligations under this subsection (g) through the use by the Executive of a charter or other leased airplane (e.g., NetJets) or, at the Executive's election, by reimbursing the Executive for the reasonable cost of first-class commercial air travel for the Executive or members of her immediate family, as applicable. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for her reasonable costs incurred in relocating from her New York Current Residence to a location that is a reasonable commuting distance from the Company's principal executive offices in Tampa, Florida, including, without limitation, reasonable costs for brokerage fees and other closing costs (which shall include attorney's fees and applicable filing fees but shall exclude loan costs), temporary housing through August 31, 2010, travel associated with locating a residence and transportation and storage of household goods. The Company shall also provide the Executive with a tax gross-up for applicable federal, state and local taxes paid by the Executive in connection with (i) the airplane use or reimbursement provided under this subsection (g), and (ii) the tax gross-up payment itself. This gross-up payment shall be paid no later than April 15th of the year following the year to which such taxable income relates.

(h) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable, customary and necessary business expenses incurred or paid by the Executive in the performance of her duties and responsibilities hereunder, subject to applicable Company policies and such reasonable substantiation and documentation as may be specified by the Board or Company policy from time to time. Any reimbursement provided for under this Agreement that would constitute nonqualified deferred compensation subject to Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A"), shall be subject to the following additional rules: (i) no reimbursement of any such expense shall affect the Executive's right to reimbursement of any such expense in any other taxable year; (ii) reimbursement of the expense shall be made, if at all, promptly, but not later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred; and (iii) the right to reimbursement shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for any other benefit. The Company shall reimburse the Executive for her reasonable legal fees incurred in respect of the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement and the Option Agreement, up to a maximum of $100,000, subject to the presentation of appropriate documentation.

5. Termination of Employment and Severance Benefits. The Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate under the following circumstances:

(a) Death. In the event of the Executive's death during the term hereof, the date of death shall be the date of termination, and the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive's Designated Beneficiary: (i) any Base Salary earned but not paid through the date of termination, (ii) subject to the timing rules of Section 4(b) above, any Annual Bonus earned for the fiscal year preceding that in which termination occurs, but unpaid on the date of termination, (iii) any tax gross-up payment owed under Section 4(g) above with respect to the period prior to the date of termination that is unpaid on such date, (iv) any amounts accrued and payable under any Employee Benefit Plan pursuant to Section 4(f) above or under Section 4(g) above with respect to any unreimbursed travel expenses, but unpaid or unreimbursed, as applicable, on the date of termination and (v) any business expenses incurred by the Executive but unreimbursed on the date of termination, provided that such expenses and required substantiation and documentation are submitted within sixty (60) days following termination, that such expenses are reimbursable under Company policy, and that any such expenses subject to the penultimate sentence of Section 4(h) shall be paid not later than the deadline specified therein (all of the foregoing, payable subject to the timing limitations described herein, "Final Compensation"). The Company shall also pay to the Executive's Designated Beneficiary a pro-rata Annual Bonus for the year in which such termination of employment occurs, calculated by multiplying the Target Bonus by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days the Executive was employed during such year and the denominator of which is 365 (the " Pro-Rata Bonus"). Other than for the Final Compensation and the Pro-Rata Bonus, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive hereunder upon a termination due to her death. Other than the tax gross-up payment described in Section 5(a)(iii), which shall be paid at the time provided in Section 4(g) above, and business expenses described in Section 5(a)(iv), Final Compensation and the Pro-Rata Bonus shall be paid to the Executive's Designated Beneficiary within sixty (60) days following the date of death.

(b) Disability.

(i) The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder, upon notice to the Executive, in the event that the Executive becomes disabled during her employment hereunder through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature and, as a result, is unable to perform substantially all of her duties and responsibilities hereunder (notwithstanding the provision of any reasonable accommodation) for one hundred eighty (180) days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days. A termination on account of disability shall be treated in the same manner as a termination due to the Executive's death, provided that references to Designated Beneficiary shall refer to the Executive or her personal representative, as applicable.

(ii) If any question shall arise as to whether during any period the Executive is disabled through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature so as to be unable to perform substantially all of her duties and responsibilities hereunder, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company and reasonably acceptable to the Executive, to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

(c) By the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Cause. The following shall constitute Cause for termination:

(i) the Executive's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in the performance of, the Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company or its Affiliates (other than any such failure from incapacity due to physical or mental illness), which failure or neglect, if susceptible to cure, remains uncured or continues or recurs fifteen (15) business days after written notice from the Company specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such failure;

(ii) the Executive's indictment or conviction of or plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude;

(iii) the Executive's engaging in illegal misconduct or gross misconduct that is intentionally harmful to the Company or its Affiliates; or

(iv) any material and knowing violation by the Executive of any covenant or restriction contained in this Agreement or any other agreement entered into with the Company, KHI, or any of their respective Affiliates.

Upon the giving of notice of termination of the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive, other than for Final Compensation. Other than the tax gross-up payment described in Section 5(a)(iii), which shall be paid at the time provided in Section 4(g) above, and business expenses described in Section 5(a)(iv), Final Compensation shall be paid to the Executive within sixty (60) days following the date of termination of employment.

(d) By the Company Other Than for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder other than for Cause at any time upon notice to the Executive. A termination of the Executive's employment that occurs on the last day of the term of this Agreement following the Company's notice to the Executive of non-renewal of the term hereof under Section 2 hereof shall be treated as a termination by the Company other than for Cause. In the event of such termination, the Executive shall be entitled to Final Compensation, and, in addition, the Company shall pay the Executive an amount equal to two (2) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination plus (y) the Target Bonus for the year of termination, which shall be annualized in the case of a termination of employment during 2009 (the " Severance Amount"). The Severance Amount shall be paid to the Executive in twenty-four (24) equal monthly installments as further provided for below. Any obligation of the Company to the Executive under this Section 5 (including in the event of a termination of employment due to death or Disability), other than for Final Compensation, is conditioned on (A) the Executive, or the Executive's Designated Beneficiary, signing and returning to the Company (without revoking) a timely and effective release of claims in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, by the deadline specified therein, which in all events shall be no later than the forty fifth (45th) calendar day following the date of termination (any such release submitted by such deadline, the " Release of Claims"), (B) the Executive not engaging in an intentional or materially harmful violation of Section 7, 8 or 9(b) of this Agreement, and (C) the Executive's continued compliance with the covenants contained in Section 9(a) of this Agreement (subsections (B) and (C) collectively, the " Compliance Condition"). Subject to Section 5(g) below, severance pay to which the Executive is entitled hereunder shall be payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices of the Company, with the first payment, which shall be retroactive to the day immediately following the date the Executive's employment terminated, being due and payable on the Company's next regular payday for executives that follows the expiration of sixty (60) calendar days from the date the Executive's employment terminates. Other than the tax gross-up payment described in Section 5(a)(iii), which shall be paid at the time provided in Section 4(g) above, and the business expenses described in Section 5(a)(iv), Final Compensation shall be paid to the Executive within sixty (60) days following the date of termination of employment.

(e) By the Executive for Good Reason. The Executive may terminate her employment hereunder for Good Reason (A) by providing notice to the Company specifying in reasonable detail the condition giving rise to the Good Reason no later than thirty (30) days following the date Executive first becomes aware of the occurrence of that condition, or in the case of a series of events resulting in a material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's duties, authority or responsibilities, thirty (30) days following the date Executive first becomes aware of the last such event; provided, however, that in order to claim that an event, taken together with another event or events, constitutes Good Reason hereunder the Executive must have given notice to a member of the Board of such event at the time she first becomes aware of its occurrence; (B) by providing the Company a period of thirty (30) days to remedy the condition and so specifying in the notice and (C) by terminating her employment for Good Reason within thirty (30) days following the expiration of the period to remedy if the Company fails to remedy the condition. The following, occurring without the Executive's consent, shall constitute "Good Reason" for termination by the Executive:

(i) material diminution in the nature or scope of the Executive's duties, authority or responsibilities including without limitation loss of membership on the Board or the KHI Board; provided, however, that the following shall not constitute Good Reason: (A) the Executive's no longer serving as Chair of the Board or the KHI Board; (B) the Executive's ceasing to be a member of the Board or the KHI Board as a result of a merger of the Company into KHI or a merger of KHI into the Company or any other similar transaction, so long as the Executive remains on the board of directors of the surviving entity, or (C) any sale or transfer of equity or assets of the Company or an Affiliate so long as the Executive remains Chief Executive Officer of the Company (or any successor to the Company) following such transaction, provided that a sale or other transfer, in one or a series of related transactions, of a majority of the assets of the Company other than to an entity controlled by the Company shall constitute Good Reason, but only if the conditions set forth above in this subsection (i) are also satisfied;

(ii) a reduction in the Base Salary or Target Bonus as set forth in Section 4(b) hereof;

(iii) the Company requiring the Executive to be based at a location in excess of fifty (50) miles from the location of the Company's principal executive offices in Tampa, Florida as of the effective date of this Agreement; or

(iv) a material breach by the Company or KHI of its obligations under this Agreement or the Retention Bonus Agreement (as defined herein).

A termination of employment by the Executive under this Section 5(e) shall be treated as a termination by the Company other than for Cause under Section 5(d) above; provided that the Executive satisfies all conditions to such entitlement as set forth in Section 5(d), including, without limitation, the signing of an effective Release of Claims.

(f) By the Executive Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate her employment hereunder at any time upon sixty (60) days' prior written notice to the Company. In the event of termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to this Section 5(f), the Board may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Board so elects, the Company will pay the Executive her Base Salary for the notice period (or for any remaining portion of the period). The Company shall also pay the Executive the Final Compensation (other than the tax gross-up payment described in Section 5(a)(iii), which shall be paid at the time provided in Section 4(g) above, and business expenses described in Section 5(a)(iv)) in a lump sum within sixty (60) days following the date of the termination of employment. A termination of the Executive's employment that occurs by reason of the Executive's notice to the Company of non-renewal of the term of this Agreement under Section 2 hereof will be treated as a termination by the Executive without Good Reason.

(g) Timing of Payments and Section 409A.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if at the time of the Executive's termination of employment, the Executive is a "specified employee," as defined below, any and all amounts payable under this Agreement on account of such separation from service that would (but for this provision) be payable within six (6) months following the date of termination, shall instead be paid on the next business day following the expiration of such six (6) month period or, if earlier, upon the Executive's death; except (A) to the extent of amounts that do not constitute a deferral of compensation within the meaning of Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(b) (including without limitation by reason of the safe harbor set forth in Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii), as determined by the Company in its reasonable good faith discretion); (B) benefits which qualify as excepted welfare benefits pursuant to Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(a)(5); or (C) other amounts or benefits that are not subject to the requirements of Section 409A.

(ii) For purposes of this Agreement, all references to "termination of employment" and correlative phrases shall be construed to require a "separation from service" (as defined in Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Treasury regulations after giving effect to the presumptions contained therein), and the term "specified employee" means an individual determined by the Company to be a specified employee under Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(i).

(iii) Each payment made under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment and the right to a series of installment payments under this Agreement is to be treated as a right to a series of separate payments.

(h) Post-Agreement Employment. In the event the Executive remains in the employ of the Company or any of its Affiliates following the termination of this Agreement, then such employment shall be at will.

(i) Exclusive Right to Severance. The Executive's right to severance payments and benefits upon termination of employment shall be as expressly set forth in this Agreement. In no event shall the Executive participate in, or receive benefits under, any other plan, program or policy of the Company providing for severance or termination pay or benefits.

6. Effect of Termination. The provisions of this Section 6 shall apply to any termination of the Executive's employment under this Agreement.

(a) Subject to the other provisions of this Section 6, payment by the Company of any Final Compensation and the amounts provided for under the applicable termination provision of Section 5 shall constitute the entire obligation of the Company to the Executive hereunder.

(b) Except for any right of the Executive to continue medical and dental plan participation in accordance with applicable law, the Executive's participation in all Employee Benefit Plans shall be determined pursuant to the terms of the applicable plan documents based on the date of termination of the Executive's employment without regard to any continuation of Base Salary or other payment to or on behalf of the Executive following such date of termination. The Executive shall be entitled to retain any then vested benefits under the Employee Benefit Plans in accordance with the terms of such plans.

(c) Upon any termination of employment, the Option and, to the extent granted, the Additional Option shall be governed by the terms of the Equity Agreements or the Additional Equity Agreements, as applicable.

(d) Provisions of this Agreement shall survive any termination of employment if so provided herein or if necessary or desirable fully to accomplish the purposes of other surviving provisions, including without limitation, the obligations of the Executive under Sections 7, 8 and 9 hereof. The obligation of the Company to provide severance pay or benefits hereunder is expressly conditioned upon the Executive's continued compliance with the Compliance Condition.

7. Confidential Information.

(a) The Executive acknowledges that the Company and its Affiliates continually develop Confidential Information, that the Executive may develop Confidential Information for the Company or its Affiliates and that the Executive may learn of Confidential Information during the course of her employment. The Executive agrees that all Confidential Information which the Executive creates or to which she has access as a result of her employment or other associations with the Company or its Affiliates is and shall remain the sole and exclusive property of the Company or its Affiliates, as applicable. The Executive will comply with the policies and procedures of the Company and its Affiliates for protecting Confidential Information and shall never disclose to any Person (except as required by applicable law or in connection with the good faith performance of her duties and responsibilities to the Company and its Affiliates), or use for her own benefit or gain or the benefit or gain of any third party, any Confidential Information obtained by the Executive incident to her employment or other association with the Company or any of its Affiliates. The Executive understands that this restriction shall continue to apply after her employment terminates, regardless of the reason for such termination. Further, the Executive agrees to furnish prompt notice, if legally permitted to do so, to the Company of any required disclosure of Confidential Information sought pursuant to subpoena, court order or any other legal process or requirement, and agrees to provide the Company a reasonable opportunity to seek protection of the Confidential Information prior to any such disclosure. The confidentiality obligation under this Section 7 shall not apply to information which becomes generally known through no breach of this Agreement on the part of the Executive.

(b) All documents, records, tapes and other media of every kind and description relating to the business, present or otherwise, of the Company or its Affiliates, including, without limitation, recipes, product specifications, training materials, employee selection and testing materials, marketing and advertising materials, special event, charitable and community activity materials, customer correspondence, internal memoranda, products and designs, sales information, project files, price lists, customer and vendor lists, prospectus reports, customer or vendor information, sales literature, territory printouts, call books, notebooks, textbooks and all other like information or products, and any copies or derivatives (including without limitation electronic), in whole or in part, thereof (the "Documents"), whether or not prepared by the Executive, shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company and its Affiliates. Except in connection with the good faith performance of the Executive's regular duties for the Company or as expressly authorized in writing in advance by the Company, the Executive will not copy any Documents or remove any Documents or copies or derivatives thereof from the premises of the Company. The Executive shall safeguard all Documents in her possession and shall surrender to the Company at the time her employment terminates, or at such earlier time or times as the Board or its designee may specify, all Documents and other property of the Company or any of its Affiliates then in the Executive's possession or control.

8. Assignment of Rights to Intellectual Property. The Executive shall promptly and fully disclose all Intellectual Property to the Company. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company (or as otherwise directed by the Company) the Executive's full right, title and interest in and to all Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to execute any and all applications for domestic and foreign patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights and to do such other acts (including without limitation the execution and delivery of instruments of further assurance or confirmation) requested by the Company to assign the Intellectual Property to the Company and to permit the Company to enforce any patents, copyrights or other proprietary rights to the Intellectual Property. The Executive will not charge the Company for time spent in complying with these obligations. All copyrightable works that the Executive creates in connection with or related to the performance of her services hereunder shall be considered "work made for hire" and shall, upon creation, be owned exclusively by the Company.

9. Restricted Activities. The Executive acknowledges that her access to and/or development of trade secrets, Confidential Information and goodwill on behalf of the Company and its Affiliates during the course of employment, as well as the provision of extraordinary or specialized training by the Company and its Affiliates, would give her an unfair competitive advantage were she to leave employment and begin competing with the Company or any of its Affiliates, and that she is being granted access to training, trade secrets, Confidential Information, and goodwill in reliance on her agreements hereunder. Accordingly, the Executive agrees that the restrictions set forth herein are necessary to protect the goodwill, trade secrets, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates:

(a) While the Executive is employed by the Company and for a period of twenty-four months after her employment terminates for any reason hereunder (the "Non-Competition Period"), the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, whether as owner, partner, investor, consultant, agent, co-venturer or otherwise, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in or assist any person or entity engaged in or work for or provide services to, in any capacity, whether as an employee, independent contractor or otherwise, whether with or without compensation, any full service restaurant business (including, but not limited to, any restaurant business generally considered to be in the casual dining or polished casual dining business) that is located or intended to be located anywhere within a state (if inside the United States of America) or a country (if outside the United States of America) in which is located any restaurant owned or operated by the Company or any of its Affiliates, or any proposed full service restaurant (including, but not limited to, any restaurant generally considered to be in the casual dining or polished casual dining business) to be owned or operated by any of the foregoing or undertake any planning for any such business (collectively, the "Business"). For the purposes of this Section 9, full service restaurants (including, but not limited to, any restaurant business generally considered to be in the casual dining or polished casual dining business) owned or operated by the Company or any of its Affiliates shall include any entity in which the Company or any of its Affiliates has an interest, including, but not limited to, an interest as a franchisor. The term "proposed full service restaurant" shall include all locations for which the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates is conducting active, bona fide negotiations to secure a fee or leasehold interest with the intention of establishing a full service restaurant (including, but not limited to, any restaurant generally considered to be in the casual dining or polished casual dining business) thereon. The foregoing, however, shall not prevent (i) the Executive's passive ownership of two percent (2%) or less of the equity securities of any publicly traded company, or (ii) the Executive from working for or providing services to any entity if such entity, together with its affiliates, derives less than five percent (5%) of consolidated gross revenues from the Business and the Executive's responsibilities do not primarily involve the conduct of the Business by such entity.

(b) The Executive agrees that during her employment and during the Non-Competition Period, the Executive will not, and will not assist any other Person to, (i) hire, offer employment to or solicit for hiring any employee of the Company or any of its franchises or Affiliates or seek to persuade any employee of the Company or any of its franchises or Affiliates to discontinue employment or (ii) solicit or encourage any independent contractor providing services to the Company or any of its franchisees or Affiliates to terminate or diminish its relationship with them. For the purposes of this Agreement, an "employee" or "independent contractor" of the Company or any of its Affiliates is any person who was such at any time within the preceding two years.

10. Notification Requirement. Until forty-five (45) days after the conclusion of the Non-Competition Period, the Executive shall give notice to the Company of each new business activity she plans to undertake related to or involving the Business, at least thirty (30) days prior to beginning any such activity. Such notice shall state the name and address of the Person for whom such activity is undertaken and the nature of the Executive's business relationship(s) and position(s) with such Person. The Executive shall provide the Company with such other pertinent information concerning such business activity as the Company may reasonably request in order to determine the Executive's continued compliance with her obligations under Sections 7, 8 and 9 hereof.

11. Enforcement of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges that she has carefully read and considered all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the restraints imposed upon her pursuant to Sections 7, 8 and 9 hereof. The Executive agrees that each of the restraints contained herein is necessary for the reasonable and proper protection of the goodwill, Confidential Information and other legitimate interests of the Company and its Affiliates; that each and every one of those restraints is reasonable in respect to subject matter, length of time and geographic area; and that these restraints, individually or in the aggregate, will not prevent her from obtaining other suitable employment during the period in which the Executive is bound by these restraints. The Executive further acknowledges that, were she to breach any of the covenants contained in Sections 7, 8 or 9 hereof, the damage to the Company could be irreparable. The Executive therefore agrees that the Company, in addition to any other remedies available to it, shall be entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against any breach or threatened breach by the Executive of any of said covenants, without having to post bond. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Executive further agrees that, in the event of her failure to comply with the Compliance Condition, the Company shall have the immediate right to cease making any severance payments under Section 5(d) or (e) of this Agreement, shall have the right to require the Executive to repay any severance payments that had been paid to her prior to the date of such breach (only with respect to a breach of Section 9 hereof), and shall terminate any outstanding equity awards that have been awarded to her by KHI or the Company, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any applicable grant document, stock option plan or any other applicable agreement or plan. The parties further agree that, in the event that any provision of Section 7, 8 or 9 hereof shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its being extended over too great a time, too large a geographic area or too great a range of activities, such provision shall be deemed to be modified to permit its enforcement to the maximum extent permitted by law. The Executive agrees that the Non-Competition Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which she is in violation of the terms thereof, in order that the Company and its Affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company (other than a breach by the Company of its obligations to make severance payments under Section 5(d) or (e) of this Agreement), or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Executive's employment relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Executive's obligation to comply with Sections 7, 8 and 9 hereof.

12. Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify the Executive and provide the Executive with advancement of expenses to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. The Executive agrees to promptly notify the Company of any actual or threatened claim arising out of or as a result of her employment with the Company.

13. Executive's Additional Representations. The Executive hereby represents and warrants to the Company that the Executive (i) is not subject to any noncompetition agreement affecting the Executive's employment with the Company or its Affiliates (other than any prior agreement with the Company), (ii) is not subject to any confidentiality or nonuse/nondisclosure agreement affecting the Executive's employment with the Company or its Affiliates (other than any prior agreement with the Company) and (iii) will not use for the benefit of the Company or its Affiliates any trade secrets, confidential business information, documents or other personal property of a prior employer.

14. Section 280G.

(a) In the event that the Company undergoes a change in control prior to the time that it (or any Affiliate that would be treated, together with the Company, as a single corporation under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the " Code") and the regulations thereunder) has stock that is readily tradeable on an established securities market (within the meaning of the Section 280G of the Code of 1986 and the regulations thereunder), the Company agrees, upon the Executive's request (the " Request"), to use its reasonable best efforts to seek the requisite approval by its shareholders of the payments proposed to be made to the Executive in connection with such change in control by taking all administrative steps necessary to prevent having the payments or any portion thereof characterized as "parachute payments" under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code. The Company's actions pursuant to this provision are not intended to bind, nor shall be construed as binding, the shareholders of the Company. In connection with the obtaining of such approval, if so requested, the Executive agrees to undertake any such waivers that may be required in order for the Company to validly seek the approval of its shareholders. Prior to making the Request, the Executive may seek, at the Company's expense, input from the Company's public accounting firm (the " Accounting Firm") regarding the Executive's potential parachute payments. The Company shall cooperate with, and provide the necessary information to, the Executive and the Accounting Firm for purposes of determining the Executive's potential parachute payments.

(b) If the Executive does not request that the Company seek the shareholder approval described in subsection (a) above:

(i) In the event it shall be determined that all, or any portion, of the payments or benefits provided under this Agreement, either alone or together with other payments or benefits which the Executive receives or is entitled to receive in connection with the Executive's services for the Company or an Affiliate (the "Payments"), but determined for this purpose without regard to any required Gross-Up Payment (as defined below), will be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or any comparable tax imposed by any replacement or successor provision of United States tax law, or any interest or penalties are incurred by the Executive with respect to such excise tax (such excise tax, together with any such interest and penalties, are hereinafter collectively referred to as the " Excise Tax"), then the Company shall pay to the Executive one or more additional cash payments (each such payment, a " Gross-Up Payment") in such amounts so that the net cash amount remaining from such Gross-Up Payment after deduction or payment of (a) the Excise Tax imposed on the Gross-Up Payments and (b) all federal, state and local income and employment taxes imposed upon the Gross-Up Payments, shall equal fifty percent (50%) of the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code on the total Payments. The intent of the parties is that the Company shall be responsible for, and shall pay, 50% of the Excise Tax on any Payment and on any Gross-Up Payment and 50% of any income and employment taxes (including, without limitation, penalties and interest) imposed on any Gross-Up Payment, as well as bearing any loss of tax deduction caused by the Gross-Up Payment. For purposes of determining the amount of any Gross-Up Payment, the Executive shall be deemed to pay (a) federal income tax at the highest marginal rate in effect for the calendar year during which such Gross-Up Payment is to be made, (b) FICA taxes at the highest rate applicable to wages in excess of the Social Security taxable wage base in effect for such calendar year, and (c) state and local income taxes at the highest marginal rates in effect for such calendar year in the state and local municipality of the Executive's principal residence as of the date of termination of employment with the Company or the date that any portion of the total Payments become subject to the Excise Tax, net of the reduction in federal income tax attributable to the deduction of such state and local income taxes, and taking into account any limitation on deductions or credits or comparable negative impact for purposes of federal income tax as a result of the total Payments made to the Executive during such calendar year.

(ii) All determinations required to be made under this Section 14, including whether and when a Gross-Up payment is required and the amount of the such Gross-Up Payment and the assumptions to be utilized in arriving at such determination, shall be made by the Accounting Firm which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and the Executive within fifteen (15) business days of the receipt of notice from the Executive that there has been a Payment, or such earlier time as is requested by the Company. All fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm shall be borne solely by the Company. Any Gross-Up Payment, as determined pursuant to this Section 14, shall be paid by the Company to the Executive within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the Accounting Firm's determination; provided that in no event shall any Gross-Up Payment be paid later than the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the Executive or the Company remits the taxes for which the Gross-Up Payment is being paid. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding on the Company and the Executive.

19. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

20. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person, consigned to a reputable national courier service or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at her last known address on the books of the Company, with a copy to Stephan G. THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into this 17th day of August, 2010, to be effective for all purposes as of August 16, 2010 (the "Effective Date"), by and among DAVID A. PACE, whose address is 6118 Beverly Drive, Frisco, TA 75034 (hereinafter referred to as "Employee") and OSI RESTAURANT PARTNERS, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company having its principal office at 2202 N. West Shore Boulevard, 5th Floor, Tampa, Florida 33607 (the "Company").

W I T N E S S E T H:

This Agreement is made and entered into under the following circumstances:

A. WHEREAS, the Company is engaged in the business of owning and operating, through its subsidiaries and their affiliates, various restaurant concepts utilizing restaurant operating systems and trademarks ("Trademarks") owned by or licensed to the Company; and

B. WHEREAS, the Company desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to employ the Employee as Executive Vice President and Chief Resource Officer of the Company; and

C. WHEREAS, the Employee desires, on the terms and conditions stated herein, to be employed by the Company as Executive Vice President and Chief Resource Officer.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and of the premises, covenants, terms and conditions contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment and Term. Subject to earlier termination as provided for in Section 8 hereof, the Company hereby employs the Employee, and the Employee hereby accepts employment with the Company as Executive Vice President and Chief Resource Officer of the Company for a term commencing on August 16, 2010 and expiring August 16, 2015 ("Term of Employment"). Such Term of Employment shall be automatically renewed for successive renewal terms of one (1) year each unless either party elects not to renew by giving written notice to the other party not less than sixty (60) days prior to the start of any renewal term.

2. Representations and Warranties. The Employee hereby represents and warrants to the Company that (a) the Employee (i) is not subject to any written nonsolicitation or noncompetition agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Company (other than any prior agreement with the Company or its affiliate), (ii) is not subject to any written confidentiality or nonuse/nondisclosure agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Company (other than any prior agreement with the Company), and (iii) has brought to the Company no trade secrets, confidential business information, documents, or other personal property of a prior employer, and (b) the execution of this Agreement and the performance of the Employee's obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Employee is a party or is bound or any order, decree, judgment, ruling, determination or injunction of any federal, state, local or foreign governmental, administrative or regulatory court, agency or body or any arbitrator.

3. Duties. As Executive Vice President and Chief Resource Officer of the Company, the Employee shall:

(a) have such management, supervisory and operational functions as are customary to such position, and such other powers, functions and duties as may be assigned to the Employee by the Board of Directors or Chief Executive Officer of the Company; and

(b) diligently, competently, and faithfully perform all of the duties and functions as may be assigned to the Employee hereunder;

(c) not create a situation that results in termination for Cause (as that term is defined in Section 8 hereof);

(d) devote one hundred percent (100%) of the Employee's full business time, attention, energies, and effort to the business affairs of the Company;

(e) achieve the results and other goals required by the Company; and

(f) Conduct all of his activities in a manner so as to maintain and promote the business and reputation of the Company.

The Employee shall not, during the term of this Agreement, engage in any other business activity; provided, however, that the Employee shall be permitted to invest the Employee's personal assets and manage the Employee's personal investment portfolio in such a form and manner as will not require any business services on Employee's part to any third party or conflict with the provisions of Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 hereof, conflict with the Employee's duties or responsibilities to the Company hereunder, or conflict with any published policy of the Company or its affiliates, including but not limited to the insider trading policy of the Company or its affiliates.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Employee shall, during the term of this Agreement and at the request of the Company, also serve as an officer of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Company as the Company shall request. In such capacity, Employee shall be responsible generally for all aspects of such office. All terms, conditions, rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be applicable to Employee while serving in such office as though Employee and such subsidiary or affiliate of the Company had separately entered into this Agreement, except that the Employee shall not be entitled to any compensation, vacation, fringe benefits, automobile allowance or other remuneration of any kind whatsoever from such subsidiary or affiliate of the Company.

4. Compensation.

a. Base Salary. During the Term of Employment, the Employee shall be entitled to an annual base salary equal to Four Hundred Eighty-five Thousand Dollars ($485,000), payable in equal biweekly installments by the Company, to be reviewed annually.

b. OSI Bonus Program. During the Term of Employment, the Employee shall be entitled to discretionary bonuses pursuant to a bonus plan developed by the Compensation Committee of the Company (the "OSI Bonus Program"). Employee's bonus target under the OSI Bonus Program for 2010 is 100% of the base salary paid to the Employee in the 2010 calendar year. The OSI Bonus Program is subject to increase, decrease, change or elimination in the discretion of the Compensation Committee.

c. Relocation Costs. Employee shall be entitled to benefits under the Company's standard relocation policy.

d. Signing Bonus. Employee shall be entitled to a one-time signing bonus of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) payable on or before September 15, 2010. In the event that prior to August 16, 2011, Employee resigns or is terminated pursuant to Section 8(c) hereof, Employee shall repay the entire One Hundred Thousand Dollar ($100,000) signing bonus to the Company.

5. Paid Time Off. Employee shall be entitled to vacation time or other paid time off (collectively "PTO") to be accrued in accordance with the Company's PTO Policy (selected by Employee, but subject to the reasonable business requirements of the Company as determined by Employee's supervisor). Unless required by applicable law which cannot be waived, PTO granted but not used in any year shall be forfeited at the end of such one-year period and may not be carried over to any subsequent year.

6. Fringe Benefits. In addition to any other rights the Employee may have hereunder, the Employee shall also be entitled to participate in those employee benefit plans, programs and arrangements, including, but not limited to life insurance and a medical plan, etc., if any, as may be provided by the Company to similar employees of the Company. In each case as such plans, programs and arrangements may be in effect from time to time, all subject to the terms of such plans, programs and arrangements and applicable policies of the Company.

7. Expenses. Subject to approval by the Company and compliance with the Company's policies, the Employee may incur reasonable expenses on behalf of and in furtherance of the business of the Company. Upon approval of such expenses by the Chief Financial Officer, the Company shall promptly reimburse the Employee for all such expenses upon presentation by the Employee, from time to time, of appropriate receipts or vouchers for such expenses that are sufficient in form and substance to satisfy all federal tax requirements for the deductibility of such expenses by the Company.

8. Termination. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 hereof, the Term of Employment shall terminate prior to the end of the period of time specified in Section 1, immediately upon:

(a) The death of the Employee; or

(b) The Company's election in the event of the Employee's Disability during the Term of Employment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Disability" shall mean the inability of the Employee, arising out of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment, to perform the services required of the Employee hereunder for a period of (i) ninety (90) consecutive days or (ii) one hundred and twenty (120) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days; or

(c) The existence of Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Cause" shall be defined as:

(i) Failure of the Employee to perform the duties required of the Employee in this Agreement in a manner satisfactory to the Company, in its sole discretion; provided, however, that the Term of Employment shall not be terminated pursuant to this subparagraph (i) unless the Company first gives the Employee a written notice ("Notice of Deficiency"). The Notice of Deficiency shall specify the deficiencies in the Employee's performance of the Employee's duties. The Employee shall have a period of thirty (30) days, commencing on receipt of the Notice of Deficiency, in which to cure the deficiencies contained in the Notice of Deficiency. In the event the Employee does not cure the deficiencies to the satisfaction of the Company, in its sole discretion, within such thirty (30) day period (or if during such thirty (30) day period the Company determines that the Employee is not making reasonable, good faith efforts to cure the deficiencies to the satisfaction of the Company), the Company shall have the right to immediately terminate the Term of Employment. The provisions of this subparagraph (i) may be invoked by the Company any number of times and cure of deficiencies contained in any Notice of Deficiency shall not be construed as a waiver of this subparagraph (i) nor prevent the Company from issuing any subsequent Notices of Deficiency; or

(ii) Any dishonesty by the Employee in the Employee's dealings with the Company, the commission of fraud by the Employee, negligence in the performance of the duties of the Employee, insubordination, willful misconduct, or the conviction (or plea of guilty or nolo contendere) of the Employee of, or indictment or charge with respect to, any felony, or any other crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude; or

(iii) Any violation of any covenant or restriction contained in Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 hereof; or

(iv) Any violation of any current or future material published policy of the Company or its affiliates (material published policies include, but are not limited to, the Company's discrimination and harassment policy, management dating policy, responsible alcohol policy, insider trading policy and security policy).

(d) At the election of the Company, upon the sale of a majority ownership interest in the Company or substantially all of the assets of the Company; or

(e) At the election of the Company, upon the determination by the Company to cease the Company's business operations.

(f) At the election of the Company in its sole discretion, for any reason or no reason. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f), the Employee shall be entitled to receive as full and complete severance compensation, the base salary provided for herein for a period of one (1) year from the effective date of such termination (the "Severance"). Severance shall be payable in bi-weekly installments. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f) the Severance provided in this Section 8(f) shall be the only obligation that the Company or any of its affiliates shall have to the Employee.

For all purposes of this Agreement, termination for Cause shall be deemed to have occurred in the event of the Employee's resignation when, because of existing facts and circumstances, subsequent termination for Cause can be reasonably foreseen.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(f), in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8, the Employee or the Employee's estate, as appropriate, shall be entitled to receive (in addition to any fringe benefits payable upon death in the case of the Employee's death) the base salary provided for herein up to and including the effective date of termination, prorated on a daily basis.

9. Noncompetition.

(a) During Term. During the Employee's employment with the Company, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a restaurant business, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to any such person or entity.

(b) Post Term. For a continuous period of one (1) year commencing on termination of the Employee's employment with the Company, regardless of any termination pursuant to Section 8 or any voluntary termination or resignation by the Employee, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a restaurant business with a theme, décor, menu or style of or featured cuisine the same as or substantially similar to that of any restaurant owned or operated by the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, or any of the affiliates any of the foregoing, and that is located or intended to be located anywhere within a radius of thirty (30) miles of any restaurant owned or operated by the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, or any of the affiliates any of the foregoing, or any proposed restaurant to be owned or operated by any of the foregoing, and Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person, or entity. For purposes of this Section 9(b), Restaurants owned or operated by the Company shall include restaurants operated or owned by an affiliate of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, any successor entity to the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, and any entity in which the Company, its subsidiaries or any of their affiliates has an interest, including but not limited to, an interest as a franchisor. The term "proposed restaurant" shall include all locations for which the Company, or its franchisees or affiliates is conducting active, bona fide negotiations to secure a fee or leasehold interest with the intention of establishing a restaurant thereon.

(c) Limitation. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), it shall not be a violation of this Section 9 for Employee to own a one percent (1%) or smaller interest in any corporation required to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or successor statute.

10. Nondisclosure; Nonsolicitation; Nonpiracy. Except in the performance of Employee's duties hereunder, at no time during the Term of Employment, or at any time thereafter, shall Employee, individually or jointly with others, for the benefit of Employee or any third party, publish, disclose, use, or authorize anyone else to publish, disclose, or use, any secret or confidential material or information relating to any aspect of the business or operations of the Company, or its affiliates, including, without limitation, any secret or confidential information relating to the business, customers, trade or industrial practices, trade secrets, technology, recipes or know-how of any of the Company, or its affiliates. Moreover, during the Employee's employment with the Company and for two (2) years thereafter, Employee shall not offer employment to, or hire, any employee of the Company, its franchisees or affiliates, or otherwise solicit or induce any employee of the Company, its franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment, nor shall Employee act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, owner or part owner, or in any other capacity, for any person or entity that solicits or otherwise induces any employee of the Company, its franchisees or affiliates to terminate their employment.

11. Company Property: Employee Duty to Return. All property and information of the Company, its franchisees or affiliates, including but not limited to products, recipes, product specifications, training materials, employee selection and testing materials, marketing and advertising materials, special event, charitable and community activity materials, customer correspondence, internal memoranda, products and designs, sales information, project files, price lists, customer and vendor lists, prospectus reports, customer or vendor information, sales literature, territory printouts, call books, notebooks, textbooks, and all other like information or products, including but not limited to all copies, duplications, replications, and derivatives of such information or products, now in the possession of Employee or acquired by Employee while in the employ of the Company, shall be the exclusive property of the Company and shall be returned to the Company no later than the date of Employee's last day of work with the Company.

12. Inventions, Ideas, Processes, and Designs. All inventions, recipes, processes, discoveries, developments, designs, innovations or improvements, including but not limited to recipes, programs, software, and designs (including but not limited to all improvements on any of the foregoing) (i) conceived or made by Employee during the course of Employee's employment with the Company (whether or not conceived during regular business hours) and for a period of six (6) months subsequent to the termination or expiration of such employment and (ii) related to the business of the Company, shall be disclosed in writing promptly to the Company and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company. An invention, idea, recipe, process, program, software or design (including but not limited to an improvement) shall be deemed "related to the business of the Company" if (a) it was made with equipment, supplies, facilities, or confidential information of the Company or its affiliate (whether or not actually made or occurring on the Company's premises), (b) results from work performed by Employee for the Company, or (c) pertains to the current business or demonstrably anticipated research or development work of the Company. Employee shall cooperate with the Company and its attorneys in the preparation of patent and copyright applications for such developments and, upon request, shall promptly confirm the assignment of all such inventions, formulae, processes, discoveries, developments, designs, innovations or improvements to the Company. The decision to file for patent or copyright protection or to maintain such development as a trade secret shall be in the sole discretion of the Company, and Employee shall be bound by such decision. Employee shall provide, on the back of this Employment Agreement, a complete list of all inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, and designs if any, patented or unpatented, copyrighted or non-copyrighted, including but not limited to a brief description, that the Employee made or conceived prior to Employee's employment with the Company and that therefore are excluded from the scope of this Agreement.

13. Restrictive Covenants: Consideration; Non-Estoppel; Independent Agreements; and Non-Executory Agreements. The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10 and Section 12 of this Agreement are given and made by Employee to induce the Company to employ the Employee and to enter into this Agreement with the Employee, and Employee hereby acknowledges that employment with the Company is sufficient consideration for these restrictive covenants.

The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10 and Section 12 of this Agreement shall be construed as agreements independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action of Employee against the Company, whether predicated upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of any restrictive covenant. The Company has fully performed all obligations entitling them to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10 and Section 12 of this Agreement, and those restrictive covenants therefore are not executory or otherwise subject to rejection under the Bankruptcy Code.

The refusal or failure of the Company to enforce any restrictive covenant of Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 of this Agreement (or any similar agreement) against any other employee, agent, or independent contractor, for any reason, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of any such restrictive covenant, nor shall it give rise to any claim or cause of action by Employee against the Company.

14. Reasonableness of Restrictions; Reformation; Enforcement. The parties hereto recognize and acknowledge that the geographical and time limitations contained in Section 9, Section 10 and Section 12 hereof are reasonable and properly required for the adequate protection of the Company's interests. Employee acknowledges that the Company or its affiliate is the owner or the licensee of the Trademarks, and the owner or the licensee of the restaurant operating systems. It is agreed by the parties hereto that if any portion of the restrictions contained in Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 are held to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, then the restrictions shall be considered divisible, both as to the time and to the geographical area, with each month of the specified period being deemed a separate period of time and each radius mile of the restricted territory being deemed a separate geographical area, so that the lesser period of time or geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy. The parties hereto agree that in the event any court of competent jurisdiction determines the specified period or the specified geographical area of the restricted territory to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, a lesser time period or geographical area that is determined to be reasonable, nonarbitrary, and not against public policy may be enforced against Employee. If Employee shall violate any of the covenants contained herein and if any court action is instituted by the Company to prevent or enjoin such violation, then the period of time during which the Employee's business activities shall be restricted, as provided in this Agreement, shall be lengthened by a period of time equal to the period between the date of the Employee's breach of the terms or covenants contained in this Agreement and the date on which the decree of the court disposing of the issues upon the merits shall become final and not subject to further appeal.

In the event it is necessary for the Company to initiate legal proceedings to enforce, interpret or construe any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 hereof, the prevailing party in such proceedings shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party, in addition to all other remedies, all costs, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees, of such proceedings including appellate proceedings.

15. Specific Performance. Employee agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 hereof will cause irreparable injury to the Company for which the remedy at law will be inadequate and would be difficult to ascertain and therefore, in the event of the breach or threatened breach of any such covenants, the Company shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights and remedies it may have at law or in equity, to obtain an injunction to restrain Employee from any threatened or actual activities in violation of any such covenants. Employee hereby consents and agrees that temporary and permanent injunctive relief may be granted in any proceedings that might be brought to enforce any such covenants without the necessity of proof of actual damages, and in the event the Company does apply for such an injunction, Employee shall not raise as a defense thereto that the Company has an adequate remedy at law.

16. Assignability. This Agreement and the rights and duties created hereunder, shall not be assignable or delegable by Employee. The Company shall have the right, without Employee's knowledge or consent, to assign this Agreement, in whole or in part and any or all of the rights and duties hereunder, including but not limited to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11 and Section 12 hereof to any person, including but not limited to any affiliate of the Company, or any successor to the Company's interest, and Employee shall be bound by such assignment. Any assignee or successor may enforce any restrictive covenant of this Agreement.

17. Effect of Termination. The termination of this Agreement, for whatever reason or for no reason, or the expiration of this Agreement shall not extinguish those obligations of the Employee specified in Section 9, Section 10, Section 11 and Section 12 hereof. The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10, Section 11 and Section 12 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement. The termination or expiration of this Agreement shall extinguish the right of any party to bring an action, either in law or in equity, for breach of this Agreement by any other party.

18. Captions; Terms. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience only, and shall not be construed to limit, define, or modify the substantive terms hereof.

19. Acknowledgments. Employee hereby acknowledges, represents and warrants that the Employee has been provided with a copy of this Agreement for review, that the Employee has been given a full and sufficient opportunity to consider this Agreement and to consult with the Employee's attorney concerning this Agreement; that the Employee has read and understands the purposes and effects of this Agreement, and all of its terms and provisions; and that in agreeing to be bound by this Agreement the Employee has not relied on any promises or representations, express or implied, that are not set forth expressly in this Agreement; and that the Employee has been given a copy of this Agreement for Employee's own records.

20. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for herein to be given or sent to a party by the other party shall be in writing and shall be effective when mailed, postage prepaid, by certified United States mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by hand or consigned to a nationally recognized overnight courier, and addressed to the parties at their addresses hereinabove set forth or at their last known address. Any party may give notice to the other party at any time, by the method specified above, of a change in the address at which, or the person to whom, notice is to be addressed, which change of address shall be effective if notice thereof is actually received.

21. Severability. Each section, subsection, and lesser section of this Agreement constitutes a separate and distinct undertaking, covenant, or provision hereof. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed limited by construction in scope and effect to the minimum extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable, and, in the event such a limiting construction is impossible, such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

22. Waiver. The failure of a party to enforce any term, provision, or condition of this Agreement or failure to insist on strict performance of a covenant hereunder or any obligation hereunder, at any time or times shall not be deemed a waiver of that term, provision, or condition for the future, nor shall any specific waiver of a term, provision, or condition at one time be deemed a waiver of such party's right to demand compliance therewith in the future.

23. Parties. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto, their legal representatives, executors, administrators, heirs, and proper successors or permitted assigns, as the case may be.

24. Governing Law. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by the Company. The validity, interpretation, and performance of this Agreement shall be governed, interpreted, and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to the principles of comity or conflicts of laws thereof.

25. Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. Employee hereby consents to personal jurisdiction and venue, for any action brought by the Company arising out of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement or out of the relationship established by this Agreement, exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida; Employee hereby agrees that any action brought by Employee, alone or in combination with others, against the Company, whether arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida.

26. Affiliate. Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any person or entity, all persons or entities (i) directly or indirectly controlled by the person or entity, (ii) that directly or indirectly control the person or entity, or (iii) that are directly or indirectly under common control with the person or entity; and all directors, managers, members, shareholders, officers, and partners of and such entity.

27. Cooperation. Employee shall cooperate fully with all reasonable requests for information and participation by the Company, its agents, or its attorneys, in prosecuting or defending claims, suits, and disputes brought on behalf of or against one or both of them and in which Employee is involved or about which Employee has knowledge.

28. Amendments. No change, modification, or termination of any of the terms, provisions, or conditions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed or initialed by all signatories to this Agreement.

29. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. ALL PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT KNOW AND UNDERSTAND THAT THEY HAVE A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT ANY DISPUTE OR CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT WILL INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT FACTUAL AND LEGAL ISSUES.

THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS, WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, AND WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT ANY OF THEM MAY FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE KNOWING, VOLUNTARY AND BARGAINED-FOR AGREEMENT AMONG THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY TO WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY AND THAT ANY PROCEEDING WHATSOEVER BETWEEN THEM RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS SHALL INSTEAD BE TRIED IN A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION BY A JUDGE SITTING WITHOUT A JURY.

THE PARTIES INTEND THIS WAIVER OF THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL BE AS BROAD AS POSSIBLE. BY THEIR SIGNATURES BELOW, THE PARTIES PROMISE, WARRANT AND REPRESENT THAT THEY WILL NOT PLEAD FOR, REQUEST OR OTHERWISE SEEK TO HAVE A JURY TO RESOLVE ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY ARISE BY, BETWEEN OR AMONG THEM.

30. Entire Agreement; Counterparts. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersedes any prior employment agreement with the Company, or any of its affiliates and supersedes all prior memoranda, correspondence, conversations, negotiations and agreements. This Agreement may be executed in several identical counterparts that together shall constitute but one and the same Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

Such Term of Employment shall be automatically renewed for successive renewal terms of one (1) year each unless either party elects not to renew by giving written notice to the other party not less than sixty (60) days prior to the start of any renewal term.

2. Representations and Warranties. The Employee hereby represents and warrants to the Employer and the Company that (a) the Employee (i) is not subject to any written nonsolicitation or noncompetition agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Employer or its Affiliates (other than any prior agreement with the Employer or its Affiliates), (ii) is not subject to any written confidentiality or nonuse/nondisclosure agreement affecting the Employee's employment with the Employer or its Affiliates (other than any prior agreement with the Employer or its Affiliates), and (iii) has brought to the Employer and its Affiliates no trade secrets, confidential business information, documents, or other personal property of a prior employer, and (b) the execution of this Agreement and the performance of the Employee's obligations hereunder will not breach or be in conflict with any other agreement to which the Employee is a party or is bound or any order, decree, judgment, ruling, determination or injunction of any federal, state, local or foreign governmental, administrative or regulatory court, agency or body or any arbitrator.

All terms, conditions, rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be applicable to the Employee while serving in such office as though the Employee and such Affiliate had separately entered into this Agreement, except that the Employee shall not be entitled to any compensation, vacation, fringe benefits, automobile allowance or other remuneration of any kind whatsoever from such Affiliate.

The parties acknowledge and agree that the Company and the Employer have approved Employee's continued service on the Board of Directors of Imation Corporation and The University of Florida Retailing Center. The Employee's continued service on such boards shall not be a violation of paragraph 3(c) above.

4. Compensation. During the Term of Employment, subject to the Employee's performance in accordance with this Agreement, the Employee shall be entitled to the following:

a. Base Salary. The Employee shall be entitled to an annual base salary equal to Four Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($450,000), payable in equal biweekly installments by the Employer, to be reviewed annually for increase or decrease by the Employer.

b. Incentive Bonus. The Employee shall participate in the Employer's incentive bonus plan, as in effect as of the date hereof, and as may be amended by the Employer from time to time in accordance with its terms (the "OSI Bonus Program"). Employee's bonus target under the OSI Bonus Program is 85% of the base salary paid to the Employee in the calendar year for which the bonus is awarded; provided however, so long as Employee remains employed by Employer through the end of the 2011 calendar year, the Employee's bonus under the OSI Bonus Program for the calendar year 2011 shall be a guaranteed minimum of Three Hundred and Eighty-two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($382,500). The OSI Bonus Program and the Employee's bonus percentage are subject to increase, decrease, change or elimination in the discretion of the Employer.

c. Signing Bonuses. The Employee shall be entitled to a signing bonus of Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars ($700,000) to be paid as follows:

(iii) One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000) to be paid by the Employer on March 6, 2012.

The Employee shall reimburse the Employer for the entire amount of any signing bonus paid by the Employer if the Employee resigns or otherwise voluntarily terminates employment with the Employer within twelve (12) months of the date of payment of such signing bonus.

d. Reimbursement of Bonus Subject to Claw Back. The Employee shall be entitled to an additional bonus (the "Claw Back Bonus") of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) if Employee's prior employer exercises the claw back provision applicable to the hiring bonus of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) paid to the Employee by such prior employer. If Employee becomes eligible for the Claw Back Bonus, such bonus shall be paid by the Employer within fifteen (15) days of Employee's notice of the prior employer's exercise of the claw back provision and the Employee's payment to such prior employer. The Employee shall reimburse the Employer for the entire amount of the Claw Back Bonus paid by the Employer if the Employee resigns or otherwise voluntarily terminates employment with the Employer within twelve (12) months of the payment of such Claw Back Bonus.

5. Paid Time Off. Employee shall be entitled to vacation time or other paid time off (collectively "PTO") to be accrued in accordance with the Employer's PTO Policy as may be in effect from time to time. PTO scheduling is selected by the Employee, but subject to the reasonable business requirements of the Employer and the Company as determined by the Employee's supervisor. Unless required by applicable law which cannot be waived, PTO granted but not used in any year shall be forfeited at the end of such one-year period and may not be carried over to any subsequent year.

6. Fringe Benefits. In addition to any other rights the Employee may have hereunder, the Employee shall also be entitled to participate in those employee benefit plans, programs and arrangements, including, but not limited to life insurance, medical benefits, etc., if any, as may be provided by the Employer to similar employees of the Employer. In each case as such plans, programs and arrangements may be in effect from time to time, all subject to the terms of such plans, programs or arrangements and applicable policies of the Employer. Any taxable welfare benefits provided to the Employee pursuant to this Section 6 that are not 'disability pay' or 'death benefits' within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-1(a)(5) (collectively, the 'Applicable Benefits') shall be subject to the following requirements in order to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The amount of any Applicable Benefits provided during one taxable year shall not affect the amount of the Applicable Benefits provided in any other taxable year, except that with respect to any Applicable Benefits that consist of the reimbursement of expenses referred to in Code Section 105(b), a limitation may be imposed on the amount of such reimbursements as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.409A-3(i)(iv)(B). To the extent that any Applicable Benefits consist of the reimbursement of eligible expenses, such reimbursement must be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred, and the Employer shall not be obligated to reimburse any expense for which the Employee fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense for any such reimbursement was incurred. Further, no Applicable Benefits may be liquidated or exchanged for another benefit. The Employee shall not be entitled to any compensation, vacation, fringe benefits, automobile allowance or other remuneration of any kind whatsoever from the Company.

7. Expenses. Subject to compliance with the Employer's policies as in effect from time to time, the Employee may incur and be reimbursed by the Employer for reasonable expenses on behalf of and in furtherance of the business of the Employer and the Company. If any reimbursements under this provision are taxable to the Employee, such reimbursements shall be paid on or before the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the reimbursable expense was incurred, and the Employer shall not be obligated to pay any such reimbursement amount for which Employee fails to submit an invoice or other documented reimbursement request at least thirty (30) business days before the end of the calendar year next following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred. Such expenses shall be reimbursable only to the extent they were incurred during the term of the Agreement. In addition, the amount of such reimbursements that the Employer is obligated to pay in any given calendar year shall not affect the amount the Employer is obligated to pay in any other calendar year. Further, Employee may not liquidate or exchange the right to reimbursement of such expenses for any other benefits.

8. Termination. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 hereof, the Term of Employment shall terminate prior to the end of the period of time specified in Section 1 hereof, immediately upon:

(a) The death of the Employee; or

(b) At the election of the Employer in the event of the Employee's Disability during the Term of Employment. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Disability" shall mean the inability of the Employee, arising out of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment, to perform the services required of the Employee hereunder for a period of (i) ninety (90) consecutive days or (ii) one hundred and twenty (120) total days during any period of three hundred and sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days; or

(c) The existence of Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Cause" shall be defined as:

(i) Failure of the Employee to perform the duties required of the Employee in this Agreement in a manner satisfactory to the Employer, in its sole discretion; provided, however, that the Term of Employment shall not be terminated pursuant to this subparagraph (i) unless the Employer first gives the Employee a written notice ("Notice of Deficiency"). The Notice of Deficiency shall specify the deficiencies in the Employee's performance of the Employee's duties. The Employee shall have a period of thirty (30) days, commencing on receipt of the Notice of Deficiency, in which to cure the deficiencies contained in the Notice of Deficiency. In the event the Employee does not cure the deficiencies to the satisfaction of the Employer, in its sole discretion, within such thirty (30) day period (or if during such thirty (30) day period the Employer determines that the Employee is not making reasonable, good faith efforts to cure the deficiencies to the satisfaction of the Employer), the Employer shall have the right to immediately terminate the Term of Employment. The provisions of this subparagraph (i) may be invoked by the Employer any number of times and cure of deficiencies contained in any Notice of Deficiency shall not be construed as a waiver of this subparagraph (i) nor prevent the Employer from issuing any subsequent Notices of Deficiency; or

(ii) Any dishonesty by the Employee in the Employee's dealings with the Employer or its Affiliates, the commission of fraud by the Employee, negligence in the performance of the duties of the Employee, insubordination, willful misconduct, or the conviction (or plea of guilty or nolo contendere) of the Employee of, or indictment or charge with respect to, any felony, or any other crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude; or

(iii) Any violation of any covenant or restriction contained in Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 hereof; or

(i) Any violation of any current or future material published policy of the Employer or its Affiliates (material published policies include, but are not limited to, the Employer's discrimination and harassment policy, management dating policy, responsible alcohol policy, insider trading policy and security policy); or

(d) At the election of the Employer, upon the sale of a majority ownership interest in the Employer or the Company or substantially all of the assets of the Employer or the Company; or

(e) At the election of the Employer, upon the determination by the Employer or the Company to cease the Employer's or the Company's business operations; or

(f) At the election of the Employer in its sole discretion, for any reason or no reason. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f), the Employee shall be entitled to receive as full and complete severance compensation, the base salary provided for herein for a period of one (1) year from the effective date of such termination (the "Severance"). Severance shall be payable in bi-weekly installments. The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8(f) the Severance provided in this Section 8(f) shall be the only obligation that the Employer or any of its Affiliates shall have to the Employee (except for any vested benefits in tax-qualified pension plans maintained by the Employer). Any Long Term Incentive Agreement ("LTIA") with the Company or any of its affiliates shall terminate immediately and the Employee shall not be entitled to any further payments under such LTIA. Payment of Severance shall be contingent on Employee's continued compliance with Section 9(b) and Section 10 of this Agreement.

Termination of Employment for all purposes under this Agreement will be determined to have occurred in accordance with the 'separation from service' requirements of Code Section 409A and the Treasury Regulations and other guidance issued thereunder, and based on whether the facts and circumstances indicate that Employer and Employee reasonably anticipated that no further services would be performed after a certain date or that the level of bona fide services Employee would perform after such date (as an employee or as an independent contractor) would permanently decrease to no more than 20 percent of the average level of bona fide services performed over the immediately preceding 36-month period (or actual period of service, if less).

For all purposes of this Agreement, termination for Cause shall be deemed to have occurred in the event of the Employee's resignation when, because of existing facts and circumstances, subsequent termination for Cause can be reasonably foreseen.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(f), in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8, the Employee or the Employee's estate, as appropriate, shall be entitled to receive (in addition to any fringe benefits payable upon death in the case of the Employee's death) the base salary provided for herein up to and including the effective date of termination, prorated on a daily basis.

The Employee acknowledges and agrees that in the event of termination of Employee's employment as President of the Company, with or without Cause, any LTIA between the Employee and the Company or any of its affiliates shall terminate immediately and the Employee shall not be entitled to any further payments under such LTIA.

9. Noncompetition.

(a) During Term. Except with the prior written consent of the Employer, during the Employee's employment with the Employer, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in any person or entity engaged in a restaurant business, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person or entity.

(b) Post Term. For a continuous period of two (2) years commencing on termination of the Employee's employment with the Company, regardless of any termination pursuant to Section 8 or any voluntary termination or resignation by the Employee, the Employee shall not, individually or jointly with others, directly or indirectly, whether for the Employee's own account or for that of any other person or entity, engage in or own or hold any ownership interest in, have any interest in or lend any assistance to, any casual steakhouse restaurant or any person or entity engaged in a business owning, operating, franchising or controlling an casual steakhouse business, and that is located or intended to be located anywhere within a radius of thirty (30) miles of any Outback Steakhouse® restaurant owned or operated by the Company or any Affiliate, or any proposed Outback Steakhouse ® restaurant to be owned or operated by any of the foregoing, and the Employee shall not act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, chef, or in any other capacity for, nor lend any assistance (financial or otherwise) or cooperation to, any such person, or entity. For purposes of this Section 9(b), Outback Steakhouse® restaurants owned or operated by the Company or any Affiliate shall include Outback Steakhouse® restaurants operated or owned by any successor entity to the Company or any Affiliate, and any entity in which the Company or any Affiliate has an interest, including but not limited to, an interest as a franchisor. The term "proposed Outback Steakhouse ® restaurant" shall include all locations for which the Company or any Affiliate, its franchisees or affiliates is conducting active, bona fide negotiations to secure a fee or leasehold interest with the intention of establishing one or more Outback Steakhouse ® restaurants thereon. For purposes of this Section 9(b), the term "casual steakhouse" shall mean any restaurant for which the check average is equal to or less than of $30.00 per person, and: (i) the words "steak" or "beef" or any item of steak or beef or any word that connotes steak or beef is used in its name; or (ii) the sale of steak or beef is regularly featured in its advertising or marketing efforts, or (iii) the sale of steak and beef in the aggregate constitute thirty percent (30%) or more of its entrée sales, computed on a dollar basis.

(c) Limitation. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b) immediately above, it shall not be a violation of this Section 9 for Employee to own a one percent (1%) or smaller interest in any corporation required to file periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or successor statute.

10. Nondisclosure; Nonsolicitation; Nonpiracy. Except in the performance of the Employee's duties hereunder, at no time during the Term of Employment, or at any time thereafter, shall the Employee, individually or jointly with others, for the benefit of the Employee or any third party, publish, disclose, use or authorize anyone else to publish, disclose or use any secret or confidential material or information relating to any aspect of the business or operations of the Employer, the Company or any of their Affiliates, including, without limitation, any secret or confidential information relating to the business, customers, trade or industrial practices, trade secrets, technology, recipes, product specifications, restaurant operating techniques and procedures, marketing techniques and procedures, financial data, processes, vendors and other information or know-how of the Employer, the Company or any of their Affiliates, except (i) to the extent required by law, regulation or valid subpoena, or (ii) to the extent that such information or material becomes publicly known or available through no fault of the Employee. Moreover, during the Employee's employment with the Employer and for two (2) years thereafter, except as is the result of a broad solicitation that is not targeting employees of the Employer, the Company or any of their franchisees or Affiliates, the Employee shall not offer employment to, or hire, any employee of the Employer, the Company or any of their franchisees or Affiliates, or otherwise directly or indirectly solicit or induce any employee of the Employer, the Company or any of their franchisees or Affiliates to terminate his or her employment with the Employer, the Company or any of their franchisees or Affiliates; nor shall the Employee act as an officer, director, employee, partner, independent contractor, consultant, principal, agent, proprietor, owner or part owner, or in any other capacity, of or for any person or entity that solicits or otherwise induces any employee of the Employer, the Company or any of their franchisees or Affiliates to terminate his or her employment with the Employer, the Company or any of their franchisees or Affiliates.

11. Company and Employer Property: Employee Duty to Return . All Employer and Company property and assets, including but not limited to products, recipes, product specifications, training materials, employee selection and testing materials, marketing and advertising materials, special event, charitable and community activity materials, customer correspondence, internal memoranda, products and designs, sales information, project files, price lists, customer and vendor lists, prospectus reports, customer or vendor information, sales literature, territory printouts, call books, notebooks, textbooks, and all other like information or products, including but not limited to all copies, duplications, replications, and derivatives of such information or products, now in the possession of Employee or acquired by Employee while in the employ of the Employer shall be the exclusive property of the Employer and shall be returned to the Employer no later than the date of Employee's last day of work with the Employer.

12. Inventions, Ideas, Processes, and Designs . All inventions, ideas, recipes, processes, programs, software and designs (including all improvements) related to the business of the Employer or the Company shall be disclosed in writing promptly to the Employer, and shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Employer, if either (i) conceived, made or used by the Employee during the course of the Employee's employment with the Employer (whether or not actually conceived during regular business hours) or (ii) made or used by the Employee for a period of six (6) months subsequent to the termination or expiration of such employment. Any invention, idea, recipe, process, program, software or design (including an improvement) shall be deemed "related to the business of the Employer or the Company" if (i) it was made with equipment, facilities or confidential information of the Employer or the Company, (ii) results from work performed by the Employee for the Employer or the Company or (iii) pertains to the current business or demonstrably anticipated research or development work of the Employer or the Company. The Employee shall cooperate with the Employer and its attorneys in the preparation of patent and copyright applications for such developments and, upon request, shall promptly assign all such inventions, ideas, recipes, processes and designs to the Employer. The decision to file for patent or copyright protection or to maintain such development as a trade secret shall be in the sole discretion of the Employer, and the Employee shall be bound by such decision. The Employee shall provide, on the back of this Agreement, a complete list of all inventions, ideas, recipes, processes and designs if any, patented or unpatented, copyrighted or non-copyrighted, including a brief description, that the Employee made or conceived prior to the Employee's employment with the Employer, and that, therefore, are excluded from the scope of this Agreement.

13. Restrictive Covenants: Consideration; Non-Estoppel; Independent Agreements; and Non-Executory Agreements . The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10 and Section 12 of this Agreement are given and made by Employee to induce the Employer to employ the Employee and to enter into this Agreement with the Employee, and Employee hereby acknowledges that employment with the Employer is sufficient consideration for these restrictive covenants.

The restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10 and Section 12 of this Agreement shall be construed as agreements independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action of Employee against the Employer or the Company, whether predicated upon this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of any restrictive covenant.

The refusal or failure of the Employer or the Company to enforce any restrictive covenant of Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 of this Agreement (or any similar agreement) against any other employee, agent, or independent contractor, for any reason, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Employer or the Company of any such restrictive covenant, nor shall it give rise to any claim or cause of action by Employee against the Employer or the Company.

14. Reasonableness of Restrictions; Reformation; Enforcement . The parties hereto recognize and acknowledge that the geographical and time limitations contained in Section 9, Section 10 and Section 12 hereof are reasonable and properly required for the adequate protection of the Employer's and the Company's interests. Employee acknowledges that the Company or its Affiliate is the owner or the licensee of the Trademarks, and the owner or the licensee of the restaurant operating systems. It is agreed by the parties hereto that if any portion of the restrictions contained in Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 are held to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, then the restrictions shall be considered divisible, both as to the time and to the geographical area, with each month of the specified period being deemed a separate period of time and each radius mile of the restricted territory being deemed a separate geographical area, so that the lesser period of time or geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy. The parties hereto agree that in the event any court of competent jurisdiction determines the specified period or the specified geographical area of the restricted territory to be unreasonable, arbitrary, or against public policy, a lesser time period or geographical area that is determined to be reasonable, nonarbitrary, and not against public policy may be enforced against Employee. If Employee shall violate any of the covenants contained herein and if any court action is instituted by the Employer or the Company to prevent or enjoin such violation, then the period of time during which the Employee's business activities shall be restricted, as provided in this Agreement, shall be lengthened by a period of time equal to the period between the date of the Employee's breach of the terms or covenants contained in this Agreement and the date on which the decree of the court disposing of the issues upon the merits shall become final and not subject to further appeal.

In the event it is necessary for the Employer or the Company to initiate legal proceedings to enforce, interpret or construe any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 hereof, each party shall pay its own legal fees, and the prevailing party in such proceedings shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party, in addition to all other remedies, all costs of such proceedings including appellate proceedings.

15. Specific Performance. Employee agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Section 9, Section 10 or Section 12 hereof will cause irreparable injury to the Employer and the Company for which the remedy at law will be inadequate and would be difficult to ascertain and therefore, in the event of the breach or threatened breach of any such covenants, the Employer and the Company shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights and remedies it may have at law or in equity, to obtain an injunction to restrain Employee from any threatened or actual activities in violation of any such covenants. Employee hereby consents and agrees that temporary and permanent injunctive relief may be granted in any proceedings that might be brought to enforce any such covenants without the necessity of proof of actual damages, and in the event the Employer or the Company does apply for such an injunction, Employee shall not raise as a defense thereto that the Employer or the Company has an adequate remedy at law.

16. Assignability. This Agreement and the rights and duties created hereunder, shall not be assignable or delegable by Employee. The Employer shall have the right, without Employee's knowledge or consent, to assign this Agreement, in whole or in part and any or all of the rights and duties hereunder, including but not limited to the restrictive covenants of Section 9, Section 10 and Section 12 hereof to any person, including but not limited to any Affiliate of the Employer and the Company, or any successor to the Employer and the Company's interest in the restaurants, and Employee shall be bound by such assignment. Any assignee or successor may enforce any restrictive covenant of this Agreement.

17. Effect of Termination. For the avoidance of doubt, the termination of this Agreement or expiration of the Term of Employment, for any reason, shall not extinguish those obligations of the Employee specified in Section 9, Section 10, Section 12 and Section 27 hereof.

18. Captions; Terms. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience only, and shall not be construed to limit, define, or modify the substantive terms hereof.

19. Acknowledgments. Employee hereby acknowledges, that the Employee has been provided with a copy of this Agreement for review prior to signing it, that the Employee has been given a full and sufficient opportunity to consider this Agreement and has been given the opportunity to have this Agreement reviewed by Employee's attorney prior to signing it, that the Employee understands the purposes and effects of this Agreement; and that in agreeing to be bound by this Agreement the Employee has not relied on any promises or representations, express or implied, that are not set forth expressly in this Agreement; and that the Employee has been given a signed copy of this Agreement for Employee's own records.

20. Notices. All notices or other communications provided for herein to be given or sent to a party by another party shall be deemed validly given or sent if in writing mailed, postage prepaid, by certified United States mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by hand or consigned to a nationally recognized overnight courier, and addressed to the parties at their addresses set forth in this agreement or at their last known address. Any party may give notice to the other party at any time, by the method specified above, of a change in the address at which, or the person to whom, notice is to be addressed, which change of address shall be effective if notice thereof is actually received.

21. Severability. Each section, subsection, and lesser section of this Agreement constitutes a separate and distinct undertaking, covenant, or provision hereof. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed limited by construction in scope and effect to the minimum extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable, and, in the event such a limiting construction is impossible, such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

22. Waiver. The failure of a party to enforce any term, provision, or condition of this Agreement or failure to insist on strict performance of a covenant hereunder or any obligation hereunder, at any time or times shall not be deemed a waiver of that term, provision, or condition for the future, nor shall any specific waiver of a term, provision, or condition at one time be deemed a deemed a waiver of such term, provision, or condition for any future time or times.

23. Parties. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto, their legal representatives, executors, administrators, heirs, and proper successors or permitted assigns, as the case may be.

24. Governing Law. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by the Employer. The validity, interpretation, and performance of this Agreement shall be governed, interpreted, and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to the principles of comity or conflicts of laws thereof.

25. Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. Employee hereby consents to personal jurisdiction and venue, for any action brought by the Employer or the Company arising out of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement or out of the relationship established by this Agreement, exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida; and, if applicable, the federal and state courts in any jurisdiction where the Employee is employed or resides; the Employee hereby agrees that any action brought by Employee, alone or in combination with others, against the Employer or the Company, whether arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, shall be brought exclusively in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, or in the Circuit Court in and for Hillsborough County, Florida.

26. Affiliate. Whenever used in this Agreement, the term "Affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any entity, OSI and all persons or entities directly or indirectly controlled by OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC, where control may be by management authority, contract or equity interest.

27. Cooperation. Employee shall cooperate fully with all reasonable requests for information and participation by the Employer and the Company, its agents, or its attorneys, in prosecuting or defending claims, suits, and disputes brought on behalf of or against the Employer and the Company and in which Employee is involved or about which Employee has knowledge.

28 Internal Revenue Code Section 409A Compliance .

a. Unless otherwise expressly provided, any payment of compensation by Employer to the Employee, whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, shall be made within two and one-half months (2 1/2 months) after the end of the later of the calendar year or the Employer's fiscal year in which the Employee's right to such payment vests (i.e., is not subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture for purposes of Internal Revenue Code Section 409A ("Code Section 409A")). Such amounts shall not be subject to the requirements of subsection (b) below applicable to "nonqualified deferred compensation."

b. All payments of "nonqualified deferred compensation" (within the meaning of Code Section 409A are intended to comply with the requirements of Code Section 409A, and shall be interpreted in accordance therewith. No party individually or in combination may accelerate, offset or assign any such deferred payment, except in compliance with Code Section 409A. No amount shall be paid prior to the earliest date on which it is permitted to be paid under Code Section 409A and Employee shall have no discretion with respect to the timing of payments except as permitted under Section 409A. In the event that the Employee is determined to be a "specified employee" (as defined and determined under Code Section 409A) of Employer or any of its affiliates at a time when its stock is deemed to be publicly traded on an established securities market, payments determined to be "nonqualified deferred compensation" payable by reason of separation from service shall be paid no earlier than (i) the first day of the seventh (7th) calendar month commencing after such termination of employment, or (ii) the Employee's death, consistent with and to the extent necessary to meet the requirements Code Section 409A without the imposition of excise taxes. Any payment delayed by reason of the prior sentence shall be paid out in a single lump sum on the earliest date permitted under Code Section 409A in order to catch up to the original payment schedule. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no amendment may be made to this Agreement if it would cause the Agreement or any payment hereunder not to be in compliance with Code Section 409A.

c. The Employee shall be responsible for the payment of all taxes applicable to payments or benefits received from the Employer. It is the intent of the Employer that the provisions of this Agreement and all other plans and programs sponsored by the Employer be interpreted to comply in all respects with Code Section 409A, however, the Employer shall have no liability to the Employee, or any successor or beneficiary thereof, in the event taxes, penalties or excise taxes may ultimately be determined to be applicable to any payment or benefit received by the Employee or any successor or beneficiary thereof.

29. Amendments. No change, modification, or termination of any of the terms, provisions, or conditions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed or initialed by all signatories to this Agreement.

30. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. ALL PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT KNOW AND UNDERSTAND THAT THEY HAVE A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT ANY DISPUTE OR CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT WILL INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT FACTUAL AND LEGAL ISSUES.

THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS, WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, AND WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT ANY OF THEM MAY FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE KNOWING, VOLUNTARY AND BARGAINED-FOR AGREEMENT AMONG THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY TO WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY AND THAT ANY PROCEEDING WHATSOEVER BETWEEN THEM RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS SHALL INSTEAD BE TRIED IN A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION BY A JUDGE SITTING WITHOUT A JURY.

THE PARTIES INTEND THAT THIS WAIVER OF THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL BE AS BROAD AS POSSIBLE. BY THEIR SIGNATURES BELOW, THE PARTIES PROMISE, WARRANT AND REPRESENT THAT THEY WILL NOT PLEAD FOR, REQUEST OR OTHERWISE SEEK TO HAVE A JURY TO RESOLVE ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY ARISE BY, BETWEEN OR AMONG THEM.

31. Entire Agreement; Counterparts. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior memoranda, correspondence, conversations, negotiations and agreements, including the Former Agreement. This Agreement may be executed in several identical counterparts that together shall constitute but one and the same Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

Optionee: Elizabeth A. Smith

This Option and any securities issued upon exercise of this Option are subject to restrictions on voting and transfer and requirements of sale and other provisions as set forth in the Stockholders Agreement among Kangaroo Holdings, Inc. and certain investors, dated as of June 14, 2007 (as amended from time to time, the "Stockholders Agreement") and in the Registration Rights Agreement among Kangaroo Holdings, Inc. and certain investors, dated as of June 14, 2007 (as amended from time to time, the " Registration Rights Agreement"). This Option and any securities issued upon exercise of this Option constitute Management Shares as defined in the Stockholders Agreement.

KANGAROO HOLDINGS, INC.

OPTION AGREEMENT

The option described in this agreement (the "Agreement") is granted by Kangaroo Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the " Company"), to the undersigned (the "Optionee"), pursuant to the Company's 2007 Equity Incentive Plan (as amended from time to time, the " Plan"), which is incorporated herein by reference, and of which the Optionee hereby acknowledges receipt. Unless otherwise expressly provided for herein, capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan. The terms "Cause," "Good Reason" and "Disability" shall have the meaning set forth in the Optionee's Employment Agreement with OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC and the Company (with respect to certain sections only) dated November 2, 2009 and effective November 16, 2009 (the "Employment Agreement"). For the purpose of this Agreement, the " Grant Date" shall mean November 16, 2009.

1. Grant of Option. The Agreement evidences the grant by the Company on the Grant Date to the Optionee of an option to purchase (the " Option"), in whole or in part, on the terms provided herein and in the Plan, the number of shares of Common Stock of the Company (the " Option Shares"), as set forth below and in each case subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 7 of the Plan in respect of transactions occurring after the date hereof:

(a) 1,087,500 Shares at $3.00 per Option Share (the "Tranche A Option Shares");

(b) 1,087,500 Shares at $3.00 per Option Share (the "Tranche B Option Shares");

(c) 1,087,500 Shares at $3.00 per Option Share (the "Tranche C Option Shares");

(d) 1,087,500 Shares at $3.00 per Option Share (the "Tranche D Option Shares");

The Option evidenced by this Agreement is a non-statutory option (that is, an option that is not treated as a stock option described in subsection (b) of Section 422 of the Code) and is granted to the Optionee in connection with the Optionee's Employment by the Company and its qualifying subsidiaries. For purposes of the immediately preceding sentence, "qualifying subsidiary" means a subsidiary of the Company as to which the Company has a "controlling interest" as described in Treas. Reg. §1.409A-1(b)(5)(iii)(E)(1).

2. Vesting. Shares subject to the Option, unless earlier terminated or forfeited, will become vested and exercisable as follows:

(a) Tranche A: The Tranche A Option Shares shall vest and become exercisable in five (5) equal installments (each with respect to 20% of the Tranche A Option Shares) on each of the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth anniversary of the Grant Date, subject, in each case, to the Optionee remaining in continuous Employment on each applicable vesting date.

(b) Tranche B: The Tranche B Option Shares shall become vested, but shall not become exercisable except as otherwise provided below, in five (5) equal installments (each with respect to 20% of the Tranche B Option Shares) on each of the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth anniversary of the Grant Date, subject, in each case, to the Optionee remaining in continuous Employment on each applicable vesting date. The Tranche B Option Shares shall only become exercisable upon a Qualifying Liquidity Event B. The Tranche B Option Shares which are vested as of the date of a Qualifying Liquidity Event B shall be exercisable immediately upon such Qualifying Liquidity Event B, and Tranche B Option Shares which are not yet vested as of a Qualifying Liquidity Event B and which thereafter become vested as a result of the Optionee's continued Employment shall become exercisable as of the date they become vested as provided for in this subsection (b) (unless they have ceased to be outstanding under Section 4 below).

(c) Tranche C: The Tranche C Option Shares shall become vested, but shall not become exercisable except as otherwise provided below, in five (5) equal installments (each with respect to 20% of the Tranche C Option Shares) on each of the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth anniversary of the Grant Date, subject, in each case, to the Optionee remaining in continuous Employment on each applicable vesting date. The Tranche C Option Shares shall only become exercisable upon a Qualifying Liquidity Event C. The Tranche C Option Shares which are vested as of the date of a Qualifying Liquidity Event C shall be exercisable immediately upon such Qualifying Liquidity Event C, and Tranche C Option Shares which are not yet vested as of a Qualifying Liquidity Event C and which thereafter become vested as a result of the Optionee's continued Employment shall become exercisable as of the date they become vested as provided for in this subsection (c) (unless they have ceased to be outstanding under Section 4 below).

(d) Tranche D: The Tranche D Option Shares shall become vested, but shall not become exercisable except as otherwise provided below, in five (5) equal installments (each with respect to 20% of the Tranche D Option Shares) on each of the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth anniversary of the Grant Date, subject, in each case, to the Optionee remaining in continuous Employment on each applicable vesting date. The Tranche D Option Shares shall only become exercisable upon a Qualifying Liquidity Event D. The Tranche D Option Shares which are vested as of the date of a Qualifying Liquidity Event D shall be exercisable immediately upon such Qualifying Liquidity Event D, and Tranche D Option Shares which are not yet vested as of a Qualifying Liquidity Event D and which thereafter become vested as a result of the Optionee's continued Employment shall become exercisable as of the date they become vested as provided for in this subsection (d) (unless they have ceased to be outstanding under Section 4 below).

(e) Special Rules. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of subsections (a), (b) (c) or (d) of this Section 2, (i) the Tranche A, B, C or D Option Shares, to the extent then outstanding, shall become fully vested and exercisable upon a termination of Employment by the Optionee for any reason on or after the first anniversary of an Applicable Qualifying CIC Liquidity Event, and (ii) in the event of termination of the Optionee's Employment (X) by the Company without Cause or (Z) by the Optionee for Good Reason, the Applicable Percentage of the Option Shares that have not yet vested as of the date of such Employment termination shall vest immediately upon such termination of Employment, and shall become exercisable either immediately, in the case of Tranche A Option Shares, or, to the extent then outstanding, upon an Applicable Qualifying Liquidity Event (or immediately in the event an Applicable Qualifying Liquidity Event has occurred prior to such termination of employment), in the case of Tranche B, C or D Option Shares. For the avoidance of doubt, upon the occurrence of a Change in Control that does not meet the requirements of a Qualifying CIC Liquidity Event B, a Qualifying CIC Liquidity Event C, or a Qualifying CIC Liquidity Event D, any tranche of Option Shares that does not become exercisable as a result of such Change in Control shall immediately expire upon such Change in Control.

3. Exercise of Option. Each election to exercise this Option shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and the Agreement and shall be in writing, signed by the Optionee, or by her executor or administrator, or by the person or persons to whom this Option is transferred by will or the applicable laws of descent and distribution (the "Legal Representative"), and made pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan. The latest date on which this Option may be exercised (the "Final Exercise Date") is the date which is the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Grant Date, subject to earlier termination in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan and this Agreement.

4. Cessation of Employment. Unless the Administrator determines otherwise, the following will apply if the Optionee's Employment ceases:

(a) To the extent the Option is not vested prior to, or does not become vested and exercisable as a result of, the termination of the Optionee's Employment, the Option will be forfeited immediately by the Optionee and will terminate with no consideration due to the Optionee.

(b) To the extent the Option is vested prior to termination of Employment, or becomes vested as a result of such termination of Employment, the Option will remain outstanding for one year following such termination of Employment in the case of a termination of Employment on account of the Optionee's death or Disability.

(c) To the extent the Option is vested prior to termination of Employment, or becomes vested as a result of such termination of Employment, the Option will remain outstanding for ninety (90) days in the case of Tranche A Option Shares, and one hundred eighty (180) days in the case of Tranche B, C, or D Option Shares following such termination of Employment in the case of a termination of Employment by the Optionee for any reason other than Good Reason that occurs prior to the occurrence of a Qualifying Liquidity Event.

(d) To the extent the Option is vested prior to termination of Employment, or becomes vested as a result of such termination of Employment, the Option will remain outstanding following such termination of Employment in the case of a termination of Employment by the Company without Cause or by the Optionee for Good Reason that occurs prior to the occurrence of a Qualifying Liquidity Event in accordance with the following schedule:

(i) The vested portion of the Tranche A Option Shares shall remain outstanding for one hundred and eighty (180) days following such termination of Employment; and

(ii) 100% of the vested portion of the Tranche B, C and D Option Shares shall remain outstanding for one year following such termination of Employment and on the one-year anniversary of such termination of Employment, 1/3 of the vested portion of the Tranche B, C and D Option Shares shall expire; 2/3 of the vested portion of the Tranche B, C and D Option Shares shall remain outstanding for two years following such termination of Employment and on the two-year anniversary of such termination of Employment, an additional 1/3 of the vested portion of the Tranche B, C and D Option Shares shall expire; and the remaining 1/3 of the vested portion of the Tranche B, C and D Option Shares shall remain outstanding for three years following such termination of Employment.

(e) To the extent the Option is vested prior to termination of Employment, or becomes vested as a result of such termination of Employment, the Option will remain outstanding following such termination of Employment in the case of a termination of Employment by the Company without Cause or by the Optionee for any reason, including Good Reason, in each case, that occurs on or following the occurrence of a Qualifying Liquidity Event, for ninety (90) days following such termination of Employment.

(f) To the extent that the Optionee is prohibited from exercising the Option or from selling Option Shares at any time during the applicable exercise period described above as a result of, (x) in connection with an Initial Public Offering, a lock-up agreement entered into by the Optionee with the underwriter(s) of the Initial Public Offering or (y) a requirement of applicable securities law (as reasonably determined by the Company) (in either case, a "Restricted Period"), then the period of time during which the Optionee may exercise the Option shall be tolled during the Restricted Period (it being understood that this provision shall not increase the aggregate number of days outside a Restricted Period during which the Optionee shall be entitled to exercise the Option under this Section 4).

(g) The Option will immediately terminate if the Optionee's Employment is terminated by the Company for Cause.

(h) In no event shall the Option be exercisable after the Final Exercise Date.

5. Representations and Warranties of the Parties. Each of the Company and the Optionee represent and warrant to each other that:

(a) Authorization. Such party has full legal capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, and to perform such party's obligations hereunder. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by such party, and is the legal, valid and binding obligation of such party, enforceable against such party in accordance with the terms hereof.

(b) No Conflicts. The execution, delivery and performance by such party of this Agreement, and the consummation by such party of the transactions contemplated hereby, will not, with or without the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both (i) violate any provision of law, statute, rule or regulation to which such party is subject, (ii) violate in any material respect any order, judgment or decree applicable to such party or (iii) conflict with, or result in a breach or default under, any term or condition of any agreement or other instrument to which such party is a party or by which such party is bound.

(c) No Other Agreements. Except as provided by this Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Plan, such party is not a party to or subject to any agreement or arrangement with respect to the voting or transfer of this Option or the shares of Stock issued upon exercise hereof.

(d) Thorough Review, Etc. Optionee has thoroughly reviewed the Plan and this Agreement in their entirety. Optionee has had an opportunity to obtain the advice of independent counsel (other than counsel to the Company or its Affiliates) prior to executing this Agreement, and fully understands all provisions of the Plan and this Agreement.

6. Other Agreements. Optionee acknowledges and agrees that the shares of Stock received upon exercise of this Option shall be subject to the Stockholders Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement in accordance with their respective terms, and to the transfer and other restrictions, rights and obligations set forth therein; provided, however, that with respect to the Management Call Option (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) as applied to the Optionee's Option Shares:

(a) Section 5.1.1(c) of the Stockholders Agreement, as applied to the Optionee's Option Shares, is modified as follows: If a termination of Employment is the result of a termination of Employment by the Optionee, then the Company may purchase all or any portion of the Option Shares at a per Share price equal to the Fair Market Value of such Shares.

(b) Section 5.1.2 of the Stockholders Agreement, as applied to the Optionee's Option Shares, is modified as follows: a Management Call Option may be exercised by delivery of the Management Call Notice (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) to Optionee no later than the 90th day (or, in the case of termination of Employment by the Company other than for Cause or by the Optionee for Good Reason, no earlier than the 181st day and no later than the 210th day) after the later of (a) effectiveness of the applicable termination of Employment and (b) the date on which any Option Shares are purchased by the Optionee. The Management Call Notice shall state that the Company has elected to exercise the Management Call Option, and the number and price of the Shares with respect to which the Management Call Option is being exercised.

By executing this Agreement, Optionee hereby becomes a party to and bound by the Stockholders Agreement and Registration Rights Agreement as a Manager (as such term is defined in the Stockholders Agreement), without any further action on the part of Optionee, the Company or any other person.

7. Legends. Certificates evidencing any shares issued upon exercise of the Option granted hereby shall bear such legends as are required by the Stockholders Agreement, and as may be determined by the Administrator prior to issuance.

8. Withholding; Satisfaction of Exercise Price. No Stock will be transferred pursuant to the exercise of this Option unless and until the person exercising this Option shall have remitted to the Company an amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state or local withholding tax requirements, or shall have made other arrangements satisfactory to the Company with respect to such taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Plan, the Administrator shall permit the Optionee (or her permitted transferees, if applicable), at the Optionee's (or her permitted transferees') election, to exercise all or any portion of her then-exercisable Option through net-physical settlement (i.e. withholding of shares of Stock equal in value to the exercise price in lieu of delivery by the Optionee of the exercise price) or by delivery of shares of Stock owned by the Optionee (to satisfy both the exercise price and any applicable withholding taxes), to the extent permitted under Section 409A of the Code.

9. Nontransferability of Option. This Option is not transferable by the Optionee other than by will or the applicable laws of descent and distribution, and is exercisable during the Optionee's lifetime only by the Optionee.

10. Effect on Employment. Neither the grant of this Option, nor the issuance of Stock upon exercise of this Option, shall give the Optionee any right to be retained in the employ of the Company or its Affiliates, affect the right of the Company or its Affiliates to discharge or discipline such Optionee at any time or affect any right of such Optionee to terminate her Employment at any time.

11. Provisions of the Plan. This Option is subject in its entirety to the provisions of the Plan, which are incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the Plan as in effect on the date of the grant of this Option has been furnished to the Optionee. By exercising all or any part of this Option, the Optionee agrees to be bound by the terms of the Plan and this Option. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Option and the Plan, the terms of this Option shall control.

12. Dividends. In the event the Company pays a dividend (whether in cash or other property) to its stockholders: (a) with respect to the portion, if any, of the Option outstanding on the record date for such dividend (the "Dividend Record Date") that is vested and exercisable as of such Dividend Record Date, the Company shall pay to the Optionee (or her permitted transferees) on the date the dividend is actually paid, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way be contingent upon the exercise (in whole or in part) of the Option, a bonus in respect of each Option Share underlying such portion of the Option that is vested and exercisable on the Dividend Record Date equal to the per share dividend that was actually paid to the Company stockholders in respect of each share of Company Common Stock outstanding on the Dividend Record Date (which bonus shall be payable in the same form of consideration as is received by the Company stockholders in respect of such dividend); and (b) with respect to the portion, if any, of the Option outstanding on the Dividend Record Date that is unvested or unexercisable as of such Dividend Record Date, the Company shall pay to the Optionee (or her permitted transferees) on the applicable date or dates set forth in the immediately succeeding sentence, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way be contingent upon the exercise (in whole or in part) of the Option, a bonus in respect of each Option Share underlying such portion of the Option that is unvested or unexercisable on the Dividend Record Date (such bonus, the "Designated Bonus") equal to the per share dividend that was actually paid to the Company stockholders in respect of each share of Company Common Stock outstanding on the Dividend Record Date (which bonus shall be payable in the same form of consideration as is received by the Company stockholders in respect of such dividend). Any Designated Bonus will be paid (1) in the case of a Designated Bonus that relates to Tranche A Option Shares, in pro rata installments on each vesting date for such Tranche A Option Shares that follows the Dividend Record Date, subject to Optionee's continued Employment through and including such applicable vesting date, commencing with the first vesting date following the Dividend Record Date, or (2) in the case of a Designated Bonus that relates to Tranche B, C or D Option Shares, on the date the applicable portion of the Option becomes exercisable (if at all), based on the number of Option Shares for which the Option so becomes exercisable on such date, subject to the Optionee's continued Employment through and including such applicable vesting date. If it is determined that any adjustment or payment referred to in this Section 12 does not comply with Section 409A of the Code, or would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A, or adversely effects the Option, the Company and the Optionee shall use their reasonable efforts and take reasonable actions necessary to put the Optionee in the same position she would have been in if the payment was permitted or would not cause a tax to become due under Section 409A, to the extent reasonably practicable. It is the intent of the parties that any adjustment or payment under this Section 12 comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

13. Definitions. The initially capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan and:

acceptable, nationally recognized independent investment bank ranking among the top twenty financial advisors in the Thomson Reuters Mergers and Acquisitions (US Target Completed) league tables (or, if such tables are no longer prepared, the equivalent thereof) for the quarter completed immediately prior to such determination (a "Qualified Investment Bank"), and such value will be based on the standards set forth in the Plan. In the event the Company and the Optionee are unable to reach agreement upon a mutually acceptable "Qualified Investment Bank" within 20 days of such notice, the Company and the Optionee shall each select a Qualified Investment Bank within 25 days of such notice, which two investment banks shall select a third Qualified Investment Bank to make such determination within five (5) days of their selection. "Qualifying Liquidity Event B" means (i) the occurrence of a Change in Control as a result of which the Investors shall have received Aggregate Consideration equal to or in excess of $5.00 per share (as equitably adjusted by the Board for any stock splits or other changes in the Company's capital structure) multiplied by the number of Investor Shares or (ii) following an Initial Public Offering, the volume-weighted average Trading Price during the applicable period described below (such average Trading Price to be determined using a volume-weighted average of the Trading Price for each Trading Day occurring during such period) is equal to or more than $5.00 per share (as equitably adjusted by the Board for any stock splits or other changes in the Company's capital structure) less an amount per share equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the Aggregate Consideration received by the Investors prior to the applicable Measurement

KANGAROO HOLDINGS, INC.

OPTION AGREEMENT

The option described in this agreement (the "Agreement") is granted by Kangaroo Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), to the undersigned (the "Optionee"), pursuant to the Company's 2007 Equity Incentive Plan (as amended from time to time, the "Plan"), which is incorporated herein by reference, and of which the Optionee hereby acknowledges receipt. Unless otherwise expressly provided for herein, capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan. The terms "Cause," "Good Reason" and "Disability" shall have the meaning set forth in the Optionee's Employment Agreement with OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC and the Company (with respect to certain sections only) dated November 2, 2009, effective November 16, 2009 and as amended and restated as of December 31, 2009 (the "Employment Agreement"). For the purpose of this Agreement, the "Grant Date" shall mean July 1, 2011.

1. Grant of Option. The Agreement evidences the grant by the Company on the Grant Date to the Optionee of an option to purchase (the "Option"), in whole or in part, on the terms provided herein and in the Plan, 550,000 of shares of Common Stock of the Company (the "Option Shares"), subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 7 of the Plan in respect of transactions occurring after the date hereof, with an exercise price of $10.03 per Option Share.

The Option evidenced by this Agreement is a non-statutory option (that is, an option that is not treated as a stock option described in subsection (b) of Section 422 of the Code) and is granted to the Optionee in connection with the Optionee's Employment by the Company and its qualifying subsidiaries. For purposes of the immediately preceding sentence, "qualifying subsidiary" means a subsidiary of the Company as to which the Company has a "controlling interest" as described in Treas. Reg. §1.409A-1(b)(5)(iii)(E)(1).

2. Vesting. Shares subject to the Option, unless earlier terminated or forfeited, will become vested and exercisable as follows:

(a) The Option Shares shall vest and become exercisable in five (5) equal installments (each with respect to 20% of the Option Shares) on each of the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth anniversary of the Grant Date, subject, in each case, to the Optionee remaining in continuous Employment on each applicable vesting date.

(b) Special Rules. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of subsection (a) of this Section 2, (i) the Option Shares, to the extent then outstanding, shall become fully vested and exercisable upon a termination of Employment by the Optionee for any reason on or after the first anniversary of a Change in Control, and (ii) in the event of termination of the Optionee's Employment (X) by the Company without Cause or (Z) by the Optionee for Good Reason, the Applicable Percentage of the Option Shares that have not yet vested as of the date of such Employment termination shall vest immediately upon such termination of Employment, and shall become exercisable immediately.

3. Exercise of Option. Each election to exercise this Option shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and the Agreement and shall be in writing, signed by the Optionee, or by her executor or administrator, or by the person or persons to whom this Option is transferred by will or the applicable laws of descent and distribution (the "Legal Representative"), and made pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan. The latest date on which this Option may be exercised (the "Final Exercise Date") is the date which is the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Grant Date, subject to earlier termination in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan and this Agreement.

4. Cessation of Employment. Unless the Administrator determines otherwise, the following will apply if the Optionee's Employment ceases:

(a) To the extent the Option is not vested prior to, or does not become vested and exercisable as a result of, the termination of the Optionee's Employment, the Option will be forfeited immediately by the Optionee and will terminate with no consideration due to the Optionee.

(b) To the extent the Option is vested prior to termination of Employment, or becomes vested as a result of such termination of Employment, the Option will remain outstanding for one year following such termination of Employment in the case of a termination of Employment on account of the Optionee's death or Disability.

(c) To the extent the Option is vested prior to termination of Employment, or becomes vested as a result of such termination of Employment, the Option will remain outstanding for ninety (90) days following such termination of Employment in the case of a termination of Employment by the Optionee for any reason other than Good Reason that occurs prior to the occurrence of a Qualifying Liquidity Event.

(d) To the extent the Option is vested prior to termination of Employment, or becomes vested as a result of such termination of Employment, the Option will remain outstanding following such termination of Employment in the case of a termination of Employment by the Company without Cause or by the Optionee for Good Reason, in each case, that occurs prior to the occurrence of a Qualifying Liquidity Event for one hundred and eighty (180) days following such termination of Employment.

(e) To the extent the Option is vested prior to termination of Employment, or becomes vested as a result of such termination of Employment, the Option will remain outstanding following such termination of Employment in the case of a termination of Employment by the Company without Cause or by the Optionee for any reason, including Good Reason, in each case, that occurs on or following the occurrence of a Qualifying Liquidity Event, for ninety (90) days following such termination of Employment.

(f) To the extent that the Optionee is prohibited from exercising the Option or from selling Option Shares at any time during the applicable exercise period described above as a result of, (x) in connection with an Initial Public Offering, a lock-up agreement entered into by the Optionee with the underwriter(s) of the Initial Public Offering or (y) a requirement of applicable securities law (as reasonably determined by the Company) (in either case, a "Restricted Period"), then the period of time during which the Optionee may exercise the Option shall be tolled during the Restricted Period (it being understood that this provision shall not increase the aggregate number of days outside a Restricted Period during which the Optionee shall be entitled to exercise the Option under this Section 4).

(g) The Option will immediately terminate if the Optionee's Employment is terminated by the Company for Cause.

(h) In no event shall the Option be exercisable after the Final Exercise Date.

5. Representations and Warranties of the Parties. Each of the Company and the Optionee represent and warrant to each other that:

(a) Authorization. Such party has full legal capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, and to perform such party's obligations hereunder. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by such party, and is the legal, valid and binding obligation of such party, enforceable against such party in accordance with the terms hereof.

(b) No Conflicts. The execution, delivery and performance by such party of this Agreement, and the consummation by such party of the transactions contemplated hereby, will not, with or without the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both (i) violate any provision of law, statute, rule or regulation to which such party is subject, (ii) violate in any material respect any order, judgment or decree applicable to such party or (iii) conflict with, or result in a breach or default under, any term or condition of any agreement or other instrument to which such party is a party or by which such party is bound.

(c) No Other Agreements. Except as provided by this Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Plan, such party is not a party to or subject to any agreement or arrangement with respect to the voting or transfer of this Option or the shares of Stock issued upon exercise hereof.

(d) Thorough Review, Etc. Optionee has thoroughly reviewed the Plan and this Agreement in their entirety. Optionee has had an opportunity to obtain the advice of independent counsel (other than counsel to the Company or its Affiliates) prior to executing this Agreement, and fully understands all provisions of the Plan and this Agreement.

6. Other Agreements. Optionee acknowledges and agrees that the shares of Stock received upon exercise of this Option shall be subject to the Stockholders Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement in accordance with their respective terms, and to the transfer and other restrictions, rights and obligations set forth therein; provided, however, that with respect to the Management Call Option (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) as applied to the Optionee's Option Shares:

(a) Section 5.1.1(c) of the Stockholders Agreement, as applied to the Optionee's Option Shares, is modified as follows: If a termination of Employment is the result of a termination of Employment by the Optionee, then the Company may purchase all or any portion of the Option Shares at a per Share price equal to the Fair Market Value of such Shares.

(b) Section 5.1.2 of the Stockholders Agreement, as applied to the Optionee's Option Shares, is modified as follows: a Management Call Option may be exercised by delivery of the Management Call Notice (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement) to Optionee no later than the 90th day (or, in the case of termination of Employment by the Company other than for Cause or by the Optionee for Good Reason, no earlier than the 181st day and no later than the 210th day) after the later of (a) effectiveness of the applicable termination of Employment and (b) the date on which any Option Shares are purchased by the Optionee. The Management Call Notice shall state that the Company has elected to exercise the Management Call Option, and the number and price of the Shares with respect to which the Management Call Option is being exercised.

By executing this Agreement, Optionee hereby becomes a party to and bound by the Stockholders Agreement and Registration Rights Agreement as a Manager (as such term is defined in the Stockholders Agreement), without any further action on the part of Optionee, the Company or any other person.

7. Legends. Certificates evidencing any shares issued upon exercise of the Option granted hereby shall bear such legends as are required by the Stockholders Agreement, and as may be determined by the Administrator prior to issuance.

8. Withholding; Satisfaction of Exercise Price. No Stock will be transferred pursuant to the exercise of this Option unless and until the person exercising this Option shall have remitted to the Company an amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state or local withholding tax requirements, or shall have made other arrangements satisfactory to the Company with respect to such taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Plan, the Administrator shall permit the Optionee (or her permitted transferees, if applicable), at the Optionee's (or her permitted transferees') election, to exercise all or any portion of her then-exercisable Option through net-physical settlement (i.e. withholding of shares of Stock equal in value to the exercise price in lieu of delivery by the Optionee of the exercise price) or by delivery of shares of Stock owned by the Optionee (to satisfy both the exercise price and any applicable withholding taxes), to the extent permitted under Section 409A of the Code.

9. Nontransferability of Option. This Option is not transferable by the Optionee other than by will or the applicable laws of descent and distribution, and is exercisable during the Optionee's lifetime only by the Optionee.

10. Effect on Employment. Neither the grant of this Option, nor the issuance of Stock upon exercise of this Option, shall give the Optionee any right to be retained in the employ of the Company or its Affiliates, affect the right of the Company or its Affiliates to discharge or discipline such Optionee at any time or affect any right of such Optionee to terminate her Employment at any time.

11. Provisions of the Plan. This Option is subject in its entirety to the provisions of the Plan, which are incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the Plan as in effect on the date of the grant of this Option has been furnished to the Optionee. By exercising all or any part of this Option, the Optionee agrees to be bound by the terms of the Plan and this Option. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Option and the Plan, the terms of this Option shall control.

12. Dividends. In the event the Company pays a dividend (whether in cash or other property) to its stockholders: (a) with respect to the portion, if any, of the Option outstanding on the record date for such dividend (the " Dividend Record Date") that is vested and exercisable as of such Dividend Record Date, the Company shall pay to the Optionee (or her permitted transferees) on the date the dividend is actually paid, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way be contingent upon the exercise (in whole or in part) of the Option, a bonus in respect of each Option Share underlying such portion of the Option that is vested and exercisable on the Dividend Record Date equal to the per share dividend that was actually paid to the Company stockholders in respect of each share of Company Common Stock outstanding on the Dividend Record Date (which bonus shall be payable in the same form of consideration as is received by the Company stockholders in respect of such dividend); and (b) with respect to the portion, if any, of the Option outstanding on the Dividend Record Date that is unvested or unexercisable as of such Dividend Record Date, the Company shall pay to the Optionee (or her permitted transferees) on the applicable date or dates set forth in the immediately succeeding sentence, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way be contingent upon the exercise (in whole or in part) of the Option, a bonus in respect of each Option Share underlying such portion of the Option that is unvested or unexercisable on the Dividend Record Date (such bonus, the " Designated Bonus") equal to the per share dividend that was actually paid to the Company stockholders in respect of each share of Company Common Stock outstanding on the Dividend Record Date (which bonus shall be payable in the same form of consideration as is received by the Company stockholders in respect of such dividend). Any Designated Bonus will be paid in pro rata installments on each vesting date for such Option Shares that follows the Dividend Record Date, subject to Optionee's continued Employment through and including such applicable vesting date, commencing with the first vesting date following the Dividend Record Date. If it is determined that any adjustment or payment referred to in this Section 12 does not comply with Section 409A of the Code, or would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A, or adversely effects the Option, the Company and the Optionee shall use their reasonable efforts and take reasonable actions necessary to put the Optionee in the same position she would have been in if the payment was permitted or would not cause a tax to become due under Section 409A, to the extent reasonably practicable. It is the intent of the parties that any adjustment or payment under this Section 12 comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

13. Definitions. The initially capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan and:

"Applicable Percentage" shall mean (a) if a Change in Control has occurred, one hundred percent (100%), and (b) otherwise, fifty percent (50%).

"Cause" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Employment Agreement.

"Disability" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Employment Agreement.

"Fair Market Value" in the event of the exercise of the call option under Section 5 of the Stockholders Agreement, shall have the meaning set forth in the Plan; provided, however, that, prior to the existence of a Public Market, in the event that the Optionee delivers a written notice to the Company disputing the Company's determination of Fair Market Value within five days of receiving such determination, the Fair Market Value will be determined by a mutually acceptable, nationally recognized independent investment bank ranking among the top twenty financial advisors in the Thomson Reuters Mergers and Acquisitions (US Target Completed) league tables (or, if such tables are no longer prepared, the equivalent thereof) for the quarter completed immediately prior to such determination (a "Qualified Investment Bank"), and such value will be based on the standards set forth in the Plan. In the event the Company and the Optionee are unable to reach agreement upon a mutually acceptable "Qualified Investment Bank" within 20 days of such notice, the Company and the Optionee shall each select a Qualified Investment Bank within 25 days of such notice, which two investment banks shall select a third Qualified Investment Bank to make such determination within five (5) days of their selection. The costs and expenses of such investment banks shall be shared equally by the Company and the Optionee.

"Good Reason" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Employment Agreement.

"Initial Public Offering" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Stockholders Agreement.

"Qualifying Liquidity Event" shall mean the first to occur of an Initial Public Offering or a Change in Control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Option to be executed under its corporate seal by its duly authorized officer. This Option shall take effect as a sealed instrument.

OPTION AGREEMENT

Optionee:

This Option and any securities issued upon exercise of this Option are subject to restrictions on voting and transfer and requirements of sale and other provisions as set forth in the Stockholders Agreement among Kangaroo Holdings, Inc. and certain investors, dated as of June 14, 2007 (as amended from time to time, the "Stockholders Agreement") and in the Registration Rights Agreement among Kangaroo Holdings, Inc. and certain investors, dated as of June 14, 2007 (as amended from time to time, the " Registration Rights Agreement"). This Option and any securities issued upon exercise of this Option constitute Management Shares as defined in the Stockholders Agreement.

KANGAROO HOLDINGS, INC.

OPTION AGREEMENT

This option (the "Agreement") is granted by Kangaroo Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the " Company"), to the undersigned (the "Optionee"), pursuant to the Company's 2007 Equity Incentive Plan (as amended from time to time, the " Plan"), which is incorporated herein by reference, and of which the Optionee hereby acknowledges receipt. For the purpose of this Agreement, the " Grant Date" shall mean .

1. Grant of Option. The Agreement evidences the grant by the Company on the Grant Date to the Optionee of an option to purchase (the " Option"), in whole or in part, on the terms provided herein and in the Plan, that total number of shares set forth on Schedule A hereto (the "Option Shares") of Stock with an exercise price of $. per share, equal to the Fair Market Value of a share of Stock on the Grant Date.

2. Vesting. During the Optionee's Employment, this Option shall vest and become exercisable with respect to 20% of the Option Shares on and for an additional 20% of the Option Shares on each thereafter (the "Vest Date").

3. Exercise of Option. Each election to exercise this Option shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and shall be in writing, signed by the Optionee, or by his or her executor or administrator, or by the person or persons to whom this Option is transferred by will or the applicable laws of descent and distribution (the "Legal Representative"), and made pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan. The latest date on which this Option may be exercised (the "Final Exercise Date") is the date which is the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date, subject to earlier termination in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan and this Agreement.

4. Cessation of Employment. Unless the Administrator determines otherwise, the following will apply if the Optionee's Employment ceases:

(a) To the extent the Option is not vested and exercisable prior to the cessation of Employment, the Option will be forfeited immediately by the Optionee and will terminate.

(b) To the extent the Option is vested and exercisable prior to cessation of Employment, the Option will remain exercisable (i) for one year in the case of a termination of Employment resulting from death or Disability, or (ii) for 90 days following a termination of Employment for any other reason.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 4(b) above, the Option will immediately terminate if the Optionee's Employment is terminated by the Company for Cause.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the deemed termination of Employment that would result if the Optionee's employment or other service relationship is with an Affiliate and that entity ceases to be an Affiliate of the Company, will be considered "termination of employment" under Section 5.1 of the Stockholders Agreement.

5. Representations and Warranties of the Parties. Each of the Company and the Optionee represent and warrant to each other that:

(a) Authorization. Such party has full legal capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, and to perform such party's obligations hereunder. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by such party, and is the legal, valid and binding obligation of such party, enforceable against such party in accordance with the terms hereof.

(b) No Conflicts. The execution, delivery and performance by such party of this Agreement, and the consummation by such party of the transactions contemplated hereby, will not, with or without the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both (i) violate any provision of law, statute, rule or regulation to which such party is subject, (ii) violate in any material respect any order, judgment or decree applicable to such party or (iii) conflict with, or result in a breach of default under, any term or condition of any agreement or other instrument to which such party is a party or by which such party is bound.

(c) No Other Agreements. Except as provided by this Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, the Registration Rights Agreement and the Plan, such party is not a party to or subject to any agreement or arrangement with respect to the voting or transfer of this Option or the shares of Stock issued upon exercise hereof.

(d) Thorough Review, Etc. Optionee has thoroughly reviewed the Plan and this Agreement in their entirety. Optionee has had an opportunity to obtain the advice of independent counsel (other than counsel to the Company or its Affiliates) prior to executing this Agreement, and fully understands all provisions of the Plan and this Agreement.

6. Other Agreements. Optionee acknowledges and agrees that the shares of Stock received upon exercise of this Option shall be subject to the Stockholders Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement in accordance with their respective terms, and to the transfer and other restrictions, rights and obligations set forth therein. By executing this Agreement, Optionee hereby becomes a party to and bound by the Stockholders Agreement and Registration Rights Agreement as a Manager (as such term is defined in the Stockholders Agreement), without any further action on the part of Optionee, the Company or any other person.

7. [Intentionally Omitted.]

8. Legends. Certificates evidencing any shares issued upon exercise of the Option granted hereby shall bear such legends as are required by the Stockholders Agreement, and as may be determined by the Administrator prior to issuance.

9. Withholding; Satisfaction of Exercise Price. No Stock will be transferred pursuant to the exercise of this Option unless and until the person exercising this Option shall have remitted to the Company an amount sufficient to satisfy any federal, state or local withholding tax requirements, or shall have made other arrangements satisfactory to the Company with respect to such taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Plan, the Administrator shall permit the Optionee (or his or her permitted transferees, if applicable), at the Optionee's (or his or her permitted transferees') election, to exercise all or any portion of his or her then-exercisable Option through net-physical settlement or by delivery of shares of Stock owned by the Optionee (to satisfy both the exercise price and any applicable withholding taxes), to the extent permitted under Section 409A of the Code.

10. Nontransferability of Option. This Option is not transferable by the Optionee other than by will or the applicable laws of descent and distribution, and is exercisable during the Optionee's lifetime only by the Optionee.

11. Effect on Employment. Neither the grant of this Option, nor the issuance of Stock upon exercise of this Option, shall give the Optionee any right to be retained in the employ of the Company or its Affiliates, affect the right of the Company or its Affiliates to discharge or discipline such Optionee at any time or affect any right of such Optionee to terminate his or her Employment at any time.

12. Provisions of the Plan. This Option is subject in its entirety to the provisions of the Plan, which are incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the Plan as in effect on the date of the grant of this Option has been furnished to the Optionee. By exercising all or any part of this Option, the Optionee agrees to be bound by the terms of the Plan and this Option. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Option and the Plan, the terms of this Option shall control.

13. Dividends. In the event the Company pays a cash dividend to its stockholders, (a) with respect to vested and exercisable Options then outstanding on the date such dividend is paid (the "Payment Date"), the Company shall pay to the Optionee (or his or her permitted transferees) on the Payment Date, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way relate to the exercise of any of the Options, a cash bonus equal to his or her proportionate share of the Company if he or she owned the Stock underlying such vested and exercisable Options as of the record date for such dividend, and (b) with respect to any unvested Options then outstanding on the Payment Date, the Company shall either (i) adjust the exercise price and/or number of shares of Stock subject to such unvested Options to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights, or (ii) pay to each Optionee (or his or her permitted transferees), pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way relate to the exercise of any of the Options, a cash bonus equal to his or her proportionate share of the Company if he or she owned the Stock underlying such unvested and unexercisable Options as of the record date for such dividend the amount that he or she would have received if he or she owned the Shares underlying such unvested and unexercisable Options as of the record date for such dividend. Any cash bonus referred to in clause (ii) of the preceding sentence will be paid in pro rata installments over the remaining vesting period of the unvested Options to which such bonus relates on each vesting date that follows the Payment Date, commencing with the first vesting date following the Payment Date. If it is determined that any bonus payment referred to in this Section 13 does not comply with Section 409A of the Code, or would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A, or adversely effects the Options, the Company and the Optionee shall use their reasonable efforts and take reasonable actions necessary to put the Option holder in the same position he or she would have been in if the payment was permitted or would not cause a tax to become due under Section 409A, to the extent reasonably practicable.

14. Definitions. The initially capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan and:

"Fair Market Value" in the event of the exercise of the call option under Section 5 of the Stockholders Agreement, shall have the meaning set forth in the Plan; provided, however, that, prior to the existence of a Public Market, in the event that the Optionee delivers a written notice to the Company disputing the Company's determination of Fair Market Value within five days of receiving such determination, the Fair Market Value will be determined by a mutually acceptable "bulge bracket" independent investment bank, and such value will be based on the standards set forth in the Plan. In the event the Company and the Optionee are unable to reach agreement upon a mutually acceptable "bulge bracket" investment bank within 20 days of such notice, the Company and the Optionee shall each select a "bulge bracket" investment bank within 25 days of such notice, which two investment banks shall select a third "bulge bracket" investment bank to make such determination within 5 days of their selection. The costs and expenses of such investment banks shall be shared equally by the Company and the Optionee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Option to be executed under its corporate seal by its duly authorized officer. This Option shall take effect as a sealed instrument.

RETENTION BONUS AGREEMENT

RETENTION BONUS AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") made and entered into this 2nd day of November, 2009 by and between Elizabeth A. Smith (the "Executive") and Kangaroo Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("KHI"). This Agreement shall be effective as of the Effective Date of the Employment Agreement (as defined below).

WHEREAS, the Executive and OSI Restaurant Partners, LLC, a Delaware corporation (the "Company") desire to enter into an employment agreement on the date hereof (the "Employment Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, KHI desires to grant a cash retention bonus to the Executive to induce the Executive to execute the Employment Agreement and to commit to employment with the Company for the term set forth in the Employment Agreement and Executive desires to receive a cash retention bonus on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and mutual promises, terms, provisions, and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree:

1. Meaning of Terms. Except as otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meaning as in the Employment Agreement.

2. Retention Bonus.

   a. KHI hereby grants to the Executive a retention bonus (the "Retention Bonus"), which, subject to the requirements of Section 2(b) below, shall vest on each of the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the Effective Date (each such date, a "Vesting Date") in the following amounts: One Million Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,800,000) on the first anniversary of the Effective Date; Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) on the second anniversary of the Effective Date; Three Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($3,600,000) on the third anniversary of the Effective Date; and Three Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($3,600,000) on the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date.

   b. In order to receive the portion of the Retention Bonus that vests on an applicable Vesting Date, except as otherwise provided in Section 2(c) below, the Executive must remain continuously employed by the Company through the applicable Vesting Date. Any portion of the Retention Bonus that vests as provided in this Section 2(b) shall be paid to the Executive within thirty (30) days following the applicable Vesting Date, subject to the Executive providing the necessary directions to the Bank as provided for in Section 2(d).

   c. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or the Employment Agreement to the contrary, in the event the Executive's employment with the Company is terminated by the Company without Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, the Executive shall be entitled to receive any then unpaid amounts of the Retention Bonus, whether vested or unvested, which amounts shall be reduced (but not below zero) by the Severance Amount (the "Restoration Payment"). KHI shall calculate the amount of the Restoration Payment and shall notify the Executive in writing of such amount no later than the date on which KHI gives written notice to the Executive of the related Withholding Amount. The Restoration Payment shall be paid to the Executive in a lump sum on the date that is sixty (60) days following the date of termination of employment. Any obligation of KHI to the Executive to pay the Restoration Payment under this Section 2(c) is conditioned on (i) the Executive signing and returning an effective Release of Claims and (ii) the Executive's continued compliance with the Compliance Condition. The Executive agrees that, in the event of her failure to comply with Compliance Condition, KHI shall have the immediate right to cease making the Restoration Payment.

d. As soon as commercially practicable following the Effective Date, but in no event later than four (4) months following such date, or, if later, execution by the Executive and the Bank (as defined below) of the Security Documentation (as defined below) (the " Deposit Date"), KHI shall deposit an amount equal to Twelve Million Dollars cash ($12,000,000) (the " Cash Collateral") into a deposit account (the "Account") at a financial institution (the "Bank") reasonably acceptable to the Executive and KHI to secure the maximum amount of KHI's payment obligation to the Executive hereunder, and shall grant to the Executive a first priority perfected security interest in the Account, it being understood that such security interest shall be created under a separate security agreement (the " Security Agreement") and perfected pursuant to a deposit account control agreement (the " Control Agreement," together with the Security Agreement and any other security documentation for the Cash Collateral, the " Security Documentation"). KHI and the Executive agree to make good faith efforts to finalize the Security Agreement (and, subject to the Bank's agreement, the Control Agreement) within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date. The Security Documentation shall be in form and substance sufficient to provide the Executive with "control" (within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code) over the Account and consistent with the terms set forth herein and otherwise reasonably acceptable to the Executive and KHI (and, with respect to the Control Agreement, the Bank), and, without limiting KHI's rights under Section 2(e) below, KHI shall be solely responsible for all charges, fees, and other costs imposed by the Bank in connection with the Bank's custody, operation, maintenance and administration of the Account. The parties hereby agree that: (i) within ten (10) business days following the date that a vested portion of the Retention Bonus or the Restoration Payment becomes due and payable to the Executive in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, KHI shall notify the Executive in writing of the amount of any taxes or other amounts required to be withheld under applicable law with respect to the amount that is so due and payable hereunder (the "Withholding Amount"); (ii) after receipt of such information from KHI, the Executive shall direct the Bank to transfer from the Account to appropriate Federal, state and local deposit accounts specified by KHI the Withholding Amount, which amount shall constitute, and be reported by KHI as, withholding of Federal, state and local income tax of the Executive; (iii) at any time that is at least one (1) business day after completion of the transfer of the applicable Withholding Amount with respect to that portion of the vested Retention Bonus or Restoration Payment that is due and payable hereunder, the Executive may direct the Bank to transfer from the Account to an account specified by the Executive such remaining amount of the vested Retention Bonus or the Restoration Payment that has become due and payable to the Executive; (iv) if KHI fails to provide the Withholding Amount within the time provided above, the Executive shall be entitled to obtain the Withholding Amount, at KHI's expense, from the Company's regular outside auditor (or if such firm fails to deliver such information within an additional fifteen (15) days, a nationally recognized accounting firm that has not been retained by the Executive in the past twelve (12) months and is otherwise independent of the Executive); (v) if KHI fails to provide wiring instructions for deposit of the Withholding Amount in the time provided above, Executive shall direct the Bank to retain the Withholding Amount pending receipt of such instructions and the Executive may then direct the Bank to transfer from the Account to an account specified by the Executive such remaining amount of the vested Retention Bonus or the Restoration Payment that has become due and payable to the Executive; and (vi) if such instructions are not received by the time for payment of taxes in respect of the vested Retention Bonus or Restoration Payment that is due and payable hereunder, as applicable, the Executive shall direct the Bank to pay the Withholding Amount to the applicable taxing authorities as payment of the Executive's applicable Federal, state and local income taxes in respect of the vested Retention Bonus or Restoration Payment, as applicable. In the event that a Restoration Payment becomes due and payable in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, amounts remaining in the Account shall only be used for the purpose of satisfying such Restoration Payment (including the related Withholding Amount) and in no event shall be used to satisfy any severance obligations that may be owed by the Company to the Executive under the Employment Agreement. Notwithstanding the above, in no event shall the Executive be entitled to direct the Bank to transfer the Restoration Payment until the date that is sixty (60) days following the date of her termination of employment (the "Restoration Payment Date") and then only if, as of such date, she has signed and returned an effective Release of Claims as required under Section 2(c) above and is otherwise in compliance with the Compliance Condition. The Executive shall direct the Bank, at the same time as the Executive directs the Bank to transfer the amount of the Restoration Payment (net of any related Withholding Amount) to any account specified by the Executive, to transfer all other amounts in the Account, if any, to an account specified by KHI. The Security Agreement shall also provide that if at any time there remains in the Account cash in excess of the amount of the then remaining portion of the Retention Bonus or Restoration Payment that may become payable on a future date, the Executive shall direct the Bank to transfer from the Account to an account specified by KHI, upon its written request, which shall be made no more often than quarterly, any such excess amount and shall further provide that any cash that remains in the Account at any time after the date on which the Executive has received all amounts payable to her under this Agreement shall be distributed to KHI, upon its written request, or if KHI does not so request, the Control Agreement and any other Security Documentation shall be terminated and sole discretion over the Account shall be returned to KHI.

e. The Executive agrees that she shall not withdraw any amounts from the Account (notwithstanding her ability to do so as a result of her first priority perfected security interest in the Account) prior to the date she is entitled to do so hereunder. If the Executive withdraws any amounts from the Account in breach of the terms of this Agreement, including without limitation this Section 2(e), or if the Executive fails to direct or instruct the Bank as provided under Section 2(d) above with respect to any Withholding Amount, any such action shall constitute "Cause" for purposes of the Employment Agreement without any requirement as to notice or an opportunity to cure, except in the case of any such withdrawal or failure to direct or instruct the Bank with respect to such Withholding Amount while a good faith dispute between the Executive and the Company regarding the nature of the Executive's termination of employment (a " Termination Dispute") is pending, in which case any such action shall not constitute "Cause" unless KHI provides the Executive written notice of such breach within fifteen (15) days of its knowledge of such breach and the Executive fails to cure such breach within three (3) business days of receipt by the Executive of such notice by returning such amounts to the Bank or directing or instructing the Bank as required under Section 2(d) above with respect to such Withholding Amount. In addition, if any such breach by the Executive is not cured as provided above (or is not subject to an opportunity to cure as provided above), Executive shall reimburse KHI for any losses, damages, liabilities, costs or other expenses ("Costs") incurred or suffered by it or any of its affiliates as a result of the Executive's breach of this Agreement (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by entry of a final, nonappealable judgment) or in connection with enforcing KHI's rights under this Agreement in the event of such breach; provided Costs shall not include any claim on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement (it being acknowledged and agreed by the Executive that in no event will the amount of any improper distributions or withdrawals out of the Account or any costs or expenses associated with collecting or otherwise recouping any such amounts be considered to be special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages). At any time that the Executive believes she is entitled to payment of the vested portion of the Retention Bonus or Restoration Payment under the terms of this Agreement, subject, in the case of any Restoration Payment, to the expiration of the sixty (60) day period described in Section 2(d) above and continued compliance with the Compliance Condition during that period, she may so notify KHI in writing, and KHI shall within twenty (20) days of its receipt of such notice confirm or deny in writing her entitlement thereto. If KHI (i) fails to respond within such period, or confirms in writing the Executive's entitlement to the vested portion of the Retention Bonus or Restoration Payment, as applicable, and (ii) does not provide, in the case of the Restoration Payment, written notice to the Executive on or prior to the Restoration Payment Date that the Executive has failed to comply with the Compliance Condition (it being understood that any such failure to provide notice shall not constitute a waiver of any rights the Company may have under the Employment Agreement), then the Executive shall be entitled to withdraw from the Account the vested Portion of the Retention Bonus or the Restoration Payment, as applicable (net of any related Withholding Amount), and shall not be subject to termination for "Cause" or payment of Costs as a result of any such withdrawal. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2, in the event of a Termination Dispute or any other dispute between KHI and the Executive to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party in such dispute shall bear all of the legal fees and expenses and out-of-pocket expenses of the losing party (including attorney, expert and witness fees) to the extent a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the claim, defense or position of the losing party in connection with such dispute was frivolous, or without reasonable foundation, or not asserted in good faith or was wrongfully intended to injure or oppress the prevailing party.

3. Timing of Payments and Section 409A.

a. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Employment Agreement, if at the time of the Executive's termination of employment, the Executive is a "specified employee," as defined below, any and all amounts payable under this Agreement on account of such separation from service that would (but for this provision) be payable within six (6) months following the date of termination, shall instead be paid on the next business day following the expiration of such six (6) month period or, if earlier, upon the Executive's death; except to the extent of amounts that do not constitute a deferral of compensation within the meaning of Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(b).

b. For purposes of this Agreement, all references to "termination of employment" and correlative phrases shall be construed to require a "separation from service" (as defined in Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Treasury regulations after giving effect to the presumptions contained therein), and the term "specified employee" means an individual determined by the Company to be a specified employee under Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(i).

c. Each payment made under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment and the right to a series of installment payments under this Agreement is to be treated as a right to a series of separate payments.

4. Withholding; Tax Treatment. All amounts payable under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld under applicable law. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that KHI shall not have any liability, obligation or responsibility with respect to the amount or timing of any taxes payable by the Executive arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

5. Good Reason. The parties agree that a material breach by KHI of its obligations under this Agreement (including without limitation failure by KHI to deposit the Cash Collateral in the Account on or prior to the Deposit Date), without the Executive's consent, shall constitute Good Reason under the Employment Agreement; provided that the Executive complies with the notice and other requirements set forth in the definition of Good Reason in the Employment Agreement.

6. Assignment. Neither KHI nor the Executive may make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that KHI may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement, without the consent of the Executive, to an Affiliate (that will manage the assets and carry on the historic business of the Company following such assignment) or a successor that expressly assumes and agrees in writing to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent as KHI, including in the event that KHI shall hereafter affect a reorganization, consolidate with, or merge into, any other Person, or transfer all or substantially all of its properties, stock, or assets to any other Person. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon KHI and the Executive, their respective successors, executors, administrators, heirs and permitted assigns.

7. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be declared illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such portion or provision in circumstances other than those as to which it is so declared illegal or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each portion and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

8. Waiver. No waiver of any provision hereof shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving party. The failure of either party to require the performance of any term or obligation of this Agreement, or the waiver by either party of any breach of this Agreement, shall not prevent any subsequent enforcement of such term or obligation or be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.

9. Notices. Any and all notices, requests, demands and other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when delivered in person, consigned to a reputable national courier service or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, registered or certified, and addressed to the Executive at her last known address on the books of the Company or KHI, with a copy to Stephan G. Bachelder, Bachelder & Dowling, 120 Exchange St., Portland, Maine 04112 or, in the case of KHI, at its principal place of business, attention of the Corporate Secretary of KHI, with a copy to Ropes & Gray LLP, One International Place, Boston, MA 02110, Attention: Newcomb Stillwell and Renata Ferrari or to such other address as either party may specify by notice to the other actually received.

10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Employment Agreement and any other agreements specifically referred to herein or therein, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and terminates all prior communications, agreements and understandings, written or oral, with respect to the subject matter contained herein.

11. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written instrument signed by the Executive and by an expressly authorized representative of KHI.

12. Headings. The headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

14. Governing Law. This is a Florida contract and shall be construed and enforced under and be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof. In the event of any alleged breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, the Executive hereby consents and submits to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts in and of the State of Florida.

15. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT KNOW AND UNDERSTAND THAT THEY HAVE A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT ANY DISPUTE OR CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT WILL INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT FACTUAL AND LEGAL ISSUES.

THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS, WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, AND WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT EITHER OF THEM MAY FILE A COPY OF THIS PARAGRAPH WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE KNOWING, VOLUNTARY AND BARGAINED—FOR AGREEMENT AMONG THE PARTIES IRREVOCABLY TO WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY, AND THAT ANY PROCEEDING WHATSOEVER BETWEEN THEM RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE CONTEMPLATED TRANSACTIONS SHALL INSTEAD BE TRIED IN A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION BY A JUDGE SITTING WITHOUT A JURY.

THE PARTIES INTEND THAT THIS WAIVER OF THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL BE AS BROAD AS POSSIBLE. BY THEIR SIGNATURES BELOW, THE PARTIES PROMISE, WARRANT AND REPRESENT THAT THEY WILL NOT PLEAD FOR, REQUEST OR OTHERWISE SEEK TO HAVE A JURY TO RESOLVE ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY ARISE BY, BETWEEN OR AMONG THEM.

this Agreement and that does not become payable within the time periods set forth in this Section 3 shall, upon expiration of the relevant period, be immediately forfeited in its entirety without any consideration due to Executive.

4. Withholding. All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law.

5. Effect on Employment. Neither the award of the Bonuses nor this Agreement shall give the Executive any right to be retained in the employ of the Company or its affiliates, affect the right of the Company or its affiliates to discharge or discipline such Executive at any time or affect any right of such Executive to terminate her Employment at any time.

All elections must provide for distribution to be made at a time and in a form that is consistent with the distribution options made available under the Plan. (3) in the case of payments made according to a Scheduled Distribution, the new election is not made less than twelve (12) months before the date on which payment would have been made (or, in the case of installment payments, the first installment payment would have been made) absent the new election.

Election changes made pursuant to this Section shall be made on written forms provided by the Administrator, and in accordance with rules established by the Administrator and shall comply with all requirement of Code Section 409A and applicable Treasury Regulations.

Company Contributions shall be made in the complete and sole discretion of the Company. Company Contributions shall be notional credits to the Accounts of Participants, with the amount actually credited to the Account being net of all employment taxes required to be withheld on the Company Contribution, as conclusively determined by the Administrator. Company Contributions shall vest at the time or according to the schedule specified by the Administrator at the time the contributions is made. No Participant or other employee of the Company shall have a right to receive a Company Contribution in any particular year or in any particular amount based on the fact that Company Contributions are made at such time or in such amount on behalf of another Participant.

Accounts

3.1 Participant Accounts. A separate Retirement Account or Scheduled Distribution Account shall be maintained for each Plan Year for which a Participant has made a deferral election pursuant to this Plan, and shall be credited with the Participant's deferrals directed by the Participant to such Account at the time such amounts would otherwise have been paid to the Participant. A separate Account shall be maintained for each Company Contribution made on behalf of each Participant and shall be credited with the Company Contribution at the time specified by the Administrator. Accounts shall be deemed to be credited with notional gains or losses as provided in Section 3.3 from the date the deferral or the Company Contribution is credited to an Account through the Valuation Date.

Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the Administrator may impose the following restrictions on changing investment elections daily and/or rebalancing Account investments monthly: (i) in the case of any investment alternative that guarantees a fixed interest return, limitations on the ability to transfer out of such investment alternative and nonrecognition of that investment alternative in implementing any monthly rebalancing of the Account; and (ii) in the case of all investment- alternatives, limitations designed to prevent- excessive short term trading in the Account or otherwise deemed necessary or desirable by the Administrator. The Participant's Account balance shall reflect the investments selected by the Participant. If an investment selected by a Participant sustains a loss, the Participant's Account shall be reduced to reflect such loss. The Participant's choice among investments shall be solely for purposes of calculation of the Crediting Rate. If the Participant fails to elect an investment alternative, the Crediting Rate shall be based on a default investment alternative selected for this purpose by the Administrator. The Company shall have no obligation to set aside or invest funds as directed by the Participant and, if the Company elects to invest funds as directed by the Participant, the Participant shall have no more right to such investments than any other unsecured general creditor

The Participant may elect to receive the Scheduled Distribution in January of any Plan Year on or after the third (3rd) Plan Year following the enrollment period in which such Scheduled Distribution is elected and may elect to have the Scheduled Distribution distributed over a period of up to four (4) years.

4.2 Timing of Scheduled Distribution. The Scheduled Distribution shall commence in January of the Plan Year elected by the Participant in the Participant Election Form unless preceded by a Termination of Employment. In the event of a Termination of Employment prior to the date elected for a Scheduled Distribution, all outstanding amounts credited to the participant's Scheduled Distribution Accounts shall be paid in the form provided in Section 5.2 of the Plan. In the event such Termination of Employment is a result of the Participant's death, outstanding Scheduled Distribution Accounts shall be paid as provided in Section 5.4 of the Plan.

Benefits

5.1 Termination Benefits. In the event of the Participant's Termination of Employment other than by reason of Disability or death, the Participant shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the total balance of all of the Participant's Accounts, credited with notional earnings as provided in Article 3 through the Valuation Date. The benefits shall be paid in a single lump sum unless the Participant has completed either five (5) Years of Participation or ten (10) Years of Service as of the date of Termination of Employment, in which case, the Account shall be paid as elected by the Participant pursuant to Section 2.3. The Participant may elect to receive such retirement benefits in substantially equal annual installments over a specified period of two to fifteen (15) years. Retirement benefits shall commence on the Settlement Date next following Termination of Employment.

Upon Termination of Employment other than by reason of Disability or death prior to completion of either five (5) Years of Participation or ten (10) Years of Service, the Company shall pay to the Participant a termination benefit equal to the balance on Termination of Employment of all of the Participant's Accounts credited with notional earnings as provided in Article 3 through the Valuation Date. If the Participant dies after benefits have commenced from a particular Account, the Company shall pay to the Participant's Beneficiary an amount equal to the remaining benefits payable to the Participant from such Account over the same period such benefits would have been paid to the Participant, subject to Section 5.6.

5.4 Distributions For Unforeseeable Emergency Upon a fording that the Participant (or, after the Participant's death, the Beneficiary) has suffered an Unforeseeable Emergency, the Administrator may at the request of the Participant, and subject to compliance with Code Section 409A, approve cessation of current deferrals or accelerate distribution of benefits under the Plan in an amount reasonably necessary to alleviate such Unforeseeable Emergency. The amount distributed pursuant to this Section with respect to an emergency shall not exceed the amount necessary to satisfy such emergency plus amounts necessary to pay taxes reasonably anticipated as a result of the distribution, after taking into account the extent to which such hardship is or may be relieved through reimbursement or compensation by insurance or otherwise or by liquidation of the Participant's assets (to the extent the liquidation of such assets would not itself cause an Unforeseeable Emergency).

5.5 Disability. In the event a Participant becomes Disabled, deferral elections shall cease. In the event of Termination of Employment by reason of Disability, prior to commencement of benefits from a particular Account, the Participant shall be entitled to receive the total balance of the Participant's Account credited with notional earnings as provided in Article 3 through the Valuation Date in the form of a single lump on the Settlement Date following the Participant's Termination of Employment. If the Participant's Termination of Employment by reason of Disability occurs after benefits have commenced from a particular Account, the Company shall pay the remaining benefits to the Participant from such Account over the same period such benefits would have been paid to the Participant, subject to Section 5.6.

5.6 Small Benefit Exception. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the sum of all benefits payable to the Participant from all of the Participant's Accounts at the time of the Participant's Termination of Employment (and all other amounts payable to the Participant under other arrangements which are aggregated with this Plan under Section Code 409A) is less than the applicable dollar amount under Code Section 402(g)(1)(B) for the calendar year of payment, the Administrator may, in its complete and sole discretion, pay all benefits to the Participant under the Plan in a single lump sum on the Settlement Date following Termination of Employment.

Amendment and Termination of Plan

6.1 Amendment or Termination of Plan. The Company may, at any time, direct the Administrator to amend or terminate the Plan, except that no such amendment or termination may reduce a Participant's Account balance or accelerate benefits under the Plan in violation of Code Section 409A. For purposes of applying the change in timing of payment rules under Code Section 409A to any amendment of the Plan, each installment payment from each Account shall be treated as a separate payment. If the Company terminates the Plan, the Company shall pay to each Participant the balance of the Participant's Accounts at the time and in the form such amounts would have been paid absent such Plan termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent permitted under Code Section 409A and applicable authorities, the Company may, in its complete and sole discretion, accelerate distributions under the Plan in the event of (i) "change in the ownership or effective control of the corporation," (ii) "change in the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of the corporation," (iii) liquidation or bankruptcy of the Company, or (iv) any other circumstances permitted under Code Section 409A.

The Beneficiary designation shall be effective upon being submitted in writing to, and received by, the Administrator during the Participant's lifetime on a form prescribed by the Administrator. The Beneficiary designation may be changed by the Participant at any time. The claim may be deemed by the claimant to have been denied for purposes of further review described below in the event a decision is not furnished to the claimant within such period. Every claim for benefits which is denied shall be denied by written notice setting forth in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant (i) the specific reason or reasons for the denial, (ii) specific reference to any provisions of the Plan (including any internal rules, guidelines, protocols, criteria, etc.) on which the denial is based, (iii) a description of any additional material or information that is necessary to process the claim, (iv) an explanation of the procedure for further reviewing the denial of the claim, and (v) if applicable, an explanation of the claimant's right to submit the claim for binding arbitration in the event of an adverse determination on review.

8.3 Review Procedures. Within 60 days after the receipt of a denial on a claim, a claimant or his/her authorized representative may file a written request for review of such denial.

Such review shall be undertaken by the Administrator and shall be a full and fair review. The claimant shall have the right to review all pertinent documents. The claimant may submit written comments, documents, records and other information relating to the claim for benefits, and such information shall be taken into account for purposes of the review without regard to whether such information was submitted or considered in the initial benefit determination. The Administrator shall issue a decision not later than 60 days after receipt of a request for review from a claimant unless special circumstances require a longer period of time for processing, in which case written notice of the extension, indicating the special circumstances requiring an extension of time and the date by which the Plan expects to render the determination on review, shall be furnished to the claimant prior to the termination of the initial 60-day period. In no event shall such extension exceed a period of 60 days from the end of the initial period. The decision on review shall be in writing and shall include specific reasons for the decision written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant, with specific reference to any provisions of the Plan on which the decision is based, and an explanation of the claimant's right to submit the claim for binding arbitration in the event of an adverse determination on review.

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this 12th day of August, 2008, by and between OSI RESTAURANT PARTNERS, LLC (formerly known as OUTBACK STEAKHOUSE, INC.), with principal offices and place of business in the State of Florida (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") and DIRK A. MONTGOMERY, TRUSTEE OF THE DIRK A. MONTGOMERY REVOCABLE TRUST DATED APRIL 12, 2001 (hereinafter referred to as the "Employee"),

WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS, the Employee is employed by the Company;

WHEREAS, the Employee wishes to provide life insurance protection for his family in the event of his death, under life insurance policy number 90848003, insuring the life of the Employee, with a face amount of $5,162,949, as of January 31, 2008 (the "Policy"), which is described in Exhibit A attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof, and which was issued by John Hancock Variable Life Insurance Company (the "Insurer");

WHEREAS, the Company is willing to pay the premiums due on the Policy as an additional employment benefit for the Employee, on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth;

WHEREAS, the Company is the owner of the Policy and, as such, possesses all incidents of ownership in and to the Policy, except as otherwise provided herein; and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to retain such ownership rights, in order to secure the repayment of the amount due it hereunder;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual promises contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Purchase of Policy. The Company has purchased the Policy from the Insurer in the total face amount of $5,162,949 (as of January 31, 2008) and Increasing Death Benefit Option (as such term is defined in the Policy). The parties hereto have taken all necessary action to cause the Insurer to issue the Policy, and shall take any further action which may be necessary to cause the Policy to conform to the provisions of this Agreement. The parties hereto agree that the Policy shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and of the endorsement to the Policy or beneficiary designation filed with the Insurer in accordance herewith.

2. Ownership of Policy. The Company shall be the sole and absolute owner of the Policy, and may exercise all ownership rights granted to the owner thereof by the terms of the Policy, except as may otherwise be provided herein.

3. Designation of Policy Beneficiary/Endorsement. The Company has executed a beneficiary designation for and/or an endorsement to the Policy, using the form required by the Insurer, naming itself as the beneficiary of the Policy death proceeds in an amount equal to the greater of the total amount of the premiums paid by it hereunder or the cash value of the Policy (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions), and naming the beneficiary or beneficiaries selected by the Employee as the beneficiary or beneficiaries of any balance of the death proceeds provided under the Policy.

4. Election of Settlement Option. The Employee may select the beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive the portion of policy proceeds to which the Employee is entitled hereunder, as well as the settlement option for payment of the death benefit provided under the Policy in excess of the amount due the Company hereunder, by specifying the same in a written notice to the Company. Upon receipt of such notice, the Company shall promptly execute and deliver to the Insurer the endorsement or beneficiary designation for such Policy under the form used by the Insurer thereunder, to elect the requested settlement option and to designate the requested person, persons or entity as the beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive the death proceeds of the Policy in excess of the amount to which the Company is entitled hereunder. The parties hereto agree to take all action necessary to cause the beneficiary designation and settlement option provisions of the Policy to conform to the provisions hereof. The Company shall not terminate, alter or amend such endorsement or beneficiary designation without the express written consent of the Employee.

5. Payment of Premiums. On or before the due date of each Policy premium, or within the grace period provided therein, the Company shall pay the full amount of the annual premium on the Policy to the Insurer, and shall, upon request, promptly furnish the Employee evidence of timely payment of such premium. Subject to the acceptance of such amount by the Insurer, the Company may, in its discretion, at anytime and from time to time, make additional premium payments on the Policy. The Company shall annually furnish the Employee a statement of the amount of income reportable by the Employee for any Federal, state or local taxes, as applicable, as a result of the insurance protection provided the Policy beneficiary or beneficiaries hereunder.

6. Additional Payment to Employee. Upon the Employee reaching 65 years of age and while this Agreement is still in existence, the Company shall pay to the Employee, on or before March 15th of each year, as additional compensation, an amount equal to the estimated Federal, state and local taxes, as applicable, on the amount of income reportable by the Employee as a result of the insurance protection provided the Policy beneficiary or beneficiaries hereunder for the immediately preceding calendar year assuming the highest Federal, state and local tax, income tax bracket for a married individual or single individual as the case may be.

7. Limitations on Company's Rights in Policy.

a. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof or of the Policy, the Company shall not change the beneficiary designation of the Policy, the Death Benefit Option provision, or decrease the face Amount of Insurance Death Benefit, without, in any such case, the express written consent of the Trust.

b. In addition, in the event Employee completes seven (7) years of continuous employment with the Company as Chief Financial Officer commencing on January 1, 2006, the Company shall not thereafter sell, assign, transfer, surrender or cancel the Policy.

8. Policy Loans.

a. The Company may pledge or assign the Policy, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, for the sole purpose of securing a loan from the Insurer or from a third party. The amount of such loan, including accumulated interest thereon, shall not exceed the lesser of (i) the cumulative amount of premiums on the Policy paid by the Company hereunder, less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company through a loan from or against or a withdrawal from the Policy permitted hereunder; or (ii) the cash surrender value of the Policy (as defined therein) as of the date to which premiums have been paid. Interest charges on such loan shall be paid by the Company. If the Company so encumbers the Policy, other than by a policy loan from the Insurer, then, upon the death of the Employee or upon the election of the Employee hereunder to purchase the Policy from the Company, the Company shall promptly repay such loan from the death proceeds of the Policy or the amount received from the Employee for the purchase of the Policy, as the case may be, and thereafter shall promptly take all action necessary to secure the release or discharge of such encumbrance.

b. The Company may make withdrawals from the Policy, subject to the terms and conditions hereof. The amount of any such withdrawal shall not exceed the lesser of: (i) the amount of the premiums on the Policy paid by the Company hereunder, less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company through a loan from or against or a withdrawal permitted hereunder; or (ii) the cash surrender value of the Policy (as defined therein) as of the date to which premiums have been paid, and shall reduce the amount to which the Company would otherwise be entitled hereunder.

9. Collection of Death Proceeds.

a. Upon the death of the Employee, the Company shall cooperate with the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the Company at the direction of the Employee to take whatever action is necessary to collect the death benefit provided under the Policy; when such benefit has been collected and paid as provided herein, this Agreement shall thereupon terminate.

b. Upon the death of the Employee, the Company shall have the unqualified right to receive a portion of such death benefit equal to the greater of: (1) the total amount of the premiums paid by it hereunder reduced by any indebtedness against the Policy incurred by the Company hereunder existing at the death of the Employee, including any interest due on such indebtedness, or any withdrawals made by the Company from the Policy; (2) or the cash value of the Policy, net of any loans from the Insurer or withdrawals permitted hereunder (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions) immediately before the death of the Employee. The balance of the death benefit provided under the Policy, if any, shall be paid directly to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the Company at the direction of the Employee, in the manner and in the amount or amounts provided in the endorsement or beneficiary designation provision of the Policy. In no event shall the amount payable to the Company hereunder exceed the death proceeds payable under the Policy at the death of the Employee. No amount shall be paid from such death benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the Company at the direction of the Employee, until the full amount due the Company hereunder has been paid. The parties hereto agree that the beneficiary designation provision of the Policy shall conform to the provisions hereof.

c. Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, in the event that, for any reason whatsoever, no death benefit is payable under the Policy upon the death of the Employee and in lieu thereof the Insurer refunds all or any part of the premiums paid for the Policy, the Company and the Employee's beneficiary or beneficiaries shall have the unqualified right to share such premiums based on their respective cumulative contributions thereto.

10. Termination of the Agreement During the Employee's Lifetime.

a. This Agreement shall terminate, during the Employee's lifetime, without notice, upon (a) bankruptcy, receivership or dissolution of the Company, or (b) upon termination of Employee's employment with the Company prior to completion of seven (7) years of continuous employment as Chief Financial Officer commencing January 1, 2006.

b. In addition, either party may terminate this Agreement while no premium under the Policy is overdue, by written notice to the other party; provided that the Company shall have no power to terminate this Agreement upon completion by Employee of seven (7) years of continuous employment with Company as Chief Financial Officer commencing January 1, 2006. Such termination shall be effective as of the date of such notice.

11. Disposition of the Policy on Termination of the Agreement During the Employee's Lifetime .

a. For sixty (60) days after the date of the termination of this Agreement during the Employee's lifetime, the Employee shall have the assignable option to purchase the Policy from the Company. The purchase price for the Policy shall be the greater of (i) the cumulative amount of the premium payments made by the Company hereunder, less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company as a result of a loan from or against or a withdrawal from the Policy permitted hereunder, or (ii) the then cash value of the Policy, net of any loans from the Insurer or withdrawals (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions), less any indebtedness incurred by the Company secured by the Policy which remains outstanding as of the date of such termination, including any interest due on such indebtedness, or any withdrawals made by the Company from the Policy. In no event shall the amount payable to the Company hereunder exceed the death proceeds payable under the Policy at the death of the Employee. Upon receipt of such amount, the Company shall transfer all of its right, title and interest in and to the Policy to the Employee or his assignee, by the execution and delivery of an appropriate instrument of transfer.

b. If the Employee or its assignee fails to exercise such option within such sixty (60) day period, then, the Company may enforce its right to be repaid the amount due it hereunder by surrendering or canceling the Policy for its cash surrender value, or it may change the beneficiary designation provisions of the Policy, naming itself or any other person or entity as revocable beneficiary thereof, or exercise any other ownership rights in and to the Policy, without regard to the provisions hereof. Thereafter, neither the Employee nor his assigns or beneficiaries shall have any further interest in and to the Policy, either under the terms thereof or under this Agreement.

12. Insurer Not a Party. The Insurer shall be fully discharged from its obligations under the Policy by payment of the Policy death benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries named in the Policy, subject to the terms and conditions of the Policy. In no event shall the Insurer be considered a party to this Agreement, or any modification or amendment hereof. No provision of this Agreement, nor of any modification or amendment hereof, shall in any way be construed as enlarging, changing, varying, or in any other way affecting the obligations of the Insurer as expressly provided in the Policy, except insofar as the provisions hereof are made a part of the Policy by the beneficiary designation executed by the Company and filed with the Insurer in connection herewith.

13. Assignment by Employee. Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, the Employee shall have the right to absolutely and irrevocably assign by gift all of his right, title and interest in and to this Agreement and the rights it provides in and to the Policy to an assignee. This right shall be exercisable by the execution and delivery to the Corporation of a written assignment, in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, which by this reference is made a part hereof. Upon receipt of such written assignment executed by the Employee and duly accepted by the assignee thereof, the Corporation shall consent thereto in writing, and shall thereafter treat the Employee's assignee as the sole owner of all of the Employee's right, title and interest in and to this Agreement and in and to the Policy. Thereafter, the Employee shall have no right, title or interest in and'to this Agreement or the Policy, all such rights being vested in and exercisable only by such assignee.

14. Named Fiduciary, Determination of Benefits, Claims Procedure and Administration .

a. Named Fiduciary. The Company is hereby designated as the named fiduciary under this Agreement. The named fiduciary shall have authority to control and manage the operation and administration of this Agreement, and it shall be responsible for establishing and carrying out a funding policy and method consistent with the objectives of this Agreement.

b. Claim. A person who believes that he or she is being denied a benefit to which he or she is entitled (hereinafter referred to as "Claimant"), or his or her duly authorized representative, may file a written request for such benefit with the Chief Legal Officer of the Company (the "First Level Reviewer") setting forth his or her claim. Such claim must be addressed to the Chief Legal Officer of the Company, at its then principal place of business.

c. Claim Decision. Upon receipt of a claim, the First Level Reviewer shall advise the Claimant that a reply will be forthcoming within a reasonable period of time, but ordinarily not later than ninety (90) days, and shall, in fact, deliver such reply within such period. However, the First Level Reviewer may extend the reply period for an additional ninety (90) days for reasonable cause. If the reply period will be extended, the First Level Reviewer shall advise the Claimant in writing during the initial ninety (90) day period indicating the special circumstances requiring an extension and the date by which the First Level Reviewer expects to render the benefit determination.

If the claim is denied in whole or in part, the First Level Reviewer will render a written opinion, using language calculated to be understood by the Claimant, setting forth:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the denial;

(2) the specific references to pertinent provisions of the Agreement on which the denial is based;

(3) a description of any additional material or information necessary for the Claimant to perfect the claim and an explanation as to why such material or such information is necessary;

(4) appropriate information as to the steps to be taken if the Claimant wishes to submit the claim for review, including a statement of the Claimant's right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA following an adverse benefit determination on review; and

(5) the time limits for requesting a review of the denial under Section14(c) hereof and for the actual review of the denial under Section 14(d) hereof.

d. Request for Review. Within sixty (60) days after the receipt by the Claimant of the written opinion described above, the Claimant may request in writing that the Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Second Level Reviewer") review the First Level Reviewer's prior determination. Such request must be addressed to the Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, at its then principal place of business. The Claimant or his or her duly authorized representative may submit written comments, documents, records or other information relating to the denied claim, which such information shall be considered in the review under this subsection without regard to whether such information was submitted or considered in the initial benefit determination.

The Claimant or his or her duly authorized representative shall be provided, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records and other information which (i) was relied upon by the First Level Reviewer in making its initial claims decision, (ii) was submitted, considered or generated in the course of the First Level Reviewer making its initial claims decision, without regard to whether such instrument was actually relied upon by the First Level Reviewer in making its decision or (iii) demonstrates compliance by the First Level Reviewer with its administrative processes and safeguards designed to ensure and to verify that benefit claims determinations are made in accordance with this Agreement and that, where appropriate, the provisions of this Agreement have been applied consistently with respect to similarly situated claimants. If the Claimant does not request a review of the First Level Reviewer's determination within such sixty (60) day period, he or she shall be barred and estopped from challenging such determination.

e. Review of Decision. Within a reasonable period of time, ordinarily not later than sixty (60) days, after the Second Level Reviewer's receipt of a request for review, it will review the First Level Reviewer's prior determination. If special circumstances require that the sixty (60) day time period be extended, the Second Level Reviewer will so notify the Claimant within the initial sixty (60) day period indicating the special circumstances requiring an extension and the date by which the Second Level Reviewer expects to render its decision on review, which shall be as soon as possible but not later than 120 days after receipt of the request for review. In the event that the Second Level Reviewer extends the determination period on review due to a Claimant's failure to submit information necessary to decide a claim, the period for making the benefit determination on review shall not take into account the period beginning on the date on which notification of extension is sent to the Claimant and ending on the date on which the Claimant responds to the request for additional information.

The Second Level Reviewer has discretionary authority to determine a Claimant's eligibility for benefits and to interpret the terms of this Agreement. Benefits under this Agreement will be paid only if the Second Level Reviewer decides in its discretion that the Claimant is entitled to such benefits. The decision of the Second Level Reviewer shall be final and non-reviewable, unless found to be arbitrary and capricious by a court of competent review. Such decision will be binding upon the Company and the Claimant.

If the Second Level Reviewer makes an adverse benefit determination on review, the Second Level Reviewer will render a written opinion, using language calculated to be understood by the Claimant, setting forth:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the denial;

(2) the specific references to pertinent provisions of the Agreement on which the denial is based;

(3) a statement that the Claimant is entitled to receive, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records and other information which (i) was relied upon by the Second Level Reviewer in making its decision, (ii) was submitted, considered or generated in the course of the Second Level Reviewer making its decision, without regard to whether such instrument was actually relied upon by the Second Level Reviewer in making its decision or (iii) demonstrates compliance by the Second Level Reviewer with its administrative processes and safeguards designed to ensure and to verify that benefit claims determinations are made in accordance with this Agreement, and that, where appropriate, the provisions of this Agreement have been applied consistently with respect to similarly situated claimants; and

(4) a statement of the Claimant's right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA following the adverse benefit determination on such review.

15. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended, altered or modified, except by a written instrument signed by the parties hereto, or their respective successors or assigns, and may not be otherwise terminated except as provided herein.

16. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and the Employee, his successors, assigns, and beneficiaries.

17. Notices. Any notice, consent or demand required or permitted to be given under the provisions of this Agreement shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the party giving or making the same. If such notice, consent or demand is mailed to a party hereto, it shall be sent by United States certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such party's last known address as shown on the records of the Company. The date of such mailing shall be deemed the date of notice, consent or demand.

18. Governing Law. This Agreement, and the rights of the parties hereunder, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement, in duplicate, as of the day and year first above written.

11. Disposition of the Policy on Termination of the Agreement During the Employee's Lifetime .

a. For sixty (60) days after the date of the termination of this Agreement during the Employee's lifetime, the Employee shall have the assignable option to purchase the Policy from the Company. The purchase price for the Policy shall be (i) the cumulative amount of the premium payments made by the Company hereunder, less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company as a result of a loan from or against or a withdrawal from the Policy permitted hereunder, or (ii) the then cash value of the Policy, net of any loans from the Insurer or withdrawals (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions), less any indebtedness incurred by the Company secured by the Policy which remains outstanding as of the date of such termination, including any interest due on such indebtedness, or any withdrawals made by the Company from the Policy. In no event shall the amount payable to the Company hereunder exceed the death proceeds payable under the Policy at the death of the Employee. Upon receipt of such amount, the Company shall transfer all of its right, title and interest in and to the Policy to the Employee or his assignee, by the execution and delivery of an appropriate instrument of transfer.

b. If the Employee or its assignee fails to exercise such option within such sixty (60) day period, then, the Company may enforce its right to be repaid the amount due it hereunder by surrendering or canceling the Policy for its cash surrender value, or it may change the beneficiary designation provisions of the Policy, naming itself or any other person or entity as revocable beneficiary thereof, or exercise any other ownership rights in and to the Policy, without regard to the provisions hereof.

Thereafter, neither the Employee nor his assigns or beneficiaries shall have any further interest in and to the Policy, either under the terms thereof or under this Agreement.

12. Insurer Not a Party. The Insurer shall be fully discharged from its obligations under the Policy by payment of the Policy death benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries named in the Policy, subject to the terms and conditions of the Policy. In no event shall the Insurer be considered a party to this Agreement, or any modification or amendment hereof. No provision of this Agreement, nor of any modification or amendment hereof, shall in any way be construed as enlarging, changing, varying, or in any other way affecting the obligations of the Insurer as expressly provided in the Policy, except insofar as the provisions hereof are made a part of the Policy by the beneficiary designation executed by the Company and filed with the Insurer in connection herewith.

13. Assignment by Employee. Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, the Employee shall have the right to absolutely and irrevocably assign by gift all of his right, title and interest in and to this Agreement and the rights it provides in and to the Policy to an assignee. This right shall be exercisable by the execution and delivery to the Corporation of a written assignment, in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, which by this reference is made a part hereof. Upon receipt of such written assignment executed by the Employee and duly accepted by the assignee thereof, the Corporation shall consent thereto in writing, and shall thereafter treat the Employee's assignee as the sole owner of all of the Employee's right, title and interest in and to this Agreement and in and to the Policy. Thereafter, the Employee shall have no right, title or interest in and to this Agreement or the Policy, all such rights being vested in and exercisable only by such assignee.

14. Named Fiduciary, Determination of Benefits, Claims Procedure and Administration .

a. Named Fiduciary. The Company is hereby designated as the named fiduciary under this Agreement. The named fiduciary shall have authority to control and manage the operation and administration of this Agreement, and it shall be responsible for establishing and carrying out a funding policy and method consistent with the objectives of this Agreement.

b. Claim. A person who believes that he or she is being denied a benefit to which he or she is entitled (hereinafter referred to as "Claimant"), or his or her duly authorized representative, may file a written request for such benefit with the Chief Legal Officer of the Company (the "First Level Reviewer") setting forth his or her claim. Such claim must be addressed to the Chief Legal Officer of the Company, at its then principal place of business.

c. Claim Decision. Upon receipt of a claim, the First Level Reviewer shall advise the Claimant that a reply will be forthcoming within a reasonable period of time, but ordinarily not later than ninety (90) days, and shall, in fact, deliver such reply within such period. However, the First Level Reviewer may extend the reply period for an additional ninety (90) days for reasonable cause. If the reply period will be extended, the First Level Reviewer shall advise the Claimant in writing during the initial ninety (90) day period indicating the special circumstances requiring an extension and the date by which the First Level Reviewer expects to render the benefit determination.

If the claim is denied in whole or in part, the First Level Reviewer will render a written opinion, using language calculated to be understood by the Claimant, setting forth:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the denial;

(2) the specific references to pertinent provisions of the Agreement on which the denial is based;

(3) a description of any additional material or information necessary for the Claimant to perfect the claim and an explanation as to why such material or such information is necessary;

(4) appropriate information as to the steps to be taken if the Claimant wishes to submit the claim for review, including a statement of the Claimant's right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA following an adverse benefit determination on review; and

(5) the time limits for requesting a review of the denial under Section 14(c) hereof and for the actual review of the denial under Section 14(d) hereof.

d. Request for Review. Within sixty (60) days after the receipt by the Claimant of the written opinion described above, the Claimant may request in writing that the Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Second Level Reviewer") review the First Level Reviewer's prior determination. Such request must be addressed to the Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, at its then principal place of business. The Claimant or his or her duly authorized representative may submit written comments, documents, records or other information relating to the denied claim, which such information shall be considered in the review under this subsection without regard to whether such information was submitted or considered in the initial benefit determination.

The Claimant or his or her duly authorized representative shall be provided, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records and other information which (i) was relied upon by the First Level Reviewer in making its initial claims decision, (ii) was submitted, considered or generated in the course of the First Level Reviewer making its initial claims decision, without regard to whether such instrument was actually relied upon by the First Level Reviewer in making its decision or (iii) demonstrates compliance by the First Level Reviewer with its administrative processes and safeguards designed to ensure and to verify that benefit claims determinations are made in accordance with this Agreement and that, where appropriate, the provisions of this Agreement have been applied consistently with respect to similarly situated claimants. If the Claimant does not request a review of the First Level Reviewer's determination within such sixty (60) day period, he or she shall be barred and estopped from challenging such determination.

e. Review of Decision. Within a reasonable period of time, ordinarily not later than sixty (60) days, after the Second Level Reviewer's receipt of a request for review, it will review the First Level Reviewer's prior determination. If special circumstances require that the sixty (60) day time period be extended, the Second Level Reviewer will so notify the Claimant within the initial sixty (60) day period indicating the special circumstances requiring an extension and the date by which the Second Level Reviewer expects to render its decision on review, which shall be as soon as possible but not later than 120 days after receipt of the request for review. In the event that the Second Level Reviewer extends the determination period on review due to a Claimant's failure to submit information necessary to decide a claim, the period for making the benefit determination on review shall not take into account the period beginning on the date on which notification of extension is sent to the Claimant and ending on the date on which the Claimant responds to the request for additional information.

The Second Level Reviewer has discretionary authority to determine a Claimant's eligibility for benefits and to interpret the terms of this Agreement. Benefits under this Agreement will be paid only if the Second Level Reviewer decides in its discretion that the Claimant is entitled to such benefits. The decision of the Second Level Reviewer shall be final and non-reviewable, unless found to be arbitrary and capricious by a court of competent review. Such decision will be binding upon the Company and the Claimant.

If the Second Level Reviewer makes an adverse benefit determination on review, the Second Level Reviewer will render a written opinion, using language calculated to be understood by the Claimant, setting forth:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the denial;

(2) the specific references to pertinent provisions of the Agreement on which the denial is based;

(3) a statement that the Claimant is entitled to receive, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records and other information which (i) was relied upon by the Second Level Reviewer in making its decision, (ii) was submitted, considered or generated in the course of the Second Level Reviewer making its decision, without regard to whether such instrument was actually relied upon by the Second Level Reviewer in making its decision or (iii) demonstrates compliance by the Second Level Reviewer with its administrative processes and safeguards designed to ensure and to verify that benefit claims determinations are made in accordance with this Agreement, and that, where appropriate, the provisions of this Agreement have been applied consistently with respect to similarly situated claimants; and

(4) a statement of the Claimant's right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA following the adverse benefit determination on such review.

15. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended, altered or modified, except by a written instrument signed by the parties hereto, or their respective successors or assigns, and may not be otherwise terminated except as provided herein.

16. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and the Employee, his successors, assigns, and beneficiaries.

17. Notices. Any notice, consent or demand required or permitted to be given under the provisions of this Agreement shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the party giving or making the same. If such notice, consent or demand is mailed to a party hereto, it shall be sent by United States certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such party's last known address as shown on the records of the Company. The date of such mailing shall be deemed the date of notice, consent or demand.

18. Governing Law. This Agreement, and the rights of the parties hereunder, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement, in duplicate, as of the day and year first above written.

SPLIT-DOLLAR AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this 19th day of August, 2008, effective as of August, 2005, by and between OSI RESTAURANT PARTNERS, LLC (formerly known as OUTBACK STEAKHOUSE, INC.), with principal offices and place of business in the State of Florida (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") and RICHARD DANKER, TRUSTEE OF ROBERT D. BASHAM IRREVOCABLE TRUST AGREEMENT OF 1999 DATED DECEMBER 20, 1999 (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust"),

WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS, ROBERT D. BASHAM (the "Employee") is employed by the Company;

WHEREAS, the Trust entered into a split-dollar life insurance arrangement with the Company, effective as of November 7, 1999 (the "1999 Agreement") to govern the rights and obligations of the Trust and the Company with respect to life insurance policy number 58035001, insuring the life of the Employee, with a face amount of $12,399,785 as of January 31, 2008 (the "Policy"), issued by John Hancock Variable Life Insurance Company (the "Insurer");

WHEREAS, the Company had been paying all the premiums on the Policy as an additional employment benefit for the Employee;

WHEREAS, the Trust had collaterally assigned the Policy to the Company in order to secure the repayment of the premium payments made by the Company;

WHEREAS, because of the potential application of Section 402 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Act") to the 1999 Agreement, the Company suspended the payment of all premium advances due under the 1999 Agreement as of the effective date of the Act;

WHEREAS, in order to maintain a split-dollar life insurance arrangement for the Policy with the Company in light of the Act, the Trust has agreed to transfer ownership of the Policy to the Company and to enter into this Agreement, to convert the 1999 Agreement from a collateral assignment split-dollar arrangement to an endorsement split-dollar arrangement, and in order to have its income and gift tax consequences of the arrangement determined under traditional split-dollar economic benefit concepts, rather than imputed interest, the Trust has agreed that, on termination of the arrangement (as provided herein), the Company will be entitled to recover the greater of its premium advances or the Policy's cash value, ignoring surrender or other similar charges;

WHEREAS, the Policy has been reissued, as described herein, to the Trust as the owner of the Policy and the Trust has transferred ownership of the Policy to the Company;

WHEREAS, after the Policy was transferred to the Company, the Company released its collateral assignment of the Policy with the Insurer;

WHEREAS, the parties acknowledge that the Company is entitled to repayment of the amounts it has paid toward the premiums on the Policy under the 1999 Agreement prior to the transfer of the Policy to the Company;

WHEREAS, the Company shall hereafter be the owner of the Policy and, as such, will possess all incidents of ownership in and to the Policy, except as otherwise provided herein; and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to retain such ownership rights, in order to secure the repayment of the amount due it under the 1999 Agreement and hereunder;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual promises contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Purchase of Policy. The Trust had previously purchased the Policy from the Insurer; the Policy has been reissued in the total face amount of $12,399,785 (as of January 31, 2008) and Increasing Death Benefit Option (as such term is defined in the Policy). The parties hereto will take all necessary action to cause the Policy to conform to the provisions of this Agreement. The parties hereto agree that the Policy shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and of the endorsement to the Policy or beneficiary designation filed with the Insurer in accordance herewith.

2. Ownership of Policy. The Company shall be the sole and absolute owner of the Policy, and may exercise all ownership rights granted to the owner thereof by the terms of the Policy, except as may otherwise be provided herein.

3. Designation of Policy Beneficiary/Endorsement. The Company has executed a beneficiary designation for and/or an endorsement to the Policy, using the form required by the Insurer, naming itself as the beneficiary of the policy death proceeds in an amount equal to the greater of the total amount of the premiums paid by it hereunder (including all such premiums paid pursuant to the 1999 Agreement) or the cash value of the Policy (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions), and naming the Trust as the beneficiary of any balance of the policy death proceeds provided under the Policy.

4. Election of Settlement Option. The Trust may select the settlement option for payment of the death benefit provided under the Policy in excess of the amount due the Company hereunder, by specifying the same in a written notice to the Company. The Company shall promptly execute and deliver to the Insurer the forms necessary to elect the requested settlement option and to designate the Trust as the beneficiary to receive the death proceeds of the Policy in excess of the amount to which the Company is entitled hereunder. The parties hereto agree to take all action necessary to cause the beneficiary designation and settlement option provisions of the Policy to conform to the provisions hereof. The Company shall not terminate, alter or amend such designation or election without the express written consent of the Trust.

5. Payment of Premiums. On or before the due date of each Policy premium, or within the grace period provided therein, the Company shall pay the full amount of the annual premium on the Policy to the Insurer, and shall, upon request, promptly furnish the Trust evidence of timely payment of such premium. Subject to the acceptance of such amount by the Insurer, the Company may, in its discretion, at anytime and from time to time, make additional premium payments on the Policy. The Company shall annually furnish the Employee a statement of the amount of income reportable by the Employee for any Federal, state or local taxes, as applicable, as a result of the insurance protection provided the Trust as the Policy beneficiary.

6. Additional Payment to Employee. Upon the Employee reaching 65 years of age and while this Agreement is still in existence, the Company shall pay to the Employee, on or before March 15th of each year, as additional compensation, an amount equal to the estimated Federal, state and local taxes, as applicable, on the amount of income reportable by the Employee as a result of the insurance protection provided the Policy beneficiary or beneficiaries hereunder for the immediately preceding calendar year assuming the highest Federal, state and local tax, income tax bracket for a married individual or single individual as the case may be.

7. Limitations on Company's Rights in Policy. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof or of the Policy, the Company shall not sell, assign, transfer, surrender or cancel the Policy, change the beneficiary designation of the Policy, change the Death Benefit Option provision, or decrease the Face Amount of Insurance Death Benefit, without, in any such case, the express written consent of the Trust.

8. Policy Loans.

a. The Company may pledge or assign the Policy, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, for the sole purpose of securing a loan from the Insurer or from a third party. The amount of any such loan, including accumulated interest thereon, shall not exceed the lesser of (i) the cumulative amount of the premiums on the Policy paid by the Company hereunder (including all such premiums paid pursuant to the 1999 Agreement), less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company through a loan from or against or a withdrawal from the Policy permitted hereunder; or (ii) the cash surrender value of the Policy (as defined therein) as of the date to which premiums have been paid. Interest charges on such loan shall be paid by the Company. If the Company so encumbers the Policy, other than by a policy loan from the Insurer, then, upon the death of the Employee or upon the election of the Trust hereunder to purchase the Policy from the Company, the Company shall promptly repay such loan from the death proceeds of the Policy or the amount received from the Employee for the purchase of the Policy, as the case may be, and thereafter shall promptly take all action necessary to secure the release or discharge of such encumbrance.

b. The Company may make withdrawals from the Policy, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, The amount of any such withdrawal shall not exceed the lesser of: (i) the cumulative amount of the premiums on the Policy paid by the Company hereunder (including all such premiums paid pursuant to the 1999 Agreement), less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company through a loan from or against or a withdrawal from the Policy permitted hereunder; or (ii) the cash surrender value of the Policy (as defined therein) as of the date to which premiums have been paid, and shall reduce the amount to which the Company would otherwise be entitled hereunder.

9. Collection of Death Proceeds.

a. Upon the death of the Employee, the Company shall cooperate with the Trust to take whatever action is necessary to collect the death benefit provided under the Policy; when such benefit has been collected and paid as provided herein, this Agreement shall thereupon terminate.

b. Upon the death of the Employee, the Company shall have the unqualified right to receive a portion of such death benefit equal to the greater of: (1) the total amount of the premiums paid by it hereunder (including all such premiums paid pursuant to the 1999 Agreement) reduced by any indebtedness against the Policy incurred by the Company hereunder existing at the death of the Employee, including any interest due on such indebtedness, or any withdrawals made by the Company from the Policy; (2) or the cash value of the Policy, net of any loans from the Insurer or withdrawals permitted hereunder (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions) immediately before the death of the Employee. The balance of the death benefit provided under the Policy, if any, shall be paid directly to the Trust, in the manner and in the amount or amounts provided in the beneficiary designation provision of the Policy. In no event shall the amount payable to the Company hereunder exceed the death proceeds payable under the Policy at the death of the Employee. No amount shall be paid from such death benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the Company at the direction of the Trust, until the full amount due the Company hereunder has been paid. The parties hereto agree that the beneficiary designation provision of the Policy shall conform to the provisions hereof.

c. Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, in the event that, for any reason whatsoever, no death benefit is payable under the Policy upon the death of the Employee and in lieu thereof the Insurer refunds all or any part of the premiums paid for the Policy, the Company and the Trust shall have the unqualified right to share such premiums based on their respective cumulative contributions thereto.

10. Termination of the Agreement During the Employee's Lifetime.

a. This Agreement shall terminate, during the Employee's lifetime, without notice, upon bankruptcy, receivership or dissolution of the Company.

b. In addition, either party may terminate this Agreement while no premium under the Policy is overdue, by written notice to the other party, provided that the Company shall have no power to terminate this Agreement. Such termination shall be effective as of the date of such notice.

11. Disposition of the Policy on Termination of the Agreement during the Employee's Lifetime .

a. For sixty (60) days after the date of the termination of this Agreement during the Employee's lifetime, the Trust shall have the assignable option to purchase the Policy from the Company. The purchase price for the Policy shall be (i) the cumulative amount of the premium payments made by the Company hereunder, less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company as a result of a loan from or against or a withdrawal from the Policy permitted hereunder, or (ii) the then cash value of the Policy, net of any loans from the Insurer or withdrawals (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions), less any indebtedness incurred by the Company secured by the Policy which remains outstanding as of the date of such termination, including any interest due on such indebtedness, or any withdrawals made by the Company from the Policy. In no event shall the amount payable to the Company hereunder exceed the death proceeds payable under the Policy at the death of the Employee. Upon receipt of such amount, the Company shall transfer all of its right, title and interest in and to the Policy to the Trust or its assignee, by the execution and delivery of an appropriate instrument of transfer.

b. If the Trust or its assignee fails to exercise such option within such sixty (60) day period, then, the Company may enforce its right to be repaid the amount due it hereunder by surrendering or canceling the Policy for its cash surrender value, or it may change the beneficiary designation provisions of the Policy, naming itself or any other person or entity as revocable beneficiary thereof, or exercise any other ownership rights in and to the Policy, without regard to the provisions hereof. Thereafter, neither the Trust nor its assigns or beneficiaries shall have any further interest in and to the Policy, either under the terms thereof or under this Agreement.

12. Insurer Not a Party. The Insurer shall be fully discharged from its obligations under the Policy by payment of the Policy death benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries named in the Policy, subject to the terms and conditions of the Policy. In no event shall the Insurer be considered a party to this Agreement, or any modification or amendment hereof. No provision of this Agreement, nor of any modification or amendment hereof, shall in any way be construed as enlarging, changing, varying, or in any other way affecting the obligations of the Insurer as expressly provided in the Policy, except insofar as the provisions hereof are made a part of the Policy by the beneficiary designation executed by the Company and filed with the Insurer in connection herewith.

13. Named Fiduciary, Determination of Benefits, Claims Procedure and Administration .

a. Named Fiduciary. The Company is hereby designated as the named fiduciary under this Agreement. The named fiduciary shall have authority to control and manage the operation and administration of this Agreement, and it shall be responsible for establishing and carrying out a funding policy and method consistent with the objectives of this Agreement.

b. Claim. A person who believes that he or she is being denied a benefit to which he or she is entitled (hereinafter referred to as "Claimant"), or his or her duly authorized representative, may file a written request for such benefit with the Chief Legal Officer of the Company (the "First Level Reviewer") setting forth his or her claim. Such claim must be addressed to the Chief Legal Officer of the Company, at its then principal place of business.

c. Claim Decision. Upon receipt of a claim, the First Level Reviewer shall advise the Claimant that a reply will be forthcoming within a reasonable period of time, but ordinarily not later than ninety (90) days, and shall, in fact, deliver such reply within such period. However, the First Level Reviewer may extend the reply period for an additional ninety (90) days for reasonable cause. If the reply period will be extended, the First Level Reviewer shall advise the Claimant in writing during the initial ninety (90) day period indicating the special circumstances requiring an extension and the date by which the First Level Reviewer expects to render the benefit determination. If the claim is denied in whole or in part, the First Level Reviewer will render a written opinion, using language calculated to be understood by the Claimant, setting forth:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the denial;

(2) the specific references to pertinent provisions of the Agreement on which the denial is based;

(3) a description of any additional material or information necessary for the Claimant to perfect the claim and an explanation as to why such material or such information is necessary;

(4) appropriate information as to the steps to be taken if the Claimant wishes to submit the claim for review, including a statement of the Claimant's right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA following an adverse benefit determination on review; and

(5) the time limits for requesting a review of the denial under Section 13(c) hereof and for the actual review of the denial under Section 13(d) hereof.

d. Request for Review. Within sixty (60) days after the receipt by the Claimant of the written opinion described above, the Claimant may request in writing that the Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Second Level Reviewer") review the First Level Reviewer's prior determination. Such request must be addressed to the Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, at its then principal place of business. The Claimant or his or her duly authorized representative may submit written comments, documents, records or other information relating to the denied claim, which such information shall be considered in the review under this subsection without regard to whether such information was submitted or considered in the initial benefit determination.

The Claimant or his or her duly authorized representative shall be provided, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records and other information which (i) was relied upon by the First Level Reviewer in making its initial claims decision, (ii) was submitted, considered or generated in the course of the First Level Reviewer making its initial claims decision, without regard to whether such instrument was actually relied upon by the First Level Reviewer in making its decision or (iii) demonstrates compliance by the First Level Reviewer with its administrative processes and safeguards designed to ensure and to verify that benefit claims determinations are made in accordance with this Agreement and that, where appropriate, the provisions of this Agreement have been applied consistently with respect to similarly situated claimants. If the Claimant does not request a review of the First Level Reviewer's determination within such sixty (60) day period, he or she shall be barred and estopped from challenging such determination.

e. Review of Decision. Within a reasonable period of time, ordinarily not later than sixty (60) days, after the Second Level Reviewer's receipt of a request for review, it will review the First Level Reviewer's prior determination. If special circumstances require that the sixty (60) day time period be extended, the Second Level Reviewer will so notify the Claimant within the initial sixty (60) day period indicating the special circumstances requiring an extension and the date by which the Second Level Reviewer expects to render its decision on review, which shall be as soon as possible but not later than 120 days after receipt of the request for review. In the event that the Second Level Reviewer extends the determination period on review due to a Claimant's failure to submit information necessary to decide a claim, the period for making the benefit determination on review shall not take into account the period beginning on the date on which notification of extension is sent to the Claimant and ending on the date on which the Claimant responds to the request for additional information.

The Second Level Reviewer has discretionary authority to determine a Claimant's eligibility for benefits and to interpret the terms of this Agreement. Benefits under this Agreement will be paid only if the Second Level Reviewer decides in its discretion that the Claimant is entitled to such benefits. The decision of the Second Level Reviewer shall be final and non-reviewable, unless found to be arbitrary and capricious by a court of competent review. Such decision will be binding upon the Company and the Claimant.

If the Second Level Reviewer makes an adverse benefit determination on review, the Second Level Reviewer will render a written opinion, using language calculated to be understood by the Claimant, setting forth:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the denial;

(2) the specific references to pertinent provisions of the Agreement on which the denial is based;

(3) a statement that the Claimant is entitled to receive, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records and other information which (i) was relied upon by the Second Level Reviewer in making its decision, (ii) was submitted, considered or generated in the course of the Second Level Reviewer making its decision, without regard to whether such instrument was actually relied upon by the Second Level Reviewer in making its decision or (iii) demonstrates compliance by the Second Level Reviewer with its administrative processes and safeguards designed to ensure and to verify that benefit claims determinations are made in accordance with this Agreement, and that, where appropriate, the provisions of this Agreement have been applied consistently with respect to similarly situated claimants; and

(4) a statement of the Claimant's right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA following the adverse benefit determination on such review.

14. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended, altered or modified, except by a written instrument signed by the parties hereto, or their respective successors or assigns, and may not be otherwise terminated except as provided herein.

15. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and the Trust, its successors, assigns, administrators and beneficiaries.

16. Notices. Any notice, consent or demand required or permitted to be given under the provisions of this Agreement shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the party giving or making the same. If such notice, consent or demand is mailed to a party hereto, it shall be sent by United States certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such party's last known address as shown on the records of the Company. The date of such mailing shall be deemed the date of notice, consent or demand.

17. Governing Law. This Agreement, and the rights of the parties hereunder, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

SPLIT DOLLAR AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this 18th day of December, 2008, effective as of August 18, 2005, by and between OSI RESTAURANT PARTNERS, LLC (formerly known as OUTBACK STEAKHOUSE, INC.), with principal offices and place of business in the State of Florida (hereinafter referred to as the "Company"), SHAMROCK PTC, LLC, TRUSTEE OF THE CHRIS SULLIVAN 2008 INSURANCE TRUST DATED JULY 17, 2008 (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust"), and WILLIAM T. SULLIVAN, TRUSTEE OF THE CHRIS SULLIVAN NON-EXEMPT IRREVOCABLE TRUST DATED JANUARY 5, 2000 and THE CHRIS SULLIVAN EXEMPT IRREVOCABLE TRUST DATED JANUARY 5, 2000 (collectively the "Prior Trusts").

WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS, Chris T. Sullivan (the "Employee") is employed by the Company;

WHEREAS, the Prior Trusts entered into a split-dollar life insurance arrangement with the Company, effective as of November 7, 1999 (the "1999 Agreement") to govern the rights and obligations of the Trust and the Company with respect to life insurance policy numbers 58050001 and 58051001, each insuring the life of the Employee, each with face amounts of $6,219,128 as of January 31, 2008 (individually a "Policy" and collectively the "Policies"), both issued by John Hancock Variable Life Insurance Company (the "Insurer");

WHEREAS, the Company had been paying all the premiums on the Policies as an additional employment benefit for the Employee;

WHEREAS, the Prior Trusts had collaterally assigned the Policies to the Company in order to secure the repayment of the premium payments made by the Company;

WHEREAS, because of the potential application of Section 402 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Act") to the 1999 Agreement, the Company suspended the payment of all premium advances due under the 1999 Agreement as of the effective date of the Act;

WHEREAS, in order to maintain a split-dollar life insurance arrangement for the Policies with the Company in light of the Act, the Prior Trusts agreed to transfer ownership of the Policies to the Company and to enter into this Agreement, to convert the 1999 Agreement from a collateral assignment split-dollar arrangement to an endorsement split-dollar arrangement, and in order to have the income and gift tax consequences of the arrangement determined under traditional split-dollar economic benefit concepts, rather than imputed interest, the Prior Trusts agreed that, on termination of the arrangement (as provided herein), the Company will be entitled to recover the greater of its premium advances or the Policies' respective cash values, ignoring surrender or other similar charges;

WHEREAS, the Policies have been reissued, as described herein, to the Company as the owner of each;

WHEREAS, after the Policies were transferred to the Company, the Company released its collateral assignments of each of the Policies with the Insurer and the Company designated the Prior Trusts as the beneficiary of the Policies to the extent of any proceeds remaining after repayment of the amount due the Company;

WHEREAS, due to the pending termination of the Prior Trusts, the Trustee of the Prior Trusts has agreed to substitute the Trust as a party to this Agreement, in place of the Prior Trusts;

WHEREAS, the parties acknowledge that the Company is entitled to repayment of the amounts it has paid toward the premiums on each of the Policies under the 1999 Agreement prior to the transfer of the Policies to the Company;

WHEREAS, the Company is the owner of each of the Policies and, as such, possesses all incidents of ownership in and to the Policies, except as otherwise provided herein; and

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to retain such ownership rights, in order to secure the repayment of the amount due it under the 1999 Agreement and hereunder;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual promises contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Purchase of Policies. The Trust had previously purchased the Policies from the Insurer; the Policies have been reissued to the Company as the owner, each with face amounts of $6,219,128 (as of January 31, 2008) and Increasing Death Benefit Option (as such term is defined in the Policies). The parties hereto will take all necessary action to cause both of the Policies to conform to the provisions of this Agreement. The parties hereto agree that the Policies shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and of the endorsement to each of the Policies or beneficiary designation filed with the Insurer in accordance herewith.

2. Ownership of Policies. The Company shall be the sole and absolute owner of both of the Policies, and may exercise all ownership rights granted to the owner thereof by the terms of each of the Policies, except as may otherwise be provided herein.

3. Designation of Policies Beneficiary/Endorsement. The Company has executed a beneficiary designation for and/or an endorsement to each of the Policies, using the form required by the Insurer, naming itself as the beneficiary of the policy death proceeds in an amount equal to the greater of the total amount of the premiums paid by it hereunder (including all such premiums paid pursuant to the 1999 Agreement) or the cash value of each of the Policies (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions), and naming the Trust as the beneficiary of any balance of the policy death proceeds provided under each of the Policies.

4. Election of Settlement Option. The Trust may select the settlement option for payment of the death benefit provided under each of the Policies in excess of the amount due the Company hereunder, by specifying the same in a written notice to the Company. The Company shall promptly execute and deliver to the Insurer the forms necessary to elect the requested settlement option and to designate the Trust as the beneficiary to receive the death proceeds of each of the Policies in excess of the amount to which the Company is entitled hereunder. The parties hereto agree to take all action necessary to cause the beneficiary designation and settlement option provisions of the Policies to conform to the provisions hereof. The Company shall not terminate, alter or amend such designation or election without the express written consent of the Trust.

5. Payment of Premiums. On or before the due date of each Policy premium, or within the grace period provided therein, the Company shall pay the full amount of the annual premium on each of the Policies to the Insurer, and shall, upon request, promptly furnish the Trust evidence of timely payment of such premium. Subject to the acceptance of such amount by the Insurer, the Company may, in its discretion, at anytime and from time to time, make additional premium payments on each of the Policies. The Company shall annually furnish the Employee a statement of the amount of income reportable by the Employee for any Federal, state or local taxes, as applicable, as a result of the insurance protection provided the Trust as the Policies' beneficiary.

6. Additional Payment to Employee. Upon the Employee reaching 65 years of age and while this Agreement is still in existence, the Company shall pay to the Employee, on or before March 15th of each year, as additional compensation, an amount equal to the estimated Federal, state and local taxes, as applicable, on the amount of income reportable by the Employee as a result of the insurance protection provided the Policy beneficiary or beneficiaries hereunder for the immediately preceding calendar year assuming the highest Federal, state and local tax, income tax bracket for a married individual or single individual as the case may be.

7. Limitations on Company's Rights in Policies. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof or either of the Policies, the Company shall not sell, assign, transfer, surrender or cancel either of the Policies, change the beneficiary designation of either of the Policies, change the Death Benefit Option provision, or decrease the Face Amount of Insurance Death Benefit, without, in any such case, the express written consent of the Trust.

8. Policy Loans.

a. The Company may pledge or assign either of the Policies, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, for the sole purpose of securing a loan from the Insurer or from a third party. The amount of any such loan, including accumulated interest thereon, shall not exceed the lesser of (i) the cumulative amount of the premiums on such Policy paid by the Company hereunder (including all such premiums paid pursuant to the 1999 Agreement), less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company through a loan from or against or a withdrawal from such Policy permitted hereunder; or (ii) the cash surrender value of such Policy (as defined therein) as of the date to which premiums have been paid. Interest charges on such loan shall be paid by the Company. If the Company so encumbers a Policy, other than by a policy loan from the Insurer, then, upon the death of the Employee or upon the election of the Trust hereunder to purchase such Policy from the Company, the Company shall promptly repay such loan from the death proceeds of such Policy or the amount received from the Employee for the purchase of such Policy, as the case may be, and thereafter shall promptly take all action necessary to secure the release or discharge of such encumbrance.

b. The Company may make withdrawals from a Policy, subject to the terms and conditions hereof. The amount of any such withdrawal shall not exceed the lesser of: (i) cumulative amount of the premiums on such Policy paid by the Company hereunder (including all such premiums paid pursuant to the 1999 Agreement), less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company through a loan from or against a withdrawal from such Policy permitted hereunder; or (ii) the cash surrender value of such Policy (as defined therein) as of the date to which premiums have been paid, and shall reduce the amount to which the Company would otherwise be entitled hereunder.

9. Collection of Death Proceeds.

a. Upon the death of the Employee, the Company shall cooperate with the Trust to take whatever action is necessary to collect the death benefit provided under the Policies; when such benefit has been collected and paid as provided herein, this Agreement shall thereupon terminate.

b. Upon the death of the Employee, the Company shall have the unqualified right to receive a portion of such death benefit equal to the greater of: (1) the total amount of the premiums paid by it hereunder (including all such premiums paid pursuant to the 1999 Agreement) reduced by any indebtedness against either of the Policies incurred by the Company hereunder existing at the death of the Employee, including any interest due on such indebtedness, or any withdrawals made by the Company from either of the Policies; (2) or the cash value of the Policies, net of any loans from the Insurer or withdrawals permitted hereunder (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions) immediately before the death of the Employee. The balance of the death benefit provided under the Policies, if any, shall be paid directly to the Trust, in the manner and in the amount or amounts provided in the beneficiary designation provision of each of the Policies. In no event shall the amount payable to the Company hereunder exceed the death proceeds payable under the Policies at the death of the Employee. No amount shall be paid from such death benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the Company at the direction of the Trust, until the full amount due the Company hereunder has been paid. The parties hereto agree that the beneficiary designation provision of each of the Policies shall conform to the provisions hereof.

c. Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, in the event that, for any reason whatsoever, no death benefit is payable under either of the Policies upon the death of the Employee and in lieu thereof the Insurer refunds all or any part of the premiums paid for either of the Policies, the Company and the Trust shall have the unqualified right to share such premiums based on their respective cumulative contributions thereto.

10. Termination of the Agreement During the Employee's Lifetime.

a. This Agreement shall terminate, during the Employee's lifetime, without notice, upon bankruptcy, receivership or dissolution of the Company.

b. In addition, either party may terminate this Agreement while no premium under either Policy is overdue, by written notice to the other party, provided that the Company shall have no power to terminate this Agreement. Such termination shall be effective as of the date of such notice.

11. Disposition of the Policies on Termination of the Agreement During the Employee's Lifetime.

a. For sixty (60) days after the date of the termination of this Agreement during the Employee's lifetime, the Trust shall have the assignable option to purchase the Policies from the Company. The purchase price for the Policies shall be (i) the total amount of the premium payments made by the Company hereunder (including all such premiums paid pursuant to the 1999 Agreement), less any portion thereof previously recovered by the Company as a result of a loan from or against or a withdrawal from the Policy permitted hereunder, or (ii) the then cash value of the Policies, net of any loans from the Insurer or withdrawals (excluding surrender charges or other similar charges or reductions), less any indebtedness incurred by the Company secured by either Policy which remains outstanding as of the date of such termination, including any interest due on such indebtedness, or any withdrawals made by the Company from either Policy. In no event shall the amount payable to the Company hereunder exceed the death proceeds available under the Policy at the death of the Employee. Upon receipt of such amount, the Company shall transfer all of its right, title and interest in and to the Policies to the Trust or its assignee, by the execution and delivery of an appropriate instrument of transfer.

b. If the Trust or its assignee fails to exercise such option within such sixty (60) day period, then, the Company may enforce its right to be repaid the amount due it hereunder by surrendering or canceling the Policies for its cash surrender value, or it may change the beneficiary designation provisions of the Policies, naming itself or any other person or entity as revocable beneficiary thereof, or exercise any other ownership rights in and to the Policies, without regard to the provisions hereof. Thereafter, neither the Trust nor its assigns or beneficiaries shall have any further interest in and to either of the Policies, either under the terms thereof or under this Agreement.

12. Insurer Not a Party. The Insurer shall be fully discharged from its obligations under the Policies by payment of the death benefits of the Policies to the beneficiary or beneficiaries named in the Policies, subject to the terms and conditions of each of the Policies. In no event shall the Insurer be considered a party to this Agreement, or any modification or amendment hereof. No provision of this Agreement, nor of any modification or amendment hereof, shall in any way be construed as enlarging, changing, varying, or in any other way affecting the obligations of the Insurer as expressly provided in the Policies, except insofar as the provisions hereof are made a part of each of the Policies by the beneficiary designation executed by the Company and filed with the Insurer in connection herewith.

13. Named Fiduciary, Determination of Benefits, Claims Procedure and Administration .

a. Named Fiduciary. The Company is hereby designated as the named fiduciary under this Agreement. The named fiduciary shall have authority to control and manage the operation and administration of this Agreement, and it shall be responsible for establishing and carrying out a funding policy and method consistent with the objectives of this Agreement.

b. Claim. A person who believes that he or she is being denied a benefit to which he or she is entitled (hereinafter referred to as "Claimant"), or his or her duly authorized representative, may file a written request for such benefit with the Chief Legal Officer of the Company (the "First Level Reviewer") setting forth his or her claim. Such claim must be addressed to the Chief Legal Officer of the Company, at its then principal place of business.

c. Claim Decision. Upon receipt of a claim, the First Level Reviewer shall advise the Claimant that a reply will be forthcoming within a reasonable period of time, but ordinarily not later than ninety (90) days, and shall, in fact, deliver such reply within such period. However, the First Level Reviewer may extend the reply period for an additional ninety (90) days for reasonable cause. If the reply period will be extended, the First Level Reviewer shall advise the Claimant in writing during the initial ninety (90) day period indicating the special circumstances requiring an extension and the date by which the First Level Reviewer expects to render the benefit determination.

If the claim is denied in whole or in part, the First Level Reviewer will render a written opinion, using language calculated to be understood by the Claimant, setting forth:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the denial;

(2) the specific references to pertinent provisions of the Agreement on which the denial is based;

(3) a description of any additional material or information necessary for the Claimant to perfect the claim and an explanation as to why such material or such information is necessary;

(4) appropriate information as to the steps to be taken if the Claimant wishes to submit the claim for review, including a statement of the Claimant's right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA following an adverse benefit determination on review; and

(5) the time limits for requesting a review of the denial under Section 13(c) hereof and for the actual review of the denial under Section 13(d) hereof.

d. Request for Review. Within sixty (60) days after the receipt by the Claimant of the written opinion described above, the Claimant may request in writing that the Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Second Level Reviewer") review the First Level Reviewer's prior determination. Such request must be addressed to the Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, at its then principal place of business. The Claimant or his or her duly authorized representative may submit written comments, documents, records or other information relating to the denied claim, which such information shall be considered in the review under this subsection without regard to whether such information was submitted or considered in the initial benefit determination.

The Claimant or his or her duly authorized representative shall be provided, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records and other information which (i) was relied upon by the First Level Reviewer in making its initial claims decision, (ii) was submitted, considered or generated in the course of the First Level Reviewer making its initial claims decision, without regard to whether such instrument was actually relied upon by the First Level Reviewer in making its decision or (iii) demonstrates compliance by the First Level Reviewer with its administrative processes and safeguards designed to ensure and to verify that benefit claims determinations are made in accordance with this Agreement and that, where appropriate, the provisions of this Agreement have been applied consistently with respect to similarly situated claimants. If the Claimant does not request a review of the First Level Reviewer's determination within such sixty (60) day period, he or she shall be barred and estopped from challenging such determination.

e. Review of Decision. Within a reasonable period of time, ordinarily not later than sixty (60) days, after the Second Level Reviewer's receipt of a request for review, it will review the First Level Reviewer's prior determination. If special circumstances require that the sixty (60) day time period be extended, the Second Level Reviewer will so notify the Claimant within the initial sixty (60) day period indicating the special circumstances requiring an extension and the date by which the Second Level Reviewer expects to render its decision on review, which shall be as soon as possible but not later than 120 days after receipt of the request for review. In the event that the Second Level Reviewer extends the determination period on review due to a Claimant's failure to submit information necessary to decide a claim, the period for making the benefit determination on review shall not take into account the period beginning on the date on which notification of extension is sent to the Claimant and ending on the date on which the Claimant responds to the request for additional information.

The Second Level Reviewer has discretionary authority to determine a Claimant's eligibility for benefits and to interpret the terms of this Agreement. Benefits under this Agreement will be paid only if the Second Level Reviewer decides in its discretion that the Claimant is entitled to such benefits. The decision of the Second Level Reviewer shall be final and non reviewable, unless found to be arbitrary and capricious by a court of competent review. Such decision will be binding upon the Company and the Claimant.

If the Second Level Reviewer makes an adverse benefit determination on review, the Second Level Reviewer will render a written opinion, using language calculated to be understood by the Claimant, setting forth:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the denial;

(2) the specific references to pertinent provisions of the Agreement on which the denial is based;

(3) a statement that the Claimant is entitled to receive, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records and other information which (i) was relied upon by the Second Level Reviewer in making its decision, (ii) was submitted, considered or generated in the course of the Second Level Reviewer making its decision, without regard to whether such instrument was actually relied upon by the Second Level Reviewer in making its decision or (iii) demonstrates compliance by the Second Level Reviewer with its administrative processes and safeguards designed to ensure and to verify that benefit claims determinations are made in accordance with this Agreement, and that, where appropriate, the provisions of this Agreement have been applied consistently with respect to similarly situated claimants; and

(4) a statement of the Claimant's right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA following the adverse benefit determination on such review.

14. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended, altered or modified, except by a written instrument signed by the parties hereto, or their respective successors or assigns, and may not be otherwise terminated except as provided herein.

15. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns, and the Trust, its successors, assigns, administrators and beneficiaries.

16. Notices. Any notice, consent or demand required or permitted to be given under the provisions of this Agreement shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the party giving or making the same. If such notice, consent or demand is mailed to a party hereto, it shall be sent by United States certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such party's last known address as shown on the records of the Company. The date of such mailing shall be deemed the date of notice, consent or demand.

17. Governing Law. This Agreement, and the rights of the parties hereunder, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement, in duplicate, as of the day and year first above written.
